NOTE.—EASTER DAY (on which all the other movable feasts depend) is always the First Sunday after the Full Moon which happens upon or next after the Twenty-first Day of March; and if the Full Moon happens upon a Sunday, Easter Day is the Sunday after.

Advent Sunday is always the nearest Sunday to the Feast of St. Andrew, whether before or after.

The Calendar as at present used was reformed, in the year of our Lord 1582, by Pope Gregory XIII., who ordered the Historical or Civil year to be thenceforward reckoned from the first day of January. It was not adopted by English-speaking people until January 1, 1753. The Ecclesiastical year still begins on the First Sunday in Advent.

A Rule

FOR FINDING EASTER OF ANY YEAR IN THIS CENTURY OR THE NEXT.

- 1st. Divide the date of the year by 19, and call the remainder a ;
- 2d. Divide the date of the year by 4, and call the remainder b ;
- 3d. Divide the date of the year by 7, and call the remainder c ;
- 4th. Divide $19a + \left\{ \begin{array}{l} 23 \text{ [for this Century]} \\ 24 \text{ [for next Century]} \end{array} \right\}$ by 30, and call the remainder d ;

On Fasting and Abstinence.

OUR Holy Mother, the Catholic Church, does not leave her children without guidance, and to their own devices, in this important matter ; she tells them not only when but how to fast and abstain, and the rules she has established are those inspired by her heavenly wisdom, and shaped and fashioned by centuries of practical experience. Every Catholic is bound to keep these mild and gentle rules first of all before any other form of bodily mortification can be worthily undertaken. If these are wilfully neglected, no amount of self-imposed austerity can ever make up the loss, or atone for the disobedience.

The Law of ABSTINENCE affects only the kind of food, and has no reference to its quantity. On Abstinence days the faithful are obliged to abstain from flesh-meat only ; the number of meals and the amount of food may be the same as on other days.

The Law of FASTING includes that of Abstinence, and adds special requirements of its own ; it affects both the kind and the quantity of food. On Fasting-days, besides the obligation of abstaining from flesh-meat, the number and quantity of meals are restricted. Only one Full Meal is allowed, to be taken about noon or later. Besides this full meal a collation of eight ounces is allowed. If the full meal is taken about the middle of the day, the collation will naturally be taken in the evening ; if the full meal is taken late in the day, the collation may be taken about noon. Besides the full meal and collation, general custom has made it lawful to take about two ounces of bread (without butter) and a cup of some warm liquid—as coffee or tea—in the morning. This is important to observe, for by means of this many persons are enabled—and therefore obliged—to keep the fast who could not otherwise do so.

It should be borne in mind that these practices of Fasting and Abstinence are not merely penitential works of counsel, recommended to our observance, but acts of mortification of precept, enjoined by laws binding strictly on the conscience ; and therefore not to be evaded or omitted without Mortal Sin. Various reasons, however, may exist for excuse or dispensation from these laws (especially from the law of fasting), which are commonly noted in the published “Regulations for Lent” in every Diocese. But as to abstinence, legitimate excuses are very few ; and generally no one can proceed safely in excusing himself from abstinence before consulting his confessor.

Brief Statement of Christian Doctrine.

The Ten Commandments of God.—Exodus xx.

AM the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt not have strange gods before Me. Thou shalt not make to thyself a graven thing, nor the likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not adore them, nor serve them.

2. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain.

3. Remember thou keep holy the Sabbath-day.
4. Honor thy father and thy mother.
5. Thou shalt not kill.
6. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
7. Thou shalt not steal.
8. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
9. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife.
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods.

The Six Commandments of the Church.

1. To hear Mass on Sundays, and Holydays of Obligation.
2. To fast and abstain on the days appointed.
3. To confess at least once a year.
4. To receive the Holy Eucharist during the Easter time.
5. To contribute to the support of our Pastors.
6. Not to marry persons who are not Catholics, or who are related to us within the fourth degree of kindred, nor privately without witnesses, nor to solemnize marriage at forbidden times.

Lay Baptism.

PROVIDED an infant is in danger of dying before a Priest can be procured, any other person, whether man, woman, or child, may baptize it in the following manner:

While pouring common water on the head or face of the infant, pronounce the words:

I BAPTIZE THEE IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, AND OF THE HOLY GHOST.

A Summary of Christian Faith and Practice.

I. WHAT EVERY CHRISTIAN MUST BELIEVE.

VERY Christian must believe that there is one God, and no more than one God : that God is a pure Spirit, the Lord and Maker of heaven and earth, who has neither beginning nor end, but is always the same ; who is everywhere present ; knows and sees all things ; can do all things whatsoever He pleases ; and is infinite in all perfections.

2. Every Christian is bound to believe that in one God there are three distinct Persons, perfectly equal, of the same substance, and having the same nature : the Father, who proceeds from no one ; the Son, who is born of the Father before all ages ; and the Holy Ghost, who proceeds eternally from the Father and the Son as from one principle ; and that the three Persons are all equally eternal, equal in wisdom and power, and are all three one and the same Lord, one and the same God.

3. We must believe that God created the angels to be with Him for ever, and that one part of them fell from God by sin, and became devils. That God also created Adam and Eve, the first parents of all mankind, and placed them in the earthly Paradise, from whence they were justly banished for the sin they committed in eating of the fruit of the forbidden tree ; and that by this transgression of Adam we are all conceived and born in sin, and must have been lost for ever, if God had not sent us a Saviour.

4. We are bound to believe in the Saviour of all mankind, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, true God and true man ; perfect God from all eternity, equal to His Father in all things ; and perfect man, from the time of His coming down from heaven for us, having a body and soul like ours.

5. We must believe that Jesus Christ, our Saviour, who had been long foretold by the prophets, was, at God's appointed time, by the power of the Holy Ghost, without having any man for His father, conceived in the womb of the Virgin Mary ; whom God had prepared for this wonderful Maternity in a wonderful manner : in that by a singular grace and privilege, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ, she was in the first instant of her conception preserved free from every taint of original sin. Of her, who is Blessed among Women for evermore, was born our Lord—she still remaining a pure virgin. During the time of His mortal life Jesus Christ founded the Christian religion ; and then offered Himself a Sacrifice for the sins of the whole world, by dying upon a cross, to obtain mercy, grace, and salvation for us ; and that neither mercy, nor grace, nor salvation can, or ever could, since Adam's fall, be obtained except through the mediation of the Son of God.

6. We must believe that Jesus Christ, after He died and was buried, arose on the third day from death to life, never to die again ; and that, for the space of forty days, He was pleased, at different times, to manifest Himself to His disciples, and then ascended into heaven in their sight ; where, as God-man, He continually intercedes for us. Thence He sent down the Holy Ghost upon His disciples, to abide with them for ever, as He had promised, and to guide them and their successors into all truth.

7. We must believe the Catholic or Universal Church of Christ, of which He is the perpetual Head, and His Spirit the perpetual Guide ; which is founded upon a rock, and is ever victorious over all the powers of earth and hell. The Church is always One, in all its members professing one faith, in one communion, under one chief pastor, called the Pope, succeeding St. Peter, to whom Christ committed His whole flock. The Church is always Holy, in teaching a holy doctrine, in inviting all to a holy life, and in the eminent holiness of many of its children. It is Catholic, or Universal, for it subsists in all ages, and teaches all nations, and maintains all truth. It is Apostolic, for it derives its doctrine, its communion, its orders, and its mission, by an uninterrupted succession, from the Apostles of Christ.

8. With the Catholic Church the Scriptures, both of the Old and New Testaments, were deposited by the Apostles. It is the guardian and interpreter of them, and the judge of all controversies relating to them. The Scriptures, thus interpreted, together with the traditions of the Apostles, are to be received and admitted by all Christians for the rule of their faith and practice.

9. We must believe that when the Pope speaks "ex cathedra"—i.e., when, in discharge of his office of Pastor and Teacher of all Christians, he defines, in virtue of his supreme Apostolic authority, a doctrine of faith or morals to be held by the universal Church—he is endowed, by the Divine assistance promised to him in Blessed Peter, with that Infallibility with which the Divine Redeemer willed that His Church should be furnished, in defining doctrine of faith or morals. And therefore such definitions of the Pope are irreformable of themselves, and not in virtue of the consent of the Church.

10. We must believe that Jesus Christ has instituted in His Church seven Sacraments, or mysterious signs and instrumental causes of Divine Grace in our souls: BAPTISM, by way of a new birth, by which we are made children of God, and cleansed from sin; CONFIRMATION, by which we receive the Holy Ghost, by the imposition of the hands of the successors of the Apostles: the blessed EUCCHARIST, which feeds and nourishes our souls with the Body and Blood of Christ, really present under the forms of bread and wine, or under either of them; PENANCE, by which penitent sinners are absolved from their sins, by virtue of the commission given by Christ to His ministers; EXTREME UNCTION, which wipes away the remains of sin, and arms the soul with the grace of God in the time of sickness; HOLY ORDERS, by which the ministers of God are consecrated; and MATRIMONY, which, as a sacred sign of the indissoluble union of Christ and His Church, unites the married couple in a holy bond, and imparts to them a grace suitable to that state.

11. We must believe that Jesus Christ has also instituted the great Eucharistic Sacrifice of His Body and Blood in remembrance of His Passion and Death. In this Sacrifice, called the MASS, He is mystically immolated every day upon our altars, being Himself both Priest and Victim. This Sacrifice is the principal worship of the New Law, in which, and by which, we unite ourselves to Jesus Christ; and with Him and through Him we adore God in spirit and truth; give Him thanks for all His blessings; obtain His grace for ourselves and the whole world, and pardon for all our sins; and pray for the living and the dead.

12. We must believe that there is, in the Catholic or Universal Church of God, a Communion of Saints, by means of which we communicate with all holy persons and in all holy things. We communicate with the Saints in heaven, as our fellow-members under the same head, Christ Jesus; we give thanks to God for His gifts to them, and we beg a share in their prayers. We communicate with all the saints upon earth in the same Sacraments and Sacrifice, and in a holy union of faith and charity. And we also communicate with the faithful who have departed this life in a more imperfect state,—and who by the law of God's justice are for a while in a state of suffering,—by offering prayers and alms and sacrifice to God for them.

13. We must believe that, by the full concession of Christ, there ever resides in the Church the active power of forgiving sin, and of granting Indulgences for the remission of the temporal punishments of sin; which may be applied to the souls both of the living and of the dead who have died friends of God and in the peace of Christ.

14. We must believe also the necessity of Divine

Grace, without which we cannot make so much as one step towards heaven ; and that all our good and all our merits are the gift of God ; that Christ died for all men, and that His grace does not take away or oppress our free will.

15. We must believe that Jesus Christ will come from heaven at the last day to judge all men ; that all the dead, both good and bad, shall arise from their graves, and shall be judged by Him according to their works ; that the good shall go to heaven with Him, body and soul, to be happy for all eternity in the enjoyment of the Sovereign Good ; and that the wicked shall be condemned, both body and soul, to the torments of hell.

II. WHAT EVERY CHRISTIAN MUST DO.

EVERY Christian, in order to attain life everlasting, must worship God as his first beginning and last end. This worship is to be rendered, first, by FAITH : which makes both the understanding and the will humbly adore and embrace all those truths which God has taught, however obscure and incomprehensible they may be to our weakness. Secondly, by HOPE : which honors the infinite power, goodness, and mercy of God, and the truth of His promises ; and upon these grounds raises the soul to an assured expectation of mercy, grace, and salvation, through the merits of Jesus Christ. Thirdly, by CHARITY : which teaches us to love God with our whole hearts, for His own sake, and our neighbor as ourselves, for God's sake. Fourthly, by the virtue of RELIGION ; the chief acts of which are adoration, praise, thanksgiving, oblation of ourselves to God, sacrifice, and prayer; which ought to be the daily employments of a Christian soul. We must flee all idolatry and all false religions; also superstition, under which name are comprehended all manner of divinations, all fortune-telling, all witchcraft, charms, spells, observations of omens, dreams, etc. All these things are heathenish, and contrary to the worship of the true and living God, and to that entire dependence which a Christian soul ought to have on Him. But we must devoutly honor the Ever-Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, the Holy Angels, and the Saints reigning in Glory; whose intercessions we shall always most profitably invoke. We should likewise duly reverence all sacred emblems and pious memorials of our Lord and His Saints, and honor the relics of God's servants whom Holy Church has canonized.

2. We must reverence the name of God and His truth by a religious observance of all lawful oaths and vows, and by carefully avoiding all false, rash, or unjust oaths, and blasphemies.

3. We must dedicate some notable part of our time to His divine service; and, more especially, consecrate to Him those days which are ordered by His Church to be sanctified or kept holy.

4. Under God, we must love, reverence, and obey our parents, and other lawful superiors, spiritual and temporal; and observe the laws of the Church and State: as also we must have a due care of our children, and of others that are under our charge, both as to their souls and their bodies.

5. We must abstain from all injuries to our neighbor's person, by murder or any other violence; and from all hatred, envy, and desire of revenge ; as also from spiritual murder, which is committed by drawing him into sin, by words, actions, or bad example.

6. We must abstain from all uncleanness in thoughts, words, or actions.

7. We must not steal, cheat, or any other way do wrong to our neighbor in his goods and possessions ; we must give every one his own, pay our debts, and make restitution for all damages which we have caused through our fault.

8. We must not wrong our neighbor in his character or good name, by calumny, detraction, or rash judgment ; or in his honor by reproaches or affronts ; or rob him of his peace of mind, by scoffs or contempt ; or of his friends, by carrying stories backwards and forwards. In all such cases, whosoever wrongs his neighbor is obliged to make reparation or satisfaction.

9, 10. As we are commanded to abstain from all deeds of lust and injustice, so are we also strictly obliged to restrain all desires of these kinds, and to resist the irregular motions of concupiscence. So far the Ten Commandments of God ; which are a short abridgment of the whole eternal and natural law, which admits of no dispensation.

Every Christian is, moreover, bound to keep the commandments of God's Church.

1. We must sanctify Sundays and Holydays of Obligation by devout attendance at Holy Mass, and by resting from servile work.

2. We must strictly observe those days of fasting and abstinence appointed by ecclesiastical authority.

3. We must humbly confess our sins at least once a year to a Priest having competent jurisdiction—i.e., approved by the Bishop of the Diocese.

4. We must be careful to make our Easter Duty, by receiving Holy Communion at some time during the interval between the first Sunday in Lent and Trinity Sunday.

5. According to our means we must contribute to the support of those who minister to us in spiritual things.

6. We must not marry non-Catholics, or any one related to us within the fourth degree of kindred; we must not marry clandestinely, or solemnize marriage within the prohibited times.

PRAVERS WHICH EVERY CHRISTIAN SHOULD KNOW BY HEART.

Morning Prayers.

THE OFFICE OF PRIME.

Before Prime are said inaudibly the Our Father, the Hail Mary, and the I believe in God.

Then is said aloud:

COME unto my help, O God.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.
Glory be to the Father, etc.

Alleluia (or, in Lent, Praise to Thee,
O Lord, King of eternal glory).

*Then is said the following hymn: **

THE star of morn to night succeeds;
We therefore meekly pray,
May God, in all our words and deeds,
Keep us from harm this day.

May He in love restrain us still
From tones of strife and words of ill,
And wrap around and close our eyes
To earth's absorbing vanities.

* Translation by Cardinal Newman.

May wrath and thoughts that gender shame
Ne'er in our breasts abide,
And painful abstinences tame
Of wanton flesh the pride ;

So when the weary day is o'er,
And night and stillness come once more,
Blameless and clean from spot of earth
We may repeat with reverent mirth—

To God the Father glory be,
And to His Only Son,
And to the Spirit, One and Three,
While endless ages run. Amen.

Then follow the Psalms, which are said under one Antiphon :

Ant. for Sundays. Alleluia.

Ant. for week-days. Blessed are they that walk.

Psalm 53.

SAVE me, O God, by Thy name : and judge me in Thy strength.

Hear my prayer, O God : give ear unto the words of my mouth.

For strangers have risen up against me, and the mighty have sought after my soul : and they have not set God before their eyes.

For behold, God is my helper : and the Lord is the protector of my soul.

Turn back evil upon mine enemies : and destroy Thou them in Thy truth.

I will freely sacrifice unto Thee, and will praise Thy name, O Lord : for it is good :

For Thou hast delivered me out of all my trouble :
and mine eye hath looked down upon mine enemies.
Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 118.

BLESSED are the undefiled in the way : who walk in the law of the Lord.

Blessed are they that search His testimonies : that seek Him with their whole heart.

For they that work iniquity : have not walked in His ways.

Thou hast commanded that Thy commandments be kept most diligently.

O that my ways may be so directed : that I may keep Thine ordinances.

Then shall I not be confounded : when I shall have regard to all Thy commandments.

I will praise Thee with uprightness of heart : when I shall have learned the judgments of Thy justice.

I will keep Thine ordinances : O forsake me not utterly.

By what doth a young man correct his way ? even by keeping Thy words.

With my whole heart have I sought after Thee : let me not stray from Thy commandments.

Thy words have I hidden within my heart : that I may not sin against Thee.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord : O teach me Thine ordinances.

With my lips have I declared : all the judgments of Thy mouth.

I have had delight in the way of Thy testimonies :
even as in all riches.

I will meditate on Thy commandments : and I will consider Thy ways.

I will think upon Thine ordinances : I will not forget Thy words.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

DEAL bountifully with Thy servant : quicken Thou me, and I shall keep Thy words.

Open Thou mine eyes : and I shall see the wondrous things of Thy law.

I am a sojourner upon earth : O hide not Thy commandments from me.

My soul hath longed greatly : to desire Thine ordinances at all times.

Thou hast rebuked the proud : cursed are they that do err from Thy commandments.

O take from me shame and contempt : for I have sought after Thy testimonies.

Princes also did sit and speak against me : but Thy servant was occupied in Thy statutes.

For Thy testimonies are my meditation : and Thine ordinances are my counsel.

My soul hath cleaved to the earth : O quicken Thou me according to Thy word.

I have declared my ways, and Thou heardest me : teach me Thy statutes.

Make me to understand the way of Thine ordinances : and I will meditate on Thy wondrous works.

My soul hath slumbered through weariness : strengthen Thou me in Thy words.

Remove from me the way of iniquity : and have mercy on me in Thy law.

I have chosen the way of truth : I have not forgotten Thy judgments.

I have cleaved unto Thy testimonies, O Lord : put me not to shame.

I have run in the way of Thy commandments : when Thou didst enlarge my heart.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

[The following creed is said only on Sundays, when the Sunday Office is recited :

The Creed of St. Athanasius.

QUICUMQUE vult salvus esse, * ante omnia opus est, ut teneat Catholicam fidem.

Quam nisi quisque integram inviolatamque servaverit, * absque dubio in æternum peribit.

Fides autem Catholica hæc est, * ut unum Deum in Trinitate, et Trinitatem in unitate veneremur.

Neque confundentes personas, * neque substantiam separantes.

Alia est enim persona Patris, alia Filii, * alia Spiritus Sancti.

Sed Patris, et Filii, et

WHOSOEVER desires to be saved, before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholic faith.

Which faith, except every one do keep entire and inviolate, without doubt he shall perish everlastingly.

Now the Catholic faith is this : that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity.

Neither confounding the Persons nor dividing the substance.

For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, another of the Holy Ghost.

But the Godhead of the Spiritus Sancti una est divinitas, * æqualis gloria, coæterna majestas.

Qualis Pater, talis Filius, * talis Spiritus Sanctus.

Increatus Pater, increatus Filius, * increatus Spiritus Sanctus.

Immensus Pater, immensus Filius, * immensus Spiritus Sanctus.

Æternus Pater, æternus Filius, * æternus Spiritus Sanctus.

Et tamen non tres æterni, * sed unus æternus.

Sicut non tres increati, nec tres immensi, * sed unus increatus, et unus immensus.

Similiter omnipotens Pater, omnipotens Filius, * omnipotens Spiritus Sanctus.

Et tamen non tres omnipotentes, * sed unus omnipotens.

Ita Deus Pater, Deus Filius, * Deus Spiritus Sanctus.

Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost is one ; the glory equal, the majesty co-eternal.

As the Father is, such is the Son, such the Holy Ghost.

The Father uncreate, the Son uncreate, the Holy Ghost uncreate.

The Father infinite, the Son infinite, the Holy Ghost infinite.

The Father eternal, the Son eternal, the Holy Ghost eternal.

And yet they are not three eternals, but one Eternal.

As also they are not three uncreates, nor three infinities ; but one Uncreate, and one Infinite.

In like manner the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty, and the Holy Ghost Almighty.

And yet they are not three almighties, but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son God, and the Holy Ghost God.

Et tamen non tres Dii, * sed unus est Deus.

Ita Dominus Pater, Dominus Filius, * Dominus Spiritus Sanctus.

Et tamen non tres Domini, * sed unus est Dominus.

Quia sicut singillatim unamquamque personam Deum ac Dominum confiteri Christiana veritate compellimur : * ita tres Deos aut Dominos dicere Catholica religione prohibemur.

Pater a nullo est factus, * nec creatus, nec genitus.

Filius a Patre solo est : * non factus, nec creatus, sed genitus.

Spiritus Sanctus a Patre et Filio : * non factus, nec creatus, nec genitus, sed procedens.

Unus ergo Pater, non tres Patres : unus Filius, non tres Filii : * unus Spiritus Sanctus, non tres Spiritus Sancti.

Et in hac Trinitate nihil prius aut posterius, nihil

And yet they are not three Gods, but one God.

So the Father is Lord, the Son is Lord, and the Holy Ghost is Lord.

And yet they are not three Lords, but one Lord.

For as we are obliged by the Christian Truth to acknowledge every Person singly to be God and Lord : so we are forbidden by the Catholic religion to say there are three Gods or three Lords.

The Father was made by no one, neither created, nor begotten.

The Son is by the Father alone, not made, nor created, but begotten.

The Holy Ghost is from the Father and the Son, not made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers : one Son, not three Sons : one Holy Ghost, not three Holy Ghosts.

And in this Trinity there is nothing before or after, majus aut minus : * sed totæ tres personæ coæternæ sibi sunt, et coæquales.

Ita ut per omnia, sicut jam supra dictum est, * et unitas in Trinitate, et Trinitas in unitate veneranda sit.

Qui vult ergo salvus esse, * ita de Trinitate sentiat.

Sed necessarium est ad æternam salutem, * ut incarnationem quoque Domini nostri Jesu Christi fideliter credat.

Est ergo fides recta, ut credamus et confiteamur, * quia Dominus noster Jesus Christus Dei Filius, Deus et homo est.

Deus est ex substantia Patris ante sæcula genitus : * et homo est ex substantia matris in sæculo natus.

Perfectus Deus, perfectus homo : * ex anima rationali, et humana carne subsistens.

Æqualis Patri secundum divinitatem : * minor Pa-nothing greater or less ; but the whole three Persons are co-eternal together and co-equal.

So that in all things, as is aforesaid, the Unity is to be worshipped in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity.

He, therefore, that desires to be saved must thus believe of the Trinity.

Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting salvation that he also believe faithfully the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Now the right faith is, that we believe and confess that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is both God and man.

He is God of the substance of His Father, begotten before the world ; and He is man of the substance of His Mother, born in the world :

Perfect God and perfect man ; of rational soul and human flesh subsisting,

Equal to the Father according to His Divinity ;

tre secundum humanitatem.

Qui, licet Deus sit et homo, * non duo tamen, sed unus est Christus.

Unus autem, non conversione divinitatis in carnem, * sed assumptione humanitatis in Deum.

Unus omnino, non confusione substantiæ, * sed unitate personæ.

Nam, sicut anima rationalis et caro unus est homo, * ita Deus et homo unus est Christus :

Qui passus est pro salute nostra, descendit ad inferos, * tertia die resurrexit a mortuis :

Ascendit ad cœlos, sedet ad dexteram Dei Patris omnipotentis : * inde venturus est judicare vivos et mortuos :

Ad cujus adventum omnes homines resurgere habent cum corporibus suis, * et reddituri sunt de factis propriis rationem.

Et qui bona egerunt, ibunt in vitam æternam :

and less than the Father according to His humanity.

Who, although He be both God and man, yet He is not two, but one Christ :

One, not by the conversion of the Godhead into flesh, but by the assuming of human nature unto God:

One altogether, not by confusion of substance, but by unity of person.

For as the rational soul and the body constitutes one man, so God and man is one Christ :

Who suffered for our salvation, descended into hell, arose again the third day from the dead :

He ascended into heaven; He sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead :

At whose coming all men must arise again with their bodies, and must give an account of their own works.

And they that have done good shall go into life ever-qui vero mala, in ignem æternum. lasting ; and they that have done evil, into everlasting fire.

Hæc est fides Catholica : This is the Catholic faith, quam nisi quisque fideliter firmiterque crediderit, which except a man believe faithfully and steadfastly salvus esse non poterit. he cannot be saved.

Gloria Patri, etc.

*Antiphon for Sundays, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.
At Easter a fourth Alleluia.*

Antiphon for Week-days :

BLESSED are they that walk in Thy law, O Lord.

Then is said the Chapter :

Sundays.

UNTO the King of ages, the Immortal, Invisible, only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever.
R. Thanks be to God.

Week-days.

LOVE peace and truth, saith the Lord Almighty.
R. Thanks be to God.

Then follows the short Responsory :

CHRIST, Thou Son of the living God, have mercy on us.

R. Christ, Thou Son of the living God, have mercy on us.

V. Thou that sittest at the right hand of the Father,
R. Have mercy on us.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

R. Christ, Thou Son of the living God, have mercy on us.

V. Arise, O Christ, and help us.

R. And deliver us for Thy name's sake.

After the short responsory follow these prayers, called the Preces, except on Double Feasts and within Octaves, when they are omitted down to the mark ():*

LORD, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Our Father (inaudibly).

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

I believe in God (inaudibly).

V. The resurrection of the body.

R. And the life everlasting. Amen.

V. But I, O Lord, have cried unto Thee.

R. And in the morning my prayer shall come early before Thee.

V. Let my mouth be filled with praise.

R. That I may sing of Thy glory; and of Thy greatness all the day long.

V. O Lord, turn away Thy face from my sins.

R. And blot out all my iniquities.

V. Create in me a clean heart, O God.

R. And renew a right spirit within me.

V. Cast me not away from Thy face.

R. And take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

V. Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation.

R. And strengthen me with a perfect spirit.

[These prayers within the brackets are said only on week-days :

D ELIVER me, O Lord, from the evil man.

R. And rescue me from the unjust man.

V. Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God.

R. And defend me from them that rise up against me.

V. Deliver me from them that work iniquity.

R. And save me from the men of blood.

V. So will I sing a psalm unto Thy name for ever and ever.

R. That I may pay my vows from day to day.

V. Hear us, O God our Saviour.

R. Who art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and in the sea afar off.

V. Come unto my help, O God.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

V. Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy and Immortal,

R. Have mercy on us.

V. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

R. And let all that is within me bless His holy name.

V. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

R. And forget not all His benefits.

V. Who forgiveth thee all thine iniquities.

R. Who healeth all thine infirmities.

V. Who redeemeth thy life from destruction.

R. Who crowneth thee with mercy and compassion.

V. Who satisfieth thy desire with good things.

R. Thy youth shall be renewed like the eagle's.

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

The Confiteor, p. 35.Then the office continues as follows :

VOUCHSAFE, O Lord, this day
R. To keep us without sin.
V. Have mercy on us, O Lord.
R. Have mercy on us.
V. Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us.
R. As we have hoped in Thee.

 Here the office is resumed when the Preces have been omitted :*

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.
R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

O LORD, God Almighty, who hast brought us to the beginning of this day : let Thy power so defend us therein, that this day we fall into no sin, but that all our thoughts, words, and works may always tend to what is just in Thy sight. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.
R. And let my cry come unto Thee.
V. Let us bless the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

Here is read the Martyrology, if read at all ; after which the office proceeds thus :

V. Precious in the sight of the Lord
R. Is the death of His saints.

MAY the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the Saints plead for us with the Lord, that we may deserve to be helped and delivered by Him who liveth and reigneth, world without end. Amen.

V. Come unto my help, O God.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me. (This versicle and response is said thrice.)

V. Glory be to the Father, etc.

R. As it was in the beginning, etc.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Our Father (inaudibly).

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

V. Look upon Thy servants, O Lord, and upon Thy works, and direct their children.

R. And let the brightness of the Lord our God be upon us, and direct Thou the works of our hands over us : yea, the work of our hands do Thou direct.

V. Glory be to the Father, etc.

R. As it was in the beginning, etc.

Let us pray.

O LORD GOD, King of heaven and earth, vouchsafe this day to direct and to sanctify, to rule and to govern, our souls and bodies, our senses, words, and actions, in Thy law, and in the works of Thy commandments ; that both now and for ever we may deserve to be saved and delivered through Thy protection, O Saviour of the world, who livest and reignest, world without end.

R. Amen.

V. O Lord, grant Thy blessing.

The Blessing : May the Lord Almighty order our days and deeds in His peace.

R. Amen.

Then is read the short lesson :

AND may the Lord direct our hearts in the love of God, and the patience of Christ. And do Thou, O Lord, have mercy on us.

R. Thanks be to God.

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

V. Bless ye.

R. God.

The Blessing : The Lord bless us, and keep us from all evil, and bring us unto life everlasting : and may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

R. Amen.

ANOTHER FORM OF MORNING PRAYERS.

As soon as you are awake, make the sign of the Cross, and say :

HOLY, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts : the earth is full of Thy glory. Glory be to the Father, glory be to the Son, glory be to the Holy Ghost. Amen.⁽ⁱ⁾

When you are dressed, calling to mind the greatness of God, and your own nothingness, place yourself in His presence, and kneel down and say :

IN the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Come, Holy Ghost, fill the hearts of Thy faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Thy love.

MOST holy and adorable Trinity, one God in three Persons, I believe that Thou art here present ; I adore Thee with the deepest humility, and render to Thee, with my whole heart, the homage which is due to Thy sovereign majesty.

O MY God, I most humbly thank Thee for all the favors Thou hast bestowed upon me up to the present moment. I give Thee thanks from the bottom of my heart that Thou hast created me after Thine own image and likeness, that Thou hast redeemed me by the precious blood of Thy dear Son, and that Thou hast preserved me and brought me safe to the beginning of another day. I offer to Thee, O Lord, my whole being, and in particular all my thoughts, words, actions, and sufferings of this day. I consecrate them all to the glory of Thy name, beseeching Thee that through the infinite merits of Jesus Christ my Saviour they may all find acceptance in Thy sight. May Thy divine love animate them, and may they all tend to Thy greater glory.

ADORABLE Jesus, my Saviour and Master, model of all perfection, I resolve and will endeavor this day to imitate Thy example, to be, like Thee, mild, humble, chaste, zealous, charitable, and resigned. I will redouble my efforts that I may not fall this day into any of those sins which I have heretofore committed (here you may name any besetting sin), and which I sincerely desire to forsake.

O MY God, Thou knowest my poverty and weakness, and that I am unable to do anything good without Thee ; deny me not, O God, the help of Thy grace ; proportion it to my necessities ; give me strength to avoid everything evil which Thou forbiddest, and to practise the good which Thou hast commanded ; and enable me to bear patiently all the trials which it may please Thee to send me.

OUR Father. Hail Mary. I believe in God. I confess to Almighty God, etc.

[Here the Litany of the Holy Name, p. 60, may be said.]

AN ACT OF FAITH.

O MY God ! I firmly believe that Thou art one God in three Divine Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost ; I believe that the Divine Son became man, and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because Thou hast revealed them, who canst neither deceive nor be deceived.

AN ACT OF HOPE.

O MY God ! relying on Thy infinite goodness and promises, I hope to obtain pardon of my sins, the help of Thy grace, and life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Redeemer.

AN ACT OF CHARITY.

O MY God ! I love Thee above all things, with my whole heart and soul, because Thou art all-good and worthy of all love. I love my neighbor as myself for the love of Thee. I forgive all who have injured me, and ask pardon of all whom I have injured.

AN ACT OF CONTRITION.

O MY God! I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all-good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

O HOLY Virgin, Mother of God, my Mother and Patroness, I place myself under thy protection, I throw myself with confidence into the arms of thy compassion. Be to me, O Mother of mercy, my refuge in distress, my consolation under suffering, my advocate with thy adorable Son, now and at the hour of my death. Amen.

O FAITHFUL Guardian and Father of virgins, Blessed Joseph, to whom was confided the care of Jesus, and of Mary the Queen of Virgins, I most humbly supplicate thee, by the love thou dost bear Jesus and Mary, to obtain for me that, being preserved from every stain during my whole life, I may be ever able to serve them with unspotted purity of mind and body. Amen.⁽ⁱ⁾

ANGEL of God, my Guardian dear,
To whom His love commits me here,
Ever this day be at my side,
To light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen.⁽ⁱ⁾

O GREAT Saint, whose name I bear; protect me, pray for me, that, like thee, I may serve God faithfully on earth, and glorify Him eternally with thee in heaven. Amen.

MAY the power of the Father govern and protect me! May the wisdom of the Son teach and enlighten me! May the influence of the Holy Ghost renew and quicken me! May the blessing of the All-holy Trinity, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be with me, now and for evermore. Amen.

THE ANGELUS.⁽¹⁾

To be said Morning, Noon, and Night; kneeling, except on Saturday evening and throughout Sunday.

ANGELUS Domini THE Angel of the nuntiavit Mariæ. Lord declared unto Mary.

R. Et concepit de Spiritu Sancto. R. And she conceived by the Holy Ghost.

POUR forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that as we have known the Incarnation of Christ Thy Son by the message of an Angel, so, by His Passion and Cross, we may be brought to the glory of His resurrection; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

In Eastertide, instead of the Angelus, the Regina Coeli (p. 78) is said standing.

A PRAYER FOR THE CHURCH, THE CIVIL AUTHORITIES, ETC.

Composed by Archbishop Carroll, A.D. 1800.

WE pray Thee, O Almighty and Eternal God, who through Jesus Christ hast revealed Thy glory to all nations, to preserve the works of Thy mercy; that Thy Church, being spread through the whole world, may continue, with unchanging faith, in the confession of Thy Name.

We pray Thee, who alone art good and holy, to endow with heavenly knowledge, sincere zeal, and sanctity of life our chief Bishop, N., the Vicar of our Lord Jesus Christ in the government of His Church;

our own Bishop, (or Archbishop,) N. (if he is not consecrated, our Bishop-elect) ; all other Bishops, Prelates, and Pastors of the Church ; and especially those who are appointed to exercise among us the functions of the holy ministry, and conduct Thy people into the ways of salvation.

We pray Thee, O God of might, wisdom, and justice, through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment decreed, assist, with Thy Holy Spirit of counsel and fortitude, the President of these United States, that his administration may be conducted in righteousness, and be eminently useful to Thy people, over whom he presides, by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion ; by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy ; and by restraining vice and immorality. Let the light of Thy divine wisdom direct the deliberations of Congress, and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws framed for our rule and government ; so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of national happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety, and useful knowledge, and may perpetuate to us the blessings of equal liberty.

We pray for his Excellency the Governor of this State, for the members of the Assembly, for all Judges, Magistrates, and other officers who are appointed to guard our political welfare ; that they may be enabled, by Thy powerful protection, to discharge the duties of their respective stations with honesty and ability.

We recommend likewise to Thy unbounded mercy all our brethren and fellow-citizens, throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge, and sanctified in the observance of Thy most holy law ; that they may be preserved in union, and in that peace which the world cannot give ; and, after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal.

Finally, we pray Thee, O Lord of mercy, to remember the souls of Thy servants departed who are gone before us with the sign of faith, and repose in the sleep of peace : the souls of our parents, relations, and friends ; of those who, when living, were members of this congregation ; and particularly of such as are lately deceased ; of all benefactors who, by their donations or legacies to this Church, witnessed their zeal for the decency of divine worship, and proved their claim to our grateful and charitable remembrance. To these, O Lord, and to all that rest in Christ ; grant, we beseech Thee, a place of refreshment, light, and everlasting peace, through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

GRACE BEFORE MEALS.

BLESS us, O Lord, and these Thy gifts, which we are about to receive from Thy bounty. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

GRACE AFTER MEALS.

WE give Thee thanks, O Almighty God, for all Thy mercies. Who livest and reignest world without end.

R. Amen.

VOUCHSAFE, O Lord, to reward with eternal life
all those who do us good for Thy name's sake.

R. Amen.

V. Let us bless the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in pease.

R. Amen.

THE BLESSING.

MAY the Lord Almighty grant us a quiet night, and a perfect end.

R. Amen.

SHORT LESSON.

BRETHREN, be sober, and vigilant, for your adversary the devil as a roaring lion goeth about, seeking whom he may devour : whom resist strong in faith. And do Thou, O Lord, have mercy on us.

R. Thanks be to God.

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

Our Father (inaudibly).

Then follows the Confiteor, p. 35.

Then is said :

CONVERT us, O God our Saviour.

R. And turn away Thine anger from us.

V. Come unto my help, O God.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Alleluia (or, in Lent, Praise to Thee, O Lord, King of Eternal Glory).

Ant. Have mercy.

In Paschal time, Ant. Alleluia.

Psalm 1.

WHEN I called upon Him, the God of my justice heard me: when I was in straits, Thou didst set me at liberty.

Have mercy on me: and hear my prayer.

O ye sons of men, how long will ye be dull of heart? why do ye love vanity, and seek after lying?

Know ye also that the Lord hath exalted His holy one: the Lord will hear me when I cry unto Him.

Be ye angry, and sin not: the things ye say in your hearts, be sorry for upon your beds.

Offer up the sacrifice of justice, and trust in the Lord: many say, Who showeth us good things?

The light of Thy countenance, O Lord, is signed upon us: Thou hast given gladness in my heart.

By the fruit of their corn, and wine, and oil: are they multiplied.

In peace in the self-same: I will sleep, and I will rest.

For Thou, O Lord, alone: hast established me in hope.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 30.

IN Thee, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be confounded : deliver me in Thy justice.

Bow down Thine ear unto me : make haste to deliver me.

Be Thou unto me a God, a protector : and a house of refuge to save me.

For Thou art my strength and my refuge : and for Thy name's sake Thou wilt lead me, and nourish me.

Thou wilt bring me out of this snare, which they have hidden for me : for Thou art my protector.

Into Thy hands I commend my spirit : Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, God of truth.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 90.

HE that dwelleth in the help of the Most High : shall abide under the protection of the God of Heaven.

He shall say unto the Lord : Thou art my upholder, and my refuge : my God, in Him will I hope.

For He hath delivered me from the snare of the hunters ; and from the sharp word.

He shall overshadow thee with His shoulders : and under His wings shalt thou trust.

His truth shall compass thee with a shield : thou shalt not be afraid for the terror of the night ;

For the arrow that flieth in the day ; for the plague that walketh in the darkness ; for the assault of the evil one in the noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand : but it shall not come nigh thee.

But with thine eyes shalt thou behold : and shalt see the reward of the wicked.

For Thou, O Lord, art my hope : thou hast made the Most High thy refuge.

There shall no evil approach unto thee : neither shall the scourge come nigh thy dwelling.

For He hath given His Angels charge over thee : to keep thee in all thy ways.

In their hands they shall bear thee up : lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt walk upon the asp and the basilisk : the lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under foot.

Because he hath hoped in Me, I will deliver him : I will protect him, because he hath known My name.

He shall cry unto Me, and I will hear him : I am with him in trouble : I will deliver him, and I will glorify him.

I will fill him with length of days : and will show him My salvation.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 133.

BEHOLD, now bless ye the Lord : all ye servants of the Lord.

Ye that stand in the house of the Lord : in the courts of the house of our God.

Lift up your hands by night to the holy places : and bless ye the Lord.

May the Lord bless thee out of Sion : Who hath made heaven and earth.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Ant. Have mercy on me, O Lord, and hear my prayer.

THE HYMN.*

NOW that the daylight dies away,
By all Thy grace and love,
Thee, Maker of the world, we pray
To watch our bed above.

Let dreams depart and phantoms fly,
The offspring of the night;
Keep us, like shrines, beneath Thine eye,
Pure in our foes' despite.

This grace on Thy redeemed confer,
Father, Co-equal Son,
And Holy Ghost, the Comforter, Eternal Three in One. Amen.

THE LITTLE CHAPTER.

THOU, O Lord, art among us, and Thy holy name is called upon us : forsake us not, O Lord our God.

R. Thanks be to God.

R. Protect us under the shadow of Thy wings.

THE CANTICLE OF SIMEON.

Ant. Save us.

NOW, O Lord, lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace : according to Thy word.

For mine eyes have seen : Thy salvation.

Which Thou hast prepared : in sight of all nations.

Light to enlighten the gentiles : and glory of Thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Ant. Save us, O Lord, watching, guard us sleeping : that we may watch with Christ, and may rest in peace.

V. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, the God of our fathers.

R. And worthy to be praised and glorified for ever.

V. Let us bless the Father and the Son with the Holy Ghost.

R. Let us praise and exalt Him above all for ever.

V. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, in the firmament of Heaven.

R. And worthy to be praised, and glorified, and exalted above all for ever.

V. May the Almighty and merciful Lord bless and protect us.

R. Amen.

V. Vouchsafe, O Lord, this night

R. To keep us without sin.

V. Have mercy on us, O Lord.

R. Have mercy on us.

V. Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us.

R. As we have hoped in Thee.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

VISIT, we beseech Thee, O Lord, this habitation, and drive far from it all snares of the enemy: let Thy holy Angels dwell therein to keep us in peace: and may Thy blessing be upon us always. Through our Lord, etc.

R. Amen.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

V. Let us bless the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

THE BLESSING.

MAY the Almighty and merciful Lord bless and protect us; the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

R. Amen.

ANOTHER FORM OF EVENING PRAYERS.

IN the name of the Father, + and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Come, Holy Ghost, fill the hearts of Thy faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Thy love.

O MY God, I present myself before Thee at the end of another day, to offer Thee anew the homage of my heart. I humbly adore Thee, my Creator, my Redeemer, and my Judge! I believe in Thee, because Thou art Truth itself; I hope in Thee, because Thou art faithful to Thy promises; I love Thee with my whole heart, because Thou art infinitely worthy of being loved; and for Thy sake I love my neighbor as myself.

ENABLE me, O my God, to return Thee thanks as I ought for all Thine inestimable blessings and favors. Thou hast thought of me, and loved me from all eternity; Thou hast formed me out of nothing;
 Thou hast delivered up Thy beloved Son to the ignominious death of the Cross for my redemption; Thou hast made me a member of Thy holy Church; Thou hast preserved me from falling into the abyss of eternal misery, when my sins had provoked Thee to punish me ; and Thou hast graciously continued to spare me, even though I have not ceased to offend Thee. What return, O my God, can I make for Thine innumerable blessings, and particularly for the favors of this day ? O all ye Saints and Angels, unite with me in praising the God of mercies, who is so bountiful to so unworthy a creature.

Our Father. Hail Mary. I believe in God.

Ask of God light to discover the sins committed this day.

O MY God, sovereign Judge of men, who desirest not the death of a sinner, but that he should be converted and saved, enlighten my mind, that I may know the sins which I have this day committed in thought, word, or deed, and give me the grace of true contrition.

Here examine your Conscience ; then say :

O MY God, I heartily repent, and am grieved that I have offended Thee, because Thou art infinitely good, and sin is infinitely displeasing to Thee. I humbly ask of Thee mercy and pardon, through the infinite merits of Jesus Christ. I resolve, by the assistance of Thy grace, to do penance for my sins, and I will endeavor never more to offend Thee.

I confess to Almighty God, etc.

[Here may be said the Litany of Loreto, p. 65.]

O GOD, hear my prayers on behalf of our Holy Father Pope N., our Bishop N., our clergy, and for all that are in authority over us. Bless, I beseech Thee, the whole Catholic Church, and convert all heretics and unbelievers. Pour down Thy blessings, O Lord, upon all my friends, relations, and acquaintances, and upon my enemies, if I have any. Help the poor and sick, and those who are in their last agony. O God of mercy and goodness, have compassion on the souls of the faithful in purgatory ; put an end to their sufferings, and grant to them eternal light, rest, and happiness. Amen.

O ALMIGHTY and Eternal God, who savest all, and willest not that any should perish, look, we beseech Thee, upon the souls that are led astray by the deceits of the devil ; that, rejecting all errors, the hearts of those who err may be converted, and return to the unity of Thy truth. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESS, O Lord, the repose I am about to take, that, my bodily strength being renewed, I may be the better enabled to serve Thee. Amen.

O BLESSED Virgin Mary, Mother of mercy, pray for me, that I may be preserved this night from all evil, whether of body or soul. Blessed St. Joseph, and all ye saints and angels of Paradise, especially my guardian angel and my chosen patron, watch over me. I commend myself to your protection now and always. Amen.

HOLY, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts : the earth is full of Thy glory. Glory be to the Father, glory be to the Son, glory be to the Holy Ghost. Amen.⁽ⁱ⁾

Instructions for Hearing Mass.

WHAT THE MASS IS, AND FOR WHAT END IT IS TO BE OFFERED.

FROM the beginning of the world the servants of God were always accustomed to offer Sacrifice to Him, by way of acknowledging His sovereignty and paying their homage to Him; and in all ancient religions, true or false, this worship of Sacrifice was always regarded as a most solemn act of religion, due to the Deity worshipped.

In the law of nature, and in the law of Moses, there was a great variety of Sacrifices: some bloody, in which the victim was slain; others unbloody. Some were called Holocausts, or whole burnt-offerings, in which the whole host or victim was consumed in fire upon God's altar, for His honor and glory; others were called Sin-offerings, which were offered for sins; others were offerings of Thanksgivings; others were pacific or Peace-offerings, which were offered for obtaining favors of God—the word “peace” in the Scripture style signifying all manner of good and prosperity.

All these Sacrifices of the law of nature, and of the law of Moses, were of themselves but weak and needy elements (Gal. iv. 9), and only figures of a Sacrifice to come, viz., that of Jesus Christ; in consideration of which Sacrifice only, and of the faith of the offerers, by which they believed in the Redeemer to come, those ancient Sacrifices were then accepted by the Divine Majesty, when they were accompanied with the inward sacrifice of the heart; but not for any intrinsic worth or dignity of the things offered, for no other blood but the Blood of Christ could wash away sins. Hence, St. Paul says (Heb. x. 5), quoting from the 39th Psalm: Sacrifice and oblation Thou wouldst not have: but Thou hast fitted to Me a Body. This gives us to understand that, by reason of the insufficiency of the Sacrifices of the old law, Christ Himself would come to be our Sacrifice, and would offer up His own Body and Blood for us.

Accordingly, our Saviour Jesus Christ, at the time appointed by His Father, having taken flesh for us, was pleased to offer Himself a Sacrifice for us, dying upon the Cross for the sins of the whole world. By this one offering we were completely redeemed, inasmuch as our ransom was paid, and all mercy, grace, and salvation were purchased for us. Neither can there now be any need of His dying any more, or purchasing any other graces for us than those for which He has already paid the price of His Blood.

Nevertheless, for the daily application of this one eternal Redemption to our souls, and that the mercy, grace, and salvation which He has purchased for us may be actually communicated to us, He not only continually appears in our behalf in the Sanctuary of Heaven, there representing and offering to His Father His Passion and Death for us, but He has also instituted the Blessed Eucharist, the night before His Passion, in which He bequeathed us His Body and Blood, under the sacramental veils, not only to be received by us as a Sacrament, for the food and nourishment of our souls, but also (mystically delivered) to be offered and presented by His ministers to His Father as a Sacrifice: not by way of a new death, but by way of a standing Memorial of His death; a daily celebrating and representing of His death to God, and an applying to our souls of the fruits thereof.

This Eucharistic Sacrifice of the Body and Blood of Christ, daily offered under the forms of bread and wine, in remembrance of His Passion, is what we call the MASS. This is the solemn Liturgy of the Catholic Church. This is that pure Offering which is made to God in every place among the Gentiles, according to the prophecy of Malachi (i. 10, 11). By this, Christ is a Priest for ever according to the order of Melchisedech (Psalms 109), whose Sacrifice was bread and wine (Gen. xv.)

This Sacrifice of the Mass is the same in substance with that which Christ offered for us upon the Cross; because both the Victim offered, and the Priest or principal Offerer, is the same Jesus Christ. The difference is only in the manner of the offering; because upon the Cross our Saviour offered Himself in such a manner as really to shed His Blood and die for us; whereas now He does not really shed His Blood, or die. And therefore this is called an unbloody Sacrifice; and that of the Cross a bloody Sacrifice.

By virtue of this essential sameness, the Sacrifice of the Mass completely answers all the different ends of Sacrifice, and that in a way infinitely more effective than any of the ancient Sacrifices. Christ is here both Priest and Victim, representing in person and offering up His Passion and Death to His Father.

This Sacrifice of the Mass is offered up to God, in the Catholic Church, first as a daily remembrance of the Passion of Christ: This do for the commemoration of Me (1 Cor. xi. 24); secondly, as a most solemn worship of the Divine Majesty; thirdly, as a most acceptable thanksgiving to God, from whence it has the name of Eucharist; fourthly, as a most powerful means to move God to show mercy to us in the forgiveness of our sins, for which reason we call it propitiatory; and, lastly, as a most effectual way to obtain of God all that we need, coming to Him, as we here do, with Christ and through Christ.

For these ends both Priest and people ought to offer up the Sacrifice of the Mass—the Priest, as Christ's minister and in His person; and the people, by the hands of the Priest; and both the one and the other by the hands of the Great High-Priest Jesus Christ. And with this offering of Christ, both the one and the other should make a total offering of themselves also by His hands and in union with Him.

OF THE CEREMONY OF MASS.

ALTHOUGH the homage which man owes to his Creator so essentially consists in the interior dispositions of the soul that without these all outward worship is unprofitable and vain, yet the constitution of our nature is such as to require external signs and ceremonies which may operate through the medium of the bodily senses upon our souls, and elevate them to God. To this end are directed all the Ceremonies of the Church, and it is the Christian's duty to learn how to use them accordingly. Hence—

1. The custom of placing a vessel containing blessed or HOLY WATER at the entrance of the Church has been handed down to us from the Apostolic age. Into this vessel the faithful dip the fingers of the right hand, and make upon themselves the Sign of the Cross, repeating at the same time the invocation of the Ever-blessed Trinity. As water denotes purity and innocence, by using it on entering a place of worship we are admonished with what purity of heart and mind we should appear in the presence of our Maker.

2. The SIGN OF THE CROSS, which we make upon ourselves in taking holy water, as well as on many other occasions, is a sign or ceremony in which, with St. Paul (Gal. vi. 14), we should place our greatest happiness and glory, as being a striking memorial of the sufferings and death of our Redeemer—that mystery whence are derived all our hopes for mercy, grace, and salvation. By the words that accompany this ceremony we are no less forcibly reminded that God whom we serve, although One in nature, exists in Three Persons really distinct from each other.

3. The first object that arrests the Christian's notice on entering a Church is the ALTAR, with its TABERNACLE and CRUCIFIX. The Altar is the place of Sacrifice—another Calvary, as it were—whereon is celebrated, as Christ ordained, the memorial of His Passion and Death by the pure and unbloody Sacrifice of His Body and Blood. Upon the Altar we always see a Crucifix, or image of our Saviour upon the Cross; that as the Mass is said in remembrance of Christ's Passion and Death, both Priest and people may have before their eyes during this Sacrifice the image which puts them in mind of those Mysteries. The Tabernacle contains the Blessed Sacrament. It is to JESUS CHRIST, therefore, truly present within the Tabernacle, that we bend the knee in homage and adoration when we enter or depart from the Church.

4. As the Mass represents the Passion of Christ, and the Priest officiates in His person, so the VESTMENTS in which he officiates represent those in which Christ was ignominiously clothed at the time of His Passion. Thus, the Amice represents the cloth with which the Jews muffled our Saviour's Face when at every blow they bade Him prophesy who it was that struck Him. The Alb represents the white garment with which He was vested by Herod. The Girdle, Maniple, and Stole represent the cords and bands with which He was bound in the different stages of His Passion. The Chasuble, or outward Vestment, represents the purple garment with which He was clothed as a mock King; upon this is embroidered a Cross, to represent that which Christ bore upon His sacred shoulders. Lastly, the Priest's Tonsure, which is worn in all Catholic countries, is to represent the crown of thorns which our Saviour wore.

Moreover, as in the old law the Priests who were wont to officiate in the sacred functions had, by the appointment of God, Vestments assigned for that purpose—as well for the greater decency and solemnity of the Divine worship as to signify the virtues which God required of His ministers—so it was proper that in the Church of the New Testament Christ's ministers should in their sacred functions be distinguished in like manner from the laity by their sacred Vestments; which might also represent the virtues which God requires in them. Thus, the Amice represents divine Hope, which St. Paul calls the helmet of salvation; the Alb, Innocence of life; the Girdle, Purity and Chastity; the Maniple, Patience in enduring the labors of this mortal life; the Stole, the sweet Yoke of Christ, to be borne in this life in order to attain a happy immortality; the Chasuble, which covers all the rest, the virtue of Charity, which, as St. Peter tells us, covereth a multitude of sins.

In these Vestments the Church uses five colors, viz., White, on the Feasts of our Lord, of the Blessed Virgin, of the Angels, and of the Saints who were not martyrs, and on the Sundays in Eastertide; Red, on the Feasts of Pentecost, of the Finding and Exaltation of the Cross, and of the Apostles and Martyrs; Violet, in the penitential seasons of Advent and Lent, and upon Vigils and Ember-days; Green, on most other Sundays and ordinary days throughout the year; and Black, on Good Friday, and in Masses for the Dead.

5. There are always LIGHTED CANDLES upon the Altar during Mass, as well to honor the victory and triumph of our great King by these lights, which are tokens of our joy and of His Glory, as to denote the light of Faith, without which it is impossible to please Him.

6. A small BELL is occasionally rung. This is done to give notice of certain more solemn parts of the Sacrifice; to recall the wandering mind from distraction; and to excite all to greater fervor and devotion.

7. INCENSE is used at Solemn Mass. It is symbolical of Prayer, according to the saying of the Psalmist: Let my prayer, O Lord, be directed as incense in Thy sight (Ps. cxl. 2).

ON THE MANNER OF HEARING MASS.

THERE are various methods of profitably hearing Mass. One method is, to follow the Priest in the Ordinary of the Mass as contained in the Missal; joining with him, as far as the laity may, in the very words of the service, and uniting our intention with him in what he does as Priest for the people. To enable all persons, even those who do not understand Latin, to follow the service, translations of the Ordinary and Canon of the Mass have been made into almost all languages, and circulated by authority. Another method is to accompany the Priest through the different parts of the service with appropriate devotions, similar to those he is using and directed to the same general ends, uniting our intention with his, but not using or not confining ourselves to the words of the Ordinary. A third method is to apply the service to the purpose of meditation on the Life or Passion of our Lord, or on any other appropriate subject. Whatever be the method followed, our first care should be to recollect ourselves, by calling home our wandering thoughts, and taking them off from all other concerns. We should humble ourselves profoundly in the presence of God, in whose Temple we are; and represent to ourselves, by a lively Faith, the dread majesty of God, and humbly beg His mercy and grace, that we may participate in this Holy Sacrifice in a worthy and becoming manner.

PRAYERS BEFORE MASS.

COME, Holy Ghost, fill the hearts of Thy faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Thy love.

V. Send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created.

R. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who by the light of Thy Holy Spirit didst teach the hearts of Thy faithful: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

LOOK down, O Lord, from Thy Sanctuary, and from heaven, Thy dwelling-place, and behold this holy Victim which our great High-Priest, Thy holy Child, the Lord Jesus, offers up to Thee for the sins of His brethren ; and let not Thy wrath be kindled because of the multitude of our transgressions. Behold, the voice of the Blood of Jesus our Brother calls to Thee from the Cross. Give ear, O Lord ; be appeased, O Lord ; hearken, and tarry not, for Thine own sake, O my God ; because Thy name is called upon in behalf of this city and of Thy people ; but deal with us according to Thy great mercy. Amen.

That Thou vouchsafe to defend, pacify, keep, preserve, and bless this city: we beseech Thee to hear us.⁽⁶⁾

DEVOTIONS FOR MASS.

PART I.

THE PREPARATION, BY ACTS OF HUMILITY, PRAISE, FAITH, ETC.

Prayer at the beginning of Mass, while the Priest says the Judica me, Deus, etc.

O ALMIGHTY Lord of Heaven and earth, behold I, a wretched sinner, presume to appear before Thee this day, to offer up unto Thee, by the hands of our High-Priest, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, the Sacrifice of His Body and Blood, in union with that Sacrifice which He offered to Thee upon the Cross : first, for Thine own honor, praise, adoration, and glory ; secondly, in remembrance of His Passion and Death ; thirdly, in thanksgiving for all Thy blessings bestowed upon Thy whole Church, whether triumphant in heaven or militant on earth, and especially for those bestowed upon me, the most unworthy of all ; fourthly, for obtaining pardon and remission of all my sins, and of those of all others, whether living or dead, for whom I ought to pray (here mention their names) ; and, lastly, for obtaining all graces and blessings both for myself and for Thy whole Church (here mention your particular requests). Oh, be Thou pleased to assist me by Thy grace, that I may behave myself this day as I ought to do in Thy divine Presence, and that I may so commemorate the Passion and Death of Thy Son as to partake most plentifully of the fruits thereof. Through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

At the Confiteor.

O BLESSED Trinity, one God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, prostrate in spirit before Thee, I here confess, in the sight of the whole court of heaven and of all Thy faithful, my innumerable treasons against Thy divine majesty. I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned ; I have grievously offended Thee through the whole course of my life, in thought, word, and deed ; and therefore am unworthy to lift mine eyes to heaven, or so much as to utter Thy sacred name. How much more am I unworthy to appear here in Thy Sanctuary, and to mingle among Thine Angels at these heavenly Mysteries, which require so much purity, because Jesus Christ Himself is here in person, both Priest and Victim ! But, O my God, Thy mercies are above all Thy works, and Thou wilt not despise a contrite and humble heart : and therefore I here venture to come into Thy Temple, and with the poor publican, and, as I hope, with the same penitential spirit, I strike my breast and say : God be merciful to me, a sinner. And I humbly hope to find this mercy which I crave, through that Passion and Death which are here celebrated. O Fountain of Mercy, grant this mercy to me and to all poor sinners. Amen.

When the Priest ascends the steps of the Altar.

TAKE away from us our iniquities, we beseech Thee, O Lord ; that we may be worthy to enter with pure minds into the Holy of Holies. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

At the Introit.

GRANT, O Lord, that we may be truly prepared for offering this great Sacrifice unto Thee this day ; and because our sins alone can render us displeasing to Thee, therefore we cry aloud to Thee for mercy.

At the Kyrie Eleison.

Either repeat with the Priest, or say :

Have mercy on me, O Lord, and forgive me all my sins.

Have mercy on me, O Lord, have mercy on me.

The Gloria in Excelsis, or Greater Doxology.

Repeat this with the Priest, p. 119.

At the Collects.

O ALMIGHTY and Eternal God, we humbly beseech Thee to mercifully hear the prayers here offered unto Thee by Thy servant in the name of Thy whole Church, and in behalf of us Thy people. Accept them, to the honor of Thy name, and the good of our souls ; and grant to us all mercy, grace, and salvation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

(Or, on a Saint's Day.)

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that the examples of Thy Saints may effectually move us to reform our lives ; that while we celebrate their festivals, we may also imitate their actions. Through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

At the Epistle.

THOU hast vouchsafed, O Lord, to teach us Thy sacred truths by the Prophets and Apostles : oh, grant that we may so improve by their doctrine and examples in the love of Thy holy name, and of Thy holy law, that we may show forth by our lives whose disciples we are ; that we may no longer follow the corrupt inclinations of flesh and blood, but master all our passions ; that we may be ever directed by Thy light, and strengthened by Thy grace, to walk in the way of Thy commandments, and to serve Thee with clean hearts. Through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

At the Gradual.

HOW admirable, O Lord, is Thy name, in the whole earth ! I will bless Thee, O Lord, at all times ; Thy praise shall be always in my mouth. Be Thou my God and Protector for ever : I will put my whole trust in Thee ; oh, let me never be confounded.

At the Gospel.

MAYEST Thou be ever adored and praised, O Lord, who, not content to instruct and inform us by Thy Prophets and Apostles, hast even vouchsafed to speak to us by Thine Only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ ; commanding us by a voice from heaven to hear Him : grant us, O merciful God, the grace to profit by His divine and heavenly doctrine. All that is written of Thee, O Jésus, in Thy Gospel, is Truth itself : nothing but wisdom in Thine actions, power and goodness in Thy miracles, light and instruction in Thy words. With Thee, sacred Redeemer, are the words of eternal life : to whom shall we go but to Thee, eternal Fountain of Truth ? Give me, O God, grace to practise what Thou commandest, and command what Thou pleaseest.

At the Credo.

Say this with the Priest, p. 126.

PART II.

THE OBLATION AND SANCTIFICATION OF THE BREAD AND WINE FOR THE SACRIFICE.

During the Offertory of the Bread and the Wine.

ACCEPT, O Eternal Father, this offering which is here made to Thee by Thy Priest, in the name of us here present, and of Thy whole Church. It is as yet only bread and wine : but, by a miracle of Thy power, will shortly become the Body and Blood of Thy beloved Son. He is our High-Priest and our Victim. With Him and through Him we desire to approach Thee this day, and by His hands to offer Thee this Sacrifice, for Thine own honor, praise, and glory; in thanksgiving for all Thy benefits; in satisfaction for all our sins; and for obtaining conversion for all unbelievers, and mercy, grace, and salvation for all Thy faithful. And with this offering of Thine Only-begotten Son we offer Thee ourselves, our souls and bodies, begging that by virtue of this Sacrifice we may be happily united to Thee, and that nothing in life or death may ever separate us from Thee. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

In a humble spirit, and a contrite heart, may we be accepted by Thee, O Lord: and let our Sacrifice be so made in Thy sight this day that it may be pleasing unto Thee, O Lord God. Come, O Sanctifier, Almighty, eternal God, and bless this Sacrifice set forth to Thy holy name.

At the Washing of the Fingers.

OH, what cleanliness and purity of heart ought we to bring with us to this great Sacrifice! But, alas! I am a poor unclean sinner. Oh, wash me, dear Lord, from all the stains of sin in the Blood of the Lamb, that I may be worthy to be present at these heavenly Mysteries.

After the Lavabo, when the Priest bows down at the middle of the Altar.

O MOST holy and adorable Trinity, vouchsafe to receive this our Sacrifice in remembrance of our Saviour's Passion, Resurrection, and glorious Ascension : and grant that we may die with Him to our sins, rise with Him to newness of life, and ascend with Him to Thee. Let those Saints whose memory we celebrate on earth remember us before Thy throne in Heaven, and obtain mercy for us. Through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

At the Orate, fratres.

MAY the Lord receive the Sacrifice from thy hands, to the praise and glory of His name, to our benefit, and to that of all His holy Church.

At the Secreta.

MERCIFULLY hear our prayers, O Lord, and graciously accept this oblation which we Thy servants make unto Thee ; and as we offer it to the honor of Thy name, so may it be to us a means of obtaining Thy grace here and life everlasting hereafter. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

(Or, on a Saint's Day.)

SANCTIFY, O Lord, we beseech Thee, these gifts which we offer Thee in this solemnity of Thy holy servant N., and so strengthen us by Thy grace that both in prosperity and adversity our ways may be ever directed to Thine honor. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

At the Sursum Corda.

V. Lift up your hearts.

R. We lift them up unto the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks unto the Lord our God.

R. It is worthy and just.

The Preface.

IT is truly worthy and just, right and profitable unto salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God. Who, with Thine Only-begotten Son and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord : not in the singleness of one only Person, but in the Trinity of one Substance. For what we believe of Thy glory, as Thou hast revealed it, that we believe of Thy Son, and that of the Holy Ghost, without any difference or inequality. That in the confession of the True and Eternal Godhead, distinction in Persons, unity in Essence, and equality in Majesty may be adored. Whom the Angels and Archangels, the Cherubim also and Seraphim, do praise ; who cease not daily to cry out, with one voice saying :

HOLY, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

PART III.

THE CANON OF THE MASS, OR MAIN ACTION OF THE SACRIFICE.

At the beginning of the Canon.

O ETERNAL and most merciful Father, behold we come to offer Thee our homage this day. We desire to adore, praise, and glorify Thee, joining our hearts and voices with all Thy Blessed in heaven, and with Thy whole Church upon earth. But acknowledging our great unworthiness and innumerable sins, for which we are heartily sorry and humbly crave Thy pardon, we dare not venture to approach Thee, save through Thy Son, our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ, whom Thou hast given us to be both our High-Priest and Sacrifice. With Him, therefore, and through Him, we venture to offer Thee this Sacrifice : to His most sacred intentions we desire to unite ours : and with this offering which He makes of Himself we wish to make an offering of our whole being unto Thee. With Him, and through Him, we beseech Thee to exalt Thy Holy Catholic Church throughout the world ; to maintain her in peace, unity, holiness, and truth ; to have mercy on Thy servant, N. our Pope, N. our Bishop, N. our Pastor, [our parents, children, friends, benefactors, etc.,] on all whom we have in any way scandalized, injured, or offended, or for whom we ought to pray ; on all who are dying ; on all who are under temptation, or in other necessity, of either body or soul ; on all our enemies ; and on us all poor sinners ; that we may all be converted to Thee, and find mercy through Jesus Christ, Thy Son ; through whom we hope one day to be admitted into the company of all Thy Saints and Elect, whose memory we here celebrate, whose prayers we desire, and with whom we communicate in these holy Mysteries.

GIVE ear, we beseech Thee, to the prayers of Thy servant, who is here appointed to make this Oblation in our behalf ; and grant it may be effectual for the obtaining of all those blessings which he asks for us.

Behold, O Lord, we all here present unto Thee in this bread and wine the symbols of our perfect union. Grant, O Lord, that they may be made for us the true Body and Blood of Thy dear Son ; that, being consecrated to Thee by this holy Victim, we may live in Thy service, and depart this life in Thy grace.

At the Consecration

Bow down in solemn adoration ; make an Act of Faith in the Real Presence of your Saviour's Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity, under the sacramental veils. Offer your whole self to Him, and through Him to His Father : beg that your heart and soul may be happily united to Him.

At the Elevation of the Host.

(Here the bell is rung again.)

MOST adorable Body, I adore Thee with all the powers of my soul. Lord, who hast given Thyself entire to us, grant we may become entirely Thine. I believe, O Lord ; help mine unbelief.

Most merciful Saviour, be Thou my protector ; strengthen and defend me by Thy heavenly grace, now, and especially at the hour of my death, good Jesus. Amen.

At the Elevation of the Chalice.

(Here also the bell is rung.)

MOST adorable Blood, that washest away all our sins, I adore Thee : happy we, could we return our life and blood for Thine, O blessed Victim.

O Jesus, do Thou cleanse, sanctify, and preserve our souls to eternal life. Live, Jesus, in us, and may we live in Thee. Amen.

After the Elevation.

AND now, O Lord, with grateful hearts we call to mind the sacred Mysteries of Thy Passion and Death, of Thy Resurrection and Ascension. Here is Thy Body that was delivered ; here is Thy Blood that was shed for us ; of which these exterior signs are but the figures and yet in reality contain the Substance. Now we truly offer Thee, O Lord, that pure and holy Victim which Thou hast been pleased to give us ; of which all the other sacrifices were but so many types and figures.

At the Memento for the Dead.

I OFFER Thee, O Almighty Father, this holy Sacrifice of the Body and Blood of Thine Only Son, in behalf of the Faithful Departed, and in particular for the souls of N.N. [here name whom you chiefly propose to pray for]. Likewise of such as I have in any way injured, or of whose sins I have by any means been the cause or occasion ; of such as have injured me, and been my enemies ; of such as die in war, or have none to pray for them. To these, O Lord, and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we beseech Thee, a place of refreshment, of light, and of peace. Through the same Christ, our Lord. Amen.

At the Nobis quoque Peccatoribus, when the Priest strikes his breast.

VOUCHSAFE to grant the same to us also, poor and miserable sinners ; judge us not according to our demerits, but through the infinite multitude of Thy tender mercies, in which we put all our trust, graciously extend to us Thy grace and pardon.

We ask it of Thee, in the name of Thy dear Son, who liveth and reigneth eternally with Thee; and in that form of prayer which He Himself hath taught us.

PART IV.

THE COMMUNION, OR SACRAMENTAL PART OF THE CANON.

At the Pater Noster.

Our Father, etc.

DELIVER us, O Lord, from those evils which we labor under at present; from past evils, which are our manifold sins; and from all evils to come, which will be the just chastisement of our offences, if our prayers, and those more powerful ones of Thy Saints, who intercede for us, intercept not Thy justice or excite not Thy bounty.

At the Pax Domini.

THY Body was delivered and Thy Blood was shed for us; grant that the commemoration of this Holy Mystery may obtain for us peace, and that those who receive it may find everlasting rest.

At the Agnus Dei, say with the Priest:

LAMB of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, grant us Thy peace.

After the Agnus Dei.

IN saying to Thine Apostles : Peace I leave you, My peace I give you ; Thou hast promised, O Lord, to all Thy Church, that peace which the world cannot give,—peace with Thee, and peace with ourselves. Let nothing, O Lord, ever interrupt this holy peace ; let nothing separate us from Thee, to whom we heartily desire to be united, through this Blessed Sacrament of peace and reconciliation. Let this Food of Angels strengthen us in every Christian duty, so as never more to yield under temptations or fall into our common weaknesses.

At the Domine, non sum dignus, say with the Priest three times, striking your breast :

LORD, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof ; but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

Such as do not intend to communicate sacramentally may communicate spiritually, as follows :

MOST loving Jesus, I adore Thee with a lively faith, who art present in this Sacrament by virtue of Thine infinite power, wisdom, and goodness. All my hope is in Thee. I love Thee, O Lord, with all my heart, who hast so loved me ; and therefore I desire to receive Thee now spiritually. Come, therefore, O Lord, to me in spirit, and heal my sinful soul. Feed me, for I am hungry ; strengthen me, for I am weak ; enliven and sanctify me with Thy sacred Body and Blood ; deliver me from all sin, and make me always obedient to Thy commandments ; and let me never be separated from Thee, my Saviour, who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest one God, world without end. Amen.

A FAVORITE PRAYER OF ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA.⁽¹⁾

Anima Christi.

S OUL of Christ, sanctify me !
Body of Christ, save me !
Blood of Christ, inebriate me !
Water from the side of Christ, wash me !
Passion of Christ, strengthen me !
O Good Jesus, hear me !
Within Thy Wounds hide me !
Suffer me not to be separated from Thee !
From the malicious enemy defend me !
In the hour of my death, call me,
And bid me come to Thee ;
That with Thy Saints I may praise Thee
For ever and ever. Amen.

At the Communion.

L ET it be now, O Lord, the effect of Thy mercy, that we who have been present at this holy Mystery may find the benefit of it in our souls.

PART V.

THE PUBLIC THANKSGIVING AFTER COMMUNION.

At the Post-Communion.

W E give Thee thanks, O God, for Thy mercy in admitting us to have a part in offering this Sacrifice to Thy holy name : accept it now to Thy glory, and be ever mindful of our weakness. Most gracious God, Father of mercy, grant, I beseech Thee, that this adorable Sacrifice of the blessed Body and Blood of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, may obtain for us at Thy hands mercy and the remission of all our sins. Amen.

Concluding Prayer.

I RETURN Thee now most hearty thanks, O my God, through Jesus Christ Thy Son, that Thou hast been pleased to deliver Him up to death for us, and to give us His Body and Blood, both as a Sacrament and a Sacrifice, in these holy Mysteries, at which Thou hast permitted me, a most unworthy sinner, to be present this day. May all heaven and earth bless and praise Thee ever for all Thy mercies. Pardon me, O Lord, all the distractions and the manifold negligences of which I have been guilty this day in Thy sight; and let me not depart without Thy blessing. Behold, I desire from this moment to give up myself, and all that belongs to me, into Thy hands; and I beg that all my undertakings, all my thoughts, words, and actions, may henceforward tend to Thy glory. Through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER AFTER MASS.

ALmighty, Everlasting God, we humbly beseech Thee graciously to look down from Thy high and holy place upon this congregation, and mercifully hear and accept the prayers of Thy Church. Of Thine infinite mercy be pleased to grant us pardon of all our sins, soundness of mind, health of body, and all the necessities of life : grant also peace in our days, freedom from tempests, and fruitful seasons. Grant also to our prayers the unity of the Catholic Faith, the extirpation of heresies, the destruction of wicked counsels, the increase of true religion, fervor of love and piety, sincere devotion, patience and long-suffering in affliction, and joy in hope. Finally, grant us all things needful for the welfare of our souls and bodies, but, above all, whatever may promote the increase of Thy glory. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

AN ACT OF REPARATION FOR BLASPHEMY.⁽¹⁾

BLESSED be God.

Blessed be His holy name.

Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true man.

Blessed be the name of Jesus.

Blessed be Jesus in the most holy Sacrament of the Altar.

Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most holy.

Blessed be her holy and Immaculate Conception.

Blessed be the name of Mary, Virgin and Mother.

Blessed be God in His Angels and in His Saints.

THE MANNER OF SERVING A PRIEST AT MASS.

The Priest begins, and the Server, kneeling at his left hand, answers him as follows :

INTROIBO ad altare Dei.

S. Ad Deum, qui lætificat juventutem meam.

P. Judica me, Deus, et discerne causam meam de gente non sancta : ab homine iniquo et doloso erue me.

S. Quia tu es, Deus, fortitudo mea : quare me repulisti, et quare tristis incedo, dum affligit me inimicus ?

P. Emitte lucem tuam, et veritatem tuam : ipsa me deduxerunt et adduxerunt in montem sanctum tuum et in tabernacula tua.

S. Et introibo ad altare Dei : ad Deum, qui lætificat juventutem meam.

P. Confitebor tibi in cithara, Deus, Deus meus. Quare tristis es, anima mea, et quare conturbas me ?

S. Spera in Deo, quoniam adhuc confitebor illi ; salutare vultus mei, et Deus meus.

P. Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto.

S. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

P. Introibo ad altare Dei.

S. Ad Deum, qui lætificat juventutem meam.

P. Adjutorium nostrum in nomine Domini.

S. Qui fecit cælum et terram.

P. Confiteor Deo, etc.

S. Misereatur tui omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis tuis, perducatur te ad vitam æternam.

P. Amen.

S. Confiteor Deo omnipotenti, beatæ Mariæ semper Virgini, beato Michaeli Archangelo, beato Joanni Baptistæ, sanctis Apostolis Petro et Paulo, omnibus Sanctis, et tibi, Pater, quia peccavi nimis, cogitatione, verbo, et opere. [Strike your breast thrice, and say] Mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa. Ideo precor beatam Mariam semper Virginem, beatum Michaellem Archangelum, beatum Joannem Baptistam, sanctos Apostolos Petrum et Paulum, omnes Sanctos, et te, Pater, orare pro me ad Dominum Deum nostrum.

P. Misereatur vestri, etc. S. Amen.

P. Indulgentiam, absolutionem, etc. S. Amen.

[At a Bishop's Mass, here give him the maniple.]

P. Deus, tu conversus vivificabis nos.

S. Et plebs tua lætabitur in te.

P. Ostende nobis, Domine, misericordiam tuam.

S. Et salutare tuum da nobis.

P. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

S. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

When the Priest goes from the book to the middle of the Altar :

P. Kyrie eleison. S. Kyrie eleison.

P. Kyrie eleison. S. Christe eleison.

P. Christe eleison. S. Christe eleison.

P. Kyrie eleison. S. Kyrie eleison.

P. Kyrie eleison.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

[At a Bishop's Mass :

B. Pax vobis. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.]

When the Priest says, Flectamus genua, as is the case a few times in the year, answer, Levate.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. S. Amen.

At the end of the Epistle say, Deo gratias; then remove the book to the other side of the Altar, and always kneel or stand on the side opposite to that on which the book has been placed.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Sequentia sancti evangelii secundum N.

Making the sign of the Cross on your forehead, mouth, and breast, say :

S. Gloria tibi, Domine.

Stand during the Gospel, and at the end say :

S. Laus tibi, Christe.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Here give the wine and water, and prepare the basin, water, and towel for the Priest. When the Priest has washed his fingers, kneel in your former place, and answer :

P. Orate fratres, etc.

S. Suscipiat Dominus sacrificium de manibus tuis ad laudem et gloriam nominis sui, ad utilitatem quoque nostram, totiusque Ecclesiæ suæ sanctæ.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. S. Amen.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Sursum corda. S. Habemus ad Dominum.

P. Gratias agamus Domino Deo nostro. S. Dignum et justum est.

At Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus ring the bell.

When you see the Priest spread his hands over the chalice, give warning, by the bell, of the Consecration which is about to be made. Then holding up the vestment with your left hand, and having the bell in your right, ring during the elevation of the host and of the chalice. As often as you pass by the Blessed Sacrament make a genuflection.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. S. Amen.

P. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem. S. Sed libera nos a malo.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. S. Amen!

P. Pax Domini sit semper vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

When the Priest says Domine, non sum dignus, ring the bell; and after his Communion, if there are communicants, prepare the cloth and say the Confiteor. After they have received, serve the Priest with wine and water, for the ablutions. Then remove the book to the other side of the Altar, take away the cloth from the communicants, and return to your place.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. S. Amen.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Ite; missa est: or, Benedicamus Domino. S. Deo gratias.

In Masses for the dead:

P. Requiescant in pace. S. Amen.

[At a Bishop's Mass:

B. Adjutorium nostrum in nomine Domini.

S. Qui fecit cælum et terram.

B. Sit nomen Domini benedictum.

S. Ex hoc nunc et usque in sæculum.

Benedicat vos omnipotens Deus, Pater ✠ et Filius ✠ et Spiritus ✠ Sanctus. S. Amen.]

Remove the book to the Gospel side, if it be left open; kneel as you pass, to receive the Priest's blessing, answering Amen.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Initium (or, Sequentia) sancti evangelii, etc.

S. Gloria tibi, Domine.

At the end say, Deo gratias.

THE ORDER OF BLESSING WATER.

On Sundays, and whenever need arises, the salt and clean water being prepared, in the Church or in the Sacristy, the Priest, vested in surplice and violet stole, first says :

OUR help is in the name of the Lord.
R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

THE EXORCISM OF THE SALT.

I EXORCISE thee, O creature of salt, by the living God, ✠ by the true God, ✠ by the holy God, ✠ by the God who commanded thee to be cast into the water by Eliseus the Prophet, that the barrenness of the same might be healed ; that thou become salt for the preservation of them that believe, and be to all who take thee salvation of soul and body ; and from the place wherein thou shalt be sprinkled let every delusion and wickedness of the devil, and all unclean spirits, fly and depart when adjured by Him who shall come to judge the living and the dead, and the world by fire.

R. Amen.

Let us pray.

WE humbly implore Thy boundless clemency, Almighty and Everlasting God, that of Thy bounty Thou wouldst deign to bless ✠ and sanctify ✠ this creature of salt, which Thou hast given for the use of mankind ; let it be unto all who take it health of mind and body ; that whatsoever shall be touched or sprinkled with it be freed from all manner of uncleanness, and from all assaults of spiritual wickedness. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc.

R. Amen.

THE EXORCISM OF THE WATER.

I EXORCISE thee, O creature of water, in the name of God ✠ the Father Almighty ; and in the name of Jesus Christ, ✠ His Son, our Lord ; and in the power of the Holy ✠ Ghost ; that thou mayest become water exorcised for the chasing away of all the power of the enemy ; that thou mayest have strength to uproot and cast out the enemy himself and his apostate angels, by the power of the same our Lord Jesus Christ, who shall come to judge the living and the dead, and the world by fire.

R. Amen.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who for the salvation of mankind hast founded one of Thy greatest Sacraments in the element of water, graciously give ear when we call upon Thee, and pour upon this element, prepared for divers purifications, the power of Thy ✠ blessing ; let Thy creature serving in Thy Mysteries, by Divine grace be effectual for casting out devils and for driving away diseases, that on whatsoever in the houses or places of the faithful this water shall be sprinkled, it may be freed from all uncleanness, and delivered from hurt. Let not the blast of pestilence nor disease remain there ; let every enemy that lieth in wait depart ; and if there be aught which hath ill-will to the safety and quietness of the inhabitants, let it flee away at the sprinkling of this water, that they, being healed by the invocation of Thy holy name, may be defended from all that rise up against them. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc.

R. Amen.

The Priest thrice mingles salt with water in the form of a Cross, saying once :

LET this become a mixture of salt and water, in the name of the Father, ✙ and of the Son, ✙ and of the Holy ✙ Ghost.

R. Amen.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

O GOD, Author of invincible might, King of unconquerable dominion, and ever a Conqueror who doest wonders, who puttest down the strength of all that rise up against Thee ; who overcomest the rage of the adversary ; who by Thy power dost cast down his wickedness ; we, O Lord, with fear and trembling humbly entreat and implore Thee to mercifully look upon this creature of salt and water, to graciously illumine and sanctify it with the dew of Thy favor ; that wheresoever it shall be sprinkled, by the invocation of Thy holy name all troubling of unclean spirits may be cast out, and the dread of the poisonous serpent be chased far away ; and let the presence of the Holy Ghost vouchsafe to be with us, who ask Thy mercy in every place. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc.

R. Amen.

THE ASPERGES.

The Asperges, or sprinkling with Holy Water, is performed every Sunday, immediately before High Mass, except when the Bishop celebrates pontifically.

The Priest who is about to celebrate High Mass first blesses the holy water according to the preceding Form, and then enters the Sanctuary vested in his alb and stole (and sometimes in a cope also), accompanied by an Acolyte bearing the vessel of holy water (at Solemn Mass he is accompanied also by the Deacon and Subdeacon). Arriving at the foot of the Altar, the Priest, while intoning the following Anthem, sprinkles the Altar three times; then himself, and afterwards his assistants. Then going down into the Church, he sprinkles the congregation.

ASPERGES me, Domine, hyssopo, et mundabor: lavabis me, et super nivem dealbabor.

Ps. Miserere mei, Deus, secundum magnam misericordiam tuam.

V. Gloria Patri, etc.

Ant. Asperges me, etc.

THOU shalt sprinkle me, O Lord, with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed: Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

Ps. Have mercy on me, O God, according to Thy great mercy.

V. Glory be to the Father, etc.

Ant. Thou shalt sprinkle me, etc.

The Priest, being returned to the foot of the Altar, says

OSTENDE nobis, Domine, misericordiam tuam.

R. Et salutare tuum da nobis.

V. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

SHOW us Thy mercy, O Lord.

R. And grant us Thy salvation.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. Et clamor meus ad
te veniat.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

EXAUDI nos, Domine
sancte, Pater omnipotens, æterne Deus; et mittere digneris sanctum Angelum tuum de cœlis, qui custodiat, foveat, protegat, visitet, atque defendat omnes habitantes in hoc habitaculo. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

HEAR us, O Holy Lord, Father Almighty, Everlasting God; and vouchsafe to send Thy holy Angel from Heaven, to guard, cherish, protect,
visit, and defend all those that are assembled together in this house.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

*From Easter to Whitsunday inclusively, instead of the foregoing Anthem, the following is sung, and Alleluia is added to the V.
(Ostende nobis) and also to its R. (Et salutare).*

VIDI aquam egredientem de templo a latere dextro, Alleluia; et omnes ad quos pervenit aqua ista salvi facti sunt, et dicent, Alleluia, alleluia.

I SAW water flowing from the right side of the temple, Alleluia; and all unto whom that water came were saved, and they shall say, Alleluia, alleluia.

Confitemini Domino, quoniam bonus: quoniam
in sæculum misericordia ejus. Gloria Patri, etc.

O praise the Lord, for
He is good; for His mercy endureth for ever. Glory be to the Father, etc.

The Antiphon Vidi aquam is repeated.

The Ordinary of the Holy Mass.

[N.B.—At Low Mass the parts within brackets are to be passed over.]

*The Priest, standing at the foot of the Altar, and making the usual reverence, signs himself with the sign of the Cross from the forehead to the breast, and says in an audible voice : **

N nomine Patris, ✠ et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti.

Amen.

I n the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then, joining his hands before his breast, he begins the Antiphon :

V. Introibo V. I will go in unto the ad altare Dei. Altar of God.

R. Ad Deum, qui lætificateat juventutem meam. R. Unto God, who giveth joy to my youth.

* At the beginning of High Mass, when the Priest commences at the foot of the Altar, the choir sings the Kyrie eleison, etc. (sometimes the Introit is sung first), which usually lasts until the Gloria in excelsis. Those parts of the service which are sung by the choir are also said in a low voice by the Priest.

[In Masses for the Dead, and in those of the Season from Passion Sunday till Holy Saturday exclusively, the following Psalm is omitted :]

Psalm 42.

JUDICA me, Deus, et discerne causam meam de gente non sancta : ab homine iniquo et doloso erue me.

M. Quia tu es, Deus, fortitudo mea, quare me repulisti? et quare tristis incedo dum affligit me inimicus?

S. Emitte lucem tuam et veritatem tuam : ipsa me deduxerunt et adduxerunt in montem sanctum tuum, et in tabernacula tua.

M. Et introibo ad altare Dei : ad Deum, qui lætificat juventutem meam.

S. Confitebor tibi in ci-thara, Deus, Deus meus : quare tristis es, anima mea? et quare conturbas me?

M. Spera in Deo, quoniam adhuc confitebor illi : salutare vultus mei, et Deus meus.

JUDGE me, O God, and distinguish my cause from the nation that is not holy : deliver me from the unjust and deceitful man.

R. For Thou, O God, art my strength : why hast Thou cast me off? and why go I sorrowful whilst the enemy afflicteth me?

P. Send forth Thy light and Thy truth : they have led me and brought me unto Thy holy hill, and into Thy tabernacles.

R. And I will go in unto the Altar of God : unto God, who giveth joy to my youth.

P. I will praise Thee upon the harp, O God, my God : why art thou sad, O my soul? and why dost thou disquiet me?

R. Hope thou in God, for I will yet praise Him : who is the salvation of my countenance, and my God.

S. Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto.

M. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

V. Introibo ad altare Dei.

R. Ad Deum, qui lætificat juventutem meam.

V. Adjutorium nostrum in nomine Domini.

R. Qui fecit cælum et terram.

P. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

V. I will go in unto the Altar of God.

R. Unto God, who giveth joy to my youth.

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

Then, joining his hands and humbly bowing down, he says the Confiteor, as on p. 35 :

S. Confiteor Deo omnipotenti, etc.

M. Misereatur tui omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis tuis, perducatur te ad vitam æternam.

S. Amen.

P. I confess to Almighty God, etc.

R. May Almighty God have mercy upon thee, and forgive thee thy sins, and bring thee unto life everlasting.

P. Amen.

The server then recites the Confiteor.

Then the Priest, with his hands joined, gives the Absolution, saying:

MISEREATUR vestri MAY Almighty God omnipotens Deus, have mercy upon et dimissis peccatis vestris, you, and forgive you your perducat vos ad vitam æternam. sins, and bring you unto life everlasting.

M. Amen.

R. Amen.

Signing himself with the sign of the Cross, he says :

INDULGENTIAM, ✠ MAY the Almighty

minus.

M. Amen.

R. Amen.

Then, bowing down, he proceeds :

V. Deus, tu conversus vivificabis nos.

R. Et plebs tua læta-bitur in te.

V. Ostende nobis, Do-mine, misericordiam tuam.

R. Et salutare tuum da nobis.

V. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

R. Et clamor meus ad
te veniat.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. Thou shalt turn again,
O God, and quicken us.

R. And Thy people shall rejoice in Thee.

V. Show us Thy mercy,
O Lord.

R. And grant us Thy salvation.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

The Priest then, extending and afterwards joining his hands, says :

Oremus.

Let us pray.

Then, going up to the Altar, he says inaudibly :

AUFER a nobis, quæsumus, Domine, iniquitates nostras : ut ad Sancta Sanctorum puris mereamur mentibus introire. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.	TAKE away from us our iniquities, we beseech Thee, O Lord : that we may be worthy to enter with pure minds into the Holy of Holies. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
---	--

Bowing down over the Altar, he kisses it and says :

ORAMUS te, Domine, per merita Sanctorum tuorum quorum reliquæ hic sunt, et omnium Sanctorum, ut indulgere digneris omnia peccata mea. Amen.	WE beseech Thee, O Lord, by the merits of Thy Saints whose relics are here, and of all the Saints, that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to forgive me all my sins. Amen.

[At Solemn Mass the Altar is here incensed.]

Then the Priest, signing himself with the sign of the Cross, reads

THE INTROIT,

during which one of the following may be read :

BLESSED be the Holy Trinity and Undivided Unity : we will give praise to Him, because He hath shown His mercy unto us.

O Lord, our Lord, how admirable is Thy name in the whole earth !

Glory be to the Father, who hath created us.

Glory be to the Son, who hath redeemed us.

Glory be to the Holy Ghost, who hath sanctified us.

Glory be to the Holy and Undivided Trinity, one God, world without end. Amen.

Or on a Saint's Day:

The Just shall flourish like the palm-tree ; he shall grow up like a cedar of Libanus ; they that are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of the house of our God.

It is good to give praise unto the Lord ; and to sing unto Thy name, O Thou Most High.

The Kyrie eleison is then said :

K YRIE eleison,	L ORD, have mercy,
M. Kyrie eleison,	R. Lord, have mercy,
S. Kyrie eleison,	P. Lord, have mercy,
M. Christe eleison,	R. Christ, have mercy,
S. Christe eleison,	P. Christ, have mercy,
M. Christe eleison,	R. Christ, have mercy,
S. Kyrie eleison,	P. Lord, have mercy,
M. Kyrie eleison,	R. Lord, have mercy,
S. Kyrie eleison.	P. Lord, have mercy.

*Afterwards, standing at the middle of the Altar, extending and then joining his hands, and slightly bowing, he says (when it is to be said ) the Gloria in excelsis.

[At High Mass the choir sings the Gloria, and the officiating clergy wait until its conclusion.]

GLORIA in excelsis GLORY be to God on Deo ; et in terra pax high, and on earth hominibus bonæ volunta- peace to men of good will.

* The Gloria is omitted in Masses of the Season during Lent and Advent, and in Masses for the Dead.

tis. Laudamus te; benedicimus te; adoramus te; glorificamus te. Gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam. Domine Deus, Rex cœlestis, Deus pater omnipotens. Domine Fili unigenite, Jesu Christe: Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius Patris, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis: qui tollis peccata mundi, suscipe deprecationem nostram: qui sedes ad dexteram Patris, miserere nobis. Quoniam tu solus sanctus: tu solus Dominus: tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe, cum Sancto Spiritu, in gloria Dei Patris.

Amen.

We praise Thee; we bless Thee; we worship Thee; we glorify Thee. We give Thee thanks for Thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father *Almighty. O Lord, the Only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us: Thou who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; Thou who sittest at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For Thou only art holy: Thou only art the Lord: Thou only, O Jesus Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Priest kisses the Altar, and, turning to the people, says:

V. Dominus vobiscum.
R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. The Lord be with you.
R. And with thy spirit.

Then follow the Collect and other prayers, if prescribed ; at the end of the first and last of which the acolyte answers, Amen.

The Collects vary with the season. They may be found in their proper place (pages 665 to 780). Any of the following may be used instead.*

O GOD, the Protector of all that hope in Thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy, multiply upon us Thy mercy ; that, Thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through temporal blessings that we finally lose not those which are eternal. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

DEFEND us, O Lord, we beseech Thee, from all dangers both of soul and body ; and, by the intercession of the glorious and blessed Mary ever Virgin, Mother of God, of blessed Joseph, of Thy holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed N. [here insert the name of your Patron Saint], and of all Thy Saints, grant us, in Thy mercy, health and peace ; that all adversities and errors being done away, Thy Church may serve Thee with a pure and undisturbed devotion.

ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, by whose Spirit it the whole body of the Church is sanctified and governed : receive our humble supplications which we offer before Thee for all degrees and orders of men in Thy holy Church, that, by the assistance of Thy grace, they may faithfully serve Thee.

* The same remark applies to the Introit, Epistle, Gradual, Gospel, Offertory, Communion, and Post-Communion.

O GOD, the Pastor and Ruler of all the faithful, look down, in Thy mercy, upon Thy servant N. [here mention the Pope's name], whom Thou hast appointed to preside over Thy Church; and grant, we beseech Thee, that both by word and example he may edify all those who are under his charge; so that, with the flock entrusted to him, he may arrive at length unto life everlasting. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

Then the Epistle for the day is read, which may be found in its proper place (pages 665 to 780); or the following may be used instead:

(Philip. iv. 4-9.)

REJOICE in the Lord always: again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known to all men: the Lord is nigh. Be anxious about nothing: but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your petitions be made known to God. And may the peace of God, which surpasseth all understanding, guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. As to the rest, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever modest, whatever just, whatever holy, whatever amiable, whatever of good report, if there be any virtue, if any praise of discipline, think on these things. The things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, these do ye; and the God of peace shall be with you.

After the Epistle is said:

R. Deo gratias.

R. Thanks be to God.

Then the Gradual, Tract, Alleluia, or Sequence, according to the time.

FOR THE GRADUAL.*

BE Thou unto me a God, a Protector, and a House of Refuge to save me. In Thee, O God, have I hoped; O Lord, let me never be confounded.

Deal not with us, O Lord, according to our sins which we have committed, nor punish us according to our iniquities.

V. Help us, O God our Saviour; and for the glory of Thy name, O Lord, deliver us, and forgive us our sins for Thy name's sake.

Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord. Come ye to Him, and be enlightened; and your faces shall not be confounded. Alleluia, alleluia. O clap your hands, all ye nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy. Alleluia.

Before the Gospel the Priest bows down before the middle of the Altar, and says.

MUNDA cor meum ac labia mea, om- nipotens Deus, qui labia Isaïæ prophetæ calculo mundasti ignito: ita me tua grata miseratione dig- nare mundare, ut sanctum Evangelium tuum digne	CLEANSE my heart and my lips, O Al- mighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the Pro- phet Isaïas with a burn- ing coal; and vouchsafe, through Thy gracious mercy, so to purify me

* The choir sings the Gradual while the book is moved to the Gospel side, and the Priest says the prayer Munda cor meum, "Cleanse my heart," etc.

valeam nuntiare. Per that I may worthily pro-

Amen.

Amen.

Jube Domine benedi- Lord, grant Thy bless-cere. ing.

THE Lord be in my heart and on my lips, that I may worthily and fittingly proclaim His holy Gospel. Amen.

Then, going to the Gospel side, he says :

V. Dominus vobiscum.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. Sequentia sancti
Evangelii secundum N.

V. The continuation of the holy Gospel according to N.

R. Gloria tibi, Domi-
ne.

R. Glory be to Thee, O
Lord.

Then is read

THE GOSPEL (pp. 665 to 780).

For the Gospel may be read :

(Luke xii. 35-40.)

LET your loins be girded round, and lamps burning in your hands. And be ye like men waiting for their lord, when he shall return from the wedding ; that when he cometh, and knocketh, they may open to him immediately. Happy are those servants whom the Lord, when He cometh, shall find watching. Truly

I say to you, that He will gird Himself, and make them recline at table, and will come and serve them. And if He shall come in the second watch, or shall come in the third watch, and so find, happy are those servants. But know this, that if the master of the house did know at what hour the thief would come, he would surely watch, and would not suffer his house to be broken open. Be ye then also ready; for at what hour ye think not, the Son of Man will come.

After the Gospel is said :

R. Laus tibi, Christe.

R. Praise be to thee, O Christ.

The Priest says inaudibly :

PER Evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

BY the words of the Gospel may our sins be blotted out.

[At Solemn Mass, after the Epistle is sung the Deacon places the Gospel-book on the table of the Altar, and the Celebrant blesses the incense. The Deacon then, kneeling before the Altar with his hands joined, says the Munda cor meum, as above. He then takes the book from the Altar, and kneeling, asks the Celebrant's blessing, saying :

Jube Domne benedicere.

Pray, sir, a blessing.

To which the Celebrant replies in the words of the prayer Dominus sit in corde, etc., above, only using the second person instead of the first, and blessing with the sign of the Cross.

The Deacon then proceeds, with attendants bearing incense and lights, to the Gospel side of the Sanctuary, and, standing with hands joined, sings :

Dominus vobiscum, etc.

The Lord be with you,
etc.

When he sings Sequentia, etc., he makes the sign of the Cross upon the book and upon himself; and thereupon incenses the book thrice.

After the Gospel the Subdeacon takes the book to the Celebrant, who kisses it, and is then incensed by the Deacon.]

[Here the Sermon is usually preached.]*

Then, at the middle of the Altar, extending, elevating, and joining his hands, the Priest says the Nicene Creed (when it is to be said), keeping his hands joined. At the words, and was incarnate, he kneels down, and continues kneeling to the words, WAS MADE MAN.

I will hear what the Lord will say unto me.

O Jesus, light of the world, enlighten my understanding, that I may understand Thy word; and cleanse my heart, that it may bring forth the fruits of Thy holy teaching.

After the Sermon.

I give Thee thanks, O Lord God, that Thou hast been pleased to refresh my soul by Thy word. Direct my steps according to Thy commandments.

[At High Mass the choir sings the Credo, and the clergy sit down until its conclusion.]

Then the Celebrant kisses the Altar, and, turning to the people, says :

V. Dominus vobiscum.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. And with thy spirit.

He then reads

THE OFFERTORY.*

THE Angel of the Lord shall encamp round about them that fear Him, and shall deliver them ; O taste and see that the Lord is sweet.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits: and thy youth shall be renewed like the eagle's.

I will extol Thee, O Lord, for Thou hast lifted me up : and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me : O Lord, my God, I have cried unto Thee : and Thou hast healed me.

* The choir sings the Offertory, or some suitable Anthem or Hymn.

This being finished, the Priest takes the paten with the Host [if it is Solemn Mass, the Deacon hands the Priest the paten with the Host], and, offering it up, says :

SUSCIPE, sancte Pater, omnipotens, æterne Deus, hanc immaculatam Hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus; sed et pro omnibus fidelibus Christianis, vivis atque defunctis; ut mihi et illis proficiat ad salutem in vitam æternam. Amen.

ACCEPT, O Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God, this stainless Host, which I, Thine unworthy servant, offer unto Thee, my God, living and true, for mine innumerable sins, offences, and negligences, and for all here present; as also for all faithful Christians, both living and dead, that it may be profitable for my own and for their salvation unto life eternal. Amen.

Then, making the sign of the Cross with the paten, he places the Host upon the corporal. The Priest pours wine and water into the chalice, blessing the water before it is mixed, saying :

DEUS, ✠ qui humanæ substantiæ dignitatem mirabiliter condidisti, et mirabilius reformasti: da nobis per hujus aquæ et vini mysterium, ejus divinitatis esse consortes, qui humanitatis nostræ fieri dignatus est particeps, Jesus Christus, Filius tuus, Dominus noster;

O GOD, ✠ who hast wonderfully framed man's exalted nature, and still more wonderfully restored it: grant us, by the mystic signification of this commingling of water and wine, to become partakers of His Godhead who vouchsafed to become partaker of our manhood, qui tecum vivit et regnat Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our in unitate Spiritus Sancti Lord; who liveth and Deus, per omnia sæcula reigneth with Thee in the

[If it is a Solemn Mass, the Deacon ministers the wine, the Subdeacon the water.]

Offering up the Chalice, he says.

OFFERIMUS tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam, ut in conspectu divinæ Majestatis tuæ, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat. Amen.	WE offer unto Thee, O Lord, the chalice of salvation, beseeching Thy clemency that, in the sight of Thy divine Majesty, it may ascend with the odor of sweetness, for our salvation, and for that of the whole world. Amen.
---	--

Then making the sign of the Cross with the chalice, and placing it on the corporal, he covers it with the pall.

At Solemn Mass the Subdeacon here receives the paten, and, wrapping it up in the veil with which his shoulders are covered, he goes and stands behind the Celebrant until towards the end of the Pater Noster.]

Bowing down, the Priest says:

IN spiritu humilitatis, et in animo contrito, suscipiamur a te, Domine, et sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspectu tuo hodie, ut placeat tibi, Domine Deus.	IN a humble spirit and a contrite heart may we be received by Thee, O Lord; and let our Sacrifice be so made in Thy sight this day that it may please Thee, O Lord God.
---	---

Raising his eyes and stretching out his hands, he says :

Giving the censer to the Deacon, he says :

Here the Celebrant is incensed by the Deacon, who next incenses the clergy present in choir and the other Ministers at the Altar.]

The Priest, with his hands joined, goes to the Epistle side of the Altar, where he washes his fingers while he recites the following verses of Ps. 25 :

LAVABO inter innocentes manus meas: I WILL wash my hands among the innocent : et circumdabo altare tuum, and I will compass Thine altar, O Lord. Domine.

Ut audiam vocem laudis : That I may hear the voice of praise, and tell of all Thy wondrous works. et enarrem universa mirabilia tua.

But as for me, I have walked in my innocence: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine.

My foot hath stood in the right way: in the churches I will bless Thee, O Lord.

* Gloria Patri, etc.

* Glory be to the Father, etc.

Returning, and bowing before the middle of the Altar, with joined hands, he says:

SUSCIPE, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam Passionis, Resurrectionis, et Ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatæ

RECEIVE, O Holy Trinity, this Oblation, which we offer unto Thee, in memory of the Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ, and in honor

Mariæ semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistæ, et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum et omnium Sanctorum : ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem : et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in cœlis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then he kisses the Altar, and having turned himself towards the people, extending and joining his hands, he raises his voice a little, and says :

O RATE, fratres, ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem.	P RAY, my brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

The server then answers :

Suscipiat Dominus sacrificium de manibus tuis, ad laudem et gloriam nominis sui, ad utilitatem quoque nostram, totiusque Ecclesiæ suæ sanctæ.	May the Lord receive the Sacrifice from thy hands, to the praise and glory of His name, to our benefit, and to that of all His holy Church.
--	--

The Priest answers in a low voice, Amen.

Then, with outstretched hands, he recites THE SECRET PRAYERS.

AT THE SECRETA.

MERCIFULLY hear our prayers, O Lord, and graciously accept this oblation which we Thy servants make unto Thee; and as we offer it to the honor of Thy name, so may it be to us a means of obtaining Thy grace here, and life everlasting hereafter. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

On a Saint's day.

SANCTIFY, O Lord, we beseech Thee, these gifts which we offer Thee in this solemnity of Thy holy servant N., and so strengthen us by Thy grace that both in prosperity and adversity our ways may be ever directed to Thine honor. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc.

Which being finished, he says in an audible voice :

He joins his hands before his breast and bows his head while he says :

V. Gratias agamus Domino Deo nostro.

V. Let us give thanks unto the Lord our God.

R. Dignum et justum est.

R. It is worthy and just.

He then disjoins his hands, and keeps them in this posture until the end of the Preface, after which he again joins them, and, bowing, says, Sanctus, etc. When he says Benedictus, etc., he signs himself with the Cross.*

The following Preface is said on every Sunday in the year that has no special preface of its own.

VERE dignum et justum est, æquum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, æterne Deus. Qui cum unigenito Filio tuo et Spiritu Sancto unus es Deus, unus es Dominus : non in unius singularitate Personæ, sed in unius Trinitate substantiæ. Quod enim de tua gloria, revelante te, credimus, hoc de Filio tuo, hoc de Spiritu IT is truly worthy and just, right and profitable unto salvation, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God. Who, with Thine Only-begotten Son and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord : not in the singleness of one only Person, but in the Trinity of one Substance. For what we believe of Thy glory, as

* At High Mass the choir sings the Sanctus (while the Priest is proceeding with the Canon) as far as the first Hosanna in excelsis before the elevation ; and after the elevation, Benedictus qui venit, etc.

Sancto, sine differentia discretionis sentimus. Ut in confessione veræ sempiternæque Deitatis, et in Personis proprietas, et in essentia unitas, et in Majestate adoretur æqualitas. Quem laudant angeli atque archangeli, cherubim quoque ac seraphim, qui non cessant clamare quotidie, una voce dicentes :

Thou hast revealed it, that we believe of Thy Son, and that of the Holy Ghost, without any difference or inequality. That in the confession of the True and Eternal Godhead, distinction in Persons, unity in Essence, and equality in Majesty may be adored. Whom the Angels and Archangels, the Cherubim also and Seraphim, do praise; who cease not daily to cry out, with one voice saying :

SANCTUS, sanctus, sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth. Pleni sunt cœli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis. Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.

HOLY, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

THE CANON OF THE MASS.

The Priest, first extending, then elevating and joining his hands, raising his eyes towards heaven, says in a low voice :

TE igitur, clementissime Pater, per Jesum Christum Filium tuum Dominum nostrum, supplices rogamus ac petimus,

WE, therefore, humbly pray and beseech Thee, most merciful Father, through Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord,

He kisses the Altar.

Here, striking his breast and slightly raising his voice, he says :

He uncovers the chalice, and makes a genuflection; then taking the Host in his right hand, and holding the chalice in his left, he makes thrice the sign of the Cross over the chalice, saying:

[At Solemn Mass, the Deacon, towards the conclusion of the Pater Noster, goes to the right hand of the Priest, where he awaits the approach of the Subdeacon, from whom he receives the paten, which he puts into the hands of the Priest.]

He takes the paten between his first and second finger, and says :

LIBERA nos, quæsumus, Domine, ab omnibus malis, præteritis, præsentibus, et futuris : et intercedente beata et gloriosa semper Virgine Dei Genitrice Maria, cum beatis Apostolis tuis Petro et Paulo, atque Andrea, et omnibus Sanctis,

DELIVER us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, from all evils, past, present, and to come : and by the intercession of blessed and glorious Mary ever Virgin, Mother of God, together with Thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and Andrew, and all the Saints,

Making the sign of the Cross on himself with the paten, he kisses it, and says :

Da propitius pacem in diebus nostris : ut ope misericordiæ tuæ adjuti, et a peccato simus semper liberi, et ab omni perturbatione securi.

Graciously give peace in our days : that, aided by the help of Thy mercy, we may be always free from sin, and secure from all disturbance.

He then uncovers the chalice, makes a genuflection, and, rising again, takes the sacred Host and breaks It in the middle, over the chalice, saying :

Per eundem Dominum	Through the same our nostrum Jesum Christum	Lord Jesus Christ, Thy
Filium tuum,	Son,

He then places the part of the Host which he has in his right hand on the paten. Then, breaking off a particle of that which remains in his left hand, he says :

Then placing on the paten what remains in his left hand of the sacred Host, and holding in his right hand, over the chalice, the particle which he had broken off, he says aloud :

Priest says the following prayers :*

(The preceding prayer is omitted in Masses for the Dead.)

[At Solemn Mass the Deacon kisses the Altar at the same time with the celebrating Priest, by whom he is saluted with the kiss of peace with these words:

V. Pax tecum.

V. Peace be with thee.

To which the Deacon answers:

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. And with thy spirit.

And then salutes in like manner the Subdeacon, who in turn salutes the clergy who may be present.

tui, Domine Jesu
Christe, quod ego indignus sumere præsumo, non mihi proveniat in iudicium et condemnationem ; sed pro tua pietate prosit mihi ad tutamentum mentis et corporis, et ad medelam percipiendam. Qui vivis et

unitate Spiritus Sancti,
Deus per omnia sæcula

LET not the partaking of Thy Body, O
Lord Jesus Christ, which I, though unworthy, presume to receive, turn to my judgment and condemnation ; but by Thy mercy be it profitable to the safety and health both of soul and body. Who with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest God world without end. Amen.

Making a genuflection, and taking the Host in his hands, the Priest says :

PANEM cœlestem accipiam, et nomen
Domini invocabo.

I WILL take the Bread of heaven, and will call upon the name of the Lord.

The Priest then, slightly inclining, takes both parts of the sacred Host, and, striking his breast and raising his voice a little, he says three times, humbly and with devotion :

(Here the bell is rung thrice.)

DOMINE, non sum dignus ut intres sub tectum meum ; sed tan-

LORD, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof; but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

He then makes the sign of the Cross on himself with the sacred Host, holding It in his right hand over the paten, saying :

CORPUS Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam meam in vitam æternam. Amen.

THE Body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

He then reverently takes both parts of the Host, joins his hands, and remains a short time in meditation on the most holy Sacrament. Then he uncovers the chalice, makes a genuflection, collects whatever fragments may remain, and wipes the paten over the chalice, saying meanwhile :

QUID retribuam Domino pro omnibus quæ retribuit mihi? Calicem salutaris accipiam, et nomen Domini invocabo. Laudans invocabo Dominum, et ab inimicis meis salvus ero.

WHAT shall I render unto the Lord for all the things that He hath rendered unto me? I will take the chalice of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. I will call upon the Lord and give praise : and I shall be saved from mine enemies.

He takes the chalice in his right hand, and, making the sign of the Cross with it on himself, he says :

SANGUIS Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam meam in vitam æternam. Amen.

THE Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

He then reverently takes the Precious Blood. After which he gives Communion to all who are to communicate.

Those who are to communicate go up to the Sanctuary at the Domine, non sum dignus, when the bell rings. The acolyte spreads a cloth before them, and says the Confiteor.

During the Confiteor the Priest removes from the Tabernacle of the Altar the ciborium, or vessel containing the Blessed Sacrament ; and placing it upon the corporal, he makes a genuflection, and, turning to the communicants, pronounces the Absolution :

MISEREATUR vestri omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis vestris, perducatur vos ad vitam æternam.

R. Amen.

MAY Almighty God have mercy upon you, and forgive you your sins, and bring you unto life everlasting.

R. Amen.

Signing them with the sign of the Cross, he continues :

INDULGENTIAM, ✠ absolutionem, et remissionem peccatorum vestrorum tribuat vobis omnipotens et misericors Dominus.

R. Amen.

MAY the Almighty and merciful Lord grant you pardon, ✠ absolution, and remission of your sins.

R. Amen.

Elevating a particle of the Blessed Sacrament, and turning towards the people, he says :

ECCE Agnus Dei, ecce qui tollit peccata mundi.

BEHOLD the Lamb of God, behold Him who taketh away the sins of the world.

And then says three times :

DOMINE, non sum dignus ut intres sub tectum meum ; sed

LORD, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my tantum dic verbo, et sana- bitur anima mea.	roof; but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

--	---

Descending the steps of the Altar to the communicants, he administers the Holy Communion, saying to each :

C ORPUS Domini nostri Jesu Christi cus- todiat animam tuam in vitam æternam. Amen.	T HE body of our Lord Jesus Christ pre- serve thy soul unto life everlasting. Amen.
---	--

The Priest then, returning to the Altar, replaces the ciborium in the Tabernacle, makes a genuflection, and closes the door. Then the acolyte pours a little wine into the chalice and the Priest takes the first ablution, saying :

Q UOD ore sumpsimus, Domine, pura men- te capiamus; et de mu- nere temporali fiat no- bis remedium sempiter- num.	W HAT we have taken with our mouth, O Lord, may we receive with a pure heart; and of a tem- poral gift may it become to us an everlasting heal- ing.

Here the acolyte, at the Epistle corner, pours wine and water over the Priest's fingers, and the Priest, returning to the middle of the Altar, wipes his fingers and takes the second ablution, saying :

C ORPUS tuum, Do- mine, quod sumpsi, et sanguis quem potavi, ad- hæreat visceribus meis : et præsta, ut in me non remaneat scelerum macula, quem pura et sancta refe-	M AY Thy Body, O Lord, which I have received, and Thy Blood which I have drunk, cleave unto my inmost parts ; and grant that no stain of sin may remain in me, who sæculorum. Amen. Who livest, etc. Amen.

Then he wipes his lips and the chalice, which he covers, and, having folded the corporal, places it on the Altar, as at first; he then goes to the book, and reads THE COMMUNION.

[At Solemn Mass the choir sings the Communion. The Subdeacon removes the chalice to the Credence table.]

FOR THE COMMUNION.

ONE thing I have asked of the Lord, this will I seek after : that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

O taste and see that the Lord is sweet : blessed is the man that hopeth in Him.

(On a Saint's Day.) Happy are those servants whom the Lord when He cometh shall find watching.

If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.

Then, going to the middle of the Altar, he turns to the people, and says :

V. Dominus vobiscum. V. The Lord be with you.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo. R. And with thy spirit.

Then, returning to the missal, he reads the POST-COMMUNIONS ; at the end of the first and last of which the acolyte answers, Amen.

FOR THE POST-COMMUNIONS.

POUR forth upon us, O Lord, the spirit of Thy love, that, by Thy mercy, Thou mayst make those of one mind whom Thou hast fed with one celestial Food. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

Graciously hear the prayers of Thy family, O Almighty God ; and grant that these Sacred Mysteries which we have received from Thee may by Thy grace be preserved incorrupt within us.

(On a Saint's Day.) We have received the heavenly Mysteries, O Lord, in the commemoration of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed Joseph, of blessed N. [here insert the name of your Patron Saint], and of all Thy Saints ; grant, we beseech Thee, that what we celebrate in time we may obtain in the joys of eternity. Through our Lord, etc. Amen.

Afterwards he turns again towards the people, and says :

V. Dominus vobiscum.	V. The Lord be with you.
R. Et cum spiritu tuo.	R. And with thy spirit.
V. Ite, missa est ;	V. Go, the Mass is ended ;

Or, when the Gloria in Excelsis has been omitted, he turns to the Altar and says :

V. Benedicamus Domi-	V. Let us bless the
no.	Lord.
R. Deo gratias.	R. Thanks be to God.

In Masses for the Dead :

V. Requiescant in pace.	V. May they rest in peace.
R. Amen.	R. Amen.

[At Solemn Mass, Ite, missa est, or Benedicamus Domino is chanted by the Deacon.]

Bowing before the Altar, the Priest says :

PLACEAT tibi, sancta MAY the performance Trinitas, obsequium of my homage be servitutis meæ ; et præsta, pleasing to Thee, O Holy ut sacrificium quod oculis tuæ Majestatis indignus obtuli, tibi sit acceptabile, quibus illud obtuli, sit,

te miserante, propitiabile.

Trinity; and grant that the Sacrifice which I, though unworthy, have offered up in the sight of Thy Majesty, may be acceptable unto Thee, and may, through Thy mercy, be a propitiation for myself, and all those for whom I have offered it. Through Christ
our Lord. Amen.

Then he kisses the Altar, and raising his eyes, and extending, raising, and joining his hands, he bows his head, and says :

BENEDICAT vos om-
nipotens Deus, Pater, et Filius, ✠ et Spiritus Sanctus.

R. Amen.

MAY Almighty God
bless you; the Father, the Son, ✠ and the Holy Ghost.

R. Amen.

At the word Deus he turns towards the people, and makes the sign of the Cross over them. [The Benediction is omitted in Masses for the Dead.] Then, turning to the Gospel side of the Altar, he says :

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

He then makes the sign of the Cross, first upon the Altar, and then upon his forehead, lips, and breast, and begins the Gospel according to St. John, saying :

INITIUM sancti Evangelii secundum Joan-nem.

*M. Gloria tibi, Domi-
ne.*

THE beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Lord.*

Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux : sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera quæ illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum.

In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potes-

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. This was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him was made nothing that was made : in Him was life, and the life was the light of men : and the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. This one came for a witness, to testify concerning the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but he was to testify concerning the light. The true Light, which enlighteneth every man, cometh into this world.

He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world knew Him not. He came to His own possessions, and His own people received Him not. But to tatem filios Dei fieri : his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. ET VERBUM CARO FACTUM EST [Hic genuflectitur], et habitavit in nobis ; et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiæ et veritatis.

M. Deo gratias.

as many as received Him He gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in His name, who are born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. AND THE WORD WAS MADE FLESH [Here all kneel], and dwelt among us ; and we saw His glory, the glory as of the Only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

When a feast falls on a Sunday, or other day which has a proper Gospel of its own, the Gospel of the day is read instead of the Gospel of St. John.

OCCASIONAL PRAYERS.

For the Whole Church.

Defend us, O Lord (p. 121).

For all Orders of Ecclesiastics.

Almighty and Everlasting God (p. 121).

For the Pope.

O God, the Pastor (p. 122).

For Bishops, and the People committed to them.

ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, who alone doest great wonders, send down upon Thy servants, and the congregations committed unto them, the spirit of Thy saving grace ; and that they may truly please Thee, pour forth upon them the continual dew of Thy blessing.

For the Bishop of the Diocese.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to Thy servant our Bishop, that, by preaching and doing such things as are right, he may by the example of good works edify the minds of those under his authority, and receive of Thee, most tender Shepherd, an everlasting recompense and reward.

For a Congregation or Family.

Defend, we beseech Thee (p. 243).

For the Preservation of Concord in a Congregation.

O GOD, the Giver of peace and Lover of charity, grant to Thy servants true concord and union with Thy holy will, that we may be delivered from all temptations which assault us.

Against the Persecutors of the Church.

MERCIFULLY hear, O Lord, we beseech Thee, the prayers of Thy Church: that all adversities and errors being done away, we may serve Thee with a pure and undisturbed devotion.

In any Necessity.

O God, our refuge and strength (p. 752).

In any Tribulation.

O ALMIGHTY God, despise not Thy people who cry unto Thee in their affliction; but, for the glory of Thy name, turn away Thine anger, and help us in our tribulations.

In Time of Famine or Pestilence.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, O Lord, an answer to our hearty supplications; and, Thy wrath being appeased, turn away from us this famine (or pestilence), that the hearts of men may know that these scourges proceed from Thine anger, and cease by Thy mercy.

For Rain.

O GOD, in whom we live, and move, and are, grant us seasonable rain ; that we, enjoying a sufficiency of support in this life, may with more confidence strive after the things which are eternal.

For Fair Weather.

HEAR us, O Lord, who cry unto Thee, and grant fair weather to us, Thy suppliant servants ; that we, who are justly afflicted for our sins, may by Thy preventing pity find mercy.

For the gift of Tears.

ALmighty and most Merciful God, who didst cause a fount of living water to spring out of a rock, for Thy people in their thirst : draw forth tears of compunction from our stony hearts ; that we may weep over our sins, and by Thy mercy deserve to obtain pardon for the same.

For Forgiveness of Sins.

O GOD, who rejectest none that come unto Thee, but in loving-kindness art appeased even with the greatest sinners who repent : mercifully regard our prayers in our humiliation, and enlighten our hearts, that we may be able to fulfil Thy commandments.

For the Tempted and Afflicted.

O GOD, who justifiest the ungodly, and willest not the death of a sinner : we humbly entreat Thy Majesty to protect Thy servants, who trust in Thy mercy, with Thy heavenly assistance, and preserve them by Thy continual protection ; that they may constantly serve Thee, and by no temptation be separated from Thee.

Against Evil Thoughts.

ALMIGHTY and most Merciful God, graciously hearken unto our prayers : and free our hearts from the temptations of evil thoughts ; that we may worthily become a fit habitation for Thy Holy Spirit.

For the gift of Continence.

Inflame, O Lord (p. 311).

For the gift of Humility.

O GOD, who resistest the proud, and givest grace to the humble : grant us the virtue of true humility, whereof Thine Only-begotten showed in Himself a pattern for Thy faithful ; that we may never by our pride provoke Thine anger, but rather by our meekness receive the riches of Thy grace.

For the gift of Patience.

O GOD, who didst crush the pride of the enemy by the long-suffering of Thine Only-begotten Son : grant, we beseech Thee, that we may worthily recall those things which in His tender love He bore for us ; and thus following His example may patiently endure all our adversities.

For the gift of Charity.

O GOD, who makest all things to work together for good unto those who love Thee ; give to our hearts the lasting affection of Thy love ; that such desires as are inspired by Thee may never be changed by any temptation.

For those at Sea.

O GOD, who didst bring our fathers through the Red Sea, and bear them through the great waters singing praises unto Thy name : we humbly beseech Thee to vouchsafe to turn away all adversities from Thy servants at sea, and to bring them with a calm voyage unto the haven where they would be.

For Heretics and Schismatics.

O ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, who hast compassion on all, and wouldst not that any should perish : favorably look down upon all those who are seduced by the deceit of Satan ; that, all heretical impiety being removed, the hearts of such as err may repent and return to the unity of Thy truth.

For Jews.

O ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, who repellst not from Thy mercy even the perfidious Jews : hear the prayer which we offer for the blindness of that people ; that the light of Thy truth, Christ our Lord, being known to them, they may be delivered from their darkness.

For Pagans.

O ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, who desirest not the death but the life of sinners : mercifully accept our prayers, and, delivering pagans from the worship of idols, unite them to Thy Church, to the praise and honor of Thy glorious name.

For our Friends.

O GOD, who, by the grace of the Holy Spirit, hast poured into the hearts of Thy faithful the gifts of charity : grant to Thy servants and handmaids, for whom we implore Thy mercy, health both of body and soul ; that they may love Thee with all their strength, and cheerfully perform those things which are pleasing unto Thee.

For Enemies.

O GOD, the lover and preserver of peace and charity : grant unto all our enemies peace and true charity ; give them remission of all their sins, and by Thy power deliver us from their suares.

A Short Recommendation to God.

I NTO the hands of Thy unspeakable mercy, O Lord, I commend my soul and body ; my senses, my words, my thoughts, and all my actions, with all the necessities of my body and soul ; my going forth and my coming in ; my faith and conversation ; the course and end of my life ; the day and hour of my death ; my rest and resurrection with the Saints and Elect.

For the Sick.

Almighty and Eternal God (p. 496).

For a Sick Person near Death.

A LMIGHTY and Everlasting God, preserver of souls, who dost correct those whom Thou dost love, and for their amendment dost tenderly chastise those whom Thou dost receive, we call upon Thee, O Lord, to bestow Thy healing, that the soul of Thy servant, at the hour of its departure from the body, may by the hands of Thy holy Angels be presented without spot unto Thee.

For the Dead.

Almighty, Everlasting God (p. 269).

A Prayer before Study or Instructions.

I NCOMPREHENSIBLE Creator, the true Fountain of light and only Author of all knowledge : vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, to enlighten our understandings, and to remove from us all darkness of sin and ignorance. [Thou, who makest eloquent the tongues of those that want utterance, direct our tongues, and pour on our lips the grace of Thy blessing.] Give us a diligent and obedient spirit, quickness of apprehension, capacity of retaining, and the powerful assistance of Thy holy grace; that what we hear or learn we may apply to Thy honor and the eternal salvation of our own souls.

For a Husband or Wife.

O gracious Father (p. 435).

O merciful Lord (p. 451).

O merciful God (p. 452).

Prayers of Parents, for themselves and for their Children.

Almighty God, the Father (p. 453).

O FATHER of mankind, who hast given unto me these my children, and committed them to my charge to bring them up for Thee, and to prepare them for everlasting life: assist me with Thy heavenly grace, that I may be able to fulfil this most sacred duty and stewardship. Teach me both what to give and what to withhold; when to reprove and when to forbear; make me to be gentle, yet firm; considerate and watchful; and deliver me equally from the weakness of indulgence, and the excess of severity; and grant that, both by word and example, I may be careful to lead them in the ways of wisdom and true piety, so that at last I may, with them, be admitted to the unspeakable joys of our true home in heaven, in the company of the blessed Angels and Saints.

O HEAVENLY Father, I commend my children unto Thee. Be Thou their God and Father; and mercifully supply whatever is wanting in me through frailty or negligence. Strengthen them to overcome the corruptions of the world, to resist all solicitations to evil, whether from within or without; and deliver them from the secret snares of the enemy. Pour Thy grace into their hearts, and confirm and multiply in them the gifts of Thy Holy Spirit, that they may daily grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ; and so, faithfully serving Thee here, may come to rejoice in Thy presence hereafter.

A Child's Prayer.

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast given unto me my father and mother, and made them to be an image of Thine authority, and love, and tender watchfulness; and hast commanded me to love, and honor, and obey them in all things: give me grace cheerfully and with my whole heart to keep this Thy law. Help me to love them fervently, to honor them truly, to yield a ready obedience to their commands, to comply with their wishes, to study their happiness in everything, and to bear their rebukes with patience and humility. , Deliver me, O God, from pride, rebellion, and wilfulness, from passion and stubbornness, from sloth and carelessness. Make me diligent in all my duties and studies, and patient in all my trials ; that so living, I may deserve to be Thy child, who art our Father in Heaven.

A Prayer for Choosing a State of Life.

O LORD, I beseech Thee to grant me Thy divine light, that I may know the designs of Thy providence concerning me, and that, filled with a sincere desire for my soul's salvation, I may say, with the young man in the Gospel : What must I do to be saved ? All states of life are before me ; but, still undecided what to do, I await Thy commands, I offer myself to Thee without restriction, without reserve, with a most perfect submission.

Far be it from me, O Lord, to oppose the order of Thy wisdom, and, unfaithful to the inspiration of Thy grace, to strive to subject the will of the Creator to the caprice of the creature. It is not for the servant to choose the way in which he will serve his master : do Thou lay upon me what commands Thou pleasest. My lot is in Thy hands. I make no exception, lest perchance what I except be that which Thou willest, and because I am too short-sighted to discover in the future the different obstacles I shall meet with, if, without Thy guidance, I make myself the arbiter of my own conduct. Speak, Lord, to my soul ; speak to me as Thou didst to the youthful Samuel : Speak, Lord ; for Thy servant heareth. I cast myself at Thy feet, and I am ready, if it be Thy will, to sacrifice myself as a victim to Thee for the remainder of my days, in such wise as Thou shalt deem most worthy of Thy greatness.

O my God, inspire the affections of my parents, and guide their projects according to the counsels of Thy wisdom. Lord, I sincerely desire to consult Thee who art the Eternal Truth; grant that my parents also may submit themselves to its decrees, faithfully and without reserve.

A Prayer in Times of Threatened Calamity.

O JESUS CHRIST, we call upon Thee, Holy, Immortal God. Have mercy upon us and upon all men. Purify us by Thy holy Blood, forgive us by Thy holy Blood, save us by Thy holy Blood, now and for ever. Amen.

We pray Thee, O Almighty and Eternal God (p. 56).

A UNIVERSAL PRAYER.

For all Things Necessary to Salvation.

(Composed by Pope Clement XI., A.D. 1721.)

O MY God, I believe in Thee; do Thou strengthen my faith. All my hopes are in Thee; do Thou secure them. I love Thee; teach me to love Thee daily more and more. I am sorry that I have offended Thee; do Thou increase my sorrow.

I adore Thee as my first beginning; I aspire after Thee as my last end. I give Thee thanks as my constant benefactor; I call upon Thee as my sovereign protector.

Vouchsafe, O my God, to conduct me by Thy wisdom, to restrain me by Thy justice, to comfort me by Thy mercy, to defend me by Thy power.

To Thee I desire to consecrate all my thoughts, words, actions, and sufferings; that henceforward I may think of Thee, speak of Thee, refer all my actions to Thy greater glory, and suffer willingly whatever Thou shalt appoint.

Lord, I desire that in all things Thy will may be done, because it is Thy will, and in the manner that Thou wilt.

I beg of Thee to enlighten my understanding, to inflame my will, to purify my body, and to sanctify my soul.

Give me strength, O my God, to expiate my offences, to overcome my temptations, to subdue my passions, and to acquire the virtues proper for my state.

Fill my heart with tender affection for Thy goodness, hatred of my faults, love of my neighbor, and contempt of the world.

Let me always remember to be submissive to my superiors, courteous to my inferiors, faithful to my friends, and charitable to my enemies.

Assist me to overcome sensuality by mortification, avarice by almsdeeds, anger by meekness, and tepidity by devotion.

O my God, make me prudent in my undertakings, courageous in dangers, patient in affliction, and humble in prosperity.

Grant that I may be ever attentive at my prayers, temperate at my meals, diligent in my employments, and constant in my resolutions.

Let my conscience be ever upright and pure, my exterior modest, my conversation edifying, and my deportment regular.

Assist me, that I may continually labor to overcome nature, to correspond with Thy grace, to keep Thy commandments, and to work out my salvation.

Discover to me, O my God, the nothingness of this world, the greatness of heaven, the shortness of time, and the length of eternity.

Grant that I may prepare for death ; that I may fear Thy judgments, escape hell, and in the end obtain heaven ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Vespers.

THE public prayers of the Church, other than those in the great Sacrifice of the Mass, are contained in the Breviary. The whole Office for each day consists of MATINS and LAUDS ; PRIME, TIERCE, SEXT, and NONE (the prayers for the first, third, sixth, and ninth hours, the old Roman division of the day); VESPERS and COMPLINE. This Office was originally chanted daily by the faithful, and is still chanted by some religious Orders, the preservers of primitive tradition and fervor. It is daily recited by the Clergy ; and on Sundays and Holydays the Vespers are publicly chanted as part of the solemn worship of the day, to enable the faithful to join in so holy and venerable a form of prayer.

All the parts of the Office consist of Psalms and Canticles from the Holy Scripture, with lessons also from Scripture, or the Holy Fathers, and appropriate to the day.

The Psalms in the Vespers for Sunday are the 109th and the following, including the 113th, although very frequently the 116th is substituted for the last of these. This series of Psalms is most suitable to the ordinary wants of the Church on her weekly Festivals. The first is a kind of commemoration of all the great Mysteries of our Redemption ; the second alludes to the praise of God in the congregation ; the third commemorates the graces and privileges of the just ; the fourth is a Psalm of praise, as is also that substituted occasionally for the fifth ; the fifth celebrates the deliverance of the Israelites from Egyptian bondage. All are prophecies of our Lord and of His Immaculate Mother, as well as of the Church. In them we sing the praises of Christ, our Lord, as Priest for ever, offering Sacrifice, like Melchisedech, in the form of bread and wine ; as Lord of lords, and King of kings ; as true to

His promises of ever abiding by His Church, investing her with miraculous powers; and ever spreading the mystic Banquet: in them we praise Him as our Redeemer and our God, whom we adore; in them we praise that Immaculate Virgin—the joyful mother of children—and with her raise our hearts and voices to glorify God.

It is not, then, an unmeaning Service, but one most appropriate and consoling. Hence, though it is not of obligation to attend Vespers, as it is to hear Mass, all the Saints and spiritual writers of the Church urge the faithful to be present at this Office with piety and devotion. For there is always more benefit and comfort to be derived from the public Offices of the Church than from private devotions, God having ordained that Communion of prayers should always have the preference.

VESPERS FOR SUNDAY.

The Priest, with his attendants, enters the sanctuary, and, kneeling before the Altar, recites the following prayer:

APERI, Domine, os meum ad benedictum nomen sanctum tuum: munda quoque cor meum ab omnibus vanis, perversis, et alienis cogitationibus: intellectum illumina, affectum inflamma, ut digne, attente, ac devote hoc Officium recitare valeam, et exaudiri merear ante conspectum divinæ

O LORD, open Thou my mouth that I may bless Thy Holy Name; cleanse my heart from all vain, evil, and wandering thoughts; enlighten my understanding; kindle my affections, that I may worthily, attentively, and devoutly recite this office, and may deserve to be heard before the presence

Domine, in unione illius divinae intentionis, qua ipse in terris laudes Deo persolvisti, has tibi Horas persolvo. Lord, in union with that divine intention wherewith Thou didst Thyself praise God while on earth, I offer these Hours unto Thee.

The Celebrant and his attendants then proceed to the bench, on the Epistle side of the sanctuary; and after saying in silence the Our Father and the Hail Mary, the Celebrant intones :

DEUS, in adjutorium meum intende.

WHEN Israel came out of Egypt : the house of Jacob from among a strange people, Judea was made His sanctuary : and Israel His dominion.

The sea saw it, and fled : Jordan was turned back.

The mountains skipped like rams : and the little hills like the lambs of the flock.

What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest : and thou, Jordan, that thou wast turned back ?

Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams : and ye little hills, like the lambs of the flock ?

At the presence of the Lord the earth was moved : at the presence of the God of Jacob.

Who turned the rock into a standing water : and the stony hill into a flowing stream.

For Thy mercy, and for Thy truth's sake : lest the gentiles should say, Where is their God ?

But our God is in heaven : He hath done all things whatsoever He would.

The idols of the gentiles are silver and gold : the work of the hands of men.

They have mouths, and speak not : eyes have they, and see not.

They have ears, and hear not : noses have they, and smell not.

They have hands, and feel not : they have feet, and walk not ; neither shall they speak through their throat.

Let them that make them become like unto them : and all such as put their trust in them.

The house of Israel hath hoped in the Lord : He is their helper and protector.

When the Choir has ended the chanting of the Psalms, the Priest rises and chants the Little Chapter—generally the first sentence of the Epistle of the day (pp. 665 to 780); but from the Third Sunday after Epiphany till Septuagesima, and from the Third Sunday after Pentecost till Advent, the following :

THE LITTLE CHAPTER.

nostra.

R. Deo gratias.

R. Thanks be to God.

The choir then sings the Hymn of the day, which varies according to season and solemnity (pp. 599 to 660). The Hymn which corresponds to the Little Chapter, Benedictus, is as follows :

L UCIS Creator optime,	* F ATHER of Lights,
Lucem dierum proferens,	by whom each day
Primordiis lucis novæ	Is kindled out of night,
	Who, when the heavens
	were made, didst lay
Mundi parans originem :	Their rudiments in light ;

Qui mane junctum vesperi	Thou who didst bind and blend in one
Diem vocari præcipis ;	The glistening morn and evening pale,
Illabitur tetrum chaos,	Hear Thou our plaint, when light is gone,
Audi preces cum fletibus.	And lawlessness and strife prevail.
Ne mens gravata crimine,	Hear, lest the whelming weight of crime
Vitæ sit exul munere,	Wreck us with life in view ;
Dum nil perenne cogitat,	Lest thoughts and schemes of sense and time
Seseque culpis illigat.	Earn us a sinner's due.
Cœleste pulset ostium ;	So may we knock at Hea- ven's door,
Vitale tollat præmium :	And strive the immortal prize to win,
Vitemus omne noxium :	Continually and evermore
Purgemus omne pessimum.	Guarded without and pure within.
Præsta, Pater piissime,	Grant this, O Father, Only Son,
Patrique compar unice,	And Spirit, God of grace,
Cum Spiritu Paraclito,	To whom all worship shall be done
Regnans per omne sæcu- lum. Amen.	In every time and place. Amen.

Then the choir chants the Magnificat, or Canticle of the Blessed Virgin—preceded and followed by its proper Antiphon—during which the Priest puts on the cope, if he has not worn it from the beginning, and, proceeding to the Altar, blesses incense and puts it into the censer. He then incenses the Altar in the same manner as at Solemn Mass.

Because He hath looked down on the lowliness of His handmaid : for behold henceforth all generations will call me blessed.

Because the Mighty One hath done great things for me : and holy is His name.

Oremus.

DEUS, cujus dextera beatum Petrum ambulantem in fluctibus, ne mergeretur, erexit; et coapostolum ejus Paulum tertio naufragantem de profundo pelagi liberavit: exaudi nos propitius, et concede, ut amborum meritis æternitatis gloriam consequamur.

[A Commemoration is made of the Patron or Titular of the Church either before or after the above, according to dignity.]

FOR PEACE.

DA pacem, Domine, in diebus nostris, quia non est alius qui pugnet

PETER the Apostle, and Paul the Doctor of the Gentiles, they have taught us Thy law, O Lord.

V. Thou shalt make them princes over all the earth.

R. They shall be mindful of Thy name, O Lord.

Let us pray.

O GOD, whose right hand raised up Blessed Peter when he walked amid the waves, and suffered him not to sink; and delivered his fellow-Apostle Paul, in his third shipwreck, from the depths of the sea: graciously hear us, and grant that by the merits of both we may attain unto everlasting glory.

GRANT peace in our days, O Lord, for there is none other that pro nobis, nisi tu Deus fighteth for us, but only noster. Thou, our God.

V. Fiat pax in virtute V. Let peace be in thy
tua. strength.

R. Et abundantia in tur- R. And plenteousness in ribus tuis. thy towers.

Oremus.

Let us pray.

DEUS, a quo sancta desideria, recta con-silia, et justa sunt opera :
da servis tuis illam, quam mundus dare non potest pacem ; ut et corda nostra mandatis tuis dedita, et hostium sublata formidine, tempora sint tua protectione tranquilla.

O GOD, from whom are holy desires, right counsels, and just works :
give unto Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give ; that our hearts being given to the keeping of Thy commandments, and the fear of enemies
being removed, our days, by Thy protection, may be peaceful.

From the Second Sunday after Easter till the Ascension the foregoing Commemorations are omitted, and the following is the only Commemoration made :

OF THE CROSS.

CRUCEM sanctam subiit, qui infernum confregit, accinctus est po-tentia, surrexit die tertia,
Alleluia.

HE bore the Holy Cross, who broke the power of hell ; He was girded with power, He arose again the third day,
Alleluia.

V. Dicite in nationibus,
Alleluia.

R. Quia Dominus regnavit a ligno, Alleluia.

V. Tell ye among the nations, Alleluia.

R. That the Lord hath reigned from the tree, Alleluia.

Oremus.

DEUS, qui pro nobis Filium tuum crucis patibulum subire voluisti, ut inimici a nobis expelleres potestatem: concede nobis famulis tuis, ut resurrectionis gratiam consequamur. Per eundem Dominum, etc.

R. Amen.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. Benedicamus Domino.

R. Deo gratias.

V. Fidelium animæ per misericordiam Dei requiescant in pace.

R. Amen.

Pater noster (secreto).

V. Dominus det nobis suam pacem.

R. Et vitam æternam.
Amen.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who didst will that Thy Son should undergo for us the ignominy of the Cross, that Thou mightest drive away from us the power of the enemy: grant unto us Thy servants to be made partakers of the grace of the Resurrection. Through our Lord, etc.

R. Amen.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. Let us bless the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

V. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

R. Amen.

Our Father (inaudibly).

V. May the Lord grant us His peace.

R. And life everlasting.
Amen.

Here follows the Antiphon of the Blessed Virgin proper for the season. See end of Compline (p. 76).

Last of all is said, kneeling and in silence :

S ACROSANCTÆ et individuae Trinitati, crucifixi Domini nostri Jesu Christi humanitati, beatis- simae et gloriosissimae, sem- perque Virginis Mariæ fœ- cundae integritati, et om- nium Sanctorum universi- tati sit sempiterna laus, honor, virtus et gloria ab omni creatura, nobisque remissio omnium pecca- torum, per infinita sæcula sæculorum.	TO the Most Holy and undivided Trinity, to the Humanity of our Lord Jesus Christ crucified, to the fruitful Virginity of the most blessed and most glorious Mary, ever Virgin, and to the whole company of the Saints, be ever- lasting praise, honor, and glory, by all creatures; and to us remission of all our sins, world without end.
---	---

R. Amen.

R. Amen.

V. Beata viscera Mariæ
 Virginis, quæ portaverunt æterni Patris Filium.

V. Blessed be the womb of the Virgin Mary, which bore the Son of the Eternal Father.

R. Et beata ubera, quæ lactaverunt Christum Do-
 minum.

R. And blessed be the breast which nourished
 Christ the Lord.

Then are said the Our Father and the Hail Mary.

Jerusalem : praise thy God, O Sion.

For He hath strengthened the bars of thy gates :
He hath blessed thy children within thee.

Qui posuit fines tuos pacem : * et adipe frumenti satiat te.

Qui emittit eloquium suum terræ : * velociter currit sermo ejus.

Qui dat nivem sicut lanam ; * nebulam sicut cinerem spargit.

Mittit crystallum suam sicut buccellas : * ante faciem frigoris ejus quis sustinebit ?

Emittet verbum suum, et liquefaciet ea : * flabit spiritus ejus, et fluent aquæ.

Qui annuntiat verbum suum Jacob : * justitias et judicia sua Israel.

Gloria Patri, etc.

Who hath made peace in thy borders : and filleth thee with the fat of corn.

Who sendeth forth His speech upon the earth : His word runneth very swiftly.

Who giveth snow like wool : He scattereth mists like ashes.

He sendeth His crystal like morsels : who shall stand before the face of His cold ?

He shall send out His word, and shall melt them : His wind shall blow, and the waters shall run.

Who declareth His word unto Jacob : His justice and judgments unto Israel.

He hath not done in like manner to every nation : and His judgments He hath not made manifest to them.

Psalm 125.

IN convertendo Dominus captivitatem Sion, * facti sumus sicut consolati.

WHEN the Lord turned again the captivity of Sion : we became like men consoled.

Tunc repletum est gaudio os nostrum : * et lingua nostra exultatione.

Tunc dicent inter gentes : * Magnificavit Dominus facere cum eis.

Magnificavit Dominus facere nobiscum : * facti sumus lætantes.

Converte, Domine, captivitatem nostram : * sicut torrens in austro.

Qui seminant in lacrymis, * in exultatione metent.

Euntes ibant et flebant, * mittentes semina sua.

Venientes autem venient cum exultatione : * portantes manipulos suos.

Gloria Patri, etc.

Then was our mouth filled with gladness : and our tongue with joy.

Then shall they say among the gentiles : The Lord hath done great things for them.

The Lord hath done great things for us : we are become joyful.

Turn again our captivity, O Lord : as a river in the south.

They that sow in tears : shall reap in joy.

They went forth on their way and wept : scattering their seed.

But returning, they shall come with joy : carrying their sheaves with them.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 138.

DOMINE, probasti me, et cognovisti me : * tu cognovisti sessionem meam, et resurrectionem meam.

Intellexisti cogitationes

LORD, Thou hast proved me, and known me : Thou hast known my sitting down, and my rising up.

Thou hast understood meas de longe : * semitam meam et funiculum meum investigasti.

Et omnes vias meas prævidisti : * quia non est ser-mo in lingua mea.

Ecce, Domine, tu cogno-visti omnia, novissima et antiqua : * tu formasti me, et posuisti super me ma-num tuam.

Mirabilis facta est scientia tua ex me : * confortata est, et non potero ad eam.

Quo ibo a spiritu tuo ? *
et quo a facie tua fugiam ?

Si ascendero in cœlum,
tu illic es : * si descendero in infernum, ades.

Si sumpsero pennas meas
diluculo, * et habitavero
in extremis maris :

Etenim illuc manus tua
deducet me : * et tenebit me dextera tua.

Et dixi : Forsitan tenebræ conculcabunt me : * et my thoughts afar off : my path and my line hast Thou searched out.

Thou hast foreseen also all my ways : for there is no speech in my tongue.

Behold, O Lord, Thou hast known all things, the newest and those of old :
Thou hast formed me, and laid Thine hand upon me.

Thy knowledge is become wonderful unto me :
it is high, and I cannot reach unto it.

Whither shall I go from Thy spirit ? or whither shall I flee from Thy face ?

If I ascend into heaven,
Thou art there : if I descend into hell, Thou art present.

If I take my wings early in the morning : and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

Even there also shall Thy hand lead me : and Thy right hand shall hold
me.

And I said, Perhaps darkness shall cover me :

nox illuminatio mea in deliciis meis.

Quia tenebræ non obscurabuntur a te, et nox sicut dies illuminabitur : * sicut tenebræ ejus, ita et lumen ejus.

Quia tu possedisti renes meos : * suscepisti me de utero matris meæ.

Confitebor tibi, quia terribiliter magnificatus es : * mirabilia opera tua, et anima mea cognoscit nimis.

Non est occultatum os meum a te, quod fecisti in occulto : * et substantia mea in inferioribus terræ.

Imperfectum meum vident oculi tui, et in libro tuo omnes scribentur : * dies formabuntur, et nemo in eis.

Mihi autem nimis honorificati sunt amici tui, Deus : * nimis confortatus est principatus eorum.

Dinumerabo eos, et su-and night shall be my light in my pleasures.

But darkness shall not be dark to Thee ; and night shall be as light as the day : the darkness and the light thereof shall be alike to Thee.

For Thou hast possessed my reins : Thou hast up-holden me from my mother's womb.

I will praise Thee, for Thou art fearfully magnified : wonderful are Thy works, and my soul knoweth them right well.

My bone is not hidden from Thee, which Thou hast made in secret : and my substance in the lower parts of the earth.

Thine eyes did see my imperfect being, and in Thy book all shall be written : the days shall be formed, and no one in them.

But to me Thy friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable : their principality is exceedingly strengthened.

I will number them, and per arenam multiplicabuntur : * exurrexi, et adhuc sum tecum.

Si occideris, Deus, peccatores : * viri sanguinum declinate a me :

Quia dicitis in cogitatione : * Accipient in vanitate civitates tuas.

Nonne qui oderunt te, Domine, oderam : * et super inimicos tuos tabescbam ?

Perfecto odio oderam illos : * et inimici facti sunt mihi.

Proba me, Deus, et scito cor meum : * interroga me, et cognosce semitas meas.

Et vide, si via iniquitatis in me est : * et deduc me in via æterna.

Gloria Patri, etc.

they shall be multiplied above the sand : I rose up, and am still with Thee.

If Thou wilt slay the wicked, O God : ye men of blood, depart from me :

Because ye say in thought : They shall receive Thy cities in vain.

Have I not hated them, O Lord, that hated Thee : and pined away because of Thine enemies ?

I have hated them with a perfect hatred : and they became as enemies unto me.

Prove me, O God, and know my heart : examine me, and know my paths.

And see if there be in me the way of iniquity : and lead me in the eternal way.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 127.

BEATI omnes, qui ti-ment Dominum, *
qui ambulant in viis ejus.

Labores manuum tuarum quia manducabis : *
beatus es, et bene tibi
erit.

Uxor tua, sicut vitis
abundans, * in lateribus
domus tuæ.

Filii tui sicut novellæ
olivarum, * in circuitu mensæ tuæ.

Ecce, sic benedicetur homo, * qui timet Domi-
num.

Benedicat tibi Dominus ex Sion : * et videas bona Jerusalem omnibus diebus vitæ tuæ.

Et videas filios filiorum tuorum : * pacem super Israel.

Gloria Patri, etc.

BLESSED are all they
that fear the Lord :
that walk in His ways.

For thou shalt eat the labors of thy hands : blessed art thou, and it shall be well with thee.

Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine : on the walls of thy house.

Thy children as olive plants : round about thy table.

Behold, thus shall the man be blessed : that feareth the Lord.

May the Lord bless thee out of Sion : and mayest thou see the good things of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

Mayest thou see thy children's children : and peace upon Israel.

Glory be to the Father,
etc.

Psalm 129.

DE profundis clamavi
ad te, Domine : *
Domine, exaudi vocem
meam.

OUT of the depths have
I cried unto Thee,
O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

Fiant aures tuæ intendentes * in vocem deprecationis meæ.

Si iniquitates observaveris, Domine : * Domine, quis sustinebit ?

Quia apud te propitiatio est : * et propter legem tuam sustinui te, Domine.

Sustinuit anima mea in verbo ejus : * speravit anima mea in Domino.

A custodia matutina usque ad noctem * speret Israel in Domino.

Quia apud Dominum misericordia : * et copiosa apud eum redemptio.

Et ipse redimet Israel * ex omnibus iniquitatibus ejus.

Gloria Patri, etc.

O let Thine ears consider well : the voice of my supplication.

If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities : Lord, who shall abide it ?

For with Thee there is merciful forgiveness : and because of Thy law I have waited for Thee, O Lord.

My soul hath waited on His word : my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

From the morning watch even until night : let Israel hope in the Lord.

For with the Lord there is mercy : and with Him is plenteous redemption.

And He shall redeem Israel : from all his iniquities.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 137.

CONFITEBOR tibi, Domine, in toto corde meo : * quoniam audisti verba oris mei.

I WILL praise Thee, O Lord, with my whole heart : for Thou hast heard the words of my mouth.

In conspectu Angelorum psallam tibi : * adorabo ad templum sanctum tu-um, et confitebor nomini
tuo :

Super misericordia tua, et veritate tua : * quoniam magnificasti super omne, nomen sanctum tuum.

In quacunque die invocavero te, exaudi me : *
multiplicabis in anima mea
virtutem.

Confiteantur tibi, Do-mine, omnes reges terræ : *
quia audierunt omnia verba oris tui.

Et cantent in viis Domini : * quoniam magna est gloria Domini.

Quoniam excelsus, Dominus, et humilia respicit :
* et alta a longe cognoscit.

Si ambulavero in medio tribulationis, vivificabis me, * et super iram inimicorum meorum extendisti manum tuam, et salvum me fecit dextera tua.

I will sing praise unto Thee in the sight of the Angels : I will worship towards Thy holy temple, and give glory unto Thy name.

For Thy mercy, and for Thy truth : for Thou hast magnified Thy holy name above all.

In what day soever I shall call upon Thee, hear Thou me : Thou shalt multiply strength in my soul.

Let all the kings of the earth give glory unto Thee, O Lord : for they have heard all the words of Thy mouth.

And let them sing in the ways of the Lord : for great is the glory of the Lord.

For the Lord is high,
and looketh on the lowly :
and the lofty He knoweth afar off.

If I shall walk in the midst of tribulation, Thou wilt quicken me : and Thou hast stretched forth Thy hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and Thy right hand hath saved me.

Dominus retribuet pro me ; Domine, misericordia tua in sæculum : * opera manuum tuarum ne despicias.

Gloria Patri, etc.

The Lord will repay for me ; Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever : O despise not the works of Thy hands.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THE Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is a Rite in which Jesus, in the Sacrament of His love, is not only exposed to the adoration of the faithful, but in which He, present in that Sacrament, is implored to bless the faithful present before the Altar. It is not so much the Priest who blesses the people by this Rite, as it is Jesus Christ Himself, in the Blessed Sacrament, who bestows His benediction upon them.

In this country Benediction usually follows Vespers. After the final Antiphon of the Blessed Virgin is said, the Priest, vested in surplice, stole, and cope, goes up to the Altar, while the choir sings the O salutaris Hostia; and opening the Tabernacle, he makes a genuflection, and taking out a consecrated Host enclosed in a kind of locket, called a luna, places this in the centre of the Monstrance or Ostensorium—a stand of gold or silver, with rays like the sun. He then descends to the foot of the Altar, and puts incense in the censer; kneeling again, he receives the censer from the hand of the acolyte, and incenses the Adorable Host. When the choir sings the second line of the Tantum ergo, all bow humbly down, and then, or during the Genitori, the Priest again incenses the Blessed Sacrament.

As soon as the choir has ended the hymn the Priest chants the Versicle; and after the Response he chants the Prayer of the Blessed Sacrament, and sometimes another prayer. He then kneels again, and a veil is placed around his shoulders, after which he ascends again to the Altar, and, making a genuflection, takes the Monstrance, and, turning to the people, gives the Benediction in silence, making the sign of the Cross over the kneeling congregation.

Replacing the Host in the Tabernacle, he descends, and, preceded by his assistants, retires, while the choir chants the 116th Psalm, Laudate Dominum omnes gentes, or some other Psalm or Canticle permitted by the usage of the place.

During this holy Rite the devout worshipper may either join in the chant of the choir, or pour out his soul in aspirations of love, adoration, gratitude, petition, or contrition to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, thus humbled for our love.

When the Priest has exposed the Blessed Sacrament, the choir sings :

O SALUTARIS Hostia,	O SAVING Victim !
	opening wide
Qui cœli pandis ostium :	The gate of Heaven to man below !
Bella premunt hostilia :	Our foes press on from every side ;
Da robur, fer auxilium.	Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.
Uni trinoque Domino	To Thy great Name be endless praise,
Sit sempiterna gloria,	Immortal Godhead ! One in Three !
Qui vitam sine termino	O grant us endless length of days
Nobis donet in patria.	In our true native land with Thee !

Here is frequently sung the Litany of Loreto (p. 65), or some hymn in honor of the Blessed Sacrament (p. 658).

222 BENEDICTION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

Lastly is sung the Tantum Ergo; during which incense is again offered to the Blessed Sacrament, and all prostrate themselves at the second line.

TANTUM ergo Sacra-mentum,

Veneremur cernui ;

Et antiquum documentum

Novo cedat ritui ;

Præstet fides supplementum

Sensuum defectui.

Genitori, Genitoque

Laus et jubilatio ;

Salus, honor, virtus quo-que

Sit et benedictio ;

Procedenti ab utroque

Compar sit laudatio.
Amen.

DOWN in adoration falling,

Lo ! the sacred Host we hail !

Lo ! o'er ancient forms departing,

Newer rites of grace prevail ;

Faith for all defects supplying

Where the feeble senses fail.

To the Everlasting Father,

And the Son who reigns
on high,

With the Holy Ghost proceeding

Forth from each eternally,

Be salvation, honor, blessing,

Might, and endless majesty. Amen.

Still kneeling, the Priest sings :

V. Panem de cœlo præ-stitisti eis.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.

R. Omne delectamentum in se habentem.

R. Having in it the sweetness of every taste.

[In Easter-tide, and during the octave of Corpus Christi, Alleluia is added to V. and R.]

Rising, he sings the following prayer :

Oremus.

Let us pray.

DEUS, qui nobis, sub sacramento mirabili, passionis tuæ memoriam reliquisti : tribue, quæsumus, ita nos corporis et sanguinis tui sacra mysteria venerari, ut re-demptionis tuæ fructum
in nobis jugiter sentiamus.
Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculorum.

O GOD, who, under a wonderful Sacrament, hast left us a memorial of Thy passion :
grant us, we beseech Thee,
so to venerate the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Blood that we may ever feel within ourselves the fruit of Thy Redemption.
Who livest and reignest,
world without end.

R. Amen.

R. Amen.

*The Benediction Veil is now placed upon the shoulders of the Priest.
He ascends the steps of the Altar, takes the Monstrance containing the Blessed Sacrament in his hands, and solemnly and in silence makes with It the sign of the Cross over the kneeling people.
(Meanwhile a bell is rung by an acolyte.)*

After the Blessed Sacrament has been replaced in the Tabernacle all rise and sing :

Psalm 116.

LAUDATE Dominum,
omnes gentes : lau-
date eum, omnes populi.

O PRAISE the Lord,
all ye nations : praise
Him, all ye people.

Quoniam confirmata est
super nos misericordia ejus:
et veritas Domini manet in æternum.

Gloria Patri, etc.

For His mercy is confirmed upon us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever.

Glory be to the Father,
etc.

During the singing of the Sicut erat of the Gloria, the Celebrant and ministers retire; and thus ends the Benediction.

THE BLESSING OF THE CANDLES.

ON THE FEAST OF THE PURIFICATION, FEBRUARY 2.

The Priest, clad in a violet cope, or else without chasuble, proceeds to the Blessing of the Candles, placed on a table near the Epistle-corner of the Altar; and there standing, facing the Altar, and with hands joined before his breast, the Priest says.

blessing ✠ upon these candles ; that as they afford us external light, so by Thy bounty the light of Thy Spirit may never be inwardly wanting to our minds. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc.

R. Amen.

Let us pray.

OLORD Jesus Christ, who, appearing among men in the substance of our flesh, wast this day presented by Thy parents in the Temple; whom the venerable old man Simeon, illumined by the light of Thy Spirit, recognized, received, and blessed: mercifully grant that, enlightened and taught by the grace of the same Holy Spirit, we may truly acknowledge Thee, and faithfully love Thee. Who with God the Father, in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, livest and reignest God, world without end.

R. Amen.

Here the Priest, having put incense into the censer, sprinkles the candles three times with holy water, saying the Antiphon :

ASPERGES me, Domine, hyssopo, et mundabor ; lavabis me, et super nivem dealbabor.

THOU shalt sprinkle me, O Lord, with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed ; Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

He then incenses the candles three times, and distributes them, first to the clergy, then to the laity, who receive them kneeling, and kissing the candle and the Priest's hand. During the distribution the choir sings :

LUMEN ad revelationem gentium, et gloriam plebis tuæ Israel.

V. Nunc dimittis servum tuum, Domine, * secundum verbum tuum in pace.

LIGHT to enlighten the gentiles, and glory of Thy people Israel.

V. Now, O Lord, lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace : according to Thy word.

Then is repeated the Antiphon Lumen, as above, and the same after each verse.

V. Quia viderunt oculi mei * salutare tuum.

R. Lumen, etc.

V. Quod parasti * ante faciem omnium populorum.

R. Lumen, etc.

V. Gloria Patri, et Filio,* et Spiritui Sancto.

V. For mine eyes have seen : Thy salvation.

R. Light, etc.

V. Which Thou hast prepared : in sight of all nations.

R. Light, etc.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost.

R. Lumen, etc.

Amen.

R. Lumen, etc.

R. Light, etc.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end.

Amen.

R. Light, etc.

Then follows the Antiphon :

EXURGE, Domine, adjuva nos, et libera
nos propter nomen tuum.

Deus, auribus nostris audivimus : * patres nostri annuntiaverunt nobis.

V. Gloria Patri, etc.

ARISE, O Lord, help us, and deliver us,
for Thy Name's sake.

We have heard with our ears, O God : our fathers have declared unto us.

V. Glory be to the Father, etc.

The Antiphon Exurge is repeated, as above.

Then the Priest says :

Oremus.

Let us pray.

[If after Septuagesima, and not on a Sunday, the Deacon adds :

Flectamus genua.

R. Levate.

Let us kneel.]

R. Arise.

Lord, we beseech
Thee, and grant us to obtain those things inwardly
by the light of Thy grace, which Thou grantest us outwardly to worship by this yearly devotion. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Then follows the procession. The Celebrant puts incense into the censer, after which the Deacon, turning towards the people, sings :

V. Procedamus in pace. V. Let us proceed in peace.

To which the choir answers :

R. In nomine Christi. R. In the name of Christ. Amen. Amen.

The Thurifer goes before with burning incense ; then the Sub-deacon vested carrying the Cross between two acolytes with lighted candles ; the clergy follow according to their order ; and lastly the Celebrant, with the Deacon at his left hand, all bearing lighted candles. They sing the following Antiphons :

ADORNA thalamum tuum, Sion, et suscipe Regem Christum ; amplectere Mariam, quæ est cœlestis porta : ipsa enim portat Regem gloriæ novi luminis : subsistit Virgo, adducens manibus filium ante luciferum genitum : quem accipiens Simeon in ulnas suas, prædicavit populis Dominum eum esse vitæ et mortis, et Salvatorem mundi.

ADORN thy chamber, O Sion, and receive Christ the King ; in love consider Mary, who is the gate of heaven : for she bears the glorious King of the new light : remaining ever a Virgin, she brings in her hands the Son begotten before the day-star : whom Simeon, receiving into his arms, proclaimed to the people to be the Lord of life and death, and the Saviour of the world.

As it is written, etc.

V. Glory be to the Father.

As it is written, etc.

The procession being finished, the clergy put on white vestments for the Mass, and the candles are held lighted during the Gospel, and from the Elevation to the Communion.

THE BLESSING OF THE ASHES.

ON ASH WEDNESDAY.

EXAUDI nos, Domine,

 Thy mercy is kind :
 look upon us, O Lord, according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies.

Save me, O God ; for the waters are come in even unto my soul.

V. Glory be to the Father, etc.

The Antiphon Exaudi nos is repeated. Then the Priest, standing at the Epistle corner of the Altar, says :

R. Amen.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who art moved by humiliation, and by satisfaction appeased: incline the ear of Thy fatherly love unto our prayers, and mercifully pour forth upon the heads of Thy servants, sprinkled with these ashes, the grace of Thy blessing; that Thou mayest both fill them with the spirit of compunction, and effectually grant those things for which they have justly prayed; and ordain that what Thou hast granted may be established and remain unmoved for ever. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Oremus.Let us pray.

OMNIPOTENS, semperterne Deus, qui Ni-nivitis in cinere et cilicio pœnitentibus, indulgentiæ tuæ remedia præstitisti :
concede propitius, ut sic eos imitemur habitu, quatenus veniæ prosequamur obtentu. Per Dominum nostrum, etc.

R. Amen.

ALmighty and Eternal God, who didst grant the remedy of Thy pardon to the Ninivites doing penance in ashes and sackcloth : mercifully grant that we may so imitate their penance that we may follow them
in obtaining forgiveness.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc.

R. Amen.

The Priest sprinkles the ashes thrice with holy water, saying the Antiphon Asperges me, Domine, p. 112 (without the Psalm following), and incenses them three times.

The Priest then puts the ashes on the foreheads of the people, saying:

MEMENTO, homo, quia pulvis es, et in pulverem reverteris.

REMEMBER, O man,
that dust thou art,
and into dust thou shalt return.

While the people are receiving the ashes the following Antiphons are sung :

IMMUTEMUR habitu,
in cinere et cilicio : jejunemus et ploremus ante Dominum : quia multum
misericors est dimittere peccata nostra Deus noster.

LET us change our garments for ashes and sackcloth : let us fast and lament before the Lord :
for our God is very merciful to forgive our sins.

INTER vestibulum et altare plorabunt sacerdotes ministri Domini, et dicent, Parce Domine, parce populo tuo : et ne claudas ora canentium te Domine.

R. Emendemus in melius, quæ ignoranter peccavimus : ne subito præoccupati die mortis, quæramus spatium pœnitentiæ, et invenire non possimus.* Attende, Domine, et miserere : quia peccavimus tibi.

V. Adjuva nos, Deus, salutaris noster : et propter honorem nominis tui, Domine, libera nos. Attende, Domine, etc.

V. Gloria Patri, etc. Attende, etc.

BETWEEN the porch and the altar, the priests, the Lord's ministers, shall weep, and shall say : Spare, O Lord, spare Thy people : and shut not the mouths of those who sing to Thee, O Lord.

R. Let us change for the better in those things in which we have sinned through ignorance : lest we be suddenly overtaken by the day of death, and seek space for penance, and find it not : Hear, O Lord, and have mercy : for we have sinned against Thee.

V. Help us, O God our Saviour : and for the honor of Thy name, O Lord, deliver us. Hear, O Lord, etc.

V. Glory be to the Father, etc. Hear, etc.

When all have received the ashes the Priest says :

V. Dominus vobiscum.
R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. The Lord be with you.
R. And with thy spirit.

Oremus.

CONCEDE nobis, Domine, præsidia militiæ christianæ sanctis inchoare jejuniis : ut contra spiritales nequitias pugnaturi, continentiæ muniamur auxiliis. Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

R. Amen.

Let us pray.

GRANT us, O Lord, to begin our Christian warfare with holy fasts ; that, as we are about to fight against the spirits of wickedness, we may be defended by the aids of self-denial. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then follows the Mass.

NOTE.—The offices of HOLY WEEK, being of great length, are not given in this book. They are contained in full in the "HOLY WEEK BOOK," published by the Catholic Publication Society Co.

THE BLESSING OF CHILDREN,

WHEN THEY ARE PRESENTED IN THE CHURCH.

The children being assembled, the boys and the girls in separate ranks, the Priest, turning towards them, says :

ADJUTORIUM nostrum in nomine OUR help is in the name of the Lord. Domini.

R. Qui fecit cœlum et terram.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

Then is said the Antiphon :

LAUDATE, pueri, Dominum, laudate nomen Domini.

PRAISE the Lord, ye children, praise ye the name of the Lord.

Then Psalm 112, beginning with the second verse :

SIT nomen Domini benedictum, * ex hoc nunc, et usque in sæculum.

BLESSED be the name of the Lord : from this time forth, for evermore.

A solis ortu usque ad occasum * laudabile nomen Domini.

From the rising up of the sun unto the going down of the same : the name of the Lord is worthy to be praised.

Excelsus super omnes gentes Dominus, * et super cœlos gloria ejus.

etc.

The Antiphon is repeated :

LAUDATE, pueri, Dominum, laudate no-

PRAISE the Lord, ye children, praise ye
the name of the Lord.

The Priest then says :

Oremus.

Let us pray.

DOMINE Jesu Christe,

OLORD Jesus Christ,
who didst embrace little children who were brought unto Thee, and didst lay Thy hands upon them and bless them, saying : Suffer the little children to come to Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven, and Their Angels always behold the face of My Father : look down,
we beseech Thee, upon the innocence of these little ones here present, and upon the devotion of their parents, and graciously bless ✠ them this day by our ministry ; that in te diligent, te timeant, et mandata tua custodiant, et ad finem optatum feliciter perveniant, per te Salvator mundi. Qui cum Patre et Spiritu sancto vivis et regnas Deus in sæcula sæculorum.

R. Amen.

Oremus.

DEFENDE, quæsumus, Domine, beata Maria semper Virgine intercedente, istam ab omni adversitate familiam ; et toto corde tibi prostratam ab hostium propitius tuere clementer insidiis. Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

R. Amen.

Oremus.

DEUS, qui ineffabili providentia sanctos Angelos tuos ad nostram

Thy grace and mercy they may ever grow in the knowledge, love, and fear of Thee, and in the keeping of Thy Commandments, and may happily attain unto their wished-for end. Through Thee, O Saviour of the world, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest, etc. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

DEFEND, we beseech Thee, O Lord, through the intercession of Blessed Mary, ever Virgin, this Thy family from all adversity ; and as in all humility they prostrate themselves before Thee, do Thou graciously protect them against all the snares of their enemies. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Let us pray.

OGOD, who, in Thine unspeakable Providence, art pleased to send custodiam mittere dignaris : largire supplicibus tuis, et eorum semper protectione defendi, et æterna societate gaudere. Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

R. Amen.

Thy holy Angels to watch over us : mercifully grant unto Thy humble servants, both that we be always defended by their protection here, and rejoice for ever in their company hereafter. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Then the Priest blesses the children in the form of a Cross, saying :

BENEDICAT vos Deus, et custodiat corda vestra et intelligentias vestras Pater, ✠ et Filius, et Spiritus sanctus.

R. Amen.

MAY God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, bless ✠ you, and keep your hearts and your minds.

R. Amen.

He then sprinkles them with holy water in the form of a Cross.

The Seven Penitential Psalms.*⁽¹⁾

REMEMBER not, O Lord, our offences, nor those of our parents ; neither take Thou revenge of our sins.

1. Psalm 6.

O LORD, rebuke me not in Thine anger : nor chastise me in Thy wrath.

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am weak : heal me, O Lord, for my bones are troubled.

My soul also is troubled exceedingly : but Thou, O Lord, how long ?

Turn Thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul : O save me for Thy mercy's sake.

For in death there is no one that is mindful of Thee : and who will give Thee thanks in hell ?

I have labored in my groanings, every night will I wash my bed : and water my couch with my tears.

Mine eye is troubled through indignation : I have grown old amongst all mine enemies.

* It is a pious custom to recite the seven Penitential Psalms, respectively, by way of prayer against the seven deadly sins.

Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity : for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

The Lord hath heard my supplication : the Lord hath received my prayer.

Let all mine enemies be put to shame, and be sore troubled : let them be turned back, and put to shame very speedily.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

2. Psalm 31.

BLESSED are they whose iniquities are forgiven : and whose sins are covered.

Blessed is the man to whom the Lord hath not imputed sin : and in whose spirit there is no guile.

Because I was silent, my bones grew old : whilst I cried out all the day long.

For day and night Thy hand was heavy upon me : I am turned in my anguish, whilst the thorn is fastened.

I have acknowledged my sin unto Thee : and mine iniquity I have not concealed.

I said, I will confess against myself mine iniquity unto the Lord : and Thou hast forgiven the wickedness of my sin.

For this shall every one that is holy pray to Thee : in a seasonable time.

And yet in a flood of many waters : they shall not come nigh unto him.

Thou art my refuge from the trouble which hath encompassed me : my joy, deliver me from them that surround me.

I will give thee understanding, and I will instruct thee in this way, in which thou shalt go : I will fix Mine eyes upon thee.

Be not as the horse and the mule : that have no understanding.

With bit and bridle bind fast their jaws : who come not near unto Thee.

Many are the scourges of the sinner : but mercy shall encompass him that hopeth in the Lord.

Be glad in the Lord and rejoice, ye just : and be joyful, all ye that are right of heart.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

3. Psalm 37.

REBUKE me not, O Lord, in Thine indignation : neither chasten me in Thy sore displeasure.

For Thine arrows are fastened in me : and Thy hand presseth heavily upon me.

There is no health in my flesh, because of Thy wrath : there is no rest for my bones, because of my sins.

For mine iniquities are gone over my head : and as a heavy burden are become heavy upon me.

My sores have rotted and are corrupt : because of my foolishness.

I am become miserable, and am greatly bowed down : I went about sorrowful all the day long.

For my loins are filled with illusions : and there is no soundness in my flesh.

I am afflicted, and humbled exceedingly : I have roared with the groaning of my heart.

Lord, all my desire is before Thee : and my groaning is not hid from Thee.

My heart is troubled, my strength hath forsaken me :
and the light of mine eyes itself is not with me.

My friends and my neighbors have drawn near : and stood against me.

And they that were near me stood afar off : and they that sought after my soul used violence.

They that sought my hurt spoke vain things : and thought upon deceits all the day long.

But I, as a deaf man, heard not : and I was as a dumb man that doth not open his mouth.

And I became as a man that heareth not : and that hath no reproofs in his mouth.

For in Thee, O Lord, have I hoped : Thou wilt hear me, O Lord my God.

For I said, Lest at any time mine enemies rejoice over me : and whilst my feet slip, they glory over me.

For I am ready for scourges : and my sorrow is continually before me.

For I will declare mine iniquity : and I will be thoughtful of my sin.

But mine enemies live, and are stronger than I : and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

They that render evil for good have slandered me :
because I followed goodness.

Forsake me not, O Lord my God : do not Thou depart from me.

Give heed unto my help, O Lord : Thou God of my salvation.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

4. Psalm 50.

MISERERE mei, HAVE mercy upon me, Deus, * secundum O God : according magnam misericordiam to Thy great mercy.
 tuam.

Et secundum multitudinem miserationum tuarum * dele iniquitatem meam. And according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies : blot out my iniquity.

Amplius lava me ab iniquitate mea, * et a peccato meo munda me. Wash me yet more from my iniquity : and cleanse me from my sin.

Quoniam iniquitatem meam ego cognosco, * et peccatum meum contra me est semper. For I acknowledge my iniquity : and my sin is always before me.

Tibi soli peccavi, et malum coram te feci, * ut justificeris in sermonibus tuis, et vincas cum iudicaris. Against Thee only have I sinned, and done evil in Thy sight : that Thou mayest be justified in Thy words, and mayest overcome when Thou art judged.

Ecce enim in iniquitatibus conceptus sum, * et in peccatis concepit me mater mea. For behold, I was conceived in iniquities : and in sins did my mother conceive me.

Ecce enim veritatem dilexisti : * incerta et occulta sapientiæ tuæ manifestasti mihi. For behold, Thou hast loved truth : the secret and hidden things of Thy wisdom Thou hast made manifest unto me.

Asperges me hyssopo, et mundabor : * lavabis me, et super nivem dealbabor.

Auditui meo dabis gaudium et lætitiā, * et exultabunt ossa humiliata.

Averte faciem tuam a peccatis meis, * et omnes iniquitates meas dele.

Cor mundum crea in me, Deus, * et spiritum rectum innova in visceribus meis.

Ne projicias me a facie tua, * et Spiritum sanctum tuum ne auferas a me.

Redde mihi lætitiā salutaris tui, * et spiritu principali confirma me.

Docebo iniquos vias tuas, * et impii ad te convertentur.

Libera me de sanguinibus, Deus, Deus salutis meæ : * et exultabit lingua mea justitiā tuam.

Domine, labia mea ape-

Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed : Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : and the bones that were humbled shall rejoice.

Turn away Thy face from my sins : and blot out all my iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from Thy face : and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation : and strengthen me with a perfect spirit.

I will teach the unjust Thy ways : and the wicked shall be converted unto Thee.

Deliver me from sins of blood, O God, Thou God of my salvation : and my tongue shall extol Thy justice.

Thou shalt open my lips, ries, * et os meum annuntiabit laudem tuam.

Quoniam si voluisses sacrificium, dedissem utique * holocaustis non delectaberis.

Sacrificium Deo spiritus contribulatus : * cor contritum et humiliatum, Deus, non despicias.

Benigne fac, Domine, in bona voluntate tua Sion, * ut ædificentur muri Jerusalem.

Tunc acceptabis sacrificium iustitiæ, oblationes, et holocausta : * tunc imponent super altare tuum vitulos.

Gloria Patri, etc.

O Lord : and my mouth shall declare Thy praise.

For if Thou hadst desired sacrifice, I would surely have given it : with burnt-offerings Thou wilt not be delighted.

A sacrifice unto God is a troubled spirit : a contrite and humble heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise.

Deal favorably, O Lord, in Thy good will with Sion : that the walls of Jerusalem may be built up.

Then shalt Thou accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations, and whole burnt-offerings : then shall they lay calves upon Thine altar.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

5. Psalm 101.

HEAR my prayer, O Lord : and let my cry come unto Thee.

Turn not away Thy face from me : in the day when I am in trouble, incline Thine ear unto me.

In what day soever I shall call upon Thee : O hearken unto me speedily.

For my days are vanished like smoke : and my bones are dried up like fuel for the fire.

I am smitten as grass, and my heart is withered : for I have forgotten to eat my bread.

Through the voice of my groaning : my bones have cleaved unto my flesh.

I am become like a pelican in the wilderness : and like a night-raven in the house.

I have watched, and am become like a sparrow : that sitteth alone on the house-top.

Mine enemies reviled me all the day long : and they that praised me have sworn together against me.

For I have eaten ashes as it were bread : and mingled my drink with weeping.

Because of Thine indignation and wrath : for Thou hast lifted me up and cast me down.

My days have gone down like a shadow : and I am withered like the grass.

But Thou, O Lord, endurest for ever : and Thy memorial unto all generations.

Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion : for it is time that Thou have mercy upon her ; yea, the time is come.

For Thy servants have delighted in her stones : and they shall have pity on the earth thereof.

And the Gentiles shall fear Thy name, O Lord : and all the kings of the earth Thy glory.

For the Lord hath built up Sion : and He shall be seen in His glory.

He hath had regard unto the prayer of the lowly : and hath not despised their petition.

Let these things be written for another generation : and the people that shall be created shall praise the Lord ;

For he hath looked down from His high and holy place : out of heaven hath the Lord looked upon the earth ;

That He might hear the groaning of them that are in fetters : that He might deliver the children of the slain ;

That they may declare the name of the Lord in Sion : and His praise in Jerusalem,

When the people assembled together : and the kings to serve the Lord.

He answered him in the way of his strength : Declare unto me the fewness of my days.

Call me not away in the midst of my days : Thy years are unto generation and generation.

Thou, Lord, in the beginning didst lay the foundation of the earth : and the heavens are the work of Thy hands.

They shall perish, but Thou endurest : and they all shall grow old as a garment.

And as a vesture shalt Thou change them, and they shall be changed : but Thou art the same, and Thy years shall not fail.

The children of Thy servants shall continue : and their seed shall be directed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

6. Psalm 129.

DE profundis clamavi OUT of the depths have ad te, Domine : * I cried unto Thee, Domine, exaudi vocem O Lord : Lord, hear my meam. voice.

Fiant aures tuæ inten- O let Thine ears condentes * in vocem deprecationis meæ.

Si iniquitates observaveris, Domine ; * Domine, quis sustinebit ?

Quia apud te propitiatio est, * et propter legem tuam sustinui te, Domine.

Sustinuit anima mea in verbo ejus : * speravit anima mea in Domino.

A custodia matutina usque ad noctem, * speret Israel in Domino.

Quia apud Dominum misericordia, * et copiosa apud eum redemptio.

Et ipse redimet Israel * ex omnibus iniquitatibus ejus.

Gloria Patri, etc.

sider well : The voice of my supplication.

If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities : Lord, who shall abide it ?

For with Thee there is merciful forgiveness : and because of Thy law I have waited for Thee, O Lord.

My soul hath waited on His word : my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

From the morning watch even until night : let Israel hope in the Lord.

For with the Lord there is mercy : and with Him is plenteous redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel : from all his iniquities.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

7. Psalm 142.

HEAR my prayer, O Lord : give ear to my supplication in Thy truth : hearken unto me for Thy justice' sake.

And enter not into judgment with Thy servant : for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

For the enemy hath persecuted my soul : he hath brought my life down unto the ground.

He hath made me to dwell in darkness as those that have been long dead : and my spirit is vexed within me ; my heart within me is troubled.

I remembered the days of old, I meditated on all Thy works : I have mused upon the works of Thy hands.

I stretched forth my hands unto Thee : my soul gaspeth unto Thee, as a land where no water is.

Hear me speedily, O Lord : my spirit hath fainted away.

Turn not away Thy face from me : lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

Make me to hear Thy mercy in the morning : for in Thee have I hoped.

Make me to know the way wherein I should walk : for to Thee have I lifted up my soul.

Deliver me from mine enemies, O Lord, unto Thee have I fled : teach me to do Thy will, for Thou art my God.

Thy good spirit shall lead me into the right land : for Thy name's sake, O Lord, Thou shalt quicken me in Thy justice.

Thou shalt bring my soul out of trouble : and in Thy mercy Thou shalt destroy mine enemies.

And Thou shalt destroy all them that afflict my soul : for I am Thy servant.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Ineffabilem nobis, Domine, misericordiam tuam clementer ostende: ut simul nos et a peccatis omnously receive our supplication; that we, and all Thy servants whom the chain of sin doth bind, may, by the compassion of Thy loving kindness, be mercifully absolved.

Graciously hear, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the prayers of Thy humble servants, and forgive the sins of those who confess to Thee; that, in Thy bounty, Thou mayest grant us both pardon and peace.

Instructions and Devotions for Confession.

ON THE SACRAMENT OF PENANCE.

PENANCE is a Sacrament instituted by Jesus Christ, in which, by the ministry of the Priest, actual sins are forgiven, and the conscience is released from the bonds by which it may be bound. In this Sacrament, also, the eternal punishment due to sin is remitted, and a part or the whole of the temporal punishment, according to the disposition of the penitent.

This holy and salutary institution is grounded on the words of Jesus Christ: Truly I say to you, whatever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound also in heaven; and whatever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed also in heaven (Matt. xviii. 18), and, As the Father hath sent me, I also send you. When He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins ye shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins ye shall retain, they are retained (John xx. 21, etc.) In these words Jesus Christ gave to His Apostles, and to their lawful successors, power and authority to absolve from all sin those who sincerely repent of their offences.

Hence we see the great necessity of this Sacrament; and the Council of Trent has decreed that it is not less necessary for salvation to those who have fallen into mortal sin after Baptism, than Baptism to those who have never been baptized. And although Penance may, at first sight, and in itself, seem to be a bitter and painful thing, yet, viewed in its fruits and consequences, it is full of consolation; and every Christian, as soon as he is conscious that he has fallen into a mortal sin, ought at once to have recourse to this fount of divine mercy.

The evil consequences of delay are manifold. 1. In a state of mortal sin, every other mortal sin committed renders our hearts still more hardened. 2. The commission of one mortal sin makes a second easier, and this leads to a third, and so on. 3. In a state of mortal sin we lose the value of all the good works that we may do. They avail nothing for everlasting life. Neither alms, nor prayers, nor fasts, nor even martyrdom itself, can profit us if we have not repented of our sins. 4. Sin, continued in, shuts by degrees the door of divine mercy, until at last scarce any hope is left of obtaining pardon from God. Lastly, just as the longer a stain remains upon a garment the more difficult it is to remove, so the longer the soul neglects to purify itself by Confession the more difficult the work becomes, and the more intricate, on account of the number of sins and anxiety of mind, until at last even an experienced Confessor may be unable to extricate the soul from its miserable state.

A PRAYER

To implore the Divine Assistance in order to make a good Confession.

O ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, who hast made me out of nothing, and redeemed me by the Precious Blood of Thine Only Son; who hast with so much patience borne with me to this day, notwithstanding all my sins and ingratitude; ever calling after me to return to Thee from the ways of vanity and iniquity, in which I have been quite wearied out in the pursuit of empty toys and mere shadows; seeking in vain to satisfy my thirst in unclean waters, and my hunger with husks of swine : behold, O most gracious Lord, I now sincerely desire to leave all these my evil ways, to forsake the region of death where I have so long lost myself, and to return to Thee, the Fountain of Life. I desire, like the prodigal son, to enter seriously into myself, and with the like resolution to arise without delay, and to go home to my Father—though I am infinitely unworthy to be called His child—in hopes of meeting with the like reception from His most tender mercy. But, O my God, though I can go astray from Thee of myself, yet I cannot make one step towards returning to Thee, unless Thy divine grace move and assist me. This grace, therefore, I most humbly implore, prostrate in spirit before the throne of Thy mercy ; I beg it for the sake of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who died upon the Cross for my sins ; I know that Thou desirest not the death of a sinner, but that he may be converted and live ; I know Thy mercies are above all Thy works ; and I most confidently hope that as in Thy mercy Thou hast spared me so long, and hast now given me this desire of returning to Thee, so Thou wilt finish the work which Thou hast begun, and bring me to a perfect reconciliation with Thee.

I desire now to comply with Thy holy institution of the Sacrament of Penance ; I desire to confess my sins with all sincerity to Thee and to Thy minister ; and therefore I desire to know myself, and to call myself to an account by a diligent examination of my conscience. But, O my God, how miserably shall I deceive myself if Thou assist me not in this great work by Thy heavenly light. O then remove every veil that hides any of my sins from me, that I may see them all in their true colors, and may sincerely detest them. O let me no longer be imposed upon by the Enemy of souls, or by my own self-love, so as to mistake vice for virtue, to hide myself from myself, or in any way to make excuses in sins.

But, O my good God, what will it avail me to know my sins, if Thou dost not also give me a hearty sorrow and repentance for them? Without this my sins will be all upon me still, and I shall be still Thine enemy and a child of hell. Thou dost require that contrite heart, without which there can be no reconciliation with Thee; and this heart none but Thyself can give. O then, dear Lord, grant it unto me at this time. Give me a lively faith, and a steadfast hope, in the Passion of my Redeemer; teach me to fear Thee and to love Thee. Give me, for Thy mercy's sake, a hearty sorrow for having offended so good a God. Teach me to detest my evil ways; to abhor all my past ingratitude; to hate myself now with a perfect hatred for my many treasons against Thee. O give me a full and a firm resolution to lead henceforward a new life; and unite me unto Thee with an eternal band of love which nothing in life or death may ever break.

Grant me also the grace to make an entire and sincere confession of all my sins, and to accept the confusion of it as a penance justly due to my transgressions. Let not the Enemy prevail upon me to pass over anything through fear or shame; rather let me die than consent to so great an evil. Let no self-love deceive me, as I fear it has done too often. O grant that this confession may be good; and for the sake of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who died for me and for all sinners, assist me in every part of my preparation for it; that I may perform it with the same care and diligence as I should be glad to do at the hour of my death ; that so, being perfectly reconciled to Thee, I may never offend Thee more. Amen.

PRAYERS BEFORE EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE.

O ALMIGHTY God, Maker of heaven and earth, King of kings, and Lord of lords, who hast made me out of nothing in Thine image and likeness, and hast redeemed me with Thine own Blood ; whom I a sinner am not worthy to name, or call upon, or think of : I humbly pray Thee, I earnestly beseech Thee, to look mercifully on me, Thy wicked servant. Thou who hadst mercy on the woman of Chanaan and Mary Magdalen ; Thou who didst spare the publican and the thief upon the cross, have mercy upon me. Thou art my hope and my trust ; my guide and my succor ; my comfort and my strength ; my defence and my deliverance ; my life, my health, and my resurrection ; my light and my longing ; my help and my protection. I pray and entreat Thee, help me and I shall be safe ; direct me and defend me ; strengthen me and comfort me ; confirm me and gladden me ; enlighten me and come unto me. Raise me from the dead ; I am Thy creature, and the work of Thy hands. Despise me not, O Lord, neither regard my iniquities ; but according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies have mercy upon me, the chief of sinners, and be gracious unto me. Turn Thou unto me, O Lord, and be not angry with me. I implore Thee, most compassionate Father, I pray Thee meekly of Thy great mercy, to bring me to a holy death, and to true penance, to a perfect confession, and to worthy satisfaction for all my sins. Amen.

O LORD God, who enlightenest every man who cometh into this world, enlighten my heart, I pray Thee, with the light of Thy grace, that I may fully know my sins, shortcomings, and negligences, and may confess them with that true sorrow and contrition of heart which I so much need. I desire to make full amends for all my sins, and to avoid them for the future to Thy honor and glory, and to the salvation of my soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I BELIEVE in Thee, O God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, my Creator, my Redeemer, and my Sanctifier ; I believe that Thou art all-holy, just, and merciful. I believe that Thou art willing to pardon and to save me, if I repent and forsake my sins.

O my God, strengthen and increase my faith, and grant me the grace of a true repentance, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

I HOPE in Thee, O my God, because Thou art Almighty, faithful, and long-suffering. I humbly trust that Thou wilt pardon my sins for the sake of Thy dear Son Jesus Christ, who suffered and died for me upon the Cross ; and that Thou wilt cleanse my sinful soul in His precious Blood, and make me holy, and bring me safe to everlasting life.

O Lord, in Thee have I hoped, let me never be confounded. Amen.

I LOVE Thee, O my God, above all things, because Thou hast been so good, so patient, so loving to me, notwithstanding all the sins by which I have so grievously offended Thee. I love Thee, O Blessed Jesus, my Saviour, because Thou didst suffer so much for love of me, an ungrateful sinner, and didst die on the Cross for my salvation.

O make me love Thee more and more, and show my love to Thee by faithfully keeping Thy Commandments all the days of my life. Amen.

O MARY Immaculate, Mother of Fair Love: obtain for me that love of God, which is so necessary for true contrition. Amen.

CONSIDERATIONS TO EXCITE CONTRITION.

1. Place before yourself, as distinctly as you can, the sins which have come to your remembrance, and their circumstances.

2. Consider WHO GOD IS, against whom you have sinned, how great, how good, how gracious to you; that He made you, that He gave His Only Son to die for you, that He made you His child in Baptism, that He has loaded you with blessings and prepared heaven for you. Consider how patient He has been with you—how long-suffering in calling you and moving you to repent: Say, O most Loving God, O infinite Goodness, I repent of having offended Thee; behold me at Thy feet. O my Father, my Creator, my Benefactor, grant me the grace of a true repentance, and the blessing of a free pardon, for Thy dear Son's sake.

3. Consider the infinite wickedness of sin: Say, O my Saviour, I behold Thee on the Cross, torn and wounded, Thy sacred Body streaming with Blood; this is the work of my sin. In Thy Wounds, O my Saviour, I read the greatness of the guilt and malice of my sins. By the greatness of Thy pains and sorrows, O my loving Redeemer, I measure the hatefulness of my offences.

4. Consider the consequences of one mortal sin: that you might justly be now banished from God's presence for ever for one single unrepented, deadly sin; how many have you not committed! Say, O my God, how much do I owe Thee for not cutting me off in the midst of my sins. Before I fell into sin, heaven was my home, my inheritance, my country, my blessed resting-place; by sin I have given up my title to the glory of the Blessed. For the sake of sin I have lost the love of Jesus, the sight of Mary, the communion with the Blessed Saints and with the Angels. O my God, would that I had never offended Thee, would that I had never consented to sin. In pity behold me now at Thy feet, full of sorrow and compunction. I hate sin, which is accursed of Thee ; I renounce all that would draw me away from Thee ; I most bitterly repent my sin and folly, which would have deprived me for ever of heaven if Thou hadst not mercifully brought me to repentance. I grieve that I have sinned against Thee, O my God, who art all-good, all-bountiful, all-worthy of love. O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us sinners, who have recourse to thee.

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE.

FIRST COMMANDMENT.

(For the Ten Commandments, the Six Precepts of the Church, and the Seven Capital Sins in full, see pp. 20, 21, and 23.)

Sins against this Commandment are :

1. Those which detract from the honor and worship due to God ; such as : Neglect of Prayer—Superstitious practices—Divination—Consulting fortune-tellers—Attaching undue importance to dreams, omens—Tempting God by exposing one's self to danger of soul, life, or health, without grave cause—Sacrilege—Profane or superstitious use of blessed objects—Profanation of places or things consecrated to God—Receiving the Holy Sacraments in a state of mortal sin.

2. Those against Faith ; such as : Wilful doubt of any article of Faith—Reading or circulating books or writings against Catholic belief or practice—Joining in schismatical or heretical worship—Denying one's religion—Neglecting means of religious instruction.

3. Those against Hope ; such as : Despair of God's mercy, or want of confidence in the power of His Grace to support us in trouble or temptation—Murmuring against God's providence—Presuming on God's mercy, or on the supposed efficacy of certain pious practices, in order to continue in sin.

4. Those against Charity ; such as : Wilfully rebellious thoughts against God—Boasting of sin—Violating God's law, or omitting good works, through human respect.

SECOND COMMANDMENT.

Sins against this Commandment are :

All irreverence towards God's most Holy Name ; such as : Cursing and profane swearing—False, unlawful, and unnecessary oaths—Membership in societies condemned by the Church—Breaking or deferring lawful vows—Irreverence in Divine Service, and in churches and holy places even when service is not going on.

THIRD COMMANDMENT.

Sins against this Commandment are :

Neglect to hear Mass on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation—Working or making others work without necessity on such days.

FOURTH COMMANDMENT.

Sins against this Commandment are :

For Children : All manner of anger or hatred against parents and other lawful superiors—Provoking them to anger—Grieving them—Insulting them—Neglecting them in their necessity—Contempt or disobedience of their lawful commands.

For Parents : Hating their children—Cursing them—Giving scandal to them by cursing, drinking, etc.—Allowing them to grow up in ignorance, idleness, or sin—Showing habitual partiality, without cause—Deferring their children's Baptism—Neglecting to watch over their bodily health, their religious instruction, the company they keep, the books they read, etc.—Failing to correct them when needful—Being harsh or cruel in correction—Sending children to Protestant and other dangerous schools.

For Husbands and Wives : Ill-usage—Putting obstacles to the fulfilment of religious duties—Want of gentleness and consideration in regard to each other's faults—Unreasonable jealousy—Neglect of household duties—Sulkiness—Injurious words.

For Employers : Not allowing one's domestics reasonable time for religious duties and instruction—Giving bad example to them, or allowing others to do so—Withholding their lawful wages—Not caring for them in sickness—Dismissing them arbitrarily and without cause.

For the Employed : Disrespect to employers—Want of obedience in matters wherein one has bound one's self to obey—Waste of time—Neglect of work—Waste of employer's property, by dishonesty, carelessness, or neglect.

For Professional Men and Public Officials : Culpable lack of the knowledge relating to duties of office or profession—Neglect in discharging those duties—Injustice or partiality—Exorbitant fees.

For Teachers: Neglecting the progress of those confided to their care—Unjust, indiscreet, or excessive punishment—Partiality—Bad example, loose and false maxims.

For Pupils: Disrespect—Disobedience—Stubbornness—Idleness—Waste of time.

For all: Contempt for the laws of our State and Country, as well as of the Church—Disobedience to lawful authority.

FIFTH COMMANDMENT.

Sins against this Commandment are :

Unjust taking of human life (and hence, indirectly and implicitly, any violence of thought, word, or act which may lead thereto)—Exposing life or limb to danger without reasonable cause—Carelessness in leaving about poisons, dangerous drugs, weapons, etc.—Desires of revenge—Quarrels—Fights—Showing aversion or contempt for others—Refusing to speak to them when addressed—Ignoring offers of reconciliation, especially between relatives—Cherishing an unforgiving spirit—Raillery and ridicule—Insults—Irritating words and actions—Sadness at another's prosperity—Rejoicing over another's misfortune—Jealousy at attentions shown to others—Tyrannical behavior—Inducing others to sin by word or example—Gluttony—Drunkenness—Rash use of opiates—Injury to health by over-indulgence—Giving drink to others, knowing that they will abuse it.

SIXTH AND NINTH COMMANDMENTS.

The former forbids in action what the latter forbids in thought or desire. We shall not enter into details on this subject. It is a pitch which defiles. Those who sin against these two Commandments know it well; those who do not should pray God that they may never learn. It is sufficient to remind penitents that each and every act, if deliberate, contrary to the holy virtue of Purity—be it in thought or desire, in look, gesture, word, or deed—is a Mortal Sin, and as such must be mentioned in Confession intelligibly, yet modestly.

It will be further useful to remark : that in regard to sins of this kind it is wrong to dwell too much on details; that we should be especially careful to take note of the avoidable occasions of our falls, and to direct our purpose of amendment to the keeping away from them, rather than to the making of vague, general resolutions about the future avoidance of the sin itself.

SEVENTH AND TENTH COMMANDMENTS.

Sins against these Commandments are :

Stealing (What value? What damage done to property or interests?)—Possession of ill-gotten goods—Exorbitant prices—False weights and measures—Cheating—Adulteration of wares—Careless or malicious injury to the property of others—Cheating at play—Appropriation of what is lent or found, without reasonable pains to return it, or to find its owner—Concealment of fraud, theft, or damage, when in duty bound to give information—Petty thefts—Culpable delay in paying lawful debts, of restitution, when able to make it—Neglect to make reasonable efforts and sacrifices in this matter, e.g., by gradually laying up the amount required.

EIGHTH COMMANDMENT.

Sins against this Commandment are :

Lying—Perjury—Frauds, public and private, such as at elections, etc.—Malicious falsehoods—Lies for unjust or bad ends—Lies against character, especially if told publicly—Revealing secrets—Publishing discreditable secrets about others, even if true—Refusing or delaying to restore the good name we have blackened—Slander or detraction, and encouraging these in others—Baseless accusations, groundless suspicions, rash judgments of others, in our own mind.

THE PRECEPTS OF THE CHURCH.

1. Have I neglected, without good reason, to hear Mass on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation, and to keep those days holy by avoiding all servile work?
2. Have I failed to fast or abstain, without sufficient reason, on those days commanded to be so observed by the Church?
- 3-4. Have I omitted to confess my mortal sins at least once a year, or to make my Easter-duty?
5. Have I refused to contribute to the support of my Pastor, according to my means?—gone to Mass Sunday after Sunday, without giving anything to the collections?

6. Have I entered into marriage, or aided any one else to do so, without banns, or before a State official or a Protestant minister; or without dispensation within the forbidden degrees of kindred; or with any other known impediment?

AFTER EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE.

O MY God, I cry unto Thee with the prodigal: Father, I have sinned against heaven and before Thee; I am no longer worthy to be called Thy Son.

I have gone astray like a sheep that is lost. O seek Thy servant, for I have not forgotten Thy commandments.

Enter not into judgment with Thy servant, O Lord. O spare me for Thy mercy's sake.

Prove me, O God, and know my heart; examine me, and know my paths.

Thou whose property is always to have mercy and to spare, O meet me in pity, embrace me in love, and forgive me all my sin.

I confess my sins unto Thee, O Christ, Healer of our souls, O Lord of Life. Heal me, heal me of my spiritual sickness, Thou who art long-suffering and of tender mercy; heal me, O Lord Christ.

Accept my supplications, O Thou Holy Spirit, unto whom every heart is open, every desire known, and from whom no secret is hid, and who givest life to our souls; hear and answer, O Spirit of God.

O Heavenly Father, who willest not that any sinner should perish, give me true repentance for this my sin, that I perish not!

To what misery am I come by my own fault ! O merciful God, pity and forgive me for Jesus' sake.

Thine eyes, O God, are as a flame of fire searching my inmost heart. O pardon my sin, for it is great !

Thou, God, seest me in all the foulness of my sins ! Blessed Jesus, speak for me, plead for me, come between my soul and my offended God, that I perish not.
Amen.

Here may be said the Miserere, or any of the preceding Penitential Psalms (p. 245).

PRAYER BEFORE CONFESSION.

ACCCEPT my Confession, O most loving, most gracious Lord Jesus Christ, on whom alone my soul trusts for salvation. Grant me, I beseech Thee, contrition of heart, and give tears to mine eyes, that I may sorrow deeply for all my sins with humility and sincerity of heart.

O good Jesus, Saviour of the world, who gavest Thyself to the death of the Cross to save sinners, look on me, a miserable sinner who calls upon Thy name. Spare me, Thou that art my Saviour, and pity my sinful soul ; loose its chains, heal its sores. Lord Jesus, I desire Thee, I seek Thee, I long for Thee ; show me the light of Thy countenance, and I shall be saved ; send forth Thy light and Thy truth into my soul, to show me fully all the sins and shortcomings which I must still confess, and to aid and teach me to lay them bare without reserve and with a contrite heart ; O Thou who livest and reignest with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end.
Amen.

O most gracious Virgin Mary, beloved Mother of Jesus Christ, my Redeemer, intercede for me with Him. Obtain for me the full remission of my sins, and perfect amendment of life, to the salvation of my soul and the glory of His name. Amen.

I implore the same grace of thee, O my Angel Guardian ; of you, my holy Patrons, N. N. ; of you, O blessed Peter and holy Magdalen, and of all the Saints of God. Intercede for me a sinner, repenting of my sins, firmly resolving to confess them, and to avoid them for the future. Amen.

DIRECTIONS FOR CONFESSION.

*Approach the Confessional in a humble and contrite spirit, and kneel down by your Confessor. Then, making the sign of the Cross, say, Benedicite, or, Father, bless me, for I have sinned. After he has given the Blessing, say the Confiteor, * in English or Latin, as far as the words, through my most grievous fault; then say, Since my last Confession, which was —— ago, I accuse myself of ——.* Here name all the sins which you have recalled to mind since your last confession; and, in confessing them, be sure to observe these rules:

1. Let your confession be ENTIRE; i.e., do not knowingly conceal any one mortal sin; otherwise, so far from obtaining Absolution, you do but add to your sins. State the kind of sins you have committed, and, as far as you can, their number; and mention any circumstances which you think would change the nature of your sins.

2. Let your confession be PURE. Let everything be mentioned sincerely and exactly, without any disguise or dissimulation; let the certain things be mentioned as certain, the doubtful as doubtful. Avoid all excuses for yourself, either direct or indirect; and take the greatest care not to throw blame on any one else, or to mention or hint at the name of any third person. Avoid all superfluous words and matter, and everything which does not directly concern the integrity of the confession. Be as concise as you can, consistently with fulness and candor.

3. Let your confession be HUMBLE, remembering that you are in an especial manner in the presence of God, from whom, through His Priest, you are seeking and expecting pardon. The thought of God at this moment will be your best protection against all false shame, insincere trifling, and affectation.

After you have confessed all your sins, according to these rules, say, For these and all my other sins which I cannot now remember, I am heartily sorry, and humbly ask pardon of God, and Penance and Absolution of you, Father. Therefore I beseech Blessed Mary, etc., to the end of the Confiteor.

Then listen attentively and humbly to the direction and advice of your Confessor, and be fully resolved to do whatever he bids you to do, either in the way of penance, or restitution, or reparation, or for the avoiding of sin in the future. While he is giving you Absolution, devoutly bow your head, and with all possible fervor recite the following ACT OF CONTRITION:

* NOTE. If many penitents are waiting for Confession, the Confiteor should be said before entering the Confessional.

O MY God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all-good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life.

THE RITUAL OF THE SACRAMENT OF PENANCE.

THE FORM OF ABSOLUTION.

When, therefore, the penitent is ready to be absolved, having first enjoined a salutary penance, the Priest says:

MISEREATUR tui omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis tuis, perducat te in vitam æternam. Amen.	MAY Almighty God have mercy upon thee, and forgive thee thy sins, and bring thee unto life everlasting. Amen.
--	---

He then, with his right hand raised towards the penitent, says:

INDULGENTIAM, ✠ absolutionem, et remissionem peccatorum tuorum tribuat tibi omnipotens et misericors Dominus. Amen.	MAY the Almighty and merciful Lord grant thee pardon, ✠ absolution, and forgiveness of thy sins. Amen.
---	--

DOMINUS noster Jesus Christus te absolvat; et ego, auctoritate ipsius, te absolvo ab omni vinculo excommunicationis (suspensionis) et interdicti, in quantum possum, et tu indiges. Deinde ego te absolvo a peccatis tuis, in nomine Patris, ✠ et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti.

Amen.

If the penitent is a lay person, the word suspension is omitted.)

PASSIO Domini Nostri Jesu Christi, merita beatæ Mariæ Virginis et omnium Sanctorum, quidquid boni feceris, et mali sustinueris, sint tibi in remissionem peccatorum, augmentum gratiæ, et præmium vitæ æternæ.

Amen.

In frequent and shorter confessions the prayer, Almighty God have mercy upon thee, etc., may be omitted; and it suffices to say: May our Lord Jesus Christ absolve thee, etc., as far as May the Passion of our Lord, etc.

In danger of death, or any grave necessity, this brief form may be used:

EGO te absolvo ab omnibus censuris et peccatis, in nomine Patris, ✠

MAY our Lord Jesus Christ absolve thee; and I, by His authority, absolve thee from every bond of excommunication (suspension) and interdict, inasmuch as in my power lieth, and thou standest in need. Finally, I absolve thee from thy sins, in the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

MAY the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, the merits of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of all the Saints, whatsoever thou shalt have done of good and borne of evil, be unto thee for remission of sins, increase of grace, and reward of life everlasting. Amen.

I ABSOLVE thee from all censures and sins, in the name of the Father, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. ✠ and of the Son, and of Amen. the Holy Ghost. Amen.

AFTER CONFESSION.

1. As soon after Confession as you conveniently can, perform your Penance, and renew your resolutions of avoiding all sin, and of adopting all the means for so doing, by avoiding the occasions and temptations of sin; and then you may have a perfect confidence, with devout thankfulness, that all your sins, through the mercy of God, are forgiven.

2. Consider how you can amend your life. This will be best done by fixing your attention on one or two of your more prominent defects of character, and directing your chief efforts to overcome these by such means as the following : 1. Conceive a strong desire to overcome these faults, frequently renew your resolution, and examine yourself particularly upon them. 2. When you commit them, punish yourself in some way for it. 3. Endeavor always to have the thought of Christ present in your mind, and direct short prayers to Him, especially when you are attacked by temptations, or when you are necessarily exposed to the danger of sinning. 4. Meditate frequently on those subjects most calculated to excite your fears, hopes, and affections, as Death and Judgment, the Love of God, His kindnesses to you, His promises, etc. Be earnest and persevere with a good hope of victory, through the grace of Jesus Christ.

THANKSGIVING AFTER CONFESSION.

O MOST merciful God, who according to the multitude of Thy mercies dost so put away the sins of those who truly repent that Thou rememberest them no more : look graciously upon me, Thyne unworthy servant, and accept my confession for Thy mercy's sake; receive my humble thanks, most loving Father, that of Thy great goodness Thou hast given me pardon for all my sins. O may Thy love and pity supply whatsoever has been wanting in the sufficiency of my contrition, and the fulness of my confession. And do Thou, O Lord, vouchsafe to grant me the help of Thy grace, that I may diligently amend my life and persevere in Thy service unto the end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 102.

BLESS the Lord, O my soul : and let all that is within me bless His holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul : and forget not all His benefits.

Who forgiveth Thee all thine iniquities : who healeth all thine infirmities.

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction : who crowneth thee with mercy and compassion.

Who satisfieth thy desire with good things : thy youth shall be renewed like the eagle's.

The Lord doth mercies and judgment : for all that suffer wrong.

He hath made His ways known unto Moses : His will unto the children of Israel.

The Lord is full of compassion and mercy : long-suffering and plenteous in mercy.

He will not alway be angry : neither will He threaten for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins : nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

For as the heaven is high above the earth : so hath He strengthened His mercy toward them that fear Him.

As far as the east is from the west : so far hath He removed our iniquities from us.

As a father hath pity upon his children, so hath the Lord pity upon them that fear Him : for He knoweth whereof we are made.

He remembereth that we are but dust : man's days are as the grass, as the flower of the field so shall he flourish.

For the wind shall pass over it, and it shall not be : and one shall know its place no more.

But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting : upon them that fear Him ;

And His justice upon children's children : unto such as keep His covenant ;

And are mindful of His commandments : to do them.

The Lord hath prepared His throne in heaven : and His kingdom shall rule over all.

Bless the Lord, all ye His angels : ye that are mighty in strength, and fulfil His commandment, hearkening to the voice of His words.

Bless the Lord, all ye His hosts : ye ministers of His that do His will.

Bless the Lord, all ye His works : in every place of His dominion bless the Lord, O my soul.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 15.

PRESERVE me, O Lord, for in Thee have I put my trust : I have said to the Lord, Thou art my God, for Thou hast no need of my goods.

To the saints who are in His land : He hath made wonderful all my desires in them.

Their infirmities were multiplied : afterwards they made haste.

I will not gather together their meetings for blood offerings : nor will I make mention of their names with my lips.

The Lord is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup : Thou art He that will restore my inheritance unto me.

The lines are fallen unto me in goodly places : for my inheritance is goodly unto me.

I will bless the Lord, who hath given me understanding : moreover my reins also have corrected me even till night.

I set the Lord always in my sight : for He is at my right hand, that I be not moved.

Therefore my heart hath been glad, and my tongue hath rejoiced : moreover my flesh also shall rest in hope.

For Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell : nor wilt Thou give Thy holy one to see corruption.

Thou hast made known unto me the ways of life : Thou shalt fill me with joy with Thy countenance ; at Thy right hand are delights for evermore.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 19.

MAY the Lord hear thee in the day of trouble :
may the name of the God of Jacob protect thee.

May He send thee help from the sanctuary : and defend thee out of Sion.

May He be mindful of all thy sacrifices : and may thy whole burnt-offerings be made fat.

May He give unto thee according to thine own heart : and confirm all thy counsels.

We will rejoice in thy salvation : and in the name of our God we shall be exalted.

The Lord fulfil all thy petitions : now have I known that the Lord hath saved His anointed.

He will hear him from His holy heaven : the salvation of His right hand is powerful.

Some trust in chariots, and some in horses : but we will call upon the name of the Lord our God.

They are entangled and have fallen : but we are risen, and stand upright.

O Lord, save the king : and hear us in the day that we shall call upon Thee.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

PRAYER BEFORE PERFORMING SACRAMENTAL PEN-ANCE. (St. Gertrude.)

AND since I have so grievously insulted Thee, O most tender and loving God, by my manifold sins and negligences, I am ready now to make perfect satisfaction to Thy divine justice to the utmost of my ability. To this end I will faithfully and most reverently perform the penance appointed me by my confessor in Thy name ; and would that I could perform it with so great devotion and love as to give Thee an honor and delight greater than the insult and outrage of my sins ! And that this may be so, I unite and blend this my penance with all the works of satisfaction which Thy beloved Son accomplished during the three-and-thirty years of His life on earth, and in union with His fastings, His watchings, and His prayers, I offer Thee this my penance and my prayer. Look down, therefore, O most loving Father, upon me Thy most bounden debtor, now prostrate at Thy feet, desiring to make Thee adequate satisfaction and reparation for all the insults and injuries I have done Thee ; and grant me strength and grace to say this prayer according to Thy most holy will. Amen.

Here perform your Sacramental Penance, and then say as follows :

O MOST holy Father, I offer Thee this my confession and my satisfaction in union with all the acts of penance which have ever been done to the glory of Thy holy name : beseeching Thee that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to accept it, and to render it availing through the merits of the Passion of Thy beloved Son, and through the intercession of the ever-blessed Virgin Mary, and of all Thy holy Apostles, Martyrs, Confessors, and Virgins. Whatever has been lacking to me in sincere and earnest preparation, in perfect contrition, in frank and clear confession, I commend to the most loving heart of Thine only-begotten Son, that Treasury of all good and of all grace, from whose overflowing abundance all debts to Thee are fully acquitted ; that through it all my negligences and defects in the reception of this holy Sacrament may be fully and perfectly supplied to Thine everlasting praise and glory : through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR THE PRIEST.

O LORD Jesus Christ, bless, I beseech Thee, Thy servant who has now ministered to me in Thy name. Help me to remember his good counsel and advice, and to perform duly what he has rightly laid upon me. And grant him the abundance of Thy grace and favor, that his own soul may be refreshed and strengthened for Thy perfect service, and that he may come at last to the joy of Thy heavenly kingdom. Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR PARDON AND AMENDMENT.

I.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus Christ, I, an unworthy sinner, would beg Thee to be mindful of all the holy thoughts which have been Thine from eternity until now; above all, that one by which Thou, O Eternal Word, didst will to become man.

Our Father.

O most merciful Lord, I pray Thee, from the bottom of my heart, to pardon me all the vain, foul, and evil thoughts which, up to this hour, I have entertained, or in any way have caused others to entertain, against or beside Thy will.

Our Father.

II.

O MOST compassionate Lord Jesus Christ, I, a miserable sinner, would beg Thee to be mindful of all the good and saving words which Thou didst ever speak when on earth.

Our Father.

I humbly pray Thee, O good Jesus, to forgive me all the words which up to this hour I have uttered or caused others to utter against Thy holy will.

Our Father.

III.

O MOST sweet Jesus Christ, I, an unworthy sinner, yet redeemed by Thy precious Blood, would beg Thee to be mindful of all the good works which Thou wroughtest on the earth for our salvation. I beseech Thee, most compassionate Lord, pardon me whatsoever, by my ill deeds, I have at any time knowingly or ignorantly committed, or have caused others to commit, against Thy law and the glory of Thy name.

Our Father.

And now, O most gracious Lord, direct and order all my thoughts, words, and works according to Thy good pleasure, and to the praise of Thy name ; and conform them to the perfect pattern of Thy most holy life and conversation. I am Thine, and will be Thine, O Lord, in life and in death ; into Thy hands I commend myself and all that I have.

Our Father.

PRAYERS AGAINST THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS.

1. Against Pride.

O LORD Jesus Christ, Pattern of humility, who didst empty Thyself of Thy glory, and take upon Thee the form of a servant : root out of us all pride and conceit of heart, that, owning ourselves miserable and guilty sinners, we may willingly bear contempt and reproaches for Thy sake, and, glorying in nothing but Thee, may esteem ourselves lowly in Thy sight. Not unto us, O Lord, but to Thy name be the praise, for Thy loving mercy and for Thy truth's sake. Amen.

2. Against Covetousness.

O LORD Jesus Christ, who though Thou wast rich yet for our sakes didst become poor, grant that all over-eagerness and covetousness of earthly goods may die in us, and the desire of heavenly things may live and grow in us : keep us from all idle and vain expenditures, that we may always have to give to him that needeth, and that giving not grudgingly nor of necessity, but cheerfully, we may be loved of Thee, and be made through Thy merits partakers of the riches of Thy heavenly treasure. Amen.

3. Against Lust.

O LORD Jesus Christ, Guardian of chaste souls, and lover of purity, who wast pleased to take our nature and to be born of an Immaculate Virgin : mercifully look upon my infirmity. Create in me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me ; help me to drive away all evil thoughts, to conquer every sinful desire, and so pierce my flesh with the fear of Thee that, this worst enemy being overcome, I may serve Thee with a chaste body and please Thee with a pure heart. Amen.

4. Against Anger.

O MOST meek Jesus, Prince of Peace, who, when Thou wast reviled, reviled not, and on the Cross didst pray for Thy murderers : implant in our hearts the virtues of gentleness and patience, that, restraining the fierceness of anger, impatience, and resentment, we may overcome evil with good, for Thy sake love our enemies, and as children of our heavenly Father seek Thy peace and evermore rejoice in Thy love. Amen.

5. Against Gluttony.

O LORD Jesus Christ, Mirror of abstinence, who, to teach us the virtue of abstinence, didst fast forty days and forty nights, grant that, serving Thee and not our own appetites, we may live soberly and piously with contentment, without greediness, gluttony, or drunkenness, that Thy will being our meat and drink, we may hunger and thirst after justice, and finally obtain from Thee that food which endureth unto life eternal. Amen.

6. Against Envy.

O MOST loving Jesus, Pattern of charity, who makest all the commandments of the law to consist in love towards God and towards man, grant to us so to love Thee with all our heart, with all our mind, and all our soul, and our neighbor for Thy sake, that the grace of charity and brotherly love may dwell in us, and all envy, harshness, and ill-will may die in us ; and fill our hearts with feelings of love, kindness, and compassion, so that by constantly rejoicing in the happiness and success of others, by sympathizing with them in their sorrows, and putting away all harsh judgments and envious thoughts, we may follow Thee, who art Thyself the true and perfect love. Amen.

7. Against Sloth.

O LORD Jesus Christ, eternal Love, who in the garden didst pray so long and so fervently that Thy Sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground : put away from us, we beseech Thee, all sloth and inactivity both of body and mind ; kindle within us the fire of Thy love ; strengthen our weakness, that whatsoever our hand is able to do we may do it earnestly, and that, striving heartily to please Thee in this life, we may have Thee hereafter as our reward exceeding great. Amen.

SEVEN THANKSGIVINGS FOR THE SEVEN EFFUSIONS OF OUR LORD'S BLOOD. (AGAINST THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS.)

I.

O MOST humble Lord and Master, Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, eternal praise and thanksgiving be to Thee, because in Thy tenderest age, on the eighth day of Thy mortal life, Thou didst vouchsafe to shed Thy precious and innocent Blood for us, and as a true Son of Abraham to bear the pain of Circumcision.

By this most holy shedding of Thy Blood, I beg of Thee the grace of humility against all pride and worldly vanity.

Our Father.

O Saviour of the world, who by Thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us : save us, and help us, we humbly beseech Thee, O Lord.

II.

O THOU whose love is like the pelican's for her young, Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, eternal praise and thanksgiving be to Thee, because in the Garden, out of the exceeding anguish of Thy Heart, Thou didst pour forth a bloody Sweat, and, wholly resigning Thyself to death, didst offer it to Thy Father.

By this most holy shedding of Thy Blood, I ask of Thee the grace of liberality against all covetousness and avarice.

Our Father.

O Saviour of the world, etc.

III.

O MOST chaste Spouse, Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, eternal praise and thanksgiving be to Thee, because Thou didst suffer Thyself to be mercilessly bound in Pilate's judgment hall, and Thy virgin Flesh to be cruelly scourged and mangled.

By this most holy shedding of Thy Blood, I implore of Thee the grace of chastity against all sensuality and lust.

Our Father.

O Saviour of the world, etc.

IV.

O MOST meek Lamb, Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, eternal praise and thanksgiving be to Thee, because Thou didst suffer Thy Sacred Head to be crowned with piercing thorns and struck with a hard reed.

By this most holy shedding of Thy Blood, I pray Thee for the grace of meekness against all anger and desire of revenge.

Our Father.

O Saviour of the world, etc.

V.

O MOST sweet Jesus Christ, Pattern of temperance and self-denial, true God and true Man, eternal praise and thanksgiving be to Thee, because Thou didst allow Thy garments to be torn from Thy bleeding Body both before and after the carrying of Thy Cross, which opened Thy Wounds again, and caused them to bleed afresh.

By this most holy shedding of Thy Blood, I beseech of Thee the grace of temperance and abstinence against all greediness and gluttony.

Our Father.

O Saviour of the world, etc.

VI.

O GOOD and faithful Samaritan, Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, eternal praise and thanksgiving be to Thee, because out of Thy burning love for us Thou didst suffer Thy sacred Hands and Feet to be pierced and nailed to the Cross for our redemption.

By this most holy shedding of Thy Blood, I beg of Thee the grace of brotherly love against all envy and jealousy.

Our Father.

O Saviour of the world, etc.

VII.

O MOST zealous High-Priest, true God and true Man, eternal praise and thanksgiving be to Thee, because Thou didst suffer Thy sacred Side to be pierced, opened, and wounded with a spear.

By this most holy shedding of Thy Blood, I earnestly pray Thee for the grace of holy zeal and fervor against all sloth and weariness in Thy service, and in every religious exercise.

Our Father.

O Saviour of the world, etc.

Instructions for Holy Communion.

THE Holy Eucharist is the true Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, under the appearances of bread and wine. The bread which I will give, says Jesus Christ, is My Flesh, for the life of the world (John vi. 52). And at His Last Supper Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake, and gave to His disciples, and said: Take and eat: THIS IS MY BODY. And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave to them, saying: Drink ye all of this. FOR THIS IS MY BLOOD of the New Testament which shall be shed for many, unto remission of sins (Matt. xxvi. 26-28).

Our Blessed Redeemer, having thus instituted this adorable Sacrament, ordained His Apostles Priests of the new law, and gave to them and their lawful successors power and authority to do what He had done—that is, to change bread and wine into His Body and Blood. This change (which the Church calls Transubstantiation) is effected by these divine words of our Redeemer, This is My Body, This is My Blood, which the Priest at the Consecration in the Mass pronounces in the name and person of Jesus Christ. It is God Himself who works this wonderful change by the ministry of His Priest.

When, therefore, the words of Consecration are pronounced, we believe that the whole substance of the bread is changed into the substance of the Body, and the whole substance of the wine into the substance of the Blood, of our Blessed Lord. And as Jesus Christ is now immortal, and cannot be divided, He is truly present, whole and entire, both God and Man, under the appearance of bread and under the appearance of wine.

The method by which our Salvation is graciously accomplished is by our personal union with our Incarnate Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. He came to be the new Head of the human race, the second Adam. He is the Vine of which we are the branches, the Head of the Body of which we are the members. We who have been baptized have been incorporated into Christ. A new life has been imparted to us. But the spiritual, supernatural life which He imparts needs, like our natural, physical life, to be fed and nourished ; otherwise it will languish and be in danger of perishing. And our Lord Jesus Christ has revealed to us that as He is the Source of this our true life, so He is Himself its Food and Sustenance. He tells us that we must definitely and personally appropriate Him. He that eateth Me, He says, the same also shall live by Me (John vi. 58).

He explains that we must be partakers of His Sacred Humanity, of His Flesh, and of His glorious Life, once laid down for our sins, but now risen, and ascended, and ever presented as an atoning and acceptable Sacrifice—the Blood of the New Testament. Unless ye eat, He says, the Flesh of the Son of Man, and drink His Blood, ye shall not have life in you. He who eateth My Flesh and drinketh My Blood hath everlasting life ; and I will raise him up on the last day (John vi. 54. 55).

The means whereby this most momentous feeding upon Christ is accomplished is the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. This is the means appointed by our Blessed Lord Himself, and it is clear, therefore, that this Holy Sacrament must on no account be neglected where it may be had. If we wilfully or carelessly refuse the means, we cannot expect to receive the grace.

Let a man prove himself, says St. Paul (1 Cor. xi. 28), and so let him eat of that Bread, and drink of the Cup. This proving one's self is the first and most necessary preparation for the Holy Communion, and consists in looking diligently into the state of one's soul, in order to discover what unworthy dispositions or sins may lie there concealed, and to apply a proper remedy to them by sincere repentance and Confession ; lest otherwise, approaching the Holy of Holies with a soul defiled with the guilt of mortal sin, we become guilty of the Body and of the Blood of Christ, and receive judgment to ourselves, not discerning the Body of the Lord (1 Cor. xi. 27, 29). For this reason we go to confession before Communion, in order to clear our souls from the defilement of sin.

The person who is to receive the Blessed Sacrament must be also fasting from the previous midnight, by the command of the Church and by a most ancient and Apostolical tradition ordaining that, in reference to so great a Sacrament, nothing should enter into the body of a Christian before the Body of Christ. The case of danger of approaching death is excepted, when the Blessed Sacrament is received by way of VIATICUM.

Besides this preparation of Confession and Fasting, the person who proposes to go to Communion must endeavor to attain the best possible devotion, in order to dispose his soul for more suitably receiving so great a Guest. To this end he is recommended :

1. To think well on the great work he has in hand ; to consider attentively Who it is whom he is going to receive, and how far he is from deserving such a favor ; and to implore, with fervor and humility, God's grace and mercy. And this should be the subject of his meditations and prayers for some time beforehand, and more particularly the night before his Communion and the morning he receives.

2. To propose to himself a Pure Intention, viz., the honor of God and the sanctification of his own soul ; and in particular that by worthily receiving Christ in this heavenly Sacrament he may come to a happy union with Him, according to His words in the Gospel of St. John, He who eateth My Flesh, and drinketh My Blood, abideth in Me, and I in him.

3. To meditate on the Sufferings and Death of his Redeemer ; this Sacrament being instituted to this end, that we should show the death of the Lord until He come (1 Cor. xi. 26).

4. To prepare himself by acts of virtue, more especially of Faith, Hope, Love, and Humility ; that so he may approach to his Lord with a firm belief of His Real Presence in this Sacrament, and of that great Sacrifice which He heretofore offered upon the Cross for our Redemption, of which He here makes us partakers ; with an ardent affection of love to Him who has loved us so much, and who, out of pure love, gives Himself to us ; and with a great sentiment of his own unworthiness and sins, joined with a firm confidence in the mercies of his Redeemer.

Here follow the forms of Preparation for, and Thanksgiving after, the Holy Communion, which are set forth in the ROMAN MISSAL. They should be used as aids to the exercise of our thoughts and the kindling of our affections, and not as substitutes for our own efforts. They point out the proper line of thought and subjects for reflection, and, if used carefully and meditatively, will be found of great assistance. But no forms, however perfect in themselves, would be good for us without much care and effort on our own parts. These forms are enlarged and extended somewhat, as a variety is useful for different minds, and also for the same mind at different times.

DEVOTIONS FOR HOLY COMMUNION.

PREPARATION.

Antiphon. Remember not, O Lord, our offences.

Psalm 83.

HOW lovely are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts : my soul longeth and fainteth for the courts of the Lord.

My heart and my flesh have rejoiced in the living God.

For the sparrow hath found her a house : and the turtle a nest for herself, where she may lay her young :

Even Thine altars, O Lord of hosts : my king and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house, O Lord : they shall praise Thee for ever and ever.

Blessed is the man whose help is in Thee : in his heart he hath disposed to ascend by steps, in the vale of tears, in the place which he hath set.

For the lawgiver shall give a blessing : they shall go from strength to strength : the God of gods shall be seen in Sion.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer : give ear, O God of Jacob.

Behold, O God, our protector : and look upon the face of Thy Christ.

For one day in Thy courts : is better than a thousand.

I had rather be despised in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of sinners.

For God loveth mercy and truth : the Lord will give grace and glory.

He will not withhold good things from them that walk in innocence : O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that hopeth in Thee.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 84.

THOU hast blessed Thy land, O Lord : Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of Thy people : Thou hast covered all their sins.

Thou hast softened all Thine anger : Thou hast turned away from the wrath of Thine indignation.

Convert us, O God our Saviour : and turn away Thine anger from us.

Wilt Thou be angry with us for ever : or wilt Thou stretch out Thy wrath from generation to generation ?

Thou shalt turn again, O God, and quicken us : and Thy people shall rejoice in Thee.

Show us Thy mercy, O Lord : and grant us Thy salvation.

I will hearken what the Lord God shall say within me : for He will speak peace unto His people :

And unto His saints : and unto them that are converted in heart.

Surely His salvation is nigh unto them that fear Him : that glory may dwell in our land.

Mercy and truth have met together : justice and peace have kissed each other.

Truth is sprung out of the earth : and justice hath looked down from heaven.

For the Lord shall give goodness : and our earth shall yield her fruit.

Justice shall walk before Him : and shall set His steps in the way.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 85.

INCLINE Thine ear, O Lord, and hear me : for I am needy and poor.

Preserve my soul, for I am holy : O my God, save Thy servant, that trusteth in Thee.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord : for unto Thee have I cried all the day. Give joy to the soul of Thy servant, for unto Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul.

For Thou, O Lord, art sweet and mild ; and plenteous in mercy unto all that call upon Thee.

Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer : and attend to the voice of my petition.

I have called upon Thee in the day of my trouble : for Thou hast heard me.

Among the gods there is none like unto Thee, O Lord : and there is none that can do works like unto Thy works.

All the nations whom Thou hast made shall come and worship before Thee, O Lord : and shall glorify Thy name.

For Thou art great, and doest wondrous things :
Thou art God alone.

Lead me, O Lord, in Thy way, and I will walk in Thy truth : let my heart rejoice that it may fear Thy name.

I will praise Thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart : and I will glorify Thy name for ever.

For great is Thy mercy toward me : and Thou hast delivered my soul out of the lower hell.

O God, the wicked are risen up against me ; and the assembly of the mighty have sought after my soul : and they have not set Thee before their eyes.

And Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and merciful : long-suffering, and of much mercy, and true.

O look upon me, and have mercy on me : give Thy strength unto Thy servant, and save the son of Thine handmaid.

Show me a token for good : that they who hate me
may see, and be confounded : because Thou, O Lord, hast helped me, and hast comforted me.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 115.

I BELIEVED, and therefore did I speak : but I was humbled exceedingly.

I said in mine excess : All men are liars.

What shall I render unto the Lord : for all the things that He hath rendered unto me?

I will take the chalice of salvation ; and call upon
the name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord, in the presence of all His people : precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.

O Lord, I am Thy servant : I am Thy servant, and the son of Thine handmaid.

Thou hast broken my bonds in sunder : I will offer unto Thee the sacrifice of praise, and will call upon the name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord in the sight of all His people : in the courts of the house of the Lord, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Psalm 129.

OUT of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord :
Lord, hear my voice.

O let Thine ears consider well : the voice of my supplication.

If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities : Lord, who shall abide it ?

For with Thee there is merciful forgiveness : and because of Thy law I have waited for Thee, O Lord.

My soul hath waited on His word : my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

From the morning watch even until night : let Israel hope in the Lord.

For with the Lord there is mercy : and with him is plenteous redemption.

And He shall redeem Israel : from all his iniquities.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Ant. Remember not, O Lord, our offences, nor those of our parents ; neither take Thou revenge of our sins : Spare us, good Lord, spare Thy people whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy most Precious Blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Lord have mercy.

Christ have mercy.

Lord have mercy.

Our Father (inaudibly).

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

V. I said : O Lord, be Thou merciful unto me.

R. Heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee.

V. Return, O Lord, for a little space.

R. And be entreated in favor of Thy servants.

V. Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us.

R. As we have hoped in Thee.

V. Let Thy priests be clothed with justice.

R. And let Thy saints rejoice.

V. From my secret sins cleanse me, O Lord.

R. And from those of others spare Thy servant.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

O MERCIFUL Lord, incline Thine ears to our prayers, and enlighten our hearts by the grace of Thy Holy Spirit : that we may worthily receive Thy holy Mysteries, and love Thee with an everlasting love.

O GOD, unto whom every heart is open, every desire known, and from whom no secret is hid : cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love Thee and worthily praise Thee.

INFLAME, O Lord, our reins and our hearts with the fire of the Holy Ghost : that we may serve Thee with a chaste body, and please Thee with a pure mind.

WE pray Thee, O Lord, that the Comforter who proceedeth from Thee may illuminate our minds, and lead us, as Thy Son hath promised, into all truth.

MAY the power of Thy Holy Spirit, O Lord, be present with us to cleanse us from all evil and defend us from all adversities.

O GOD, who didst teach the hearts of Thy faithful by the light of Thy Holy Spirit : grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort.

VISIT, O Lord, we beseech Thee, and cleanse our consciences, that Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, when He cometh, may find in us a mansion prepared for Himself.

TO BE SAID DAILY.

ALMIGHTY, Everlasting God, lo, I draw near to the Sacrament of Thine Only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. As sick, I approach to the Physician of Life ; unclean, to the Fountain of Mercy ; blind, to the Light of eternal Brightness ; poor and needy, to the Lord of heaven and earth. I implore Thee, therefore, out of the abundance of Thy boundless mercy, that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to heal my sickness, to wash my defilements, to enlighten my blindness, to enrich my poverty, and to clothe my nakedness ; that I may receive the Bread of Angels, the King of kings, the Lord of lords, with such reverence and humility, such contrition and devotion, such purity and faith, such purpose and intention, as is expedient for the health of my soul. Grant, I beseech Thee, that I may receive not only the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of the Lord, but also the whole grace and virtue of that Sacrament. O most merciful God, grant me so to receive the Body of Thine Only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, which He took of the Virgin Mary, that I may be found worthy to be incorporated into His mystical Body, and accounted among His members. And, O most loving Father, grant that whom now I purpose to receive under a veil I may at last behold with unveiled face, even Thy beloved Son. Who with Thee and the Holy Ghost ever liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

SUNDAY.

O GREAT High-Priest, the true Pontiff, Jesus Christ, who didst offer Thyself to God the Father a pure and spotless Victim upon the Altar of the Cross for us miserable sinners, and didst give us Thy Flesh to eat and Thy Blood to drink, and didst ordain this Mystery in the power of Thy Holy Spirit, saying, Do this for the commemoration of Me : I pray Thee, by the same Thy Blood, the great price of our salvation ; I pray

Thee, by that wonderful and unspeakable love where-with Thou deignedst so to love us, miserable and unworthy, as to wash us from our sins in Thine own Blood : teach me, Thine unworthy servant, by Thy Holy Spirit, to approach so great a Mystery with that reverence and honor, that devotion and fear, which is due and fitting. Make me, through Thy grace, always so to believe and understand, to conceive and firmly to hold, to think and to speak, of that exceeding Mystery, as shall please Thee and be good for my soul.

Let Thy good Spirit enter my heart, and there be heard without utterance, and without the sound of words speak all truth. For Thy Mysteries are exceeding deep, and covered with a sacred veil. For Thy great mercy's sake, grant me to approach Thy holy Mysteries with a clean heart and a pure mind. Free my heart from all defiling and unholy, from all vain and hurtful thoughts. Fence me round about with the holy and faithful guard and mighty protection of Thy blessed Angels, that the enemies of all good may go away ashamed. By the virtue of this mighty Mystery, and by the hand of Thy holy Angel, drive away from me and from all Thy servants the hard spirit of pride and vain-glory, of envy and blasphemy, of impurity and uncleanness, of doubting and mistrust. Let them be confounded that persecute us. Let them perish who are bent upon our ruin.

KING of virgins and Lover of chastity and innocence, extinguish in my frame, by the dew of Thy heavenly blessing, the fuel of evil concupiscence, that so an equal purity of soul and body may abide in me. Mortify in my members the lusts of the flesh and all harmful emotions, and give me true and persevering chastity with Thine other gifts which please Thee in truth, so that I may with chaste body and pure heart offer unto Thee the sacrifice of praise. For with what contrition of heart and fountain of tears, with what reverence and awe, with what chastity of body and purity of soul, should that divine and heavenly Sacrifice be celebrated, wherein Thy flesh is indeed eaten, where Thy Blood is indeed drunk, wherein things lowest and highest, earthly and divine, are united, where the holy Angels are present, and where Thou art in a marvellous and unspeakable manner both Sacrifice and Priest!

TUESDAY.

WHO can worthily be present at this Sacrifice unless Thou, O God, makest him worthy? I know, O Lord, yea, truly do I know, and this do confess to Thy loving-kindness, that I am unworthy to approach so great a Mystery, by reason of my numberless sins and negligences; but I know, and truly with my own heart do I believe, and with my mouth confess, that Thou canst make me worthy, who alone canst make that clean which proceedeth from that which is unclean, and sinners to be just and holy. By this Thine Almighty power I beseech Thee, O my God, to grant that I, a sinner, may assist at this Sacrifice with fear and trembling, with purity of heart and plentiful tears, with spiritual gladness and heavenly joy. May my mind feel the sweetness of Thy most blessed Presence, and the love of Thy holy Angels, keeping watch around me.

WEDNESDAY.

INDFUL then, O Lord, of Thy worshipful Passion, I approach Thine Altar, sinner though I am, to join in offering unto Thee that Sacrifice which Thou hast instituted and commanded to be offered in remembrance of Thee for our well-being. Receive it, I beseech Thee, O God most High, for Thy holy Church, and for the people whom Thou hast purchased with Thine own Blood. Let not, through my unworthiness, the price of their salvation be wasted, whose saving Victim and Redemption Thou didst Thyself vouchsafe to be. Also behold in pity, O Lord, the sorrows of Thy people, which I bring before Thee ; the perils of Thy servants ; the sorrowful sighing of prisoners ; the miseries of widows and orphans, and all that are desolate and bereaved ; the necessities of strangers and travellers ; the helplessness and sadness of the weak and sickly ; the depressions of the languishing ; the weakness of the aged and of children ; the trials and aspirations of young men ; and the vows of virgins.

THURSDAY.

FOR Thou hast mercy upon all, O Lord, and hatest nothing that Thou hast made. Remember how frail our nature is, and that Thou art our Father and our God. Be not angry with us for ever, and shut not up Thy tender mercies in displeasure. For it is not for our just works that we present our prayers before Thy face, but for the multitude of Thy tender mercies. Take away from us, O Lord, our iniquities, and mercifully kindle in us the fire of Thy Holy Spirit. Take away from us the heart of stone, and give us a heart of flesh, a heart to love and adore Thee, a heart to delight in, to follow, and to enjoy Thee. And we entreat Thy mercy, O Lord, that Thou wouldst look down graciously upon Thy family, as it pays its vows to Thy most holy name ; and that the desire of none may be in vain, and the petitions of none unfulfilled, do Thou inspire our prayers, that they may be such as Thou delightest to hear and answer.

FRIDAY.

WE pray Thee also, O Lord, Holy Father, for the souls of the faithful departed : that this great Sacrament of Thy love may be to them health and salvation, joy and refreshment. O Lord, my God, grant them this day a great and abundant feast of Thee, the living Bread, who camest down from heaven and givest life unto the world ; even of Thy holy and blessed Flesh, the Lamb without spot, who takest away the sins of the world ; that Flesh, which was taken of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and conceived by the Holy Ghost ; and of that Fountain of mercy which, by the soldier's lance, flowed from Thy most sacred Side ; that they be thereby fed and satisfied, refreshed and comforted, and may rejoice in Thy praise and in Thy glory. I pray Thy loving mercy, O Lord, that on the bread and wine to be offered unto Thee may descend the fulness of Thy blessing and the sanctification of Thy Divinity. May there descend also the invisible and incomprehensible Majesty of Thy Holy Spirit, as it descended of old on the sacrifices of the Fathers, which shall make these oblations Thy Body and Blood ; and may this offering be acceptable unto Thee, through Him who offered Himself a sacrifice to Thee, O Father, even Jesus Christ, Thine only Son our Lord.

SATURDAY.

I ENTREAT Thee also, O Lord, by this most holy mystery of Thy Body and Blood, wherewith we are daily fed, and cleansed, and sanctified in Thy Church, and are made partakers of the one Supreme Divinity, grant unto me Thy holy virtues, that filled therewith I may draw near with a good conscience unto Thy holy Altar, so that these heavenly mysteries may be made unto me salvation and life; for Thou hast said with Thy holy and blessed mouth: The Bread which I will give is My Flesh, for the life of the world. I am the Living Bread which came down from heaven. If any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever. O most sweet Bread, heal the palate of my heart, that I may taste the sweetness of Thy love. Heal it of all infirmities, that I may find sweetness in nothing out of Thee. O most pure Bread, having all delight and all savor, which ever refreshest us, and never failest, let my heart feed on Thee, and may my inmost soul be filled with the sweetness of Thy savor. The Angels feed on Thee fully; let pilgrim man feed on Thee after his measure, so that, refreshed by this nourishment, he may not faint by the way. Holy Bread! Living Bread! Pure Bread! who didst come down from heaven, and who givest life to the world, enter into my heart and cleanse me from all impurity of flesh and spirit. Come into my soul; heal and cleanse me within and without; be the protection and continual health of my soul and body. Drive far from me all foes that lie in wait: let them flee afar off at the presence of Thy power; that, fortified by Thee without and within, I may by a straight way arrive at Thy kingdom, where, not as now in mysteries, but face to face, we shall behold Thee; when Thou shalt have delivered up the kingdom to God Thy Father, and shalt be God All in all. Then shalt Thou satisfy me with Thyself by a wondrous fulness, so that I shall never hunger nor thirst any more for ever. Who with the same God the Father, and the Holy Ghost, ever livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

DAILY.

O GRACIOUS Lord Jesus Christ, I, a sinner, nothing presuming on my own deserts, but trusting in Thy mercy and goodness, with fear and trembling approach to the Table of Thy most sweet Feast. For my heart and body are stained with many sins; my thoughts and lips not diligently guarded. Wherefore, O gracious God, O awful Majesty, in my extremity I turn to Thee, the Fount of Mercy; to Thee I hasten to be healed, and take refuge under Thy protection; and Thee, before whom as my Judge I cannot stand, I long for as my Saviour. To Thee, O Lord, I show my wounds, to Thee I lay bare my shame. I know my sins are many and great, for which I am afraid. My trust is in Thy mercies, of which there is no end. Look therefore upon me with the eyes of Thy mercy, O Lord Jesus Christ, God and Man, crucified for man; hearken unto me, whose trust is in Thee; have mercy upon me, who am full of sin and misery, O Thou fount of mercy, that wilt never cease to flow. Hail, saving Victim, offered for me and all mankind on the Cross of suffering and shame. Hail, noble and precious Blood, flowing from the wounds of my crucified Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and washing away the sins of the whole world. Be mindful, O Lord, of Thy creature, whom Thou hast redeemed with Thine own Blood. I repent that I have sinned ; I desire to amend what I have done. Take therefore away from me, O most merciful Father, all my iniquities and sins : that, being cleansed both in body and soul, I may worthily taste the Holy of Holies ; and grant that this holy feeding on Thy Body and Blood, of which, unworthy as I am, I purpose to partake, may be for the remission of my sins, and the perfect cleansing of all my offences, for the driving away of all evil thoughts and the renewal of all holy desires, for the healthful bringing forth of fruit well-pleasing unto Thee, and the most sure protection of my soul and body against the wiles of all my enemies. Amen.

Act of Contrition.

I DESIRE, O my Saviour, to humbly offer Thee the sacrifice of a troubled spirit and a contrite heart. I grieve from my inmost heart that I have ever offended Thee by my sins, Thee my God and my chief good, Thee who art so gracious to me, and so oft refreshest me in Thy Blessed Sacrament. I grieve especially for the sins of . . . , which Thou knowest, Thou Searcher of our hearts, and which I, a miserable sinner, do confess in the bitterness of my soul. Would that I had never offended Thee ! Yet a contrite and humble heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise ; Thou who for love of us didst give to us Thine Only-Begotten Son, to wash us from our sins in His own Blood.

Resolution of Amendment.

I DESIRE, O Lord, earnestly longing for the help of Thy grace, to renew all my Baptismal Vows to Thee, to renounce all that displeaseth Thee, and to walk more perfectly in newness of life. I renounce the devil and all his works and pomps, the glory of the world with all its covetous desires, all sinful excesses in things lawful, and whatever may lead my heart from Thee or hinder my duty towards Thee; also, I renounce all the sinful lusts of the flesh, with everything in thought, word, or deed, which displeaseth Thee, especially . . . , from all which let it be Thy good pleasure to deliver me, and to turn the whole stream of my affections to the love of Thee, that Thy will and Thy love may be the sole rule and guide of my life, and I may love whatever Thou lovest, and hate whatever Thou hatest.

Act of Faith.

OF a truth I firmly believe, O Good Jesus, and with lively faith confess, that Thou Thyself, equal to God the Father in glory and in power, true God and Man, art verily and indeed present in this Sacrament. For Thou, the very Truth itself, hast said, This is My Body, This is My Blood. I believe whatever the Son of God hath said. Nothing can be truer than this word of Him who is the Truth. I do believe, Lord; help mine unbelief, increase my faith.

Act of Hope.

O CHRIST Jesus, I am sinful dust and ashes, but Thou callest to Thee all who labor and are burdened, that Thou mayest refresh them. Art not Thou my Refuge? To whom else shall I go? Thou hast the words of eternal life, Thou alone canst comfort me in every trouble. Lord, I am weak and sick, but Thou art my salvation. Those who are well need not a physician, but those who are sick. Therefore I come to Thee, my Physician and my Refuge, hoping that this Communion may be to me the increase of Faith, Hope, and Charity; a firm defence against the snares of my enemies; a help to the removal of the fault and defect of . . . , and to the bringing forth of works well-pleasing unto Thee, especially . . . , and a pledge of future glory. This is the hope and desire which I cherish in my heart, for Thou art compassionate and of tender mercy, and in all Thy promises most faithful.

Act of Love.

O MOST Sweet Saviour, Jesus Christ, how great was Thy love, which drew Thee from the bosom of the Father to this vale of tears, to take our flesh and endure infinite miseries and wrongs, yea, even the death of the Cross, and that only for us miserable sinners and for our salvation. O how great was Thy love! Thou mightest have condemned us, and Thou didst rather choose to save us: we were guilty, and Thou, the sinless One, didst endure our punishment to set us free. Out of love it was that Thou camest down to take our flesh; and when about to depart from this world to the Father, Thou didst leave to us this Sacrament as a pledge of Thy love, that after a new and wondrous manner Thou mightest abide with us for ever; Thou whose delights are to be with the children of men. O Lord, how worthy art Thou of love, who dost so much for love of us! Wherefore I will love Thee, O Lord, my Strength, my Refuge, and my Deliverer. O God, Thou art true Love! He that dwelleth in love dwelleth in Thee. I desire to receive Thee in this Sacrament, that I may be more firmly united with Thee in the bond of love. Who shall separate me from the love of Christ my Saviour? O that neither life, nor death, nor any creature may have power to do so.

Act of Humility.

HOW dare I venture to approach to Thee, O Lord? Art not Thou, O God, my Lord, my Creator, my Redeemer, the King of heaven and earth? And who am I? A poor worm of earth, and, what is yet more unworthy, so often a disobedient and ungrateful sinner against Thee! Of a truth, Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof; yet remember, O Lord, that although Thou wast Lord of all, yet didst Thou take upon Thee the form of a servant, and coming unto us didst converse familiarly with publicans and sinners; and lastly didst humble Thyself and become obedient unto death. Let that Thy humility move Thee, I beseech Thee, not to despise me, vile and worthless as I am, but graciously to come unto me, and mercifully to receive me, who come to Thee

Act of Reparation.

O LORD, my God and Saviour, who, as Thou didst endure for our salvation the outrages of those who crucified Thee, so now deignest to bear with those who by careless or unworthy Communion approach and touch Thee, not discerning Thee, and endurest all irreverences rather than withhold Thy sacred Presence from our Altars: I bewail these indignities, and most earnestly desire to prevent, to the utmost of my power, whatever thus still grieves Thee. I beseech Thee, accept this sorrow and this desire as the only offering I can make in reparation of so great dishonor. O Lord, increase our faith, and preserve us from the least profanation of this adorable Mystery, and kindle in me and in the hearts of all Thy people, especially of all who celebrate or assist in Its ministration, such reverence and devotion that Thy most holy name may more and more be honored and glorified in this Sacrament of love. Amen.

Aspirations.

O LORD Jesus, what great things hast Thou done, and what didst Thou suffer, out of the power of Thy boundless love towards me! But what return have I made? and what return shall I make?

I am sorry from the bottom of my heart that I have ever offended Thee, who hast so greatly loved me.

I believe in Thee with a lively faith, O eternal Truth! because Thou art Thyself God and Man, my Lord and Saviour.

I hope in Thee, O Lord, O only Hope, and true Salvation of my soul.

I love Thee, O my sovereign Good! O that I may love Thee above all things with my whole heart! O may the burning power of Thy love absorb me, that nothing may ever separate me from the love of Christ Jesus, my Saviour!

For what have I in heaven but Thee? and beside Thee what do I desire upon earth?

As the hart panteth after the water-springs, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God.

What is man, that Thou art mindful of him? or the son of man that Thou visitest him?

Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord.

TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN.

O MOST Blessed Virgin Mary, mother of gentleness and mercy, I, a miserable and unworthy sinner, fly to thy protection with every sentiment of humility and love; and I implore of thy loving-kindness that thou wouldst vouchsafe graciously to be near me, and all who throughout the whole Church are to receive the Body and Blood of thy Son this day, even as thou wert near thy sweetest Son as He hung bleeding on the Cross. That, aided by thy gracious help, we may worthily offer up a pure and acceptable sacrifice in the sight of the Holy and Undivided Trinity.
Amen.

TO ST. JOSEPH. (i)

HAPPY and blessed art thou, O Joseph, to whom it was given not only to see and to hear that God whom many kings desired to see, and saw not, to hear, and heard not; but also to bear Him in thine arms, to embrace Him, to clothe Him, and to guard and defend Him.

V. Pray for us, O Blessed Joseph.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who hast given unto us a royal Priesthood, vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, that as Blessed Joseph was found worthy to handle with his hands, and bear within his arms, Thine Only-begotten Son, born of the Virgin Mary, so may we be made fit, by cleanness of heart and innocency of works, to wait upon Thy Holy Altars; that we may worthily receive the Most Sacred Body and Blood of Thy Son, now in this present, and deserve to attain an everlasting reward in the world to come. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIRECTION OF THE INTENTION.

I INTEND to assist at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and to receive the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to the Rite of the holy Roman Church, to the praise of Almighty God and of the whole Court of Heaven; for my benefit, and that of the whole Church on earth; for all those who have commended themselves unto my prayers, in general and in particular; and for the happy estate of the holy Roman Church.

JOY with peace, amendment of life, space for true repentance, the grace and comfort of the Holy Ghost, perseverance in good works, a contrite and humble heart, and a happy consummation of my life, grant unto me, O Almighty and merciful Lord. Amen.

[FOR THOSE WHO WISH TO PRAY IN THEIR OWN WORDS.

*Reflect on the events of the period since your last Communion.
Consider:*

WHAT YOU HAVE SPECIALLY TO BE THANKFUL FOR—
The mercies you have enjoyed.

(In home life; the love of friends; success in business, and the like; spiritual blessings, etc.)

Any troubles which have been averted.

(Dangers to which you have been exposed; causes of anxiety which have been removed, etc.)

Any sorrows or troubles which have fallen upon you.

(Trace God's hand in them, trusting that He has some merciful design in them, so that you can thank Him for them.)

WHAT YOU HAVE SPECIALLY TO PRAY FOR—

For the Church of Christ.

(The Pope, the whole Hierarchy, your own Bishop, the Clergy with whom you are specially concerned, Missions, etc.)

For your country.

(The President and his Counsellors, Congress, the Governor, etc.; national dangers to be averted, etc.)

For your relatives, friends, and acquaintances.

(Any who are sick or in sorrow; any for whom you desire God's guidance in religious or worldly affairs. Think whether any one has any special claim upon you. Have you injured any one? If so, have you made all the reparation in your power? Has any one injured you, having thus a special need for your prayers? The Souls in Purgatory—have you to pray especially for some of these?)

For yourself.

(Sins to be forgiven. What are your chief temptations just now? What sins and faults do you most need aid against? What Christian virtues are you chiefly deficient in? Are there any business affairs, or undertakings of any kind, or expected events, upon which you desire to ask God's blessing? etc.)]

When the bell rings at the Domine, non sum dignus, go up to the Altar-rail, and kneel there, with ungloved and folded hands. Renew with all possible fervor your contrition of heart, while the Confiteor is recited by the acolyte, and the Misereatur and Indulgentiam pronounced by the Priest. When the Sacred Host is presented to you, receive It on your tongue lightly resting on the lower lip. Say in your heart the words which the Priest uses: The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul unto life everlasting. Retire to your place with recollection and holy modesty, and remain for some time kneeling, in silent communing with your heavenly Guest. Do not be too anxious to use your Prayer-book; it is far better for a while to meditate upon the Sacred Mysteries which you have received, using the unspoken sentiments of the soul. Let not this precious time be wasted, however; should attention flag and distractions arise, have immediate recourse to the following prayers.

THANKSGIVING AFTER COMMUNION.

Antiphon. Of the Three Children.

The Benedicite.

ALL ye Works of the Lord, bless the Lord : praise and exalt Him above all for ever.

O ye Angels of the Lord, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O ye Heavens.

O all ye Waters that are above the Heavens, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O all ye Powers of the Lord.

O ye Sun and Moon, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O ye Stars of Heaven.

O every Shower and Dew, bless ye the Lord : bless the Lord, O all ye Spirits of God.

O ye Fire and Heat, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O ye Cold and Heat.

O ye Dews and Hoarfrost, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O ye Frost and Cold.

O ye Ice and Snow, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O ye Nights and Days.

O ye Light and Darkness, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O ye Lightnings and Clouds.

O let the Earth bless the Lord : let it praise and exalt Him above all for ever.

O ye Mountains and Hills, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O all ye things that spring up in the earth.

O ye Fountains, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O ye Seas and Rivers.

O ye Whales, and all that move in the Waters, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O all ye Fowls of the air.

O all ye Beasts and Cattle, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O ye Sons of men.

O let Israel bless the Lord : let them praise and exalt Him above all for ever.

O ye Priests of the Lord, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O ye Servants of the Lord.

O ye Spirits and Souls of the Just, bless the Lord : bless the Lord, O ye holy and humble of heart.

O Ananiah, Azariah, and Misael, bless ye the Lord : praise and exalt Him above all for ever.

Let us bless the Father, and the Son, with the Holy Ghost ; let us praise and exalt Him above all for ever.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, in the Firmament of Heaven : and worthy to be praised and glorified, and exalted above all for ever.

Psalm 150.

PRAISE the Lord in His holy places : praise Him in the firmament of His power.

Praise Him in His mighty acts : praise Him according to the multitude of His greatness.

Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet : praise Him with psaltery and harp.

Praise Him with timbrel and choir : praise Him with strings and organs.

Praise Him upon the high-sounding cymbals : praise

Him upon cymbals of joy : let every spirit praise the Lord. Alleluia.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Antiphon. Let us sing the song of the Three Children, which the holy souls sang in the fiery furnace, blessing the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Our Father (inaudibly).

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

V. Let all Thy works, O Lord, praise Thee.

R. And let Thy Saints bless Thee.

V. The Saints shall rejoice in glory.

R. They shall be joyful in their beds.

V. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us.

R. But unto Thy name give the glory.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who for the Three Children didst assuage the flames of fire : mercifully grant that the flames of sin may not consume us Thy servants.

DIRECT, we beseech Thee, O Lord, our actions by Thy inspiration, and further them with Thy continual help ; that every prayer and work of ours may always begin from Thee, and through Thee be brought to an end.

VOUCHSAFE, O Lord, to extinguish within us the flames of sin ; Thou who didst grant to Blessed Lawrence grace to arise whole from his fiery torments. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER OF ST. THOMAS AQUINAS.

ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, the Preserver of souls and the Redeemer of the world, look favorably upon me, Thy servant, prostrate before Thy Majesty, and most graciously accept this Sacrifice at which, in honor of Thy name, I have been present, for the saving health of the faithful, living as well as departed, as also for all my sins and offences. Take away Thine anger from me : grant Thy grace and mercy unto me ; open unto me the gates of Paradise ; deliver me by Thy power from all evils ; and whatever guilt I have of my own sinfulness incurred, do Thou graciously forgive ; and make me so to persevere in Thy precepts in this world that I may be rendered worthy to be joined to the company of Thine elect ; of Thine only gift, O my God, whose blessed name, honor, and dominion endureth for ever and ever. Amen.

I render thanks to Thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Everlasting God, who hast vouchsafed, not for any merits of mine, but of Thy great mercy only, to feed me a sinner, Thine unworthy servant, with the precious Body and Blood of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ ; and I pray that this Holy Communion may not be for my judgment and condemnation, but for my pardon and salvation. Let it be unto me an armor of faith and a shield of good purpose, a riddance of all vices, and a rooting out of all evil desires ; an increase of love and patience, of humility and obedience, and of all virtues ; a firm defence against the wiles of all my enemies, visible and invisible ; a perfect quieting of all my impulses, fleshly and spiritual ; a cleaving unto Thee, the one true God ; and a blessed consummation of my end when Thou dost call. And I pray that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to bring me a sinner to that unspeakable Feast where Thou, with Thy Son and Thy Holy Spirit, art to Thy holy ones true light, fullness of blessedness, everlasting joy, and perfect happiness. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER OF ST. BONAVENTURE.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus Christ, transfix the affections of my inmost soul with that most joyous and healthful wound of Thy love, with true, serene, holiest Apostolic charity, that my soul may ever languish and melt with entire love and longing for Thee, that it may desire Thee, and faint for Thy courts, long to be dissolved and to be with Thee. Grant that my soul may hunger after Thee, the Bread of Angels, the Refreshment of holy souls, our daily and supersubstantial Bread, who hast all sweetness and savor, and the sweetness of every taste. Let my heart ever hunger after and feed upon Thee, upon whom the Angels desire to look, and my inmost soul be filled with the sweetness of Thy savor. May it ever thirst for Thee, the Fountain of life, the Source of wisdom and knowledge, the Fountain of eternal light, the Torrent of pleasure, the Richness of the House of God. May it ever yearn for Thee, seek Thee, find Thee, stretch towards Thee, attain to Thee, meditate upon Thee, speak of Thee, and do all things to the praise and glory of Thy holy name, with humility and discretion, with love and delight, with readiness and affection, with perseverance even unto the end. And be Thou ever my hope and my whole confidence ; my riches ; my delight, my pleasure, and my joy ; my rest and tranquillity ; my peace, my sweetness, and my fragrance ; my sweet savor, my food and refreshment ; my refuge and my help ; my wisdom ; my portion, my possession, and my treasure, in whom my mind and my heart may ever remain fixed and firm, and rooted immovably, henceforth and for evermore. Amen.

O MOST Holy, O most benign, O noble and glorious Virgin Mary, who wast worthy to bear in thy sacred womb the Creator of all, and at thy virginal breast to nourish Him whose true, real, and most holy Body and Blood I, an unworthy sinner, have just now dared to receive : vouchsafe, I humbly beseech thee, to intercede with Him for me a sinner ; that whatsoever, by ignorance or neglect, by accident or irreverence, I have left undone, or have done amiss, in this unspeakably holy Sacrifice, may be pardoned through thy prayers to the same our Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth world without end. Amen.

ASPIRATIONS.

WHO art Thou, O Lord, and what am I ?
Dost Thou come unto me, O King most High, even to the very lowest of Thy servants ?

Behold, O Lord, I now have Thee, who hast all things : I possess Thee, who possessest all things and canst do all things ; therefore, O my God and my All, do Thou wean my heart from all other things beside Thee, for in them there is nothing but vanity and weariness of spirit; on Thee alone may my heart be fixed; in Thee be my rest, for in Thee is my treasure, in Thee are sovereign truth, true happiness, and eternal life.

Let my soul, O Lord, feel the sweetness of Thy presence. May it taste how sweet Thou art, O Lord, that, drawn by love of Thee, it may seek for nothing wherein to rejoice out of Thee; for Thou art the joy of my heart, and my God, and my portion for ever.

Thou art the Physician of my soul, who with Thine own stripes hast healed our sickness. I am that sick soul whom Thou camest from heaven to heal; heal my soul, therefore, for I have sinned against Thee.

Thou art the Good Shepherd who hast laid down Thy life for Thy sheep. Behold, I am that sheep which was lost, and yet Thou dost vouchsafe to feed me with Thy Body and Blood; lay me now upon Thy shoulders. What wilt Thou refuse me, who hast given Thyself unto me? O be Thou my Shepherd, and I shall lack nothing in the green pasture wherein Thou feedest me, until I am brought to the pastures of eternal life.

O Thou true Light, which enlightenest every man who cometh into the world, enlighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death.

O Fire continually burning, and never failing! behold how lukewarm and cold I am; O do Thou inflame my reins and my heart, that they may be on fire with the love of Thee. For Thou camest to send fire on the earth, and what wilt Thou but that it be kindled?

O King of Heaven and earth, rich in pity! behold, I am poor and needy; Thou knowest what I most require ; Thou alone art able to enrich and help me ; help me, O God, and out of the treasure of Thy goodness succor Thou my needy soul.

O my Lord and my God ! behold, I am Thy servant : give me understanding and kindle my affections, that I may know and do Thy will.

Thou art the Lamb of God, the Lamb without spot, who takest away the sins of the world ; take away from me whatever hurteth me and displeaseth Thee ; and give me what Thou knowest to be pleasing to Thee and good for me.

Thou art my love and all my joy ; Thou art my God and my all ; Thou art the portion of my inheritance and of my cup ; Thou art He that will restore my inheritance unto me.

O my God and my All ! may the sweet and burning power of Thy love, I beseech Thee, so absorb my soul, that I may die unto the world for the love of Thee, who for the love of me hast vouchsafed to die upon the Cross, O my God and my All.

Lord, if I had lived innocently, I could not have deserved to receive the crumbs that fall from Thy Table. How great is Thy mercy, who hast feasted me with the Bread of Virgins, with the Wine of Angels, with Manna from heaven !

O when shall I pass from this dark glass, from this veil of Sacraments, to the vision of Thy eternal light ; from eating Thy Body, to beholding Thy face in Thy eternal kingdom ?

Let not my sins crucify the Lord of life again ; let it never be said of me, The hand of him who betrayeth Me is with Me on the table.

O that I might love Thee as well as ever any creature loved Thee ! Let me think nothing but Thee, desire nothing but Thee, enjoy nothing but Thee.

O Jesus, be a Jesus unto me. Thou art all things unto me. Let nothing ever please me but what savors of Thee and Thy miraculous sweetness.

Blessed be the mercies of our Lord, who of God is made unto me wisdom, and justice, and sanctification, and redemption. Let him who glorieth glory in the Lord. Amen.

Adore and Magnify the Lord.

O LORD Jesus, sweetest Guest, mayest Thou have come happily to me, Thy poor and humble servant. Mayest Thou have entered in blessing under this mean and lowly roof. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, in the highest, for that Thou hast come into my heart, Thou Day-spring from on high. O King of peace, drive from my heart all vain and idle thoughts, that my soul may be able to imitate and to love Thee only, the Author of peace. For what beside Thee, O Thou peace, Thou calm and sweetness of my heart, should my soul seek for or desire ?

Pray for Grace.

GRANT me Thy grace, most merciful Jesus, that it may be with me, and work with me, and continue with me even to the end. Grant me ever to will and to desire what is most pleasing unto Thee. Let Thy will be mine, and my will ever follow Thine in perfect agreement with it, that so I may neither choose nor reject, save what Thou chooseth and rejectest.

Grant me to die to all that is in the world, and for love of Thee to be content to be despised and unknown in this life. Grant me, above all objects of desire, to rest in Thee, and to still my heart to perfect peace in Thee. For Thou art the true peace of the heart, Thou art its only rest, and out of Thee all is restless and unquiet. In this peace, that is in Thyself alone, my chief and eternal good, may I lay me down and take my rest. Amen.

Give Thanks.

WHAT shall I render unto Thee, O Lord Jesus, for all that Thou hast done unto me, and on this day especially? In Thy care for me Thou hast given me Thy Body for my food, and Thy Blood for my drink, and both for a pledge of future glory. Would that my lips might be opened, and my mouth filled with Thy praise, that I might sing of Thy glory and of Thy greatness all the day long, and tell of all Thy wondrous works. O my soul, magnify the Lord, from whom thou hast received blessings so many and so great; and rejoice, my spirit, in God thy Saviour: for He hath looked down on my lowliness; and the Mighty One hath done great things for me, and hath filled me, when hungry, with good things.

Let my words please Thee, O Lord; my joy shall be in Thee, and I will be exercised in Thy commandments. Hold Thou me by my right hand, and guide me by Thy will, that Thou mayest afterwards receive me with Thy glory; for Thy mercy's sake. Amen.

Offer to God the Father His Son Jesus Christ.

O MOST Merciful Father, who hast so loved me as to give to me Thine Only-begotten Son for my food and drink, and with Him all things, look upon the Face of Thine Anointed, in whom Thou art well pleased. This Thy Beloved Son, and with Him my heart, I offer and present to Thee for all the blessings Thou hast this day given me. Mayest Thou, O Father, be now well pleased in Him, and through Him turn away Thine indignation from me.

Behold the One Mediator between God and men, a Man Christ Jesus, my Advocate and High-Priest, who intercedes for me. Him do I offer and plead before Thee, who committed no sin, but bore the sins of the world, and by whose stripes we are healed. Accept, therefore, O Holy Father, this Immaculate Victim, to the honor and glory of Thy name, in thanksgiving for all Thy benefits bestowed upon me, in remission also of my sins, and supply of all my defects and shortcomings.

O Blessed Virgin, Mother of my God and Saviour, recommend my petitions to thy Son. O all ye Angels and Saints, citizens of heaven, join also your prayers with mine. Ye stand always before the Throne, and see Him face to face, whom I here receive under veils. Be ever mindful of me, and obtain from Him and through Him that with you I may bless Him and love Him for ever. Amen.

Offer Yourself to Christ.

O LORD, for that I am Thy servant and the son of Thy handmaid, I therefore renounce the devil and all his works and pomps ; all the vanity of this wicked world, and all the sinful lusts of the flesh. Thou alone art the God of my heart ; Thou, O God, art my portion for ever. Thou art the portion of my inheritance and of my cup. Thou art He that will restore my inheritance unto me. Do Thou therefore take for Thine own the whole powers of my soul, my memory, my intellect, and all my will. All that I am, and all that I have, Thou hast bestowed upon me : therefore I give back all to Thee, and surrender it to be wholly governed by Thy sovereign will. Grant me but grace to love Thee alone, and I am rich enough and ask no more.

Here may be said the Tantum Ergo (p. 222), the Lauda Sion (p. 632), the Pange Lingua (p. 627), or any other Hymn in honor of the Blessed Sacrament.

A PRAYER⁽ⁱ⁾

To which Pope Pius VII. has annexed a Plenary Indulgence, which all the faithful may obtain who, after having confessed their sins with contrition, and received the Holy Communion, shall devoutly recite it before an image or representation of Christ crucified.

Behold, O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in Thy sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul I pray and beseech Thee that Thou wouldst impress upon my heart lively sentiments of Faith, Hope, and Charity, with true repentance for my sins, and a firm desire of amendment, whilst with deep affection and grief of soul I ponder within myself and mentally contemplate Thy five most precious Wounds ; having before my eyes that which David spake in prophecy : They have pierced my hands and feet ; they have numbered all my bones.

The Devotion of the Forty Hours' Adoration.

HIS Devotion, known in Italy as the Quarant' ore, continues for Forty Hours, in memory of the forty hours during which the Body of our Lord remained in the Sepulchre. It was begun at Milan in 1534, and was introduced into Rome by St. Philip Neri in 1548, and sanctioned by Pope Clement VIII., who issued a solemn Bull respecting it, November 25, 1592.

The devotion owes its origin to Father Joseph, a Capuchin friar at Milan. In the year 1534 the city of Milan was suffering all the horrors attendant on war, and was reduced almost to despair, when Father Joseph called upon the citizens to raise their eyes from the miseries around them, and look up to heaven for succor, assuring them, on the part of God, that if they would give themselves to fervent prayer for forty hours, their city and their country would be liberated from the devastations of their enemies. The citizens obeyed the call. The Forty Hours' Prayer commenced in the Cathedral, and was taken up by the other churches of the city in rotation. The people meanwhile attended with fervor at the appointed prayers, and approached with great devotion the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist. Heaven did not delay to fulfil the assurance given by the pious servant of God; for in a short time the Emperor Charles V. and Francis,

King of France, were seen at the gate of Milan arranging the articles of peace.

To promote this devotion Pope Clement VIII. granted a Plenary Indulgence to all such as, confessing their sins and receiving Holy Communion, should visit any church or chapel where this devotion was being performed.

To gain this Indulgence it is required (1) to visit the Blessed Sacrament once during the three days of Exposition; and (2) to receive Holy Communion on the day preceding, or on one of the three days, but not necessarily in the same church or chapel in which the Blessed Sacrament is exposed.

Pope Paul V. also granted an Indulgence of ten years and ten quadrages for every Visit made to the Blessed Sacrament thus exposed.

These Indulgences are applicable to the Souls in Purgatory.

The forms of prayers used in this devotion are, the Litany of the Saints, Collects, etc., as given on page 256; to which may be added the Litany of the Holy Name (p. 60), the Litany of the Blessed Virgin (p. 65), the Miserere (p. 249), and the Te Deum (p. 160).

A VISIT TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

AN ACT OF ADORATION TO THE MOST HOLY TRINITY.

I MOST humbly adore Thee, O uncreated Father, and Thee, O Only-begotten Son, and Thee, O Holy Ghost the Paraclete, one Almighty, Everlasting, and Unchangeable God, Creator of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I acknowledge in Thee a true and ineffable Trinity of Persons, a true and indivisible Unity of Substance. I glorify Thee, O Almighty Trinity, one only Deity, my most compassionate Lord, my sweetest hope, my dearest light, my most desired repose, my joy, my life, and all my good. To Thy most merciful goodness I commend my soul and body; to Thy most sacred Majesty I wholly devote myself, and to Thy divine will I resign and yield myself eternally. All honor and glory be to Thee for ever and ever. Amen.

O HEAVENLY Father, O most forgiving Father, O Lord God, have mercy upon me a wretched sinner, have mercy upon all men. In fullest reparation, expiation, and satisfaction for all my iniquities and negligences, and for the sins of the whole world, and perfectly to supply the deficiency of my works, I offer unto Thee Thy Beloved Son, Christ Jesus, in union with that sovereign charity with which Thou didst send Him to us, and didst give Him to us as our Saviour. I offer His transcendent virtues, and all that He did and suffered for us. I offer His labors, sorrows, torments, and most Precious Blood. I offer the merits of the most Blessed Virgin Mary and of all Thy Saints. Assist me, I beseech Thee, O most merciful Father, through the same Thy Son, by the power of Thy Holy Spirit. Have mercy on all unhappy sinners, and graciously call them back to the way of salvation. Grant to all the living pardon and grace, and to the faithful departed eternal light and rest. Amen.

O HOLY Spirit, sweetest Comforter, who proceedest from the Father and the Son in an ineffable manner, come, I beseech Thee, and enter into my heart. Purify and cleanse me from all sin, and sanctify my soul. Wash away its defilements, moisten its dryness, heal its wounds, subdue its stubbornness, melt its coldness, and correct its wanderings. Make me truly humble and resigned, that I may be pleasing unto Thee, and Thou mayest abide with me for ever. O most blessed Light, O Light worthy of all love, enlighten me. O Joy of Paradise, O fount of purest delights, O my God, give Thyself to me, and kindle in my inmost soul the fire of Thy love. O my Lord, instruct, direct, and defend me in all things. Give me strength against all undue fears and a cowardly spirit; bestow upon me a right Faith, a firm Hope, and a sincere and perfect Charity; and grant that I may ever do Thy most gracious will. Amen.

A PRAYER OF ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI.⁽ⁱ⁾

LORD Jesus Christ, who, through the love which Thou bearest to men, dost remain with them, day and night, in this Sacrament, full of mercy and of love, expecting, inviting, and receiving all who come to visit Thee: I believe that Thou art present in the Sacrament of the Altar. From the abyss of my nothingness I adore Thee, and I thank Thee for all the graces which Thou hast bestowed upon me, particularly for having given me Thyself in this Sacrament, for having given me for my advocate Thy most holy Mother, Mary, and for having called me to visit Thee in this church. I pay my homage this day to Thy most loving Heart, and I do so, first, in thanksgiving for this great gift itself; secondly, as a reparation for all the injuries which Thou hast received from Thine enemies in this Sacrament; thirdly, I wish, by this visit, to adore Thee in all those places on earth where Thou art Sacramentally present, and in which Thou art the least honored and the most abandoned. My Jesus, I love Thee with my whole heart. I am sorry for having hitherto so many times offended Thine infinite goodness. I purpose, with the assistance of Thy grace, never more to offend Thee ; and, at this moment, miserable as I am, I consecrate my whole being to Thee. I give Thee my entire will, all my affections and desires, and all that I have. From this day forward do what Thou wilt with me, and with everything that belongs to me. I ask and desire only Thy holy love, the gift of final perseverance, and the perfect fulfilment of Thy will. I commend to Thee the souls in purgatory, particularly those who were most devoted to the most Blessed Sacrament and to the Blessed Virgin Mary ; and I also commend to Thee all poor sinners. Finally, my dear Saviour, I unite all my affections with the affections of Thy most loving Heart ; and, thus united, I offer them to Thine Eternal Father, and I entreat Him, in Thy name and for Thy sake, to accept and answer them. Amen.

The Prayer Look down, O Lord (p. 90), may be used here.

AN ACT OF RÉPARATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

O JESUS, Only Son of the Living God, who, by an incomprehensible effect of Thy love, wast pleased to be made Man, to be born in a stable, to live amidst labors and sufferings, to die upon a Cross, and to leave us, as a perpetual pledge of Thy tenderness, Thine own Body and Blood for the nourishment of our souls, in the ineffable Sacrament of the Eucharist : Thou beholdest at Thy feet a criminal covered with confusion, who comes, in the spirit of union with all the associates in the adoration of Thy divine Heart, humbly to confess his ingratitude, his iniquities, and those of all other men, that he may make reparation for them as far as in him lies.

Alas ! O loving Jesus, we have sinned against heaven and before Thee. What hath Thy most Sacred Heart not suffered on our part in the course of Thy sacred life, in Thy bitter Passion, and from the moment that Thou hast dwelt amongst us in the Sacrament of Thy Love ! O with how much bitterness, opprobrium, and grief have we deluged Thy divine Heart ! Pardon ; mercy ; O adorable Heart of Jesus ! mercy for me, mercy for all men, and for our land in particular !

I detest, with all the sincerity of my soul, and with the most profound and bitter grief, everything which hath ever offended Thee in myself or in others ; I detest it for the love Thou deservest, and which is supremely due unto Thee. O that I could efface with my tears, and wash away with my blood, the injuries which we have done unto Thee. O that I could repay Thee, by my repentance, by my works, and by my love, all the glory, honor, and satisfaction of which Thou hast been robbed by the injuries and outrages that have been committed against Thee ! Accept at least the earnest desire with which Thou inspirest me.

Vouchsafe, O Heart infinitely rich in mercy, to light again in my heart and that of all men the sacred fire which Thou camest to kindle upon the earth. Let it purify them, let it inflame them, let it make of them one heart with Thy Heart. Pour down, I beseech Thee, Thy most precious and abundant benedictions on Thy holy Church, and those who govern it ; on this diocese, on this region, and on all those who are united with us in devotion to Thy Sacred Heart. O Heart of Jesus, live, reign in all hearts, for time and for eternity. Amen.

AN ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

TO Thee, O Sacred Heart of Jesus, do I devote and offer up my life, my thoughts, my words, my actions, and my sufferings. May my whole being be no longer employed but in loving and serving and glorifying Thee. O Sacred Heart, be Thou henceforth the sole object of my love, the protector of my life, the pledge of my salvation, and my refuge at the hour of my death. Plead for me, O blessed and adorable Heart, at the Bar of Divine Justice, and screen me from the anger which my sins deserve. Imprint Thyself like a Seal upon my heart, that I may never be separated from Thee. May my name also be ever engraven upon Thee, and may I ever be consecrated to Thy glory, ever burning with the flames of Thy Love, and entirely penetrated with it for all eternity. This is all my desire, to live in Thee. One thing have I sought of the Lord, and this will I seek, that I may dwell in the Heart of my Lord all the days of my life.

A PRAYER TO THE ETERNAL FATHER.

O ETERNAL Father, let me offer up unto Thy mercy the Sacred Heart of Thy dearly-beloved Son, even as He offered Himself up a Sacrifice to Thy Justice.

Accept, on my behalf, all the thoughts, sentiments, affections, motions, and all the actions of this Sacred Heart; they are mine, because It was immolated for me'; they are mine, because for the future I am resolved to admit nothing into my heart but what hath place in Thine. Receive, then, O God, the merits of this Sacred Heart in satisfaction for my sins, and in thanksgiving for all the benefits conferred upon me. Receive them, O Lord, as so many motives for granting my petitions. Give me, O Lord, for their sake, all the graces I need, but especially the gift of final perseverance. Receive them as so many acts of love, adoration, and praise, which I now offer to Thy divine Majesty. This Sacred Heart, this Heart alone, can love, honor, and glorify Thee as Thou deservest. Amen.

A PRAYER TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS, IN THE BLESSED SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR. (i)

HOW boundless, O Jesus, is Thy Love! Thou hast prepared for me, of Thy most precious Body and Blood, a divine Banquet, wherein Thou dost give Thyself to me without reserve. What hath urged Thee to this excess of love? Nothing but Thine own most Loving Heart. O adorable Heart of Jesus, Furnace of divine Love, receive my soul into the wounds of Thy most sacred Passion, that in this school of charity I may learn to make a return of love to that God who hath given me such wonderful proofs of His Love. Amen.

JESUS, meek and humble of heart,
Make my heart like unto Thine! (i)

O sweetest Heart of Jesus, I implore
That I may ever love Thee more and more! (i)

O Heart of Jesus, burning with love of me, inflame my heart with the love of Thee! (i)

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, mayest Thou be known, loved, and adored throughout all the world! (i)

O Heart of my dear Redeemer, may the love of Thy friends supply all the injuries and neglects which Thou sustainest!

The Stations of the Cross.⁽ⁱ⁾

HIS DEVOTION arose first in Jerusalem, among the Christians who dwell there, out of veneration for those sacred spots which were sanctified by the sufferings of our Divine Redeemer. From the Holy City this devout exercise was introduced into Europe. When, in 1342, the Franciscan Fathers established their house in Jerusalem, and undertook the custody of the sacred places of the Holy Land, they began to spread throughout the Catholic world the devotion of the Way of the Cross.

This excellent devotion has met with the repeated approvals of the Holy See, and is enriched with many Indulgences; to gain them, it is necessary to meditate, according to individual ability, on the Passion and Death of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to go from one Station to another, if the space and number of persons will admit.

METHOD OF PRACTISING THIS EXERCISE,

COMPOSED BY ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI, A.D. 1787.

Let each one, kneeling before the High Altar, make an Act of Contrition, and form the intention of gaining the Indulgences, whether for himself or for the souls in Purgatory. Then say:

My Lord Jesus Christ, Thou hast made this journey to die for me with love unutterable, and I have so many times unworthily abandoned Thee; but now I love Thee with my whole heart, and because I love

Thee I repent sincerely for having ever offended Thee. Pardon me, my God, and permit me to accompany Thee on this journey. Thou goest to die for love of me ; I wish also, my beloved Redeemer, to die for love of Thee. My Jesus, I will live and die always united to Thee.

Dear J  sus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.*

FIRST STATION.

JESUS IS CONDEMNED TO DEATH.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider how Jesus, after having been scourged and crowned with thorns, was unjustly condemned by Pilate to die on the Cross.

MY adorable Jesus, it was not Pilate ; no, it was my sins that condemned Thee to die. I beseech Thee, by the merits of this sorrowful journey, to assist my soul in her journey towards eternity. I love Thee, my beloved Jesus ; I love Thee more than myself ; I repent with my whole heart of having offended Thee. Never permit me to separate myself from Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee always ; and then do with me what Thou wilt.

* While passing from one Station to another, a verse of the Stabat Mater (p. 617) is frequently sung.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.

SECOND STATION.

JESUS IS MADE TO BEAR HIS CROSS.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider how Jesus, in making this journey with the Cross on His shoulders, thought of us, and for us offered to His Father the death He was about to undergo.

MY most beloved Jesus, I embrace all the tribulations Thou hast destined for me until death. I beseech Thee, by the merits of the pain Thou didst suffer in carrying Thy Cross, to give me the necessary help to carry mine with perfect patience and resignation. I love Thee, Jesus my love ; I repent of having offended Thee. Never permit me to separate myself from Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee always and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.

THIRD STATION.

JESUS FALLS THE FIRST TIME UNDER HIS CROSS.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider this first fall of Jesus under His Cross. His flesh was torn by the scourges, His head crowned with thorns, and He had lost a great quantity of blood. He was so weakened that He could scarcely walk, and yet He had to carry this great load upon His shoulders. The soldiers struck Him rudely, and thus He fell several times in His journey.

MY Jesus, it is not the weight of the Cross, but of my sins, which has made Thee suffer so much pain. Ah! by the merits of this first fall, deliver me from the misfortune of falling into mortal sin. I love Thee, O my Jesus, with my whole heart; I repent of having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee always, and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die

For very love of me :

Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;

I wish to die with Thee.

FOURTH STATION.

JESUS MEETS HIS AFFLICTED MOTHER.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider the meeting of the Son and the Mother, which took place on this journey. Jesus and Mary looked at each other, and their looks became as so many arrows to wound those hearts which loved each other so tenderly.

MY most loving Jesus, by the sorrow that Thou didst experience in this meeting, grant me the grace of a truly devoted love for Thy most holy Mother. And thou, my Queen, who wast overwhelmed with sorrow, obtain for me, by thy intercession, a continual and tender remembrance of the Passion of thy Son. I love Thee, Jesus my love ; I repent of having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee, and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.

FIFTH STATION.

THE CYRENIAN HELPS JESUS TO CARRY HIS CROSS.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider how the Jews, seeing that at each step Jesus from weakness was on the point of expiring, and fearing that He would die on the way, when they wished Him to die the ignominious death of the Cross, constrained Simon the Cyrenian to carry the Cross behind our Lord.

MY most beloved Jesus, I will not refuse the Cross as the Cyrenian did ; I accept it—I embrace it. I accept in particular the death Thou hast destined for me, with all the pains which may accompany it ; I unite it to Thy death—I offer it to Thee. Thou hast died for love of me ; I will die for love of Thee, and to please Thee. Help me by Thy grace. I love Thee, Jesus my love ; I repent of having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee ; and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.

SIXTH STATION.

VERONICA WIPES THE FACE OF JESUS.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider how the holy woman named Verônica, seeing Jesus so afflicted, and His face bathed in sweat and blood, presented Him with a towel, with which He wiped His adorable face, leaving on it the impression of His holy countenance.

MY most beloved Jesus, Thy face was beautiful before, but in this journey it has lost all its beauty, and wounds and blood have disfigured it. Alas ! my soul also was once beautiful, when it received Thy grace in Baptism ; but I have disfigured it since by my sins. Thou alone, my Redeemer, canst restore it to its former beauty. Do this by Thy passion, and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company
I wish to die with Thee.

SEVENTH STATION.

JESUS FALLS THE SECOND TIME.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider the second fall of Jesus under the Cross—a fall which renews the pain of all the wounds of the head and members of our afflicted Lord.

MY most gentle Jesus, how many times Thou hast pardoned me, and how many times have I fallen again, and begun again to offend Thee ! Oh ! by the merits of this new fall, give me the necessary helps to persevere in Thy grace until death. Grant that in all temptations which assail me I may always commend myself to Thee. I love Thee, Jesus my love, with my whole heart ; I repent of having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee always ; and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.

EIGHTH STATION.

JESUS SPEAKS TO THE WOMEN OF JERUSALEM.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider how those women wept with compassion at seeing Jesus in such a pitiable state, streaming with blood, as He walked along. But Jesus said to them : Weep not for Me, but for your children.

MY Jesus, laden with sorrows, I weep for the offences I have committed against Thee, because of the pains they have deserved, and still more because of the displeasure they have caused Thee, who hast loved me so much. It is Thy love, more than the fear of hell, which causes me to weep for my sins. My Jesus, I love Thee more than myself ; I repent of having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee always ; and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.

NINTH STATION.

JESUS FALLS THE THIRD TIME.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider the third fall of Jesus Christ. His weakness was extreme, and the cruelty of His executioners excessive, who tried to hasten His steps when He had scarcely strength to move.

AH, my outraged Jesus, by the merits of the weakness Thou didst suffer in going to Calvary, give me strength sufficient to conquer all human respect, and all my wicked passions, which have led me to despise Thy friendship. I love Thee, Jesus my love, with my whole heart; I repent of having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee always; and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die

For very love of me :

Ah ! let me bear Thee company

I wish to die with Thee.

TENTH STATION.

JESUS IS STRIPPED OF HIS GARMENTS.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider the violence with which the executioners stripped Jesus. His inner garments adhered to His torn flesh, and they dragged them off so roughly that the skin came with them. Compassionate your Saviour thus cruelly treated, and say to Him :

MY innocent Jesus, by the merits of the torment Thou has felt, help me to strip myself of all affection to things of earth, in order that I may place all my love in Thee, who art so worthy of my love. I love thee, O Jesus, with my whole heart ; I repent of having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love thee always ; and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.

ELEVENTH STATION.

JESUS IS NAILED TO THE CROSS.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider how Jesus, after being thrown on the Cross, extended His hands, and offered to His Eternal Father the sacrifice of His life for our salvation. These barbarians fastened Him with nails, and then, raising the Cross, allowed Him to die with anguish on this infamous gibbet.

MY Jesus ! loaded with contempt, nail my heart to Thy feet, that it may ever remain there, to love Thee, and never quit Thee again. I love Thee more than myself ; I repent of having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee always ; and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.

TWELFTH STATION.

JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider how thy Jesus, after three hours' Agony on the Cross, consumed at length with anguish, abandons Himself to the weight of His body, bows His head and dies.

O MY dying Jesus, I kiss devoutly the Cross on which Thou didst die for love of me. I have merited by my sins to die a miserable death, but Thy death is my hope. Ah, by the merits of Thy death, give me grace to die, embracing Thy feet, and burning with love to Thee. I commit my soul into Thy hands. I love Thee with my whole heart; I repent of ever having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee always; and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die

For very love of me:

Ah! let me bear Thee company;

I wish to die with Thee.

THIRTEENTH STATION.

JESUS IS TAKEN DOWN FROM THE CROSS.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider how, after the death of our Lord, two of His disciples, Joseph and Nicodemus, took Him down from the Cross, and placed Him in the arms of His afflicted Mother, who received Him with unutterable tenderness, and pressed Him to her bosom.

O MOTHER of sorrow, for the love of this Son, accept me for thy servant, and pray to Him for me. And Thou, my Redeemer, since Thou hast died for me, permit me to love Thee ; for I wish but Thee, and nothing more. I love Thee, my Jesus, and I repent of ever having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee always ; and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.

FOURTEENTH STATION.

JESUS IS PLACED IN THE SEPULCHRE.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Consider how the disciples carried the body of Jesus to bury it, accompanied by his holy Mother, who arranged it in the sepulchre with her own hands. They then closed the tomb, and all withdrew.

A H, my buried Jesus, I kiss the stone that encloses Thee. But Thou didst rise again the third day. I beseech Thee by Thy Resurrection, make me rise glorious with Thee at the last day, to be always united with Thee in heaven, to praise Thee and love Thee for ever. I love Thee, and I repent of ever having offended Thee. Never permit me to offend Thee again. Grant that I may love Thee ; and then do with me what Thou wilt.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Dear Jesus, Thou dost go to die
For very love of me :
Ah ! let me bear Thee company ;
I wish to die with Thee.

After this, return to the High Altar, and say the Our Father, the Hail Mary, and the Glory be to the Father five times, in honor of the Passion of Jesus Christ, to gain the other Indulgences granted to those who recite them.

The Devotion of the Seven Words upon the Cross.⁽ⁱ⁾

COME unto my help, O God.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

The First Word.

FATHER, FORGIVE THEM, FOR THEY KNOW NOT WHAT THEY DO.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross
Thou hast redeemed the world.

O BELOVED Jesus, who for the love of me didst agonize on the Cross that Thou mightest pay by Thy sufferings the debt due to my sins, and didst open
Thy divine mouth to obtain my pardon from eternal Justice : have mercy on all the faithful in their agony, and on me also when I shall be in that extremity, and,
through the merits of Thy most Precious Blood shed for our salvation, give us so lively a sorrow for our sins that we may breathe out our souls into the bosom of Thine infinite mercy.

Glory be to the Father, three times.

V. Have mercy on us, O Lord.

R. Have mercy on us.

O my God, I believe in Thee, I hope in Thee, I love Thee, and I repent of having offended Thee by my sins.

The Second Word.

THIS DAY THOU SHALT BE WITH ME IN PARADISE.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

O BELOVED Jesus, who for the love of me didst agonize on the Cross, and with such readiness and bounty didst respond to the faith of the Good Thief, who in the midst of Thy humiliation acknowledged Thee to be the Son of God: O Thou who didst assure him of Paradise, have mercy on all the faithful in their agony, and on me also when I shall be in that extremity, and, through the merits of Thy most Precious Blood, revive in our souls a faith so firm and constant that it may not waver at any suggestion of the devil, so that we also may obtain the blessed reward of Heaven.

Glory be to the Father, three times.

Have mercy, etc.

The Third Word.

BEHOLD THY SON; BEHOLD THY MOTHER.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

O BELOVED Jesus, who for the love of me didst agonize on the Cross, and, forgetting Thy sufferings, didst leave us as a pledge of Thy love Thine own most holy Mother, that through her we might confidently have recourse to Thee in our greatest need: have mercy on all the faithful in their agony, and on me also when I shall be in that extremity, and, through the interior martyrdom of this Thy dear Mother, awaken in our hearts a firm hope in the infinite merits of Thy most Precious Blood, that we may avoid the eternal damnation which our sins have deserved.

Glory be to the Father, three times.

Have mercy, etc.

The Fourth Word.

MY GOD ! MY GOD ! WHY HAST THOU FORSAKEN ME ?

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

O BELOVED Jesus, who for the love of me didst agonize on the Cross, and, heaping suffering on suffering, didst endure with infinite patience not only Thy many bodily tortures, but the most heavy affliction of spirit through the Dereliction of Thine Eternal Father: have mercy on all the faithful in their agony, and on me also when I shall be in that extremity, and, through the merits of Thy most Precious Blood, give us grace to suffer with true patience all the pains and afflictions of our agony, that, uniting them with Thine, we may be partakers of Thy glory in Paradise.

Glory be to the Father, three times.

Have mercy, etc.

The Fifth Word.

I THIRST.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

O BELOVED Jesus, who didst agonize on the Cross for the love of me, and who, not satisfied with all the ignominy and suffering, wouldst willingly have suffered yet more, so that all men might be saved—as was clearly proved when all the torrents of Thy Passion would not allay the Thirst of Thy tender Heart: have mercy on all the faithful in their agony, and on me also when I shall be in that extremity, and, through the merits of Thy most Precious Blood, enkindle such a fire of charity in our hearts as may cause them to burn with the desire of uniting themselves to Thee for all eternity.

Glory be to the Father, three times.

Have mercy, etc.

The Sixth Word.

IT IS CONSUMMATED.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

O BELOVED Jesus, who for the love of me didst agonize on the Cross, and from that Throne of Truth didst announce the completion of the work of our Redemption, through which, from being the children of wrath and perdition, we are become the children of God and the heirs of Heaven : have mercy on all the faithful in their agony, and on me also when I shall be in that extremity, and, through the merits of Thy most Precious Blood, detach us entirely from the world and from ourselves, and at the moment of our agony give us grace sincerely to offer Thee the sacrifice of our life in expiation of our sins.

Glory be to the Father, three times.

Have mercy, etc.

The Seventh Word.

FATHER, INTO THY HANDS I COMMEND MY SPIRIT.

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

O BELOVED Jesus, who didst agonize on the Cross for the love of me, and who, in completing this great Sacrifice, didst accept the will of Thine Eternal Father, by resigning Thy spirit into His hands, and then bowing Thy Head and dying : have mercy on all the faithful in their agony, and on me also when I shall be in that extremity, and, through the merits of Thy most Precious Blood, give us, in our agony, an entire conformity to the divine will, that we may be ready either to live or die according as it shall best please Thee, desiring nothing but the accomplishment of Thy blessed will in us.

Glory be to the Father, three times.
Have mercy, etc.

A Prayer to our Blessed Lady of Sorrows.

O HOLY Mother, most afflicted by the bitter sorrow which thou didst endure at the foot of the Cross during the Three Hours' Agony of Jesus : vouchsafe to assist all of us, the children of thy sorrows, in our last agony, that through thine intercession we may pass from the bed of death to form a crown for thee in the heavenly Paradise.

Hail Mary, three times.

O Mary, Mother of grace,

Mother of mercy,

Protect us from the enemy,

And receive us at the hour of death.⁽ⁱ⁾

V. From sudden and unlooked-for death,

R. O Lord, deliver us.

V. From the snares of the devil,

R. O Lord, deliver us.

V. From everlasting death,

R. O Lord, deliver us.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who for the salvation of mankind didst give an example and a help in the Passion and Death of Thy Son : grant, we beseech Thee, that in the hour of our death we may experience the effects of this Thy charity, and deserve to be partakers in the glory of Him our Redeemer, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I give you my heart and my soul.

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, assist me in my last agony.

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, may I breathe forth my soul in peace with you.⁽¹⁾

The Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary.⁽ⁱ⁾

THE devotion called the ROSARY consists of fifteen Pater Nosters and Glorias, and one hundred and fifty Ave Marias, to be recited on Indulged beads. It is divided into three parts, each containing five Decades, or Tens; a Decade consisting of one Pater, ten Aves, and one Gloria.* To each of these Decades is assigned one of the principal Mysteries of the life of our Saviour or of His Blessed Mother, as matter of meditation, whereon the mind is to exercise itself while at prayer, and therefore it is prefixed to every Decade.

The fifteen Mysteries, as we have said, are divided into three parts—viz., five Joyful, five Sorrowful, and five Glorious Mysteries. Now, the method consists in raising corresponding affections in the will during the recital of each Decade, such as the devotion of each one may suggest: for example, in the first part, sentiments of joy for the coming of our Redeemer; in the second, of compassion for the sufferings of our Lord, and contrition for our sins, which were the occasion of them; in the third, of thanksgiving for the exaltation and glory of our Saviour and His Blessed Mother, hoping through the merits of His Passion, and her Intercession, to be made partakers of their glory. To assist the mind in this exercise a short Meditation and prayer are usually given to be used before and after each Decade. In order to say the Rosary well, we should not be satisfied with merely pronouncing the words of the prayers, or with a vague and general reflection on the Mysteries; but we should endeavor to acquire the habit of reciting them with great attention and reverence, at the same time dwelling in a vivid manner upon the different Mysteries. In order to do this the better it is sometimes the custom, in addition to the short meditation on the Mystery (which is usually read before the recital of each Decade, and which contains, either expressed or understood, a prayer for the particular Virtue to which it has relation), to subjoin a short ejaculation in reference to the subject of the Mystery, which may be inserted after the holy name of Jesus in the Hail Mary, or to divide the meditation into ten points, one for each Ave. The reading of the meditation, ejaculation, or prayer are only pious practices to assist in the more devout recitation of the Rosary, which consists essentially only in the recitation of the vocal prayers while the mind dwells upon the subject of the Mystery contemplated.

* It is customary to preface these prayers with the Apostles' Creed, one Pater, three Aves, and one Gloria, as in the chaplet introduced by St. Bridget of Sweden.

THE FORM OF BLESSING ROSARIES.

PROPER TO THE ORDER OF PREACHERS.

The Priest, vested in surplice and white stole, says:

ADJUTORIUM nostrum in nomine Domini.

R. Qui fecit cœlum et terram.

V. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

OUR help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. And with thy spirit.

Oremus.Let us pray.

OMNIPOTENS et misericors Deus, qui propter eximiam charitatem tuam qua dilexisti nos, Filium tuum unigenitum Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum de coelis in terram descendere, et de Beatissimæ Mariæ Dominae nostræ utero sacratissimo, Angelo nuntiante, carnem suscipere, crucemque ac mortem subire, et tertia die gloriose a mortuis resurgere voluisti, ut nos eriperes de potestate diaboli: obsecramus immensam clementiam tuam, ut hæc signa Rosarii in honorem et laudem ejusdem Genitricis Filii tui ab Ecclesia tua fidei dicata bene[✠]dicas et sancti[✠]fices, eisque tantam infundas virtutem Spiritus Sancti, ut quicumque horum quodlibet secum portaverit,

ALmighty and most merciful God, who, out of the wondrous love whereby Thou hast loved us, that Thou mightest deliver us from the power of the devil, didst will that Thine Only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, should come down upon earth, and at the message of an Angel take flesh from the most sacred Womb of our Lady, Blessed Mary, and undergo the death of the Cross, and the third day rise gloriously from the dead: we implore Thine abounding mercy that Thou wouldst bless[✠] and sanctify[✠] these Rosaries, dedicated by Thy faithful Church to the honor and praise of the same Mother of Thy Son, and wouldst so abundantly pour forth upon them the power of

IN the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

V. Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord.

R. And my mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

V. Come unto my help, O God.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Alleluia.

[From Septuagesima to Easter, for Alleluia say, Praise to Thee, O Lord, King of eternal Glory.]

[At the Cross say the Apostles' Creed: I believe in God, etc. On the three small beads say: 1st, I salute thee, Daughter of God the Father; obtain for us the gift of a firm faith. Hail Mary, etc. 2d. I salute thee, Mother of God the Son; obtain for us the gift of constant hope. Hail Mary, etc. 3d. I salute thee Spouse of God the Holy Ghost; obtain for us the gift of an ardent charity. Hail Mary, etc.]

THE FIVE JOYFUL MYSTERIES.

FOR MONDAYS AND THURSDAYS; THE SUNDAYS OF ADVENT, AND THOSE FROM THE EPIPHANY UN-TIL LENT.

I. The Annunciation.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how the Angel Gabriel saluted our Blessed Lady with the title, Full of grace, and declared unto her the Incarnation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Mary, Queen of Virgins, through the most high Mystery of the Incarnation of thy beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, wherein our salvation was begun, obtain for us, through thy most holy intercession, light to understand the greatness of the benefit He hath bestowed upon us, in vouchsafing to become our Brother, and in giving thee, His own beloved Mother, to be our Mother also. Amen.

II. The Visitation.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how the Blessed Virgin Mary, understanding from the Angel that her cousin St. Elizabeth had conceived, went with haste into the mountains of Judea to visit her, and remained with her three months.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Virgin, spotless Mirror of humility, by that exceeding love which moved thee to visit thy holy cousin St. Elizabeth, obtain for us, through thine intercession, that our hearts being visited by thy divine Son, and freed from all sin, we may praise and give thanks to Him for ever. Amen.

III. The Birth of Jesus Christ in Bethlehem.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how the Blessed Virgin Mary, when the time of the delivery was come, brought forth our Redeemer, Jesus Christ, at midnight, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for Him in the inns of Bethlehem.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O PURE Mother of God, through thy virginal and most joyful delivery, whereby thou gavest to the world thine only Son, our Saviour, obtain for us, we beseech thee, through thine intercession, the grace to lead such pure and holy lives in this world that we may become worthy to sing, without ceasing, the mercies of thy Son, and His benefits to us by thee. Amen.

IV. The Presentation of our Blessed Lord in the Temple.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how the Blessed Virgin Mary, on the day of her Purification, presented the Child Jesus in the Temple, where holy Simeon, giving thanks to God, with great devotion received Him into his arms.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Virgin, most admirable example and pattern of obedience, who didst present the Lord of the Temple in the Temple of God, obtain for us, of thy Blessed Son, that, with holy Simeon and devout Anna, we may praise and glorify Him for ever. Amen.

V. The Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how the Blessed Virgin Mary, after having lost her beloved Son in Jerusalem, sought Him for the space of three days; and at length found Him in the Temple, sitting in the midst of the Doctors, hearing them, and asking them questions.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O MOST Blessed Virgin, more than martyr in thy sufferings, and yet the comfort of such as are afflicted: by that unspeakable joy wherewith thy soul was filled when at length thou didst find thy dearly-beloved Son in the Temple, teaching in the midst of the Doctors, obtain of Him that we may so seek Him and find Him in His holy Catholic Church as never more to be separated from Him. Amen.

Hail, holy Queen, with V. and R., and Prayer (p. 79). Or Prayer of Rosary Sunday (p. 773).

THE FIVE SORROWFUL MYSTERIES.

FOR TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS, AND THE SUNDAYS
IN LENT.

I. The Prayer and Bloody Sweat of our Blessed Saviour in the Garden.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how our Lord Jesus was so afflicted for us in the Garden of Gethsemani that His Body was bathed in a Bloody Sweat, which ran down in great drops to the ground.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Virgin, more than martyr, by that ardent prayer which our beloved Saviour poured forth to His Heavenly Father, vouchsafe to intercede for us, that, our passions being subjected to the obedience of reason, we may always, and in all things, conform and subject ourselves to the holy will of God. Amen.

II. The Scourging of our Blessed Lord at the Pillar.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ was most cruelly scourged in the house of Pilate; the number of stripes inflicted upon Him being, it is said, about five thousand.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O MOTHER of God, Fountain of patience, through those stripes thy only and dearly-beloved Son vouchsafed to suffer for us, obtain of Him for us grace to mortify our rebellious senses, to avoid the occasion of sin, and to be ready to suffer everything rather than offend God. Amen.

III. The Crowning of our Blessed Saviour with Thorns.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how those cruel ministers of Satan plaited a Crown of Thorns, and cruelly pressed it on the Sacred Head of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O MOTHER of our Eternal Prince, the King of Glory, by those sharp Thorns wherewith His Sacred Head was pierced, we beseech thee to obtain, through thine intercession, that we may be delivered from all emotions of pride, and escape that shame which our sins deserve at the day of judgment. Amen.

IV. Jesus carrying His Cross.

L ET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, being sentenced to die, bore, with most amazing patience, the Cross which was laid upon Him for His greater torment and ignominy.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Virgin, model of patience, by the most painful carrying of the Cross, in which thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, bore the heavy weight of our sins, obtain for us of Him, through thine intercession, courage and strength to follow His steps, and bear our cross after Him to the end of our lives. Amen.

V. The Crucifixion of our Lord Jesus Christ.

L ET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, being come to Mount Calvary, was stripped of His clothes, and His Hands and Feet were cruelly nailed to the Cross, in the presence of His most afflicted Mother.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Mary, Mother of God, as the Body of thy beloved Son was for us stretched upon the Cross, so may we offer up our souls and bodies to be crucified with Him, and our hearts to be pierced with grief at His most bitter Passion ; and thou, O most sorrowful Mother, graciously vouchsafe to help us, by thy all-powerful prayers, to accomplish the work of our salvation. Amen.

Hail, holy Queen, etc. (p. 79). Or Prayer (p. 773).

THE FIVE GLORIOUS MYSTERIES.

FOR WEDNESDAYS AND SATURDAYS, AND THE SUNDAYS FROM EASTER UNTIL ADVENT.

I. The Resurrection of our Lord from the dead.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, triumphing gloriously over death, rose again the third day, Immortal and Impassible.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O GLORIOUS Virgin Mary, by that unspeakable joy thou didst receive in the Resurrection of thy divine Son, we beseech thee obtain for us of Him that our hearts may never go astray after the false joys of this world, but may be wholly employed in seeking the true and solid joys of heaven. Amen.

II. The Ascension of Christ into Heaven.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, forty days after His Resurrection, ascended into heaven, attended by Angels, in the sight of His most holy Mother and His holy Apostles and Disciples.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O MOTHER of God, consoler of the afflicted, as thy beloved Son, when He ascended into heaven, lifted up His hands and blessed His Apostles, as He departed from them; so vouchsafe, most holy Mother, to lift up thy pure hands to Him on our behalf, that we may enjoy the benefits of His blessing, and of thine, here on earth, and hereafter in heaven. Amen.

III. The Descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Apostles.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how the Lord Jesus Christ, being seated on the right hand of God, sent, as He had promised, the Holy Ghost upon His Apostles, who, after He had ascended, returned to Jerusalem, and continued in prayer and supplication, waiting for the fulfilment of His promise.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O SACRED Virgin, Tabernacle of the Holy Ghost, we beseech thee to obtain, by thine intercession, that this Comforter, whom thy beloved Son sent down upon His Apostles, filling them thereby with spiritual joy, may teach us in this world the true way of salvation, and make us to walk in the way of virtue and good works. Amen.

IV. The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into Heaven.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how the glorious Virgin, twelve years after the Resurrection of her Son, passed out of this world unto Him, and was by Him taken up into heaven, attended by the holy Angels.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Virgin, who, entering the heavenly mansions, didst fill the Angels with joy and man with hope : vouchsafe to intercede for us at the hour of our death, that, being delivered from the illusions and temptations of the devil, we may joyfully pass out of this earthly estate to enjoy the happiness of eternal life. Amen.

V. The Coronation of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Heaven.

LET us contemplate, in this Mystery, how the glorious Virgin Mary was, to the great jubilee and exultation of the whole Court of heaven, crowned by her Son with the brightest diadem of glory.

Our Father. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father.

Let us pray.

O GLORIOUS Queen of all the heavenly host, we beseech thee to accept these prayers, which, as a Crown of Roses, we offer at thy feet; and grant, most gracious Lady, that, by thy intercession, our souls may be inflamed with so ardent a desire of seeing thee so gloriously crowned, that it may never die within us until it shall be changed into the happy fruition of thy blessed sight. Amen.

Hail, holy Queen, etc. (p. 79). Or Prayer (p. 773).

The Scapular⁽¹⁾

OF THE CONFRATERNITY OF OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL.

THE SCAPULAR, or Little Habit of the Blessed Virgin, is composed of two small square pieces of brown cloth, connected by two cords, and designed to be worn over the shoulders under the ordinary clothing. It was, according to a most authentic tradition, given by our Blessed Lady herself, as a pledge of her love and patronage, to St. Simon Stock, general of the Carmelites, on the 16th of July, A.D. 1251.

THE FORM OF RECEIVING A PERSON INTO THE CONFRATERNITY OF MT. CARMEL,

AND OF BLESSING AND BESTOWING THE SCAPULAR, OR LITTLE HABIT OF THE SAME.

The Postulant kneels before the Priest, who is vested in surplice and white stole, and the Priest says :

R. Amen.

WE humbly beseech Thee, O Lord, that Thy gracious blessing may descend upon this habit, now to be bestowed upon Thy servant, that it may be blessed, and that the wicked darts of all our enemies, visible and invisible, may be driven far from us by the power of God.

R. Amen.

The Priest sprinkles the Scapular with holy water, and, placing it upon the shoulders of the postulant, says :

ACCIPE, vir devote, hunc habitum benedictum, precans Sanctissimam Virginem, ut ejus meritis illum perferas sine macula, et te ab omni adversitate defendat, atque ad vitam perducatur æternam.

ALMIGHTY God, the Creator of heaven and earth, bless ✠ thee, He who hath vouchsafed to call thee unto the Society and Confraternity of Blessed Mary of Mount Carmel; let us beseech her, therefore, that in the hour of thy death she may bruise the head of the serpent, thine adversary, and that finally thou mayest attain unto the palm of victory and the crown of inheritance everlasting. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

[If only the Scapular is to be blessed, the Priest begins at the V. Adjutorium nostrum, and continues to the prayer Suppliciter inclusive.]

Then the Priest sprinkles the Recipient with holy water, and continues :

Instruction on the Sacraments in General.

Y Sacrament is meant an outward sign of inward grace, or a sacred and mysterious sign and ceremony ordained by Christ to convey grace to our souls.

The Sacraments may be compared to channels which convey water from a fountain-head, and the soul to a vessel which one carries to these channels to be filled. The fountain, abounding with water, courses through the channels and fills every vessel which is applied thereto, as far as it can hold ; the larger the vessel, the greater the quantity of water it will contain. So the larger the capacity of the soul (which capacity depends upon the soul's dispositions), the greater the portion of grace which it receives through the heavenly channels of the Sacraments. But the conditions required in the receiver are by no means productive of the efficacy of the Sacraments. Take the example of light and heat : fire is not lacking in burning power because it cannot act on incombustible materials ; nor are the windows of a room the cause of light, though necessary to give it admission.

The Church has never instituted, and could not institute, any Sacrament—this is a power reserved to God Himself. He alone is the Fountain of Grace :

He alone can appoint the channels by which that grace is conveyed to our souls. Since, therefore, as a fact, He has appointed those channels—and no others—which we call Sacraments, by those only can we ordinarily obtain that special grace. Hence it follows that no power on earth can change what was ordained by Jesus Christ in the outward forms of the Sacraments, without destroying them entirely ; for if any change is made in what He ordained, it is no longer the same form to which grace is annexed, and consequently ceases to be a Sacrament.

The Passion of Christ is the rich and exhaustless source from which the grace of every Sacrament is derived ; for each grace was purchased for us at the price of our Divine Redeemer's Blood.

There are seven Sacraments : BAPTISM, CONFIRMATION, PENANCE, HOLY EUCHARIST, EXTREME UNCTION, HOLY ORDERS, and MATRIMONY.

Special Instructions on each Sacrament will be found in their proper places. Of these Sacraments, some give sanctifying grace, and others increase it in our souls. Those that give sanctifying grace are Baptism and Penance ; they are called Sacraments of the Dead, because they take away sin, which is the death of the soul, and give grace, which is its life. Those that increase sanctifying grace in the soul are Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Extreme Unction, Holy Orders, and Matrimony ; these are called Sacraments of the Living, because those who receive them worthily are already living the life of grace. They should be received, therefore, in a state of grace ; any one receiving the Sacraments of the Living in mortal sin incurs the additional guilt of Sacrilege. The Sacraments of Bap- tism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders imprint what is called a character upon the soul—a spiritual mark which remains for ever—and hence they can be received but once.

Besides the sanctifying grace common to all the Sacraments, God has annexed to each a particular Sacramental grace, which is a special help to enable us to perform the duties and attain the end for which each Sacrament was instituted—e.g., 1. Shortly after we come into the world we are made the children of God by BAPTISM. 2. As we grow up we are fortified for the combats against our spiritual enemies which we have to undergo, and are made soldiers of Christ, by CONFIRMATION. 3. The HOLY EUCHARIST is the daily bread which feeds and nourishes our souls to everlasting life. 4. If unhappily we fall in the spiritual conflict, PENANCE is the remedy which restores life to the soul. 5. In MATRIMONY special graces are provided to sanctify and assuage the cares of the married state. 6. HOLY ORDERS keeps up the succession of pastors in the Church, and enables them to faithfully discharge their sacred functions. 7. When the Christian soul is on the verge of Eternity, it is strengthened and comforted by the refreshing graces of EXTREME UNCTION, so that the Christian warrior may not be vanquished at the last.

The Sacrament of Baptism.

EXPLANATION OF THE CEREMONIES.

THE ceremonies used by the Church in the administration of Baptism are very ancient. St. Basil mentions many of them, which, he says, are of Apostolical tradition ; as the consecration of the water, and of the oil used in the anointings, the renunciation of Satan and his works, and the profession of faith. St. Augustine mentions the sign of the Cross, the imposition of hands, and the custom of giving salt to the catechumens. St. Ambrose speaks of the ceremony of touching the ears and nostrils with spittle, with the words, Be opened.

These ceremonies have a twofold signification. They are outward signs of that which the Holy Spirit operates inwardly in the souls of those that receive the Sacrament ; and they also admonish them of that which they ought to do, and represent to them the obligations they contract.

The Priest is vested in a white surplice, as denoting innocence, and successively uses two stoles, one violet, the other white. The violet color signifies the unhappy state to which sin has reduced mankind. After the exorcisms the Priest puts on the white stole, as the symbol of the innocence conferred by the Sacrament.

Addressing himself to the godfather and godmother, he asks the name by which the child is to be called. A name is given, says St. Charles Borromeo, to show that the person is dedicated to the service of Jesus Christ. This name, the Council of Trent teaches, should be that of some Saint, in order that by bearing the same name the person may be excited to imitate his virtues and sanctity; and that, while endeavoring to imitate him, he may invoke him and pray to him, in the confident hope that he will be his patron and advocate, for the safety of his body and the salvation of his soul.

The wretched state to which sin has reduced the human race is still further intimated by the Priest's breathing three times on the person to be baptized, which is done to drive away the devil, as by the Holy Ghost, who is the Spirit or breath of God. It also expresses the contempt which Christians have of him, and the ease with which he may be put to flight, like a straw with a puff of wind.

After having put to flight the tyrant who holds in captivity every one that cometh into the world, the Priest imprints on the person to be baptized the seal of a very different Master. He signs him with the sign of the Cross on the forehead and on the breast, that Christ, who was crucified for our sins, may take possession of him—on the forehead, to signify that a Christian must never be ashamed to make open profession of the faith of his crucified Saviour; and on the breast, to signify that the love of Jesus Christ, and a readiness to obey all His divine commandments and to share in His sufferings, ought constantly to reside in his heart.

The Priest, as God's representative, then lays his hand on the head of the person to be baptized, to denote possession in the name of the Almighty.

He then blesses the salt, to purify it from the malignant influences of the evil spirit; and puts a few grains of this salt, thus blessed, into the mouth of the person to be baptized. The salt is the symbol of wisdom, as when St. Paul says (Col. iv. 6): Let your speech be always with grace seasoned with salt. Salt is also a preservative against corruption. This ceremony, then, signifies that the person baptized must make known to the world the sweet savor of the law of God, by the good example of a virtuous and holy conversation; and show by all his works that it is the doctrine of Christ that preserves the soul from corruption, and establishes a firm hope of the resurrection of the body.

Having thus communicated to the person to be baptized the wisdom of Christ and the relish for divine things, the Priest peremptorily commands the wicked spirit to depart, and never attempt to deprive him of this precious gift, in the solemn words of the ancient exorcism ; then making the sign of the Cross, he says : And this sign of the holy Cross which we place upon his forehead, do thou, accursed devil, never dare to violate.

After this the Priest lays the end of his stole, the symbol of his authority, upon the person to be baptized, and introduces him into the church. Being come therein, the Priest, jointly with the person to be baptized, or, if it be an infant, with the godfather and godmother, recites aloud the Lord's Prayer and the Apostles' Creed. He then again exorcises the unclean spirit, and commands him to depart in the name and by the power of the most blessed Trinity.

The next is a ceremony deeply significative. We read in the Gospel (Mark vii. 32-35) that our Lord cured one that was deaf and dumb by touching his tongue and his ears with spittle, saying : Ephpheta—"Be opened." Man, in his natural state, is spiritually both deaf and dumb. Therefore the Church, the Spouse of Jesus Christ and the depository of His power, follows His example ; and the Priest of the Church, taking spittle from his mouth, touches therewith the ears and the nostrils of the person to be baptized, repeating the same miraculous word, as if to signify the necessity of having the senses of the soul open to the truth and grace of God.

Then follows the solemn renunciation of Satan and of his works and pomps. After which the Priest anoints the person to be baptized on the breast and between the shoulders, making the sign of the Cross. This outward unction represents the inward anointing of the soul by divine grace, which, like a sacred oil, penetrates our hearts, heals the wounds of our souls, and fortifies them against our passions and concupiscences. The anointing of the breast signifies the necessity of fortifying the heart with heavenly courage, that we may act manfully and do our duty in all things. The anointing between the shoulders signifies the necessity of the like grace, in order to bear and support all the adversities and crosses of this mortal life. The oil is a symbol also of the sweetness of the yoke of Christ.

The moment having arrived at which another human being is to become the child of God and a member of the mystical body of Christ, the Priest, to denote that sorrow is about to be changed into joy, changes his stole, and instead of the violet puts on a white one.

Then follows the Profession of Faith, after which the Sacrament of regeneration is thus administered: While the godfather and godmother both hold or touch their godchild, the Priest pours the baptismal water on the child's head three times, in the form of a Cross, repeating the sacramental words in such manner that the three pourings of the water concur with the pronouncing of the three names of the Divine Persons. The water is poured three times, while the words are pronounced but once, to show that the Three Persons unite in the regeneration of man in holy Baptism. The godparents hold or touch their godchild, to signify that they answer for him, or that they engage to put him in mind of his vow and promise.

Then the Priest anoints the person baptized on the crown of the head, in the form of a Cross, with holy chrism, compounded of oil and balsam. This ceremony is of Apostolical tradition, and signifies: 1st. That the person baptized is solemnly consecrated to the service of God, and made a living temple of the Holy Ghost. 2d. That by Baptism he is made partaker with Christ, the great Anointed of God, and has a share in His unction and grace. 3d. That he is anointed to be king, priest, and prophet; and therefore that, as king, he must have dominion over his passions; as priest, he must offer himself unceasingly to God as a living sacrifice for an odor of sweetness; as prophet, he must declare by his life the rewards of the world to come.

After the anointing, the Priest puts upon the head of the baptized a white linen cloth, now used instead of the white garment with which the new Christian used anciently to be clothed in Baptism, to signify the purity and innocence which we receive in Baptism, and which we must take care to preserve till death.

Lastly, the Priest puts a lighted candle into the hand of the person baptized, or of the godfather; which ceremony is derived from the parable of the virgins (Matt. xxv.), who taking their lamps went forth to meet the bridegroom; and is intended to remind the person baptized that, being now a child of light, he must walk as a child of light, and keep the lamp of faith ever burning with the oil of charity and good works, for the glory of God and the edification of his neighbor; so that whenever the Lord shall come he may be found prepared, and may go in with Him into the eternal life of His heavenly kingdom.

THE BAPTISM OF INFANTS.

The Priest then blesses the salt, which after it has been once blessed, may serve for the same purpose on other occasions.

THE BLESSING OF THE SALT.

EXORCIZO te, creatura salis, in nomine Dei Patris ✠ omnipotentis, et in charitate Domini nostri Jesu ✠ Christi, et in virtute Spiritus ✠

I EXORCISE thee, creature of salt, in the name of God, the Father ✠ Almighty, and in the love of our Lord Jesus ✠ Christ, and in the power of the Sancti. Exorcizo te per Deum ✠ vivum, per Deum ✠ verum, per Deum ✠ sanctum, per Deum ✠ qui te ad tutelam humani generis procreavit, et populo venienti ad credulitatem per servos suos consecrari præcepit, ut in nomine sanctæ Trinitatis efficiaris salutare sacramentum ad efugandum inimicum. Proinde rogamus te, Domine Deus noster, ut hanc creaturam salis sanctificando ✠ sanctifices, et benedicendo ✠ benedicas, ut fiat omnibus accipientibus perfecta medicina, permanens in visceribus eorum, in nomine ejusdem Domini nostri Jesu Christi, qui venturus est judicare vivos et mortuos, et sæculum per ignem.

R. Amen.

Holy ✠ Ghost. I exorcise thee by the living ✠ God, by the true ✠ God, by the all-holy ✠ God, by the God ✠ who hath created thee for a preservation of the human race, and hath appointed thee to be consecrated by His servants for the people coming unto faith, that in the name of the Holy Trinity thou mayest become a saving sacrament to put the enemy to flight. Wherefore we pray Thee, O Lord our God, that sanctifying ✠ Thou mayest sanctify this creature of salt, and blessing ✠ Thou mayest bless it, that unto all who receive it it may become a perfect cure, abiding in their hearts, in the name of the same our Lord Jesus Christ, who shall come to judge the living and the dead, and the world by fire. R. Amen.

He then puts a little of the blessed salt into the mouth of the infant, saying :

N., accipe sal sapientiæ ; N., receive the salt of propitiatio sit tibi in vitam

R. Amen.

S. Pax tecum.

eum, Domine, quæsumus, ad novæ regenerationis la-vacrum, et cum fidelibus

EXORCIZO te, immu-de spiritus, in nomine Patris, ✠ et Filii, ✠ et wisdom; may it be to thee a propitiation unto everlasting life. R. Amen.

P. Peace be with thee.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

O GOD of our fathers,
O God the Author of all truth, vouchsafe, we humbly beseech thee, to look graciously down upon this Thy servant, N., and as he tastes this first nutriment of salt, suffer him no longer to hunger for want of heavenly food, to the end that he may be always fervent in spirit, rejoicing in hope, always serving Thy name.
Lead him, O Lord, we beseech Thee, to the laver of the new regeneration, that, together with Thy faithful,
he may deserve to attain the everlasting rewards of Thy promises. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

I EXORCISE thee, thou unclean spirit, in the name of the Father, ✠ and Spiritus ✠ Sancti, ut ex eas et recedas ab hoc famulo Dei, N. Ipse enim tibi imperat, maledicte dammate, qui pedibus super mare ambulavit, et Petro mergenti dexteram porrexit.

Ergo, maledicte diabole, recognosce sententiam tuam, et da honorem Deo vivo et vero, da honorem Jesu Christo Filio ejus, et Spiritui Sancto, et recede ab hoc famulo Dei, N., quia istum sibi Deus, et Dominus noster Jesus Christus ad suam sanctam gratiam, et benedictionem, fontemque baptismatis vocare dignatus est.

of the Son, ✠ and of the Holy ✠ Ghost, that thou go forth and depart from this servant of God, N. ; for He Himself commands thee, accursed outcast, He who walked upon the sea, and stretched forth to sinking Peter His right hand.

Therefore, accursed devil, acknowledge thy sentence, and give honor unto the true and living God ; give honor unto Jesus Christ, His Son, and unto the Holy Ghost ; and depart from this servant of God, N., because him hath God and our Lord Jesus Christ vouchsafed to call unto His holy grace, and blessing, and the font of Baptism.

Here he makes with his thumb the sign of the Cross upon the infant's forehead, saying :

Et hoc signum sanctæ crucis ✠ quod nos fronti ejus damus, tu, maledicte diabole, nunquam audeas violare. Pereundem Christum Dominum nostrum.

R. Amen.

And this sign of the holy Cross, ✠ which we place upon his forehead, do thou, accursed devil, never dare to violate. Through the same Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Immediately laying his hand upon the infant's head, he says.

Oremus.

Let us pray.

AETERNAM ac justissimam pietatem tuam deprecor, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, æternæ Deus, Auctor luminis et veritatis, super hunc famulum tuum, N., ut digneris illum illuminare lumine intelligentiæ tuæ: munda eum, et sanctifica: da ei scientiam veram, ut dignus gratia baptismi tui effectus, teneat firmam spem, consilium rectum, doctrinam sanctam. Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

R. Amen.

OHOLY Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, Author of light and truth, I implore Thine everlasting and most just goodness upon this Thy servant, N., that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to enlighten him with the light of Thy wisdom: cleanse him and sanctify him: give unto him true knowledge, that, being made worthy of the grace of Thy Baptism, he may hold firm hope, right counsel, holy doctrine. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

After this the Priest lays the end of his stole upon the infant, and admits him into the church, saying:

INGREDERE in templum Dei, ut habeas partem cum Christo in vitam æternam.

R. Amen.

ENTER thou into the temple of God, that thou mayest have part with Christ unto life everlasting.

R. Amen.

When they have entered the church, the Priest, as he proceeds to the font, says in a loud voice along with the sponsors :

CREDO in Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, Creatorem cœli et terræ. Et in Jesum Christum, Filium ejus unicum, Dominum nostrum : qui conceptus est de Spiritu Sancto ; natus ex Maria virgine ; passus sub Pontio Pilato, crucifixus, mortuus, et sepultus : descendit ad inferos ; tertia die resurrexit a mortuis ; ascendit ad cœlos, sedet ad dexteram Dei Patris omnipotentis ; inde venturus est judicare vivos et mortuos. Credo in Spiritum Sanctum ; sanctam Ecclesiam Catholicam ; Sanctorum communionem ; remissionem peccatorum ; carnis resurrectionem ; vitam æternam. Amen.

IBELIEVE in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth ; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord : who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified ; died, and was buried. He descended into hell ; the third day He arose again from the dead ; He ascended into Heaven, sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PATER NOSTER, qui es in cœlis, sanctificetur nomen tuum : adveniat regnum tuum : fiat

OUR FATHER, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name : Thy kingdom come : Thy will voluntas tua, sicut in cœlo, et in terra. Panem nostrum quotidianum da nobis hodie : et dimitte nobis debita nostra sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem; sed libera nos a malo. Amen.

be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread : and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

And then, before he reaches the baptistery, he says :

THE EXORCISM.

EXORCIZO te, omnis spiritus immunde, in nomine Dei Patris ✠ omnipotentis, et in nomine Jesu Christi, Filii ejus, ✠ Domini et Judicis nostri, et in virtute Spiritus ✠ Sancti, ut discedas ab hoc plasmate Dei, N., quod Dominus noster ad templum sanctum suum vocare dignatus est, ut fiat templum Dei vivi, et Spiritus Sanctus habitet in eo. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum, qui venturus est judicare vivos et mortuos, et sæculum per ignem.

R. Amen.

IEXORCISE thee, every unclean spirit, in the name of God the Father ✠ Almighty, and in the name of Jesus Christ, His Son, ✠ our Lord and Judge, and in the power of the Holy ✠ Ghost, that thou depart from this creature of God, N., which our Lord hath deigned to call unto His holy temple, that it may be made the temple of the living God, and that the Holy Ghost may dwell therein. Through the same Christ our Lord, who shall come to judge the living and the dead, and the world by fire.

R. Amen.

Then the Priest wets his thumb with spittle from his mouth, and touches the ears and nostrils of the infant. And in touching first the right ear and then the left, he says :

EPHPHETA, quod est,
Adaperire.

EPHPHETA, that is to say, Be opened.

Then he touches the nostrils, saying :

In odorem suavitatis.

For a savor of sweetness.

And he adds :

Tu autem effugare, dia-bole ; appropinquabit enim judicium Dei.

And do thou, O devil,
begone ! for the judgment of God is at hand.

He then interrogates the person to be baptized, by name, saying :

N., abrenuntias Satanæ ?

N., dost thou renounce
Satan ?

R. Abrenuntio.

Sponsor. I do renounce
him.

S. Et omnibus operibus
ejus ?

P. And all his works ?

R. Abrenuntio.

R. I do renounce them.

S. Et omnibus pompis
ejus ?

P. And all his pomps ?

R. Abrenuntio.

R. I do renounce them.

The Priest then dips his thumb into the Oil of Catechumens, and anoints the infant upon the breast and between the shoulders, in the form of a Cross, saying :

EGO te linio ✠ oleo sa-lutis, in Christo Jesu Domino nostro, ut habeas vitam æternam.

R. Amen.

I ANOINT thee ✠ with the oil of salvation in Christ Jesus, our Lord, that thou mayest have life everlasting. R. Amen.

(Here he puts aside the violet stole, and puts on another of white color.)

Next with cotton, or something similar, he wipes his thumb and the places anointed. And he interrogates the person to be baptized by name, the sponsor answering :

N., credis in Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, Creatorem cœli et terræ ?

R. Credo.

Credis in Jesum Christum, Filium ejus unicum, Dominum nostrum, natum et passum ?

R. Credo.

Credis et in Spiritum Sanctum, sanctam Ecclesiam Catholicam, Sanctorum communionem, remissionem peccatorum, carnis resurrectionem, et vitam æternam ?

R. Credo.

N., dost thou believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth ?

R. I do believe.

Dost thou believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was born, and who suffered for us ?

R. I do believe.

Dost thou also believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the remission of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting ?

R. I do believe.

Then, pronouncing the name of the person to be baptized, the Priest says :

N., vis baptizari ?

N., wilt thou be baptized ?

R. Volo.

Sponsor. I will.

Then the godfather or the godmother, or both (if both are admitted), holding the infant, the Priest takes the baptismal water in a small vessel or pitcher, and from it pours thrice upon the infant's head, in the form of a Cross; and at the same time, pronouncing the words once only, distinctly and attentively, he says:

NEGO te baptizo in
., nomine ✠ Patris
[fundat primo], et Filii ✠
[fundat secundo], et Spiritus ✠ Sancti [fundat ter- tio].

NI baptize thee in the ., name ✠ of the Father [he pours the first time], and of the Son ✠ [he pours the second time], and of the Holy ✠ Ghost [he pours the third time].

He then dips his thumb in the holy chrism, and anoints the infant upon the crown of the head in the form of a Cross, saying:

DEUS omnipotens, Pa-
ter Domini nostri
Jesu Christi, qui te regene-ravit ex aqua et Spiritu Sancto, quique dedit tibi remissionem omnium pec-catorum, ipse te ✠ liniat chrismate salutis in eodem Christo Jesu Domino nostro, in vitam æternam.

MAY Almighty God,
the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, He who hath regenerated thee by water and the Holy Ghost, and given thee remission of all thy sins, anoint thee ✠ with the chrism of salvation, in the same Christ
Jesus our Lord, unto life everlasting.

R. Amen.

S. Pax tibi.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. Amen.

P. Peace be with thee.

R. And with thy spirit.

Then with cotton, or something similar, he wipes his thumb and the place anointed, and puts upon the head of the infant a white linen cloth, saying:

ACCIPE vestem can-didam, quam im-

RECEIVE this white garment, which

maculatam perferas ante tribunal Domini nostri Jesu Christi, ut habeas vitam æternam.

R. Amen.

mayest thou bear without stain before the judgment-seat of our Lord Jesus Christ, that thou mayest have life everlasting.

R. Amen.

Afterward he gives the infant or the godfather a lighted candle, saying :

ACCIPE lampadem ardentem, et irreprehensibilis custodi baptismum tuum : serva Dei mandata, ut cum Dominus venerit ad nuptias, possis occurrere ei una cum omnibus sanctis in aula cœlesti, habeasque vitam æternam, et vivas in sæcula sæculorum.

R. Amen.

RECEIVE this burning light, and keep thy Baptism so as to be without blame : keep the commandments of God, that when the Lord shall come to the nuptials, thou mayest meet Him together with all the saints in the heavenly court, and mayest have eternal life, and live for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Lastly, he says :

NVADE in pace, et Dominus sit tecum.

R. Amen.

NGO in peace, and the Lord be with thee.

R. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR ONE LATELY BAPTIZED.

O LORD our God, our true Life, Who by the font of Baptism dost illuminate the baptized with heavenly radiance, Who hast vouchsafed to Thy servant by Water and the Holy Ghost remission of all his sins, lay Thy mighty hand upon him, and protect him with the power of Thy goodness; preserve him from losing the earnest of glory; be pleased to bring him to eternal life and to the vision of Thyself; for Thou art our Sanctification, and to Thee, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, do we render praise and thanksgiving, now and for ever, world without end. Amen.

A RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS.

MOST Holy Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, One God, I mourn and lament my most sinful neglect of the sacred promise and vow which was made in my name at my Baptism. I lament my long-continued transgressions, my ingratitude, my coldness and hardness of heart. O Lord, Who art the great Searcher of hearts, and from whom no secrets are hid, in Thy presence I do most freely, fully, and unfeignedly, from henceforth and for evermore, repent of and renounce all my sins; I resolve, to the utmost of the power Thou givest me, to resist all the temptations of the devil, the world, and the flesh, so that I may never willingly be led by them. I do firmly believe, and will, by Thy help, continue in the belief of all the Articles of the Christian Faith; and I am resolved, in all sincerity of heart, to keep Thy holy Will and Commandments, and to persevere, through the help of Thy grace, to the end of my life. Enlighten and strengthen me, O God, by Thy Holy Spirit, to perform this my vow and covenant. Preserve me as a living and faithful Member of Thy Church, a dutiful and dear child of God, and an inheritor of the Kingdom of Heaven ; that through Thy mercy I may in Thy good time obtain the end of my faith, even the salvation of my soul. Amen.

The Reception of Converts.

THE MODE OF RECEIVING THE PROFESSION OF FAITH OF CONVERTS TO THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, ACCORDING TO THE FORM PRESCRIBED BY THE SACRED CONGREGATION OF THE HOLY OFFICE, THE 20TH OF JULY, 1859.

WHEN heretics are converted, inquiry must first be made concerning the validity of their former Baptism. If, therefore, it should be found, after diligent examination, either that Baptism had not been conferred at all, or else conferred improperly, they must be baptized anew. But if, upon investigation, there remains a reasonable doubt of the validity of their former Baptism, then it should be repeated conditionally, after the form for the Baptism of Adults, when that is required. If, on the other hand, the former Baptism was valid, then the converts should simply make their Abjuration or Profession of Faith. There are three ways, therefore, of reconciling heretics to the Church :

I. If Baptism is conferred absolutely, neither abjuration nor absolution follows ; since all the past is wiped away by the Sacrament of Regeneration.

II. If Baptism is repeated conditionally, the following order is to be observed : 1st. The Abjuration, or Profession of Faith. 2d. Conditional Baptism. 3d. Sacramental Confession with conditional absolution.

III. When, finally, the former Baptism is held to be valid, the Abjuration or Profession of Faith alone is received, followed by the Absolution from Censures. If, however, the convert strongly desires that the rites which were omitted in his former Baptism shall be now supplied, the Priest shall gratify his pious desire. He ought, however, in this case to use the form for Adults, if required, and to make the necessary changes caused by the former valid Baptism.

The Priest, vested in surplice and violet stole, seats himself at the Epistle side of the Altar, if the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in the Tabernacle, otherwise before the middle of the Altar; and before him kneels the convert, who, touching the Book of Gospels with his right hand, makes his Profession of Faith, as below. (If he cannot read, the Priest slowly reads for him the Profession, which he distinctly pronounces together with the Priest.)

PROFESSION OF FAITH.

I N. N., having before my eyes the holy Gospels, which I touch with my hand, and knowing that no one can be saved without that faith which the Holy, Catholic, Apostolic Roman Church holds, believes, and teaches, against which I grieve that I have greatly erred, inasmuch as I have held and believed doctrines opposed to her teaching—

I now, with grief and contrition for my past errors, profess that I believe the Holy, Catholic, Apostolic Roman Church to be the only and true Church established on earth by Jesus Christ, to which I submit myself with my whole heart. I believe all the articles that she proposes to my belief, and I reject and condemn all that she rejects and condemns, and I am ready to observe all that she commands me. And, especially, I profess that I believe :

One only God in three divine Persons, distinct from, and equal to, each other—that is to say, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost ;

The Catholic doctrine of the Incarnation, Passion, Death, and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ ; and the personal union of the two Natures, the divine and the human ; the divine Maternity of the most holy Mary, together with her most spotless Virginity ;

The true, real, and substantial presence of the Body and Blood, together with the Soul and Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in the most holy Sacrament of the Eucharist ;

The seven Sacraments instituted by Jesus Christ for the salvation of mankind—that is to say, Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, Penance, Extreme Unction, Order, Matrimony ;

Purgatory, the Resurrection of the Dead, Everlasting Life ;

The Primacy, not only of honor but also of jurisdiction, of the Roman Pontiff, successor of St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles, Vicar of Jesus Christ ;

The veneration of the Saints and of their images ;

The authority of the Apostolic and Ecclesiastical Traditions, and of the Holy Scriptures, which we must interpret and understand only in the sense which our holy mother the Catholic Church has held and does hold ;

And everything else that has been defined and declared by the sacred Canons and by the General Councils, and particularly by the holy Council of Trent, and delivered, defined, and declared by the General Council of the Vatican, especially concerning the Primacy of the Roman Pontiff, and his infallible teaching authority.

With a sincere heart, therefore, and with unfeigned faith, I detest and abjure every error, heresy, and sect opposed to the said Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Roman Church. So help me God, and these His holy Gospels, which I touch with my hand.

Afterwards, the convert still kneeling, the Priest sitting, says

Psalm 50, p. 249,

Or else

Psalm 129, p. 253.

Then the Priest, standing, says :

KYRIE eleison.
R. Christe eleison.
son.

V. Kyrie eleison. Pater noster (secreto).

V. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem.

R. Sed libera nos a malo.

V. Salvum fac servum tuum.

R. Deus meus, speran-tem in te.

V. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

LORD, have mercy.
R. Christ, have mercy.

V. Lord, have mercy. Our Father (inaudibly).

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

V. Save Thy servant.

R. O my God, who putteth his trust in Thee.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Oremus.

Let us pray.

DEUS, cui proprium est misereri semper et parcere : suscipe deprecationem nostram, ut hunc famulum tuum, quem excommunicationis catena constringit, miseratio tuæ pietatis clementer absolvat. Per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum, qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti, Deus, per omnia sæcula sæculorum.

R. Amen.

O GOD, whose property is always to have mercy and to spare : graciously receive our supplication, that this Thy servant, whom the bonds of excommunication do hold a prisoner, the compassion of Thy loving-kindness may now mercifully absolve. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end.

R. Amen.

Then the Priest, sitting, and turned towards the kneeling convert, absolves him from his heresy, saying :

AUCTORITATE apostolica, qua fungor in hac parte, absolvo te a vinculo excommunicationis quam (forsan) incurristi, et restituo te sacrosanctis Ecclesiæ Sacramentis, communioni et unitati

BY the Apostolic authority, which I here do exercise, I absolve thee from the bond of excommunication which (perchance)* thou hast incurred ; and I restore thee to the holy Sacraments of fidelium, in nomine Pa-tris, ✠ et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.

the Church, and to the communion and unity of the faithful, in the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

 In doubt whether the penitent has incurred excommunication or no, the Priest shall insert this word perchance.*

In fine, the Priest enjoins upon the new convert some salutary penance—e.g., prayers, visits to churches, and the like.

The Sacrament of Confirmation.

When the Apostles had heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who, when they were come, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit. For as yet He was come upon none of them; but they were only baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.—Acts viii. 14-17.

INSTRUCTIONS.

CONFIRMATION is a Sacrament by which the faithful, who have already been made children of God by their Baptism, receive the Holy Ghost by the prayer and the imposition of the hands of the Bishops, the successors of the Apostles, in order to their being made strong and perfect Christians and valiant soldiers of Jesus Christ. It is called CONFIRMATION from its effect, which is to confirm or strengthen those that receive it in the profession of the true faith; to give them such courage and resolution as to be willing rather to die than to turn from it; and to arm them in general against all their spiritual enemies.

2 This Sacrament was designed and instituted by our Lord for all Christians, and consequently is a divine ordinance.

3. The principal effects of this Sacrament are a fortifying grace in order to strengthen the soul against all the visible and invisible enemies of the faith; and a certain dedication and consecration of the soul by the Holy Ghost, the mark of which dedication and consecration is left in the soul as a character, which can never be effaced.

4. Hence this Sacrament can be received but once, and it would be a sacrilege to attempt to receive it a second time ; for which reason also the faithful are bound to take extreme care to come to this Sacrament duly disposed, lest, if they should be so unhappy as to receive it in mortal sin, they should receive their own condemnation, and run the risk of being deprived for ever of its grace.

5. Now, the dispositions which the Christian must bring with him to receive worthily the Sacrament of Confirmation are, a purity of conscience, at least from all mortal sin ; for which reason he ought to go to confession before he is confirmed, for the Holy Ghost will not come to a soul in which Satan reigns by mortal sin ; secondly, a sincere desire of giving himself up to the Holy Ghost, to follow the influence of His divine grace, to be His temple for ever, and, by His assistance, to fulfil all the obligations of a Soldier of Christ.

6. Hence a Christian ought to prepare himself for this Sacrament by fervent prayer, as we find the Apostles prepared themselves for the receiving of the Holy Ghost. All these were persevering with one mind in prayer, says St. Luke (speaking of the ten days that passed between the Ascension of our Lord and Pentecost). How happy shall they be, who like them prepare themselves for the Holy Ghost by these spiritual exercises !

7. The obligations which accompany the character of Confirmation, and which a Christian takes upon himself when he receives this Sacrament, are, to bear a loyal and perpetual allegiance to the great King in whose service he enlists himself as a soldier ; to be true to His standard, the Cross of Christ, the mark of which he receives on his forehead ; to fight His battles against His enemies, the world, the flesh, and the devil ; to be faithful unto death ; and rather to die than desert from the service, or go over to the enemy by wilful sin—in fine, to live up to the glorious character of a Soldier of Christ, and to maintain that interior purity and sanctity which becomes the Temple of the Holy Ghost, by a life of prayer and a life of love. Where the character of our Confirmation, when we shall bring it before the judgment-seat of Christ, shall be found to have been accompanied with such a life as this, it will shine most gloriously in our souls for all eternity ; but if, instead of living up to it, we should be found to have been deserters and rebels, and to have violated this sacred character by a life of sin, it will certainly rise up in judgment against us, it will condemn us at the bar of divine justice, it will cast us deeper into the bottomless pit, and be a mark of eternal ignominy and reproach to our souls amongst the damned.

THE CEREMONIES EXPLAINED.

The Chrism used in Confirmation is a sacred unguent, composed of oil of olives and balsam, solemnly blessed by the Bishop on Maundy-Thursday. The outward anointing of the forehead with chrism represents the inward anointing of the soul, in this Sacrament, with the Holy Ghost. The oil, whose properties are to strengthen and invigorate the limbs, to assuage pain, etc., represents the like spiritual effects of the grace of the Sacrament in the soul, penetrating and diffusing itself throughout all her powers; oil also, being a smooth and mild substance, represents that spirit of meekness and patience under the cross which is one principal effect of Confirmation. The balsam fitly represents the fortifying grace received in Confirmation, by which our souls are preserved from corruption after our sins have been destroyed by the Sacrament of Baptism; also, being of a sweet smell, it represents the good odor or sweet savor of Christian virtues and an innocent life, with which we are to edify our neighbors after having received this Sacrament.

The anointing of the forehead is made in the form of a Cross, because the virtue of this Sacrament, as all other graces, comes through the merits of the sacrifice of the death of Jesus Christ; and to show that, being now confirmed in His service and enlisted as His soldiers, we should never be ashamed of our Master, but boldly profess ourselves disciples of a crucified Saviour and members of His Church, in spite of all the world may do against us, either by ridicule or persecution.

The Bishop gives the person confirmed a gentle stroke on the cheek, to teach him that, being now a soldier of Jesus Christ, he must fight manfully against all his enemies; suffer patiently all kinds of affronts and injuries for his faith; and bear with meekness all crosses and trials, for the sake and for the glory of his Lord and Master.

In giving him this gentle stroke, the Bishop says, Peace be with thee, to signify that the true peace of God, which, as St. Paul says (Philip. iv. 7), surpasseth all understanding, is chiefly to be found in suffering patiently for Christ's sake ; and also to encourage him to do so by the hope of reward, according to our Lord's promise (Matt. xi. 29) : Learn of Me, because I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest for your souls.

Persons usually take a new name at Confirmation, which ought to be the name of some Saint, whom they choose for their particular Patron.

A PRAYER FOR ONE ABOUT TO BE CONFIRMED.

ALmighty and Eternal God, Who hast vouchsafed to regenerate Thy servant in Holy Baptism by water and the Holy Ghost, perfect the work Thou hast begun in him. Strengthen him with Thy sevenfold gifts : the Spirit of WISDOM, that he may despise the perishable things of this world, and love the things that are eternal ; the Spirit of UNDERSTANDING to enlighten him and give him a more perfect knowledge of the mysteries of the Faith ; the Spirit of COUNSEL, that he may make a right choice in things belonging to his eternal Salvation ; the Spirit of FORTITUDE, that he may overcome all temptations ; the Spirit of KNOWLEDGE, that he may know Thy Will ; the Spirit of true PIETY, that he may be faithful and devout in Thy service ; and the Spirit of Thy holy FEAR, that he may be filled with a loving reverence, and may fear in any way to displease Thee. Seal him through Thy mercy with the seal of a disciple of Jesus Christ unto life eternal ; and grant, O Lord, that bearing the Cross on his forehead, he may bear it also in his heart, so that boldly confessing Thee before men, he may be found worthy to be one day reckoned in the number of Thine Elect : through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(This prayer may be used also by the Candidate.)

The Bishop, wearing over his rochet an amice, stole, and cope of white, and having a mitre on his head, proceeds to the faldstool, before the middle of the Altar, or has it placed for him in some other convenient place, and sits thereon, with his back to the Altar and his face towards the people, holding his crosier in his left hand. He washes his hands, still sitting; then, laying aside his mitre, he arises, and standing with his face towards the persons to be confirmed, and having his hands joined before his breast (the persons to be confirmed kneeling, and having their hands also joined before their breasts), he says:

SPIRITUS Sanctus superveniat in vos, et virtus Altissimi custodiat vos a peccatis.

R. Amen.

MAY the Holy Ghost descend upon you, and may the power of the Most High preserve you from sins. R. Amen.

Then, signing himself with the sign of the Cross, from his forehead to his breast, he says:

V. Adjutorium nostrum in nomine Domini.

V. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

Then, with hands extended towards those to be confirmed, he says:

Let us pray.

R. Amen.

The Bishop, sitting on the faldstool, or, if the number of persons to be confirmed requires it, standing, with his mitre on his head confirms them, arranged in rows and kneeling in order. He inquires separately the name of each person to be confirmed, who is presented to him by the godfather or godmother, kneeling; and having dipped the end of the thumb of his right hand in Chrism, he says :

N., SIGNO te signo
., crucis, ✠

N., I sign thee with
., the sign of the Cross, ✠

Whilst saying these words he makes the sign of the Cross, with his thumb, on the forehead of the person to be confirmed, and then says :

mate salutis. In nomine Patris, ✠ et Filii, ✠ et Spiri-
tus ✠ Sancti.

R. Amen.

And I confirm thee with the chrism of salvation.
In the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, ✠ and of the Holy ✠ Ghost.

R. Amen.

Then he strikes him gently on the cheek, saying :

Pax tecum.

Peace be with thee.

When all have been confirmed, the Bishop wipes his hands with bread-crumbs, and washes them over a basin. In the meantime the following Antiphon is sung or read by the clergy :

CONFIRMA hoc, Deus, quod operatus es in nobis, a templo sancto tuo

V. Gloria Patri, etc.

CONFIRM, O God,
that which Thou hast wrought in us, from Thy holy temple which is in Jerusalem.

R. Glory be to the Father, etc.

Then the Antiphon Confirm, O God is repeated; after which the Bishop, laying aside his mitre, rises up, and standing towards the Altar, with his hands joined before his breast, says:

O STENDE nobis, Domine, misericordiam tuam.

R. Et salutare tuum da nobis.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

Then, with his hands still joined before his breast, and all the persons confirmed devoutly kneeling, he says:

Let us pray.

PRAYERS FOR THE SEVEN GIFTS OF THE HOLY GHOST.

The Spirit of Wisdom.

COME, O Blessed Spirit of Wisdom, and reveal to my soul the mysteries of Heavenly things, their exceeding greatness, and power, and beauty. Teach me to love them above and beyond all the passing joys and satisfactions of earth. Show me the way by which I may be able to attain to them, and possess them, and hold them hereafter, mine own for ever. Amen.

The Spirit of Understanding.

COME, O Blessed Spirit of Understanding, enlighten my mind, that I may perceive and embrace all the mysteries of the deep things of God; that in the end I may be found worthy in Thy light clearly to see the Eternal Light, and may come unto a perfect knowledge of Thee, and of the Father, and of the Son. Amen.

The Spirit of Counsel.

COME, O Blessed Spirit of Counsel, help and guide me in all my ways, that I may always do Thy holy will. Incline my heart to that which is good, turn it away from all that is evil, and direct me by the straight path of Thy Commandments to that goal of eternal life for which I long. Amen.

The Spirit of Fortitude.

COME, O Blessed Spirit of Fortitude, uphold my soul in every time of trouble or adversity. Sustain all my efforts after holiness; strengthen my weakness, give me courage against all the assaults of my enemies, that I may never be overcome, and separated from Thee, my God, my chiefest Good. Amen.

The Spirit of Knowledge.

COME, O Blessed Spirit of Knowledge, grant that I may perceive and know the will of the Father; show me the nothingness of earthly things, that I may know their vanity, and use them only for Thy glory, and my own salvation, looking ever beyond them to Thee, and Thy eternal great rewards. Amen.

The Spirit of Piety.

COME, O Blessed Spirit of Piety, possess my heart, incline it to a true faith in Thee, to a Holy love of Thee my God, that with my whole soul I may seek Thee, and find Thee my best, my truest joy. Amen.

The Spirit of the Fear of the Lord.

COME, O Blessed Spirit of holy Fear, penetrate my inmost heart, that I may set Thee, my Lord and God, before my face for ever ; and shun all things that can offend Thee, so that I may be made worthy to appear before the pure eyes of Thy Divine Majesty in the Heaven of Heavens, where Thou livest and reignest in the Unity of the Ever-blessed Trinity, God, world without end. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE TWELVE FRUITS OF THE HOLY GHOST.

O HOLY Spirit, Eternal Love of the Father and of the Son, grant me to taste the sweetness of Thy loving-kindness : the Fruit of Charity, that I may love Thee above all things, and my neighbor as myself ; the Fruit of Joy, that I may be filled with a holy consolation ; the Fruit of Peace, that I may enjoy inward tranquillity of soul ; the Fruit of Patience, that I may not be discouraged by delay, but may persevere in prayer ; the Fruit of Benignity, that I may be kind and considerate to all men ; the Fruit of Goodness, that I may be ever ready to do good to all ; the Fruit of Longsuffering, that I may humbly submit to everything that is opposed to my own desires ; the Fruit of Mildness, that I may subdue every rising of evil temper, and, so far from offering the least injury, may never return the greatest ; the Fruit of Faith, that I may rightly receive the word of truth, and walk in it ; the Fruit of Modesty, that I may be holy in my thoughts, watchful in my words, and grave in all my behavior ; the Fruit of Continency, that using Thy creatures to Thy glory I may keep my body in subjection ; the Fruit of Chastity, that with a pure body and a clean heart, I may adore and please Thee to my life's end ; so that having served Thee faithfully here on earth I may attain in Christ Jesus to praise Thee eternally in Heaven, with the Father and the Son, Three Persons, One Glorious and Eternal God, to Whom be glory now and ever more. Amen.

ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF CONFIRMATION.

THANKS be unto Thee, O my God, for all Thy infinite goodness, and especially for that love that Thou hast showed unto me at my Confirmation. I give Thee thanks that Thou didst then send down Thy Holy Spirit into my soul with all His gifts and graces. O may He take full possession of me for ever : may His divine Unction cause my face to shine : may His heavenly WISDOM reign in my heart, His UNDER-STANDING enlighten my darkness, His COUNSEL guide me, His FORTITUDE strengthen me, His KNOWLEDGE instruct me, His PIETY make me fervent, His divine FEAR keep me from all evil. Drive from my soul, O Lord, all that may defile it. Give me grace to be Thy faithful soldier, that having fought the good fight of faith, I may be brought to the crown of everlasting life, for the merits of Thy dearly Beloved Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Sacrament of Matrimony.

INSTRUCTIONS.

HE holy state of Matrimony was instituted by Almighty God in the beginning of the world, and under the law of nature had a particular blessing annexed to it. God created man to His own image: to the image of God He created them: male and female He created them. And God blessed them, saying, Increase and multiply, and fill the earth (Gen. i. 27, 28). Under the Mosaic law the Almighty more distinctly announced its dignity and obligations. Afterwards, under the Christian law, our Divine Redeemer sanctified this state still more, and from a natural and civil contract raised Matrimony to the dignity of a Sacrament.

And St. Paul declared it to be a representation of that sacred union which Jesus Christ had formed with His spouse the Church. This mystery is great, but I say in Christ, and in the Church (Ephes. v. 32).

Seeing, therefore, that this state is so very holy, and instituted for such great and holy ends, and, moreover, that it has so great a grace annexed to it (when the Sacrament of Matrimony is worthily received) as to put the married couple into the way of being happy both in this world and in the world to come, they who intend to enter into this state ought to proceed with the greatest prudence and make the best possible preparation, that they may obtain these precious and abundant graces from Almighty God.

1. They ought to enter into this holy state with the pure intention of promoting the honor and glory of God, and the sanctification of their own souls.

2. They ought to select a person of their own religion ; experience shows that a want of union in faith between husband and wife is frequently attended with the worst consequences, both to themselves and to their children. A Catholic cannot, without special dispensation, lawfully marry a person of another religion ; and if, for good reason, such marriage is permitted, the Catholic party cannot enter into an agreement that any of the children shall be brought up in any other than the Catholic faith, and the non-Catholic party must make beforehand a positive and solemn promise, 1st, that no obstacle of any kind shall be put in the way of the practice of all Catholic duties by the Catholic party ; and, 2d, that all the children who shall be born to them shall be baptized and brought up as Catholics.

3. They must obtain the pardon of their sins by worthily approaching the Sacrament of Penance, and then sanctify their marriage by the fervent reception of the Holy Communion.

4. The Marriage should be celebrated in the morning, and with a NUPTIAL MASS. That this is the constant and universal and emphatic desire of Holy Church, the following quotations from the Decrees and from the Pastoral Letter of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore very clearly show :

Let those who have the cure of souls take every occasion earnestly to exhort the faithful to the keeping of that pious and praiseworthy custom of the Church whereby Marriages are celebrated, not in the night-time, but during Mass, and accompanied by the NUPTIAL BLESSING. . . . This custom is held to be not merely a commendable but quite a necessary one, now in these present days, when the foes of religion are leaving nothing untried in their efforts to deprive, if possible, Holy Matrimony of all sanctity, and of all likeness to a Sacrament, and to degrade it to the level of a mere civil contract. [Decrees, N. 125.]

Let them enter into marriage only through worthy and holy motives, with the blessings of religion, especially with the blessing of the NUPTIAL MASS. [Pastoral Letter, p. 87.]

5. They ought frequently to reflect on their duties and obligations as inculcated in the word of God.

St. Paul, strongly inculcating these duties by the great example of Christ and His Church, says :

Let women be subject to their husbands, as to the Lord ; because man is head of the woman, as Christ is Head of the Church ; Himself is Saviour of His body. But as the Church is subject to Christ, so also women to their husbands in all things. Husbands, love your wives, as Christ also hath loved the Church, and delivered Himself up for it. . . . So, also, the men ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loveth his wife, loveth himself. For no man ever hated his own flesh, but he nourisheth and cherisheth it, as also Christ the Church. . . . For this cause man shall leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This mystery is great, but I say in Christ, and in the Church. Nevertheless let you also severally each love his wife, as he loveth himself: and let the wife fear her husband (Ephes. v. 22, IMPEDIMENTS TO MARRIAGE.

FROM the earliest ages holy Church has annexed certain conditions to the matrimonial contract, which are called Impediments. They are of two kinds: 1. ANNULING IMPEDIMENTS, or those which, without special dispensation, make a marriage null and void from the beginning; 2. PROHIBITORY IMPEDIMENTS, which, without dispensation, make a marriage unlawful and sinful, though not invalid.

I. THE ANNULING IMPEDIMENTS.

1. Consanguinity. This forbids marriage between third cousins or any nearer degree of kindred.

2. Affinity. By this it is forbidden to marry the third cousin, or any nearer blood-relation, of a deceased husband or wife. Spiritual Affinity is a species of relationship, contracted by means of the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, whereby parents cannot marry the sponsors of the child, or the person who baptized it; nor can sponsors marry their godchildren.

3. Public Honesty. This prohibits marriage with a parent, child, brother, or sister of a person with whom a valid engagement to marry has existed.

4. Crime. Persons (of whom one at least must be already married) who are guilty of homicide or adultery with a view to a subsequent marriage cannot marry each other.

5. Difference of Worship. This renders marriage null and void between a baptized and an unbaptized person.

6. Vows. This makes marriage impossible to all persons who have made solemn vows by entering into a Religious Order; and to all the Orders of the Clergy, from Subdeacons upward.

7. Clandestinity. Wherever the decree of the Council of Trent concerning Matrimony has been published, marriage between two Catholics is not only unlawful but invalid without the presence of the Parish Priest and two witnesses. This decree is in force in the following places in the United States: 1. The Province of New Orleans. 2. The Province of San Francisco, and Utah Territory except the part lying east of the Colorado River. 3. The Province of Santa Fe, except the northern part of Colorado Territory. 4. The Diocese of Vincennes. 5. The city of St. Louis, and the parishes of St. Genevieve, St. Ferdinand, and St. Charles in the Diocese of St. Louis. 6. The parishes of Kaskaskia, Cahokia, French Village, and Prairie du Rocher, in the Diocese of Alton.

8. The Bond of a Previous Marriage. This is an Impediment which death alone can remove. What, therefore, God hath joined together let not man put asunder (Matt. xix. 6). No court, no judge, no legislature, no power on earth, can break the bond which unites husband and wife. For certain just causes, especially for the crime of adultery, they may live separately, but they are still married and cannot marry again. Let it be remembered that no so-called Divorce, no guilt, no desertion, can ever sever the marriage bond. Nothing but a certain knowledge of the death of one party can make it lawful for the other to marry.

II. THE PROHIBITORY IMPEDIMENTS.

1. A simple Vow to preserve chastity, to enter the priesthood or into a Religious Order.

2. A previous valid engagement to marry any person.

3. Impediments arising from a Prohibition of the Church, such as (1) the solemnization of marriage (in other words, to marry with outward pomp and festivity) during Advent or Lent. (2) Mixed marriages—the union of a Catholic with one who is not a Catholic. (See paragraph 2 in "Instructions" above.)

4. The non-consent of parents, when consent is withheld for good and just reasons.

In addition to these, there are a few other impediments which are not generally likely to occur. With regard to all such matters it is very important to consult the Priest when arranging for the marriage.

THE PUBLICATION OF THE BANNS.

In order to place a check upon clandestine marriages, to discover any impediments which may exist, to prevent deceptions and surprises, to afford parents and others interested an opportunity to interpose, if needful, and in order to procure the prayers of the faithful that God may give light, grace, and prosperity to the contracting parties, the Council of Trent has decreed that the promise of marriage be published on three successive Sundays or Holydays, at the principal Mass, by the Parish Priest of the parties (Sess. 24).

This is a very important law, and imposes very serious obligations. Bishops can, and for good and sufficient reason do, dispense with this law. Catholics should remember that it is a mortal sin to marry unless such dispensation is procured or the Banns published in regular form. There can be no doubt that if any one knows of an impediment in the way of a proposed marriage, he is in duty bound to reveal it.

PRAYER OF ONE ABOUT TO BE MARRIED.

O GRACIOUS Father, who dost bless us by Thy bounty, pardon us by Thy mercy, support and guide us by Thy grace, and govern us by Thy providence : I give Thee humble and hearty thanks for all the mercies which I have received at Thy hands in time past. And now, since Thou hast called me to the holy estate of marriage, be pleased to be with me in my entering into it and passing through it, that it may not be a state of temptation or sorrow to me by occasion of my sins or infirmities, but of holiness and comfort, of love and dutifulness, as Thou hast intended it to be to all that love and fear Thy holy name. Amen.

Here may be said Psalm 121 (p. 201).

THE RITUAL FOR THE CELEBRATION OF MATRIMONY.

The Priest, vested in a surplice and white stole (but vested as for Mass, yet without maniple, if the Nuptial Mass is to follow), attended by an acolyte holding a vessel of holy water, asks, in the vernacular, in the hearing of two or three witnesses, the man and the woman separately, as follows, concerning their consent. And first he asks the Bridegroom, who must stand at the right hand of the Bride :

N. WILT thou take N., here present, for thy lawful wife, according to the Rite of our holy Mother the Church ?

R. I will.

Then the Priest asks the Bride :

N., wilt thou take N., here present, for thy lawful husband, according to the Rite of our holy Mother the Church ?

R. I will.

The consent of one is not sufficient ; it should be expressed by both, and there should be some sensible sign thereof. Having obtained this mutual consent, the Priest bids the man and woman join their right hands.

[In places where it is customary, the man and woman pledge themselves one to the other as follows, repeating these words after the Priest :

The man first says :

I N.N., take thee, N.N., for my lawful wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us part.

Then the woman says after the Priest :

I, N.N., take thee, N.N., for my lawful husband, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us part.]

The Priest then says :

EGO conjungo vos in matrimonium, in nomine Patris, ✠ et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.	I JOIN you together in marriage, in the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.
--	--

He then sprinkles them with holy water.

This done, the Priest blesses the ring, saying :

THE EPISTLE, Eph. v. 22-33.

FRATRES : Mulieres viris suis subditæ sint, sicut Domino : quoniam vir caput est mulieris : sicut Christus caput est Ecclesiæ : Ipse, salvator corporis ejus. Sed sicut Ecclesia subjecta est Christo, ita et mulieres viris suis in omnibus. Viri, diligite uxores vestras, sicut et Christus dilexit Ecclesiam, et seipsum tradidit pro ea, ut illam sanctificaret, mundans lavacro aquæ in verbo vitæ, ut exhiberet ipse sibi gloriosam Ecclesiam, non habentem

But as the Church is subject to Christ, so also women to their husbands in all things. Nemo enim unquam carnem suam odio habuit: sed nutrit, et fovet eam, sicut et Christus Ecclesiam: quia membra sumus corporis ejus, de carne ejus, et de ossibus ejus. Propter hoc relinquet homo patrem et matrem suam, et adhærebit uxori suæ: et erunt duo in carne una. Sacramentum hoc magnum est, ego autem dico in Christo, et in Ecclesia. might present to Himself a glorious Church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it may be holy, and without blemish. So also the men ought to love their wives, as their own bodies. He who loveth his wife, loveth himself. For no man ever hated his own flesh, but he nourisheth and cherisheth it, as also Christ the Church: for we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones. For this cause man shall leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This mystery is great, but I say in Christ, and in the Church. Nevertheless, let you also severally each love his wife as he loveth himself; and let the wife fear her husband.

THE GRADUAL.

AXOR tua sicut vitis abundans in lateribus domus tuæ.

THY wife shall be as a fruitful vine on the walls of thy house.

V. Filii tui sicut novellæ

V. Thy children as olive plants round about thy
table. Alleluia, alleluia.

V. May the Lord send you help from the sanctuary, and defend you out of Sion. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima, instead of Alleluia and V. is said the TRACT.

Israel.

BEHOLD, thus shall every man be blessed that feareth the Lord.

V. May the Lord bless thee out of Sion; and mayest thou see the good things of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

V. And mayest thou see thy children's children:
peace upon Israel.

At Easter-tide the Gradual is omitted, and in its place is said:

Alleluia, Alleluia.

Alleluia, Alleluia.

THE GOSPEL, Matt. xix. 3-6.

IN illo tempore: Accesserunt ad Jesum Pharisei tentantes eum, et dicentes: Si licet homini dimittere uxorem suam, quacumque ex causa? Qui respondens, ait eis: Non legistis, quia qui fecit hominem ab initio, masculinum et feminam fecit eos? et dixit: Propter hoc dimittet homo patrem et matrem, et adhærebit uxori suæ, et erunt duo in carne una. Itaque jam non sunt duo, sed una caro. Quod ergo Deus conjunxit, homo non separet.

AT that time there came to Jesus the Pharisees, tempting Him, and saying: Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And He answered and said to them: Have ye not read, that He who made man from the beginning, made them male and female? and said: For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and the two shall be one flesh. Therefore now they are not two, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

THE OFFERTORY.

IN te speravi, Domine: dixi, Tu es Deus meus: in manibus tuis tempora mea.

IN Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: I said, Thou art my God: my lot is in Thy hands.

After the Pater Noster the Priest standing at the Epistle side of the altar, and turning towards the Bridegroom and Bride, who kneel before the altar, says over them the following prayers :

kingdom ; that they both see their children's children unto the third and fourth generation, and arrive at a happy old age. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. R. Amen.

THE COMMUNION.

ECCE sic benedicetur omnis homo, qui timet Dominum, et videas filios filiorum tuorum : pax super Israel.

BEHOLD, thus shall every man be blessed that feareth the Lord : and mayest thou see thy children's children : peace upon Israel.

THE POSTCOMMUNION.

QUÆSUMUS, omnipotens Deus, instituta providentiæ tuæ pio favore comitare : ut quos legitima societate connectis, longæva pace custodias. Per Dominum, etc.

WE beseech Thee, O God Almighty, to accompany with Thy gracious favor what Thy providence hath ordained ; and preserve in continual peace those whom Thou hast joined in lawful union. Through our Lord, etc.

After the Benedicamus Domino, the Priest turns towards the Bridegroom and Bride, and says :

DEUS Abraham, Deus Isaac, et Deus Jacob sit vobiscum, et ipse adimpleat benedictionem suam in vobis ; ut videatis filios filiorum vestrorum, usque ad tertiam et quartam generationem ; et postea vitam æternam habeatis sine fine, adjuvante Domino nostro Jesu Christo : qui cum Patre et Spiritu Sancto vivit et regnat Deus, per omnia sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

MAY the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob be with you, and may He fulfil His blessing upon you ; that you may see your children's children unto the third and fourth generation ; and may afterwards have everlasting life, without end, by the help of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth God, world without end. Amen.

He then sprinkles them with holy water. Afterwards, bowing down before the Altar, he says the Placeat, gives the Blessing, and ends the Mass as usual.

THE MANNER OF ASSISTING AT MIXED MARRIAGES.

The Priest, having obtained the proper Dispensation for the marriage of a Catholic with a non-Catholic, should assure himself that the Catholic party shall not in anywise be impeded in the practice of the Catholic religion ; that there shall be no probable danger of perversion ; that the Catholic party shall endeavor with all earnestness to bring the non-Catholic spouse to the knowledge of the Truth ; and that all children which may bless the union shall be baptized and brought up in the Catholic Faith.

The ceremony of a mixed marriage is not to be performed in a Church, but usually in some convenient room in the Rectory (or elsewhere, by special permission of the Ordinary). No sacred Vestment may be used, nor prayer said, nor blessing given. The Priest, about to assist at such marriage, first asks the man concerning his consent, as follows :

D., WILT thou take N., here present, for thy lawful wife ?

R. I will.

Then the Priest asks the woman :

D., WILT thou take N., here present, for thy lawful husband ?

R. I will.

Then, with right hands joined, they pledge themselves each to the other, repeating these words after the Priest :

The man first says :

I, N.N., take thee, N.N., for my lawful wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer. in sickness and in health, until death do us part.

Then the woman says :

I N.N., take thee, N.N., for my lawful husband, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us part.

This done, the Priest says :

BY the authority committed to me, I pronounce you united in the bonds of Matrimony.

The Bridegroom then places the Ring on the third finger of the left hand of the Bride, saying after the Priest :

WITH this Ring I thee wed, and I plight unto thee my troth.

Afterwards the Priest may, at his discretion, address some suitable remarks to the married couple : recalling to their minds the indissoluble nature of the marriage bond ; the peculiar sanctity of this estate ; the harmony and mutual love which should prevail therein ; and especially the solicitude which each should manifest to know the will of God, that, by constantly and faithfully fulfilling the same, they may attain unto everlasting salvation.

A HUSBAND'S PRAYER.

O GRACIOUS Father, Maker and Preserver of heaven and earth, who in the beginning didst institute matrimony, thereby foreshadowing the mystical union of the Church with our Saviour Christ, who, in the time of His ministry upon earth, did honor marriage with His first miracle : enable me, I pray Thee, by Thy grace to live in holiness and purity with the wife whom Thou hast given me. Mortify in me all violence of earthly passion, all selfishness and inconsiderateness (here name any besetting sin which may be a hindrance to you), that I may love her as Christ loved His Church, cherish and comfort her as my own body, and have as great care for her happiness as for my own. Grant that we may live in peace, without contention; in unity, without discord. [Give us, O Lord, discreet hearts and understanding minds, to bring up our children in Thy faith and fear, that they may be obedient to Thee and to Thy commandments, and to all that Thou requirest of them in duty towards their parents.] And give us, O Lord, a competency of estate, to maintain ourselves and our family according to that rank and calling wherein Thou hast placed us, without excess or vainglory, in singleness and pureness of heart. Grant this for Jesus Christ's sake, to whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

A WIFE'S PRAYER.

O MERCIFUL Lord God, who in the beginning didst take Eve out of the side of Adam and didst give her to him as a helpmate: give me grace to live worthy of the honorable estate of matrimony to which Thou hast called me, that I may love my husband with a pure and chaste love, acknowledging him as my head, and truly reverencing and obeying him in all good things; that thereby I may please him, and live with him in all Christian quietness. Keep me from all worldliness and vanity. Help me, O Lord, that I may, under him, prudently and discreetly guide and govern his household. Let no fault of mine aggravate any sins by which he may be especially tempted; enable me to soothe him in perplexity, to cheer him in difficulty, to refresh him in weariness, and, as far as may be, to advise him in doubt. [Give me understanding so to fulfil my part in the education of our children, that they may be our joy in this world and our glory in the next.] Grant that our perfect union here may be the beginning of the still more perfect and blissful union hereafter in Thy kingdom; and this I pray through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER TO BE SAID BY HUSBAND OR WIFE.

O MERCIFUL God, we humbly beseech Thee to send Thy blessing continually upon us, and to make us thankful for all that Thou hast already vouchsafed unto us; and as Thou hast made us one in the mystical grace of matrimony, grant that we may be also inwardly of one heart and of one mind, paying due honor one to another, united in love to Thee and to each other in Thee; living together in peace and holiness, as faithful members of Thy Church, denying ourselves, and being a mutual help, comfort, and support to each other, all the days of our life. [Give us grace to train our children in Thy faith and fear.] Bless us with health and strength, if it be Thy will, and with whatever else Thy good providence shall see to be best for our souls and bodies. Fit and prepare us day by day for our departure hence, that we may together inherit eternal life in Thy heavenly kingdom. Through the merits of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A PARENT'S PRAYER.

ALMIGHTY God, the Father and Maker of us all, who of Thy blessing and goodness hast vouchsafed to make me a father [or mother] of children : be pleased to accept my hearty thanksgiving and devout praise for the same ; grant me Thy heavenly grace and assistance so to train up my children in Thy faith, fear, and love that as they advance in years they may grow in grace and may hereafter be found in the number of Thine elect. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing of Women after Childbirth.

COMMONLY CALLED

THE CHURCHING OF WOMEN.

If, according to a pious and praiseworthy custom, a woman, after childbirth, wish to come to the Church to give thanks to God for her safe delivery, and to ask the Priest's blessing, he, vested in surplice and white stole, and attended by an acolyte carrying the holy-water sprinkler, will proceed to the door of the Church. While the woman kneels there, holding a lighted candle in her hand, the Priest sprinkles her with holy water, and then says :

ENTER thou into the temple of God, adore the Son of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who giveth thee fruitfulness of offspring.

THANKSGIVING AFTER CHILDBIRTH.

GRACIOUS God, by whose providence we are made, who formest us in secret, who beholdest us when we are yet imperfect, and in whose book all shall be written : I humbly beseech Thee to accept this my acknowledgment of Thy power, and to receive this my most hearty praise and thanksgiving, which I now offer to Thy divine Majesty, for Thy favor and goodness towards me. Behold, O Lord, what Thine own hands have fashioned ; and grant that this infant, which Thou hast made by Thy power, may be preserved by Thy goodness, and, through the grace of Thy Holy Baptism, may be made a living member of Thy Church and be carefully brought up to serve Thee in all piety and honesty. Through the merits of Thy dearly beloved Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Devotions for the Sick.

RULES FOR A SICK PERSON.

RECEIVE your sickness from the hands of your heavenly Father dealing with you as with a child.

2. Look on it as a loving correction for your sins, and as a summons to prepare more carefully for death.

3. Practise the virtues of patience and submission to the will of God; deepen your repentance and offer yourself to God to suffer, if it pleases Him, still greater pains; give thanks for the blessings you enjoy.

4. In any dangerous illness let your first care be to send for a Priest.

5. Engage your friends to give you timely notice if your illness be dangerous, and not to flatter you with false hopes of recovery.

6. Make the best use of the time you have; admit but few visitors; let your conversation be as little as may be of worldly matters.

7. Settle your temporal affairs, in order to give yourself more entirely to spiritual matters.

8. Meditate often on our Lord's Passion.

9. Bear in mind St. Augustine's words: However innocent your life may have been, no Christian ought to venture to die in any other state than that of a penitent.

PRAYER IN THE BEGINNING OF SICKNESS.

O HEAVENLY Father, who in Thy wisdom knowest what is best for me, glory be to Thee. Lord, if it seem good in Thy sight, remove from me this sickness which I now feel seizing upon me, that I may employ my health to Thy glory, and praise Thy name. But if Thou art pleased it should grow on me, I willingly submit to Thy afflicting hand, for Thou art wont to chasten those whom Thou dost love, and Thou hast promised not to lay on me any more than Thou wilt enable me to bear. I know, O my God, that Thou sendest this sickness on me for my good, even to humble and to prove me ; O grant that it may not fail to work that saving effect in me. O Lord, create in me a true sorrow for all my past sins, a firm faith in Thee, and sincere resolutions of amendment for the time to come. Deliver me from all fretfulness and impatience, and give me an entire resignation to Thy divine will : O suffer not my sickness to take away my senses, and do Thou continually supply my thoughts with holy ejaculations. Lord, bless all the means that are used for my recovery, and restore me to my health, if it be Thy will, in Thy good time ; but if Thou hast appointed otherwise for me, Thy blessed will be done. O wean my affections from all things of earth, and fill me with ardent desires after heaven : Lord, fit me for Thyself, and then call me, when Thou pleasest, to that joy unspeakable and full of glory ; for the sake of Thine Only Son, Jesus Christ, my Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A DAILY PRAYER.

O ALMIGHTY God, behold I receive this sickness, with which Thou art pleased to visit me, as coming from Thy Fatherly hand. It is Thy will that it should be thus with me. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. May this sickness be to the honor of Thy holy name and for the good of my soul. For these ends I here offer myself to Thee with entire submission ; to suffer what Thou pleasest, as long as Thou pleasest, and in what manner Thou pleasest : for I am Thy creature and Thy child, who have most ungratefully offended Thee. I have truly deserved Thy chastisement, and far more than Thou layest on me, but, O Lord, rebuke me not in Thine indignation, neither chasten me in Thy sore displeasure. Look upon my weakness, and be merciful unto me, for Thou knowest whereof I am made, Thou rememberest that I am but dust ; deal not with me therefore after my sins, nor reward me according to mine iniquities ; but according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies have compassion upon me. Assist me, I pray Thee, with Thy heavenly grace, and give me strength, that I may be able to bear with Christian patience all the pains, uneasiness, and trials of my sickness. Preserve me from all temptations so far as Thou seest fit, and be Thou my defence against all the assaults of the enemy, that I may in no wise offend Thee ; and if it be Thy will that this sickness should be my last, I beg of Thee so to direct me by Thy grace that I may in no way neglect or be deprived of those Sacraments which Thou hast ordained for the good of my soul, to prepare it for its passage into eternity ; so that, being cleansed from all my sins, I may put my whole trust in Thee, and love Thee above all things ; and that finally, through the merits of the Passion and Death of Thy Son, I may be admitted into the company of the Blessed, there to praise Thee for ever, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

ACTS OF MOST NECESSARY VIRTUES FOR THE SICK.

Act of Resignation.

LORD, I accept this sickness from Thy Fatherly hands ; I entirely resign myself to Thy blessed will, whether it be for life or death. Not my will, but Thine be done ; Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Act of Submission.

LORD, I submit to all the pains and uneasiness of this my illness : my sins have deserved infinitely more. Thou art just, O Lord, and Thy judgment is right.

Act of Self-Oblation.

LORD, I offer up to Thee all that I now suffer, or may have to suffer, to be united to the sufferings of my Saviour, and to be sanctified by His Passion.

Act of Adoration.

I ADORE Thee, O my God and my All, as my First Beginning and my Last End ; I desire to pay Thee the best homage that I am able, and to bow down all the powers of my soul to Thee.

Act of Praise.

LORD, I desire to praise Thee for ever, in sickness as well as in health ; I desire to join my heart and voice with the whole Church of heaven and earth, in blessing Thee for ever.

Act of Thanksgiving.

I GIVE Thee thanks, O Lord, from the bottom of my heart, for all the mercies and blessings which Thou hast bestowed upon me and on Thy whole Church through Jesus Christ Thy Son ; above all, because Thou hast loved me from all eternity, and hast sent Thy Son to redeem me with His precious Blood. O let not that Blood be shed for me in vain.

Act of Faith.

LORD, I believe all those heavenly truths which Thou hast revealed, and which Thy Holy Catholic Church believes and teaches. Thou art the Sovereign Truth, who neither canst deceive nor be deceived. Thou hast promised Thy Spirit of Truth to guide Thy Church into all truth. In this Faith I resolve, through Thy grace, both to live and die. O Lord, strengthen and increase this my faith.

Act of Hope.

O MY God, all my hope is in Thee ! Through Jesus Christ, my Redeemer, through His Passion and Death, I hope for mercy, grace, and salvation from Thee. In Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust : let me never be confounded. O Sweet Jesus, receive me into Thine arms in this day of my distress ; hide me in Thy Wounds, bathe my soul in Thy precious Blood.

Act of Love.

I LOVE Thee, O my God, with my whole heart and soul, above all things : at least I desire so to love Thee. O come now and take full possession of my soul, and teach me to love Thee for ever. I desire to depart, and to be with Christ. O when will Thy kingdom come ? O Lord, when wilt Thou perfectly reign in all hearts ? When shall sin be no more ?

Act of Love of One's Neighbor.

I DESIRE to love my neighbor with perfect charity for the love of Thee. I forgive from my heart all who have in any way offended or injured me, and I ask pardon of all whom I have in any way offended or injured.

Act of Contrition.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to Thy great mercy : and according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies blot out my iniquity. O who will give water to my head, and a fountain of tears to my eyes, that, day and night, I may bewail my sins? O that I had never offended so good a God! O that I had never sinned! Happy those souls that have always preserved their baptismal innocence! Lord, be merciful to me a sinner; Holy Jesus, Son of the Living God, have mercy upon me.

Act of Commendation to God.

I COMMEND my soul to God my Maker, who created me from nothing; to Jesus Christ my Saviour, who redeemed me with His Blood; to the Holy Ghost, who sanctified me in baptism. Into Thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.

Act of Renunciation of Evil.

I RENOUNCE, from this moment and for all eternity, the devil and all his works and pomps. I abhor all his suggestions and temptations. Suffer not, O Lord, this mortal enemy of my soul to have any power over me, either now or at my last hour. Let Thy holy Angels ever keep me and defend me against all the powers of darkness.

O HOLY Mary, Mother of God, who wert present beneath the Cross at the death of thy beloved Son Jesus, obtain for me the grace of a happy death.
Hail Mary.

Glorious St. Michael, Prince of the heavenly host, intercede for me at the hour of my death.

O holy Guardian Angel, to whose care God, in His mercy, has committed me, stand by me at the last hour ; protect me against all the powers of darkness ; defend me from all my enemies, and conduct my soul to the mansions of bliss.

O all ye blessed Angels and Saints of God, assist me by your intercession in the passage from time to eternity. Amen.

A. PRAYER FOR PATIENCE.

REMEMBER, O most pitying Father, what this frail and feeble work of Thy hands can bear without fainting ; nothing, indeed, of itself, but all things in Thee, if strengthened by Thy grace. Wherefore grant me strength, that I may suffer and endure ; patience alone I ask. Lord, give me this, and behold my heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready to receive whatsoever shall be laid upon me ; may it even be a consolation to me that, afflicting me with pain, Thou sparest not here, that Thou mayest spare hereafter. Grant, O Lord, that in my patience I may possess my soul ; to that end may I often look upon the Face of Christ Thy Son, that as He hath suffered such terrible things in the flesh, I may endeavor to be armed with the same mind. Wherefore I commit my strength unto Thee, O Lord ; for Thou art my Strength and my Refuge ; Thou dost uphold my life. Behold, O Lord, now am I in the midst of the fire, and how long I shall be there Thou knowest. Keep me, Thou who didst preserve unhurt the Three Children in the furnace of fire, and bring me safe out of this trial when it shall please Thee, as Thou didst deliver them, that I also may bless Thee with all Thy creatures for ever. Amen.

A PRAYER IN SUFFERING.

O LORD JESUS CHRIST, accept my sufferings which I desire to unite with Thine. Sanctify this affliction, so that every pang I feel may purify my soul and bring it nearer to Thee, to be made more one with Thee ; grant that I may welcome the sufferings which will make me more like to Thee.

O my Lord, stand Thou by me with Thy supporting grace ; sanctify each pang, sustain my weakness. And then order for me what Thou pleasest. Come now to my help, O Lord, and so purify my soul that I may be spared the last, the eternal suffering ; let me fly to the embrace of Thy love for ever.

Lord Jesus, hast Thou not invited all that labor and are heavy-burdened to come to Thee for refreshment ? Behold now Thy servant, afflicted and oppressed, comes to Thee for help ; relieve me, I beseech Thee, Thou who art Infinite in mercy.

O Thou who hast comforted the Martyrs in their torments, and refreshed them with heavenly sweetness on the rack and in the fire, renew Thy mercies to me Thine unworthy servant ; defend me against all temptation, suffer not the enemy to take advantage of me, but grant me Thy heavenly strength, the fulness of Thy grace and peace. Amen.

Ejaculation.

O LORD, by Thy Cross and Passion strengthen me ;
 Lord, let this cup pass from me ; nevertheless,
 not my will but Thine be done. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR A GOOD DEATH.⁽ⁱ⁾

O LORD JESUS, God of goodness, and Father of mercies, I draw nigh to Thee with a contrite and humble heart ; to Thee I recommend the last hour of my life, and that judgment which awaits me afterwards.

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When my feet, benumbed with death, shall admonish me that my mortal course is drawing to an end,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When my hands, cold and trembling, shall no longer be able to clasp the crucifix, and, against my will, shall let it fall on my bed of suffering,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When mine eyes, dim and troubled at the approach of death, shall fix themselves on Thee, my last and only support,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When my lips, pale and trembling, shall pronounce for the last time Thine adorable name,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When my face, pale and livid, shall inspire the beholders with pity and dismay ; when my hair, bathed in the sweat of death, and stiffening on my head, shall forbode mine approaching end,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When mine ears, soon to be for ever shut to the discourse of men, shall be open to that irrevocable decree which is to fix my doom for all eternity,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When my imagination, agitated by dreadful spectres, shall be sunk in an abyss of anguish ; when my soul, affrighted with the sight of my iniquities and the terrors of Thy judgments, shall have to fight against the angel of darkness, who will endeavor to conceal Thy mercies from mine eyes, and plunge me into despair,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When my poor heart, oppressed with suffering and exhausted by its continual struggles with the enemies of its salvation, shall feel the pangs of death,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When the last tear, the forerunner of my dissolution, shall drop from mine eyes, receive it as a sacrifice of expiation for my sins ; grant that I may expire the victim of penance ; and then, in that dreadful moment,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When my friends and relations, surrounding my bed, shall be moved with compassion for me, and invoke Thy clemency in my behalf,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When I shall have lost the use of my senses, when the world shall have vanished from my sight, when mine agonizing soul shall feel the pangs of death,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When my last sighs shall force my soul from my body, accept them as signs of a loving impatience to come to Thee,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When my soul, trembling on my lips, shall bid farewell to the world, and leave my body lifeless, pale, and cold, receive this separation as a homage which I willingly pay to Thy divine Majesty, and in that last moment of my mortal life,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

When at length my soul, admitted to Thy presence, shall first behold the splendor of Thy Majesty, reject it not, but receive me into Thy bosom, where I may for ever sing Thy praises ; and in that moment when eternity shall begin for me,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who hast doomed all men to die, but hast concealed from all the hour of their death : grant that I may pass my days in the practice of holiness and justice, and that I may be made worthy to quit this world in the peace of a good conscience and in the embrace of Thy love. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O MARY, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee. O Refuge of sinners, O Mother of those in their agony, forsake us not in the hour of our death, but obtain for us perfect sorrow, sincere contrition, remission of our sins, a worthy reception of the most holy Viaticum, the strengthening power of the Sacrament of Extreme Unction ; that we may present ourselves without fear before the throne of that Judge who is both Just and Merciful, our God and our Redeemer. Amen.

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I give you my heart and my soul.

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, assist me in my last agony.

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, may I breathe forth my soul in peace with you.⁽ⁱ⁾

THANKSGIVING FOR RECOVERY.

GLORY be to Thee, O heavenly Father, for the sickness Thou hast in mercy sent me. Lord, the stripes Thou didst lay on me were the stripes of love ; glory be to Thee. Before I was humbled I did wickedly ; but now will I keep Thy word. It is good for me that Thou hast humbled me, that I might learn Thine ordinances.

Glory be to Thee, O Lord, glory be to Thee, for delivering me from the terrors of death, and restoring me to my health again ; glory be to Thee. I called upon the Lord in my trouble, and the Lord heard me. I shall not die, but live and declare the works of the Lord. Bless the Lord, therefore, O my soul : as long as I have my life, which at first God gave me, and which He has now restored to me, I will sing praises unto my God.

O Lord God, who hast in Thy tender mercy prolonged my days in this world, give me grace to spend this life, which Thou hast now lengthened, in Thy service. O give me grace to perform all my resolutions of new obedience, and so to live in the filial fear of Thee all the remainder of my time that I may at last die at peace with myself, at peace with the whole world, and at peace with Thee; for the sake of Thy Dearly-beloved Son, our Lord and Saviour.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

THE blessing of God Almighty, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Ghost, descend upon me and all belonging to me, and dwell in my heart and be with me in my going out and coming in, now and for ever.
Amen.

PRAYER FOR A SICK PERSON BEFORE RECEIVING HOLY VIATICUM.

O FATHER of mercies, and God of all consolation, behold I Thy creature, made after Thine Image and redeemed by the Blood of Thy Only-begotten Son, appear before Thee my Creator; by whom and for whom I was created, by whose grace I have hitherto lived; unto whom henceforth, so long as Thou seest good, I would wish to live; for whom, and in whom, I desire to die; I humbly adore Thee, whom my soul desireth and longeth for; I cry to Thee, whom alone I love above all things, O Thou my Rest, my Hope, my Love, my Desire, my heart's only Good.

O most loving Father, although I am the least of all Thy children, yea, unworthy to be called Thy child, because I have not honored Thee as a Father, yet I come to Thee with full confidence, and throw myself upon the breast and into the arms of Thy most sweet love and mercy, grieving from my inmost soul that I have ever forsaken Thee, my God, the Fountain of all good ; that I have departed from Thee, my most loving Father ; and have forgotten Thee, who, as though there were none else to care for, every moment rememberest me. O that I had never offended Thee, my God and my all ; accept at least this the ardent wish and desire of my inmost heart ; look Thou upon me, and be merciful unto me now in the time of pity ; Thou knowest, O Lord, that I love Thee, or desire to love Thee, more than myself, more than all that claims or can claim my love. I know whom I have believed, and that Thou art able to keep that which I have committed to Thee : I know, too, that a contrite and humble heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise.

I hope, O Lord, that Thou wilt never cast me away from Thy Presence, Thou who dost so lovingly invite us to Thyself, saying, Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy-burdened, and I will refresh you. Behold, I come, O Lord ; Thou that castest not out any that come to Thee, receive me according to Thy word, and I shall live, and let me not be disappointed of my hope.

I give Thee infinite thanks because Thou hast vouchsafed to think of me so lovingly from all eternity, for creating me in time after Thine Image, and, when the fullness of time was come, for redeeming me by the Blood of Thine Only-begotten Son, for sparing me so often when sinning, and calling me so often out of the darkness of sin into Thy marvellous light.

What reward shall I give unto Thee, Lord Jesus, for Thy toilsome Life and most bitter Death, for vouchsafing so often to feed me with Thy Body and Thy Blood? What return shall I make unto Thee for all the benefits Thou hast bestowed upon me, O beloved Spouse of my soul? The deep of my nothingness and my misery calleth on the deep of Thy goodness and Thy boundless love, because of Thy wounds : in them is all my hope and my confidence : through them, and the boundless ocean of Thy love that flows from them, I come in confidence to Thee, wretched though I am, and poor and naked ; for Thou art rich towards all, and my goods are as nothing unto Thee. I will take cheerfully at Thy hand the cup of salvation which Thou givest me to drink, bitter though it be, and I will drink it with Thee, who didst drain it first for me when Thou didst so earnestly thirst for my salvation. I will call upon the name of the Lord, and offer to Thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving. O that in return for this I could embrace Thee with all the love of the heavenly company, Angels and Saints, and, above all, of Blessed Mary, Thine Immaculate Mother ; and that, with the voices and affections of all Thy creatures, I could praise and magnify Thy name.

Accept, Lord, my heart as a burnt offering ; I give it all to Thee ; I give Thee mine eyes, to see Thee alone and all things in Thee : mine ears, to hear Thy Word : my mouth, my lips and tongue, to be filled with Thy praise, and to sing of Thy glory and of Thy greatness all the day long : my hands, to be stretched forth in prayer to Thee in heaven, or in alms to the poor, and to do Thy will : my feet, to be led into the way of peace : all my members, that they may say, Lord, who is like unto Thee? Bless the Lord, O my soul, and let all that is within me bless His holy name : bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits. I now freely surrender all these earthly things, for in Thee alone I have all things : I renounce myself, for I am Thine : I live, yet not I, but Thou, Christ Jesus, livest in me. I love Thee with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength. Amen.

The Holy Viaticum.

THE Viaticum is the Holy Eucharist administered with the intention of preparing the sick for death. This blessed Sacrament is indeed the bread of life, of which every good Christian frequently partakes during health; but when the soul is about to pass from the body there arises a new and peculiar obligation of receiving it. This obligation is founded on the abundant graces which this holy Sacrament, above all the rest, is capable of imparting, and which are at that time so necessary. It is the safeguard that must preserve the soul on its journey to heaven; it is the pledge of immortal glory. He who eateth this bread shall live for ever (St. John vi. 59). And so urgent is the obligation of receiving it at the approach of death, that the Church dispenses with her rule in behalf of those who are dangerously sick, and allows them to communicate after having broken their fast. The sick person will therefore use his best endeavor to make a worthy preparation for this blessed Sacrament.

Before the Priest arrives the following things should be made ready in the sick-room: (1) a table, covered with a clean, white cloth; and upon it (2) at least one candlestick, holding a blessed candle lighted; (3) a Crucifix; (4) two small glasses, one containing holy water, and the other pure fresh water (for the ablution after Communion); and (4) a tablespoon (with which the Priest administers the ablution to the sick person).

The Priest bearing the Blessed Sacrament should be met at the door by some one holding a lighted candle, who should go before him to the place prepared. All should then retire, while the confession of the sick person is being heard, and return immediately thereafter to assist at the giving of the Holy Communion: remaining kneeling and spending the time in prayer.

The Priest, on entering the sick person's room with the Blessed Sacrament, says :

PAX huic domui.

R. Et omnibus habitantibus in ea.

PEACE be unto this house.

R. And unto all who dwell therein.

Then, placing the Holy Sacrament, with the corporal, on a table, when the candles have been lighted he adores upon his knees, all present doing likewise ; after which he takes holy water, and sprinkles the sick person and the bed, saying :

ASPERGES me, Domine, hyssopo, et mundabor : lavabis me, et super nivem dealbabor.

Miserere mei, Deus, secundum magnam misericordiam tuam.

Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in sæcula sæculorum.

Amen.

THOU shalt sprinkle me, O Lord, with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed : Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Thy great mercy.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Then is repeated the Antiphon, Thou shalt sprinkle me, etc. Afterwards :

ADJUTORIUM nostrum in nomine Domini.

R. Qui fecit cœlum et terram.

OUR help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

V. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Oremus.

Let us pray.

EXAUDI nos, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, æternæ Deus; et mittere digneris sanctum Angelum tuum de cœlis, qui custodiat, foveat, protegat, visitet, atque defendat omnes habitantes in hoc habitaculo. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. R. Amen.

HEAR us, O Holy Lord, Father Almighty, Everlasting God; and vouchsafe to send Thy holy Angel from heaven, to guard, cherish, protect, visit, and defend all those that dwell in this house. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The Priest then approaches the sick person, to learn if he be properly disposed to receive the Holy Viaticum, and whether he wishes to make a confession of any sin: If so, he hears the confession and gives absolution. (The confession should, however, have been made beforehand, unless necessity demanded otherwise.) Then, the Confiteor having been recited by the sick person, or by another in his name, the Priest says:

MISEREATUR tui omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis tuis, perducatur te ad vitam æternam. R. Amen.

MAY Almighty God have mercy upon thee, and forgive thee thy sins, and bring thee unto life everlasting. R. Amen.

INDULGENTIAM, ✠ MAY the Almighty and absolutionem, et re- Merciful Lord grant missionem peccatorum tu- thee pardon, ✠ absolution, orum tribuat tibi omni- and remission of thy sins.
tens et misericors Domi-

Then, making a genuflection, he takes the Blessed Sacrament from the Pyx, and, raising it, shows it to the sick person, saying :

ECCE Agnus Dei, ecce BEHOLD the Lamb of qui tollit peccata God, behold Him mundi. who taketh away the sins of the world.

And thrice in the accustomed manner :

dignus ut intres sub worthy that Thou dic verbo, et sanabitur ani- roof ; but only say the ma mea. word, and my soul shall be healed.

And the sick person should at least once, in a low tone, say the same words together with the Priest ; then the Priest, giving the Holy Eucharist to the sick person, says :

ACCIPE, frater, Vi- RECEIVE, brother, aticum corporis the Viaticum of the

[But if Communion is not given in the way of Viaticum, he says the ordinary words :

Corpus Domini nostri	The Body of our Lord
Jesu Christi custodiat ani-	Jesus Christ preserve thy nam tuam in vitam æter-	soul unto life everlasting.
nam. Amen.	Amen.]

If death be imminent and there be danger in delay, then all the other prayers are partly or wholly omitted ; and, the Confiteor being said, the Viaticum is administered at once.

The Priest then washes his fingers in silence, and the ablution is given to the sick person ; after which the Priest says :

V. Dominus vobiscum.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. And with thy spirit.

Oremus.

Let us pray.

DOMINE sancte, Pater omnipotens, æterne Deus, te fideliter deprecamur, ut accipienti fratri nostro sacrosanctum Corpus Domini nostri Jesu Christi Filii tui, tam corpori, quam animæ prosit ad remedium sempiternum. Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti, Deus, per omnia sæcula sæculorum.

OHOLY Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, we earnestly beseech Thee that the most sacred Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, which our brother hath now received, may be to him an eternal remedy both of body and soul. Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end.

R. Amen.

R. Amen.

After this prayer, if any particle of the Blessed Sacrament remains, the Priest genuflects, rises, and, taking the Blessed Sacrament in its receptacle, he makes with It the sign of the Cross over the sick person, in silence. If no particle remains, the Priest blesses with his hand, in the usual manner.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNICATING.

GLORY be to Thee, O Christ, Who hast vouchsafed to visit and refresh my poor soul with Thy sweetness. Now, O Lord, lettest Thou Thy Servant depart in peace, according to Thy word; for mine eyes have seen Thy Salvation. I hold Thee now, my Love and Sweetness, and will not let Thee go: I gladly bid farewell to the world and all therein; and now I come with joy, my God, to Thee. Henceforth nothing, O good Jesus, shall part me from Thee: I am joined to Thee, O Christ; I will live in Thee and die in Thee, and if Thou wilt, abide in Thee for ever. Now I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me. I am weary of my life; I desire to depart and to be with Christ; to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain. I will fear no evil as I walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death, for Thou, O Lord, art with me: as the hart panteth after the water-springs, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God; my soul hath thirsted after the strong Living God; when shall I come and appear before the Face of God? Bless me, most Loving Jesus, and let me now depart in peace, for I am Thine; and I will never let Thee go for ever. O that I were now joined to Thee in a blessed union for ever! O that I were wholly taken up, wholly absorbed and buried in Thee! O that my soul, resting sweetly in Thy Arms, were altogether taken up in Thee, and blissfully enjoyed Thee, my loving God ! What more have I to do with the world, my most loving Jesus ? Behold, there is none upon earth that I desire beside Thee. Into Thy hands, Lord Jesus, I commend my spirit. Receive me, my Love and Sweetness, that it may be well with me for ever, and that I may gently lay me down in peace in Thee, and take my rest. Amen.

The Sacrament of Extreme Unction.

UR Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, in His tender solicitude for those whom He has redeemed by His precious Blood, has been pleased to institute another Sacrament to help us at that most important hour on which eternity depends—the hour of death. This Sacrament is called Extreme Unction, or the Last Anointing.

Of this Sacrament St. James the Apostle thus speaks: Is any man sick among you? Let him call in the priests of the Church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save the sick man and the Lord will raise him up: and if he be in sins, they shall be forgiven him (v. 14, 15). These words show the great and salutary graces bestowed by this Sacrament.

The Priest, in administering this Sacrament, anoints the five principal senses of the body—the eyes, the ears, the nostrils, the lips, the hands—and the feet, because these may have been employed, during life, in offending God. At each anointing he pronounces these words: Through this holy unction, and of His most tender mercy, may the Lord pardon thee whatsoever sins thou hast committed by sight, hearing, etc.

The sick person should endeavor to prepare himself to receive this Sacrament by acts of sincere contrition for all his sins, by great confidence in the tender mercies of his Redeemer, and by a perfect resignation of himself to the holy will of God.

A PRAYER BEFORE EXTREME UNCTION.

O LORD, Who hast mercifully provided remedies for all our necessities ; grant me Thy grace so to use them that my soul may receive all those good effects which Thou didst intend in their institution. I desire now to be anointed, as Thou hast commanded by Thine Apostle. Grant, I beseech Thee, that by this holy Unction, and the prayers of the Church, I may partake of that spirit with which Christ suffered on the Cross, for Thy glory, and for the destruction of sin. Give me true patience to support all the pains and trouble of my sickness ; give me an inward strength to resist all the temptations of the enemy ; give me grace for the pardon of all my failings ; give me that true light, by which I may be conducted through the shadow of death to eternal happiness ; and if my health be expedient for Thy glory, let this be the means to restore it. Behold, I approach to this holy Ordinance with a firm faith and confidence in Thy goodness, that Thou wilt not forsake me in this time of my distress ; but that Thou wilt fortify me with Thy grace, and defend me from all evil, and prepare my soul for a happy eternity. Amen.

THE MANNER OF ADMINISTERING THE SACRAMENT OF EXTREME UNCTION.

On arriving at the place where the sick man lies, the Priest, with the holy oil, entering the chamber, says :

PAX huic domui.

R. Et omnibus habitantibus in ea.

PEACE be unto this house.

R. And unto all who dwell therein.

Then, after placing the oil on a table, being vested in a surplice and violet stole, he offers the sick man a crucifix piously to kiss ; after which he sprinkles both the chamber and the bystanders with holy water in the form of a cross, saying the Asperges as at p. 476.

Then he says :

ADJUTORIUM nostrum in nomine Domini.

R. Qui fecit cœlum et terram.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

OUR help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Oremus.

Let us pray.

Amen.

(These prayers, if time will not permit, may be either wholly or in part omitted.) After which is said the Confiteor, etc., as at p. 35.

(Before the Priest begins to anoint the sick person he admonishes the bystanders to pray for him; and, when it is convenient to do so, they recite for him the Penitential Psalms (p. 245), with Litanies or other prayers, while the Priest is administering the Sacrament of Extreme Unction.) Then he says:

DOMINE Deus, qui per Apostolum tuum Jacobum locutus es: Infirmatur quis in vobis? inducat presbyteros Ecclesiæ, et orent super eum, ungentes eum oleo in nomine Domini, et oratio fidei salvabit infirmum, et alleviabit eum Dominus; et si in peccatis sit, remittentur ei: cura, quæsumus, Redemptor noster, gratia Sancti Spiritus languores istius infirmi, ejusque sana vulnera, et dimitte peccata, atque dolores cunctos mentis et corporis ab eo expelle, plenamque interius et exterius sanitatem misericorditer redde, ut ope misericordiæ tuæ restitutus, ad pristina reparetur officia. Qui cum Patre et Spiritu Sancto vivis et regnas Deus in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

LORD God, who hast spoken by Thine Apostle James, saying: Is any man sick among you? Let him call in the priests of the Church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save the sick man, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he be in sins, they shall be forgiven him: cure, we beseech Thee, O our Redeemer, by the grace of the Holy Ghost, the ailments of this sick man; heal his wounds, and forgive his sins; drive out from him all pains of body and mind, and mercifully restore to him full health, both inwardly and outwardly: that, having recovered by the help of Thy loving-kindness, he may be enabled to return to his former duties. Who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

Oremus.

RESPICE, quæsumus, Domine, famulum tuum, N., infirmitate sui corporis fatiscentem, et animam refove quam creasti: ut castigationibus emendatus, se tua sentiat medicina salvatum. Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

Oremus.

DOMINE sancte, Pater omnipotens, æterne Deus, qui benedictionis tuæ gratiam ægris infundendo corporibus, facturam tuam multiplici pietate custodis: ad invocationem tui nominis benignus assiste, ut famulum tuum ab ægritudine liberatum et sanitate donatum dextera tua erigas, virtute confirmes, potestate tuearis, atque Ecclesiæ tuæ sanctæ cum omni desiderata prosperitate restituas. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Let us pray.

LOOK down, O Lord, we beseech Thee, upon Thy servant, N., languishing through bodily ailment, and refresh the soul which Thou hast created, that, being bettered by Thy chastisements, he may feel himself saved by Thy healing. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, who, by shedding Thy gracious blessing upon our failing bodies, dost preserve, by Thy manifold goodness, the work of Thy hands: graciously draw near at the invocation of Thy name, that, having freed Thy servant from sickness, and bestowed health upon him, Thou mayest raise him up by Thy right hand, strengthen him by Thy might, defend him by Thy power, and restore him to Thy holy Church, with all the prosperity he desires. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lastly, the Priest may add some short and salutary admonitions, according to the condition of the sick person, whereby he may be strengthened to die in the Lord, and to put to flight all the temptations of the Evil One.

A PRAYER AFTER EXTREME UNCTION.

O GOD, by whom I have been created, redeemed, and sanctified; who hast preserved me from many dangers, both of soul and body; who hast nourished me with the adorable Sacrament of Thy Body and Blood, and granted me the grace to receive the Rites of Thy Church, in preference to so many others who are carried off by sudden death; for these and all other blessings which I have received from Thee, I give Thee most humble and hearty thanks. And I beseech Blessed Mary, and all the Saints and Angels, with me and for me, to give thanks unto Thee for all Thy mercies. To Thee I resign my heart. Into Thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit. Receive me, O dear Jesus, in Thy mercy, into those loving arms, which were extended on the Cross for my Redemption, and admit me into the embraces of Thine infinite love. I desire not to be freed from my pains, since Thou knowest what is best for me. Suffer me never to murmur; but grant me patience to bear whatever Thou wilt, and as long as Thou wilt. Should it be Thy Will to inflict greater punishments on my weak body and languishing soul than those which I now suffer.

my heart is ready, O Lord, to accept them, and to suffer in whatever manner and whatever measure may be most conformable to Thy divine Will.

This one grace I most humbly beg of Thee, that I may die the death of the just, and be admitted, after the sufferings and tribulations of this transitory and sinful life, into the Kingdom of Thy Glory, there to see and enjoy Thee in the company of the Blessed for a never-ending eternity. Amen.

The Visitation of the Sick.

THE following prayers are left entirely to the discretion of the Priest. According to the time and the condition of the sick person, they may be said whole or in part, or altogether omitted. The Priest, entering the room in which the sick person lies, first says :

V. Peace be unto this house.

R. And unto all who dwell therein.

Then he sprinkles the sick person and the bed and the room with holy water, saying the Antiphon, Thou shalt sprinkle me, etc., as on p. 476.

He then administers to the sick person as circumstances require. Which done, or before he leaves the sick-room, he may say over the sick person any one of the first four Penitential Psalms (p. 245) or the Psalm Qui habitat (p. 71), adding the Glory be to the Father at the end. He then says :

LORD, have mercy.

R. Christ, have mercy.

V. Lord, have mercy. Our Father (inaudibly).

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

V. Save thy servant,

R. O my God, who putteth his trust in Thee.

V. Send him help, O Lord, from Thy holy place,

R. And defend him out of Sion.

V. Let not the enemy prevail against him,

R. Nor the son of iniquity draw nigh to hurt him.

V. Be unto him, O Lord, a tower of strength,

R. From the face of the enemy.

V. The Lord bring strength unto him

R. Upon his bed of pain.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer,

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

V. The Lord be with you,

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

O GOD, whose property is always to have mercy and to spare: graciously receive our supplication, that we, and this Thy servant, whom the chains of sin do hold in bondage, may by the compassion of Thy loving-kindness be mercifully absolved.

O God, the one only remedy for human infirmity, show forth upon this Thy sick servant the power of Thine aid, that, strengthened by the might of Thy tender mercy, he may be found worthy to be restored whole unto Thy holy Church.

Grant, O Lord God, we beseech Thee, that this Thy servant may rejoice in continual health of body and mind; and, through the glorious intercession of Blessed Mary, ever Virgin, be freed from his present sorrow, and enjoy eternal gladness. Through Christ our Lord.
R. Amen.

THE blessing of God Almighty, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Ghost, descend upon thee, and remain with thee always. R. Amen.

He then sprinkles the sick person with holy water.

The Priest may also say the Psalms, Gospels, and prayers which follow, according to the exigency of the time and the wish of the sick person.

Psalm 6, Domine, ne in furore, p. 245.

THE Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. The continuation of the Holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

When the Priest says, The continuation, etc., he makes the sign of the Cross in the usual manner upon his forehead, mouth, and breast; and also upon the sick man, if he cannot do thus for himself.

(But if the sick person is a woman, and unable to make the Crosses upon herself, let them be made by some other woman. And likewise in all such instances.)

*Matthew viii., p. 681, beginning at .

Let us pray.

ALmighty and Eternal God, the everlasting Health of them that believe: hear us for Thy sick servant, N., for whom we implore the aid of Thy pitying mercy, that, with his bodily health restored, he may give thanks to Thee in Thy church. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Psalm 15, Conserva me, Domine, p. 290.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. The continuation of the Holy Gospel according to Mark.

R. Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

*Mark xvi., p. 718, ending at .

Let us pray.

O GOD of the Heavenly Virtues, who from the bodies of men drivest forth all sickness and all infirmity by the power of Thy word : draw graciously nigh unto this Thy servant, N., that with weakness put to flight, and health and strength continually renewed, he may ever bless Thy Holy Name. R. Amen.

Psalm 19, Exaudiat te Dominus, p. 291.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. The continuation of the Holy Gospel according to Luke.

R. Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

Luke iv.

AT that time : Jesus rising up out of the synagogue, went into the house of Simon : and Simon's mother-in-law was taken with a great fever, and they besought Him for her. And standing over her, He commanded the fever, and it left her : and immediately she arose and ministered to them. And after sunset, all they who had any sick with various diseases brought them to Him : and He laid His hands on every one of them, and healed them.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Lord, Father Almighty, Everlasting God, who by the inpouring of the dignity of Thy power strengthenest the weakness of man's estate, that our bodies and minds may be quickened by the saving remedies of Thy loving-kindness : graciously incline unto this Thy servant, that, every strait of bodily infirmity being done away, the grace of former health may in him be perfectly restored. R. Amen.

Psalm 85, Inclina, Domine, p. 307.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. The continuation of the Holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

John v.

AT that time there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now there is at Jerusalem a pool, Probatica, which in Hebrew is named Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of infirm, blind, lame, withered, waiting for the stirring of the water. For an angel of the Lord descended at certain times into the pool, and the water was stirred; and he who went down first into the pond after the stirring of the water, was cured of whatever disease he had. And a certain man was there, who had an infirmity eight-and-thirty years. When Jesus saw him as he lay, and knew that he had been so a long time, He saith to him, Wilt thou be healed? The infirm man answered Him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is stirred, to put me into the pool; for whilst I am coming, another goeth down before me. Jesus saith to him, Arise, take up thy bed, and walk; and immediately the man was healed, and he took up his bed and walked. And on that day was the sabbath. The Jews therefore said to him who had been healed, It is the sabbath; it is not lawful for thee to take up thy bed. He answered them, He who healed me, He said to me, Take up thy bed and walk. They asked him therefore: Who is that man who said to thee, Take up thy bed and walk? But he who was healed knew not who it was; for Jesus had gone aside from the crowd standing in the place. Afterwards Jesus findeth him in the temple, and saith to him, Behold, thou art healed; sin no more, lest something worse befall thee.

Let us pray.

LOOK Thou down, O Lord, we beseech Thee, upon Thy servant, grievously stricken with bodily infirmity; and refresh the soul which Thou hast created, that, being bettered by Thy chastisements, he may without ceasing feel himself saved by Thy healing. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Psalm 90, Qui habitat, p. 71.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY, everlasting God, look graciously down upon the sickness of this Thy servant: and stretch forth the right hand of Thy majesty to help and defend him. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

At the end of this prayer the Priest places his right hand upon the head of the sick person, and says:

THEY shall lay their hands upon the sick, and they shall recover. May Jesus, the Son of Mary, the Lord and Redeemer of the world, through the merits and intercession of His holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all His Saints, be favorable and gracious unto thee. Amen.

He then says :

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. The beginning of the Holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

John i., p. 158.

He then blesses the sick person, adding :

THE blessing of God Almighty, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Ghost, descend upon thee and remain with thee always. R. Amen.

He then sprinkles the sick person with holy water.

If there are many sick in the same room, all the above prayers are said in the plural number. And all can be abbreviated at the will of the Priest.

The Last Blessing and Plenary Indulgence.

AS the hour of death approaches—that hour on which so much depends—the pious Christian should fervently prepare to receive the Last Blessing and Plenary Indulgence granted to those who are near their end. For our Lord Jesus Christ promised to St. Peter (Matt. xvi. 19) the keys of the kingdom of heaven; assuring him that whatever he should bind on earth should be bound also in heaven, and whatever he should loose on earth should be loosed also in heaven. By this power of binding and loosing, derived from St. Peter to his successors, and by them specially communicated to the pastors of souls, the latter are authorized to grant a Plenary Indulgence, together with a solemn Blessing, to all such as are in or near their last agony. But then the dying Christian should remember well that, in order to receive the benefit of this Plenary Indulgence and blessing, it is requisite that he concur on his part, by renouncing and detesting all his sins, both known and unknown, mortal and venial; by accepting with patience and resignation whatever he may have yet to suffer, and offering up his pains and death, in union with the sufferings and death of his Redeemer, in satisfaction for his sins.

To this end the Church directs the Priest who ministers to the sick person to put him in mind frequently to invoke the name of Jesus, and to exhort him :

1. That he firmly believe all the articles of the Faith, and whatever the holy Roman Catholic and Apostolic Church believes and teaches.

2. That he confidently hope that our Lord Jesus Christ, in

His boundless compassion, will have mercy on him : and that, by the merits of His most holy Passion, and through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the Saints, he will obtain everlasting life.

3. That he love the Lord God with all his heart, and that he desire to love Him more and more perfectly, with that love wherewith all the Saints and Blessed in heaven love Him.

4. That, for the love of God, he grieve from the heart for all offences whatsoever that he has committed against God and his neighbor.

5. That, for the love of God, he forgive from the heart his enemies, and all that have in any way injured him and done him wrong.

6. That he beg forgiveness of those whom he has at any time offended in word or deed.

7. That he patiently endure all the pains and discomfort of sickness, for God's sake, in penance for his sins.

8. That if God shall vouchsafe to restore him to his bodily health, he resolve henceforth, to the best of his power, to guard against sin, and to keep His commandments.

9. That, as far as he is able, he should say such prayers as these :

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Thy great mercy.—In Thee, O Lord, have I hoped : let me never be confounded.—Into Thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit : Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of truth.—Come unto my help, O God : O Lord, make haste to help me.—O Lord, be Thou unto me a God, a Protector.—O God, be merciful to me a sinner.—O sweetest Lord Jesus Christ, by the power of Thy most holy Passion, receive me into the number of Thine Elect.—O Lord Jesus Christ, receive my spirit.—O Mary, mother of grace, mother of mercy, do thou protect me from the enemy, and receive me at the hour of death.—O holy Angel of God, assist me as my Guardian.—O all ye holy Angels, and all ye Saints, intercede for me, and hasten to my aid.

THE FORM OF BESTOWING THE APOSTOLIC BLESSING AND THE PLENARY INDULGENCE AT THE HOUR OF DEATH.

The Priest having faculties to bestow this Apostolic Blessing enters the house, and says :

PAX huic domui.

R. Et omnibus habitantibus in ea.

PEACE be unto this house.

R. And unto all who dwell therein.

After which he sprinkles the sick person, the room, and the bystanders, with holy water in the form of a cross, saying the Asperges as on p. 112. He then hears the Confession of the sick person ; or if that be not necessary, bids him at least make an act of Contrition, and, if time allows, briefly instructs him concerning the efficacy and power of this Blessing. The Priest then exhorts him to bear his sufferings patiently, as an expiation for the sins of the past ; to offer himself wholly to God, prepared to cheerfully accept whatever may be His holy will, and to be ready to undergo death itself as a payment of the penalty due to his sins. Then with consoling words, the Priest bids him have great confidence in God, and to be assured that he will attain, through the riches of His exceeding bounty, a remission of temporal punishment, and the reward of everlasting life. The priest then says :

ADJUTORIUM nostrum in nomine Domini.

R. Qui fecit cœlum et terram.

Ant. Ne reminiscaris, Domine, delicta famuli tui neque vindictam sumas de peccatis ejus.

OUR help is in the name of the Lord.

EJACULATIONS TO JESUS SUFFERING.

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

GOOD Jesus ! Physician of souls and bodies ; make my sickness a healing medicine to my soul ; soothe by Thy presence each ache and pain ; hallow my suffering by Thine all-holy Suffering ; teach me to unite my sufferings with Thine, to be hallowed by Thine.

Lord, offer all my sufferings to Thy Father, as Thou didst offer all Thine Agonies to Him.

O Good Jesus, crucified for us ; nail my will to Thy Cross, for love of Thee.

Good Jesus, give me a deep love for Thee, that nothing may be too hard for me to bear from Thee.

Good Jesus, Who hast borne the Cross for me, what cross wilt Thou that I should bear for Thee?

Thou knowest, Lord, that I am all weakness ; teach me to bear my cross. Bear it for me, bear it in me.

Lord, strengthen me to bear my cross patiently, humbly, lovingly. If I sink under it, look on me and raise me up. Give what Thou commandest, and command what Thou wilt. Only by Thine all-holy Cross and Passion, sanctify my cross to me, and keep me Thine for ever.

Good Jesus, nailed motionless by Thy sacred Hands and Feet for love of me ; keep me still, motionless, unmoved, unshaken, cleaving fast to Thee.

O Good Jesus, my God, and my All, keep me ever near Thee, let nothing for a moment separate me from Thee.

Good Jesus, to Thee I flee ; hide me in Thy sacred Side.

O Good Jesus, who keepest Thine own under the shadow of Thy wings ; teach me to flee to Thee, and hide me from all evil.

O Good Jesus, shelter me from the evil one, shed Thy dew upon me to calm my soul, and dwell in me fully, that I may wholly love Thee.

Good Jesus, Strength of the weary, Rest of the Restless ; by the weariness and unrest of Thy sacred Cross, come to me who am weary that I may rest in Thee.

Lord, if Thou increase my pain, increase also my patience. Thou knowest my weakness.

Good Jesus, Who hast borne so patiently with me ; make me wholly patient for love of Thee.

O Good Jesus, obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross for me ; Good Jesus, mocked and blasphemed for love of us ; make me truly humble for love of Thee.

O Blessed Jesus, into Thy hands I commend my soul and my body, to live or to die as seemeth good to Thee, and to Thine infinite mercy ; for Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, Thou God of truth !

Good Lord, teach me to judge myself as Thou judgest. Make me more ashamed of sin than of all besides : yet not so ashamed as not quickly to come to Thee, O All-merciful, All-loving Lord.

Good Jesus ! by Thy Loneliness in the Garden, by the Desolation Thou didst will to come over Thee, sanctify mine.

Good Jesus, Who alone orderest all things well, I cast myself wholly upon Thine infinite undeserved love ; I trust Thee with my all ; myself, and all whom I love, and all which I desire, my present and my future, my hopes and my fears, my time and my eternity, my joys and my sorrows. Deal with me as Thou wilt, and knowest best ; only bind me safe to Thine everlasting love.

Good Jesus ! who didst give Thyself for me, give Thyself to me ; make me wholly Thine, that I may deeply love Thee.

Good Jesus ! stripped naked, racked, reviled, forsaken, motionless on the Cross for love of me ; help me to bear all pain meekly, in humble love of Thee. Strip me, empty me of myself, to fill me with love of Thee.

Good Jesus, lead me that I may follow Thee ; hold me that I may cling fast to Thee ; teach me, that I may choose Thee alone ; keep me, that I may be Thine for ever.

Jesus, most tender, Thou hast been very tender to me ; make me very tender to all and of all who are Thine, for the love of Thy most tender love.

O Good Jesus, who hast so loved us ; pour Thy love into my soul, that I may love Thee intensely, and all besides in and for Thee. Amen.

O ETERNAL Father ! I am Thy most unworthy servant, whom Thou hast so loved that Thou gavest Thy dearly-beloved Son to die for me. Deal mercifully with Thy servant in this hour, lest that precious Blood be shed for me in vain. For what profit is there to me in my Saviour's Blood, if I go down to corruption ?

O Jesus Christ, I am like that lost sheep whom Thou didst seek so diligently, and set it on Thy shoulders to bring it home again. Thou art the Good Shepherd, who didst lay down Thy life for Thy sheep. Oh ! seek Thy servant, for I have gone astray like a sheep that is lost. Let not that roaring lion, that goeth about seeking whom he may devour, snatch me and tear me from Thee ; save me upon the Cross, take me into Thy loved embrace and draw my soul to Thee ; receive me, Good Jesus, of Thy mercy ; receive my soul in peace.

Enlighten mine eyes, O Good Jesus, that I sleep not in death ; lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him.

O Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God, set Thy Passion, Cross, and Death, between Thy judgment and my soul.

O Good Jesus, remember not my old sins, but have mercy upon me and that soon, for I am come to great misery.

O most sweet Lord Jesus Christ, for the honor and virtue of Thy blessed Passion, bid me be written among the number of Thine Elect.

Enter not into judgment with Thy servant, most compassionate Jesus, for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

One thing have I asked of the Lord, this will I seek after : that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks unto Thy name : lo, the just wait for me till Thou recompense me.

Oh ! establish me according to Thy word, that I may live, and let me not be disappointed of my hope.
Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE FAITHFUL IN THEIR AGONY. (i)

O MOST merciful Jesus, Lover of souls ; I pray Thee, by the agony of Thy most Sacred Heart, and by the sorrows of Thy Immaculate Mother, cleanse in Thine own Blood the sinners of the whole world who are now in their agony and who are to die this day. Amen.

Heart of Jesus, once in agony, pity the dying.

RECOMMENDATION OF A DEPARTING SOUL.

The Priest, vested in surplice and violet stole, enters the room of the dying person, saying :

PAX huic domui.

R. Et omnibus habitantibus in ea.

PEACE be unto this house.

R. And unto all who dwell therein.

He then sprinkles the dying person, the chamber, and the bystanders, with holy water in the form of a cross, saying the Asperges as at p. 112. He next presents a crucifix to the dying person to be kissed, and exhorts him to look forward to everlasting life; leaving the crucifix before him, that, beholding it, he may be encouraged to hope for eternal salvation. Then, having lighted a candle, the Priest kneels, and with the bystanders devoutly recites the Shorter Litany, as follows :

COMMENDO te omnipotenti Deo, charissime frater, et ei, cujus es creatura, committo; ut cum humanitatis debitum morte interveniente persolveris, ad Auctorem tuum, qui te de limo terræ formaverat, revertaris. Egredienti itaque animæ tuæ de corpore, splendidus Angelorum cœtus occurrat: judex Apostolorum tibi senatus adveniat; candidatorum tibi Martyrum triumphator exercitus obviet; liliata rutilantium te Confessorum turma circumdet; jubilantium te Virginum chorus excipiat; et beatæ quietis in sinu Patriarcharum te complexus astringat; mitis atque festivus Christi Jesu tibi aspectus appareat, qui te inter assistentes sibi ju-

I COMMEND thee to Almighty God, dearly beloved brother, and commit thee to Him whose creature thou art; that, when thou shalt have paid the debt of humanity by passing through death, thou mayest return to thy Maker, who formed thee from the dust of the earth. When, therefore, thy soul goeth forth from thy body, may the glorious company of Angels meet thee; may the council of the Apostles who shall judge the world greet thee; may the triumphant army of white-robed Martyrs come out to welcome thee; may the band of shining Confessors, crowned with lilies, encircle thee; may the choir of joyous Virgins giter interesse decernat. Ignores omne quod horret in tenebris, quod stridet in flammis, quod cruciat in tormentis. Cedat tibi terribissimus Satanas cum satellitibus suis: in adventu tuo te comitantibus Angelis contremiscat, atque in æternæ noctis chaos immane diffugiat. Exurgat Deus, et dissipentur inimici ejus; et fugiant qui oderunt eum, a facie ejus. Sicut deficit fumus, deficient; sicut fluit cera a facie ignis, sic pereant peccatores a facie Dei; et justi epulentur, et exultent in conspectu Dei. Confundantur igitur et erubescant omnes tartaræ legiones, et ministri Satanæ iter tuum impedire non audeant. Liberet te a cruciatu Christus, qui pro te crucifixus est. Liberet te ab æterna morte Christus, qui pro te mori dignatus est. Constituat te Christus, Filius Dei vivi, intra paradisi sui semper amœna virentia, et inter oves suas te verus ille Pas-receive thee; and unto the bosom of blessed rest may the embrace of the Patriarchs clasp thee; gentle and joyful may the Face of Jesus Christ appear to thee, and may He award thee a place among those who stand before Him for ever. Mayest thou never know aught of the terror of darkness, the gnashing of teeth in the flames, the agonies of torment. May Satan most foul, with his wicked crew, give way before thee; may he tremble at thy coming with the Angels that attend thee, and flee away into the vast chaos of eternal night. Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered; and let them that hate Him flee from before His face. As smoke vanisheth, so let them vanish away; as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God; and let the just feast and rejoice before God. May, then, all the legions of hell be con-

tor agnoscat. Ille ab omnibus peccatis tuis te absolvat ; atque ad dexteram suam in electorum suorum te sorte constituat. Redemptorem tuum facie ad faciem videas, et præsens semper assistens, manifestissimam beatis oculis aspicias veritatem. Constitutus igitur inter agmina beatorum, contemplationis divinæ dulcedine potiaris in sæcula sæculorum.

May Christ, who vouchsafed to die for thee, deliver thee from everlasting death. May Christ, the Son of the living God, place thee within the green pastures of His paradise, and may He, the true Shepherd, acknowledge thee as one of His sheep. May He absolve thee from all thy sins, and set thee at His right hand in the portion of His elect. Mayest thou behold thy Redeemer face to face ; and, standing ever before Him, gaze with blessed eyes on the Truth made manifest. And set thus among the choirs of the Blessed, mayest thou enjoy the sweetness of divine contemplation for ever more. R. Amen.

Psalm 118, p. 39.

THREE DEVOUT PRAYERS USEFUL FOR THE DYING.

To be recited with three Our Fathers, and three Hail Marys in the agony of death. First is said:

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Our Father. Hail Mary.

Let us pray.

O LORD JESUS CHRIST, by Thy most sacred Agony and by the prayer which Thou didst pour forth for us on the Mount of Olives, where Thy sweat became as drops of blood running down upon the earth, I beseech Thee to offer up the many drops of Thy bloody sweat, which in Thy fearful anguish Thou didst most abundantly shed for us, and graciously to present them to Thy Almighty Father, to be set against the many sins of this Thy servant N., and mercifully deliver him in this hour of his death from all the pains and sufferings which he fears he may justly have deserved for his sins. Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest, God, world without end. R. Amen.

A second time is said :

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Our Father, Hail Mary.

O LORD Jesus Christ, who didst vouchsafe to die upon the Cross for us, I beseech Thee to offer up to Thy Almighty Father all the bitter pains and sufferings which Thou didst endure for us upon the Cross, especially in that hour when Thy most holy Soul quitted Thy most sacred Body ; and present them in behalf of this Thy servant N., and deliver him in this hour of death from all the pains and sufferings which he fears he may justly have deserved for his sins. Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest God, world without end. R. Amen.

A third time is said :

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Our Father, Hail Mary.

O LORD Jesus Christ, who by the mouth of Thy Prophet hast said: With everlasting love I have loved thee : therefore have I drawn thee graciously : I beseech Thee to offer up this same love which drew Thee down from Heaven to earth, there to endure all the bitterness of Thy Passion, and present it to Thy Almighty Father for the soul of this Thy servant N., and deliver him from all the pains and sufferings which he fears he has deserved for his sins. And save his soul in this hour of his departure. Open unto him the gates of life, and make him to rejoice with Thy saints in glory everlasting. And do Thou, O most merciful Lord Jesus Christ, who hast redeemed us by Thy most Precious Blood, have mercy on the soul of this Thy servant, and vouchsafe to introduce him into the ever green and pleasant places of Paradise, that he may live unto Thee in undivided love, and never be separated from Thee and Thine Elect. Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost ever livest and reignest God, world without end. R. Amen.

THE LAST AGONY.

When the soul is about to depart from the body then more than ever ought they who are by to pray earnestly around the dying person's bed; and if he be unable to speak, the Holy Name of JESUS should constantly be invoked, and such words as the following again and again repeated in his ear:

INTO Thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.—O Lord Jesus Christ, receive my spirit.—Holy Mary, pray for me.—O Mary, mother of grace, mother of mercy, do thou protect me from the enemy, and receive me at the hour of death.

When the soul has departed, the following Responsory may be said:

SUBVENITE Sancti COME to his assist-Dei; occurrite An- ance, ye Saints of geli Domini,* Suscipientes God, come forth to meet animam ejus, * Offerentes eam in conspectu Altissimi.

V. Suscipiat te Chris-tus, qui vocavit te, et in si-num Abrahæ Angeli deducant te.

R. Suscipientes, etc.

Let us pray.

TIBI, Domine, commendamus animam famuli tui, N., ut defunctus sæculo tibi vivat, et quæ per fragilitatem humanæ conversationis peccata commisit, tu venia misericordissimæ pietatis absterge. Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

R. Amen.

TO Thee, O Lord, do we commend the soul of Thy servant, N., that being dead to the world he may live unto Thee; and whatsoever sins he has committed through the frailty of his mortal nature, do Thou, by the pardon of Thy most merciful love, wash away. R. Amen.

Meanwhile, according to the custom of the place, let the Passing-Bell be rung, reminding all who hear it to pray for the Christian soul. Then let the body be decently laid out, with lighted candles near. Let a small cross be placed upon the breast, between the hands, or else let the hands themselves be folded one upon another, in the form of a cross. The body is sprinkled with holy water, and thenceforward until the time of burial, let all who are present pray for the repose of the departed soul.

PRAYERS FOR THE USE OF MOURNERS.

O ALMIGHTY God, who knowest the weakness and frailty of our nature : We beseech Thee to give unto us, Thy servants, whom Thou hast stricken with this sorrow, such measure of Thy grace as shall enable us to bear it with humility, resignation, and submission to Thy divine will. Grant that no impatient murmuring or repining thoughts may find a place in our hearts : that we may not sorrow as those who have no hope. Let not our grief exceed the bounds of reason and religion ; but so temper it, we beseech Thee, with the consolations of Thy Holy Spirit, that whatever we may want in outward consolation, we may find in the inward rest of perfect submission to Thy holy will, and unshaken trust in Thy loving mercy ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father, who lovest those whom Thou chastisest, and turnest away Thine anger from us, look down in pity upon our distress and sorrow, and grant that the affliction which it has pleased Thee to bring on us may be a means of drawing us nearer to Thee. Strengthen us, O Lord, that we may not languish in fruitless and unavailing sorrow, but by the assistance of Thy Holy Spirit, may truly repent, meekly submit, and effectually be comforted ; that we may obtain that peace which the world cannot give, and pass the rest of our life in humble resignation and cheerful obedience. Teach us to set our affections on things above, not on things of earth ; on those joys which never fade, the pleasures that are at Thy right hand for evermore. Amen.

O ALMIGHTY God, Judge of the living and the dead, so fit and prepare us, we beseech Thee, by Thy grace, for that last account which we must one day give ; that when the time of our appointed change shall come, we may look up to Thee with joy and comfort, and may at last be received together with him whom Thou hast now taken from us, and with all that are near and dear to us, into that place of rest and peace where Thou shalt Thyself wipe away all tears from all eyes, and where all our troubles and sorrows shall have an end, through the merits and for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Blessed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

AN ACT OF FAITH. TAKEN FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE.

I BELIEVE, O God, that my time is in Thy hand. That going through the vale of misery, I may draw waters with joy out of the fountains of Salvation.

That they that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

That blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.

That in all our affliction Christ is afflicted, and that the Angel of His presence saveth us.

That in the evening weeping may have place, but in the morning gladness.

That Christ will not leave us orphans.

That as one whom his mother caresseth, so will the Lord comfort us.

That our present tribulation, which is momentary and light, worketh for us above measure exceedingly an eternal weight of glory.

That as a Father hath pity upon his children, so hath the Lord pity upon us.

That a sabbath rest remaineth for the people of God.

That He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their bruises.

That His good Spirit shall lead us into the right land.

That the God of all consolation comforteth us in all our tribulation : that we ourselves also may be able to comfort those who are in all tribulation, by the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

That she who is a widow indeed and desolate, let her trust in God, and continue in supplications and prayers night and day.

That we have a great cloud of witnesses above us.

That in our Father's House there are many mansions.

That He hath there prepared a place for us.

That though we should walk in the midst of the shadow of death we fear no evils, for He is with us.

That God is our God unto eternity, and for ever and ever : He shall rule us for evermore.

That death is swallowed up in victory.

That we may not sorrow as others who have no hope.

That this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal put on immortality.

That as by a man came death, so by a Man came the Resurrection of the dead.

That Christ will reform our vile body conformably to His glorious Body.

That if our earthly house, this tent, be destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not built with hands, everlasting in the heavens.

That what is mortal shall be swallowed up by life.

That we shall be like Christ, because we shall see Him as He is.

That His Saints in Paradise shall not hunger nor thirst any more : for the Lamb that is in the midst of the Throne will rule them, and lead them to the fountains of the waters of life.

That God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes : and death shall be no more, nor mourning, nor wailing, nor sorrow shall be any more, for the former things are passed away.

That heaven and earth will pass away, but His words will not pass away.

That He cometh quickly, Amen. Come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

PRAYERS IN GREAT SORROW.

O MOST Mighty, most merciful Father, have mercy on me ; have mercy on me, Good Lord. O do Thou bear me up, succor me, strengthen me in my hour of tribulation. Thou hast smitten me to the dust. Thou hast sorely afflicted me ; my heart fainteth within me, I am brought very low. I know not, O Lord, how to bear such sorrow : I am overwhelmed with grief. I fly to Thee for help, for Thou alone canst give me help. Help me, O Father, help me, and that soon ; help me for Thy mercies' sake. Make haste to help me for Thy dear Son's sake, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O ALMIGHTY God, I fall down before Thee in the agony of my soul. Thou hast taken my beloved one from mine eyes, I have none to help me, my heart is desolate. O comfort me, for I am very greatly troubled. Teach me, O God, in this awful hour of affliction, in this great bereavement, in this most bitter day, to have patience and Christian resignation. Teach me to bow meekly to Thy will, that my affliction may not utterly break me down, that I may be able to bear it. Thou knowest my sufferings, my sorrows, my tears; look upon me and succor me. Enable me to bear this weight of trial, for of myself I am unable to bear it. O pity me, Good Lord; pity me, most Gracious Father: for Christ's sake turn Thou Thy face towards me, and mercifully accept my prayer. Amen.

O LORD God, who correctest those whom Thou dost love, teach me in this sore trial, this dark day of very heavy chastisement, to know Thy love. Lord, I believe that Thou lovest me; help Thou mine unbelief. Teach me to see Thy love, though Thou seemest to turn Thy Face from me. Increase Thy love towards me, O God, now that Thou hast smitten me, lest I be consumed; have pity upon me, speak consolation to my soul. Give me of Thy comfort, for what can I do, whither can I turn, O Lord? Thou only, Who hast afflicted, can comfort me; I have none beside Thee. I come to Thee in my loneliness, my desolation of heart, my anguish. Hold Thou me up; give me of Thy love; I kneel at Thy feet, I cast myself down before Thee; weeping do I beseech Thee to receive my prayer for Jesus' sake. Amen.

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF PITY.⁽¹⁾

KNEELING at thy holy feet, O gracious Queen of Heaven! we offer thee our deepest reverence. We confess that thou art the daughter of the Eternal Father, the mother of the Divine Word, and the spouse of the Holy Ghost. Full of grace, of virtue, and of heavenly gifts, thou art the chaste temple of the Holy Trinity. With thee are treasured God's mercies, and thou, too, dost dispense them. And since thy loving heart is filled with charity, sweetness, and tender compassion for us poor sinners, we call thee Mother of holy Pity. With the greatest trust, then, do we come to thee in this our sorrow and distress. We beg that thou wouldst make us confide in thy love, by granting us [Here mention your request], if it be God's will, and for the welfare of our souls. Cast, then, thine eyes of pity upon us and upon all our kindred. That we may not perish, shield us from the attacks of the world, the flesh, and the devil, that continually assail us. Remember, O fondest of mothers, that we are thy children, purchased with the precious blood of thy Divine Son. Pray, without ceasing, that the Adorable Trinity may give us the grace ever to be victorious over the devil, the world, and our unhallowed passions; that grace by which the just grow in holiness, sinners are converted, and heresy destroyed; by which the unbeliever is enlightened, and the Jews brought to the true religion. Bestow upon us this boon, O most pure Virgin, through the infinite bounty of the Most High, through the merits of thy Son, by the care with which thou didst nourish Him, by the devotion with which thou didst serve Him, by the love with which thou didst cherish Him, by thy tears and anguish endured in His holy Passion. Obtain for us the great favor that the whole world may be made one people and one Church, which shall give thanks, praise, and glory to the most Holy Trinity, and to thee who art Its mediator.

May the power of the Father, the wisdom of the Son, and the virtue of the Holy Ghost, grant us this blessing. Amen.

Our Father. Hail Mary.

The Burial of the Dead.

[The parts within brackets refer to solemn obsequies.]

The Priest, being vested in a surplice and black stole (or in a cope also), meets the corpse at the church door. Standing at its feet, he sprinkles it with holy water, and then says the Antiphon :

I iniquitates
observaveris,
Domine ; Do-
mine, quis
sustinebit ?

IF Thou, O Lord,
wilt mark ini-quities ; Lord, who shall abide
it ?

PSALM 129. De Profundis (p. 253).

After each Psalm is said :

Requiem æternam dona ei, Domine ; et lux perpe-tua luceat ei.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord ; and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Ant. Si iniquitates ob-servaveris, Domine ; Domine, quis sustinebit ?

Ant. If Thou, O Lord,
wilt mark iniquities ; Lord,
who shall abide it ?

The body is then borne into the Church, meanwhile the Priest recites the following

EXULTABUNT Domini- THE bones that were no ossa humiliata. humbled shall rejoice in the Lord.

PSALM 50. Miserere (p. 249).

Ant. Exultabunt Domini- Ant. The bones that no ossa humiliata. were humbled shall rejoice in the Lord.

Then is said the Subvenite, as on p. 531.

The Bier is then set at the head of the nave of the Church, with the feet of the corpse, if a lay person, towards the Altar, but with the head turned thereto if a Priest. Lighted candles are placed about the Bier, and forthwith (when it is to be said) is begun the

* NOTE.—When neither Office nor Mass is said, pass on to p. 581.

PSALM 94.

O COME, let us exult in the Lord ; let us rejoice before God our Saviour ; let us come into His presence with thanksgiving, and rejoice before Him with psalms.

The King, unto whom all live : O come, let us worship Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods ; for the Lord doth not repel His people, for in His hand are all the ends of the earth ; and the heights of the mountains He beholdeth also.

O come, let us worship Him.

For the sea is His, and He made it, and His hands formed the dry land ; O come, let us worship and fall down ; and weep before the Lord that made us, for He is the Lord our God ; and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand.

The King, unto whom all live : O come, let us worship Him.

To-day, if ye shall hear His voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, and in the day of temptation in the wilderness ; where your fathers tempted Me, proved Me, and saw My works.

O come, let us worship Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart, and they have not known My ways : so I swear in My wrath that they shall not enter into My rest.

The King, unto whom all live : O come, let us worship Him.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

O come, let us worship Him.

The King, unto whom all live : O come, let us worship Him.

THE FIRST NOCTURN.*

Antiphon. Direct, O Lord my God, my way in Thy sight.

PSALM 5.

GIVE ear, O Lord, unto my words : understand my cry.

Hearken unto the voice of my prayer : O my King and my God.

For unto Thee will I pray, O Lord : in the morning Thou shalt hear my voice.

In the morning I will stand before Thee, and will see : for Thou art not a God that willest iniquity.

Neither shall the wicked dwell near Thee : nor shall the unjust abide before Thine eyes.

Thou hatest all the workers of iniquity : Thou wilt destroy all that speak a lie.

The bloody and the deceitful man : the Lord will abhor.

But as for me I will come into Thy house in the multitude of Thy mercy : in Thy fear will I worship towards Thy holy temple.

Lead me, O Lord, in Thy justice : because of mine enemies direct my way in Thy sight.

For there is no truth in their mouth : their heart is vain.

* NOTE.—When only one Nocturn of Matins is said, this First Nocturn is usually taken.

Their throat is an open sepulchre, they dealt deceitfully with their tongues : judge them, O God.

Let them fall from their devices ; according to the multitude of their iniquities cast them out : for they have provoked Thee, O Lord.

But let all them that hope in Thee be glad : they shall rejoice for ever, and Thou shalt dwell in them.

And all they that love Thy name shall glory in Thee : for Thou wilt bless the just.

O Lord, Thou hast crowned us : as with a shield of Thy good will.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Direct, O Lord my God, my way in Thy sight.

Ant. Turn Thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul ; for in death there is no one that is mindful of Thee.

PSALM 6, p. 245.

Ant. Turn Thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul ; for in death there is no one that is mindful of Thee.

Ant. Lest at any time he seize upon my soul like a lion ; while there is no one to redeem me, nor to save.

PSALM 7.

O LORD my God, in Thee have I put my trust : save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me.

Lest at any time he seize upon my soul like a lion : while there is no one to redeem me, nor to save.

O Lord my God, if I have done this thing : if there be iniquity in my hands :

If I have made a return to them that did evils to me : let me deservedly fall empty before mine enemies.

Let the enemy pursue my soul, and take it, and tread down my life on the earth : and bring down my glory to the dust.

Rise up, O Lord, in Thine anger : and be Thou exalted in the borders of mine enemies.

And arise, O Lord my God, in the precept which Thou hast commanded : and a congregation of people shall surround Thee.

And for their sakes return Thou on high : the Lord judgeth the people.

Judge me, O Lord, according to my justice : and according to my innocence in me.

The wickedness of sinners shall be brought to naught, and Thou shalt direct the just : O God who searchest the hearts and reins.

Just is my help from the Lord : who saveth the upright of heart.

God is a just judge, strong and patient : is He angry every day ?

Except ye be converted, He will brandish His sword : He hath bent His bow, and made it ready.

And in it He hath prepared the instruments of death : He hath made ready His arrows for them that burn.

Behold, he hath been in travail with injustice : he hath conceived sorrow, and brought forth iniquity.

He hath opened a pit and dug it : and he is fallen into the hole that he hath made.

His sorrow shall be turned on his own head : and his wickedness shall come down upon his own pate.

I will give glory to the Lord according to His justice : and will sing to the name of the Lord Most High.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Lest at any time he seize upon my soul like a lion ; while there is no one to redeem me, nor to save.

V. From the gate of hell.

R. Deliver their souls, O Lord.

Our Father (inaudibly).

THE FIRST LESSON. Job 7.

SPARE me, O Lord, for my days are nothing. What is a man that Thou shouldst magnify him ? or why dost Thou set Thy heart upon him ? Thou visitest him early in the morning, and Thou provest him suddenly. How long wilt Thou not spare me, nor suffer me to swallow down my spittle ? I have sinned, what shall I do to Thee, O Keeper of men ? why hast Thou set me opposite to Thee, and I am become burdensome to myself ? Why dost Thou not remove my sin, and why dost Thou not take away mine iniquity ? Behold, now I shall sleep in the dust : and if Thou seek me in the morning, I shall not be.

R. I believe my Redeemer liveth, and that in the last day I shall rise from the earth : And in my flesh I shall see God my Saviour.

V. Whom I myself shall see, and not another, and mine eyes shall behold.

And in my flesh, etc.

THE SECOND LESSON. Job 10.

MY soul is weary of my life, I will let go my speech against myself, I will speak in the bitterness of my soul. I will say to God : Do not condemn me :

tell me why Thou judgest me so. Doth it seem good to Thee that Thou shouldst crush me, and oppress me, the work of Thy own hands, and help the counsel of the wicked? Hast Thou eyes of flesh : or seest Thou as man seeth? Are Thy days as the days of man, and are Thy years as the times of men : that Thou shouldst inquire after my iniquity, and search after my sin? And Thou knowest that I have done no wicked thing, whereas there is no man that can deliver out of Thy hand.

R. Thou who didst raise the dead Lazarus from the grave : Do Thou, O Lord, grant them rest and a place of forgiveness.

V. Thou who art to come to judge the living and the dead, and the world by fire.

Do Thou, O Lord, etc.

THE THIRD LESSON. Job 10.

THY hands have made me, and fashioned me wholly round about, and dost Thou thus cast me down headlong on a sudden? Remember, I beseech Thee, that Thou hast made me as the clay, and Thou wilt bring me into dust again. Hast Thou not pressed me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese? Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh : Thou hast put me together with bones and sinews : Thou hast granted me life and mercy, and Thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

R. O Lord, when Thou shalt come to judge the earth, where shall I hide myself from the face of Thy wrath? For I have sinned greatly in my life.

V. I dread my misdeeds, and blush before Thee : condemn me not, when Thou shalt come to judge.

For I have sinned greatly in my life.

V. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

For I have, etc.

Here Lauds (p. 562) are recited when only the first Nocturn is said.

THE SECOND NOCTURN.

Ant. He hath set me in a place of pasture.

PSALM 22.

THE Lord ruleth me, and I shall want nothing :
He hath set me in a place of pasture.

He hath brought me to the waters of refreshment :
He hath converted my soul.

He hath led me on the paths of justice : for His own name's sake.

For though I should walk in the midst of the shadow of death, I fear no evils : for Thou art with me.

Thy rod and Thy staff : they have comforted me.

Thou hast prepared a table before me : against them that afflict me.

Thou hast anointed my head with oil : and my cup which inebriateth me, how goodly it is !

And Thy mercy will follow me : all the days of my life.

And that I may dwell in the house of the Lord : unto length of days.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. He hath set me in a place of pasture.

Ant. Remember not, O Lord, the sins of my youth, and mine ignorances.

PSALM 24.

TO Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul. In Thee, O my God, I put my trust ; let me not be ashamed.

Neither let mine enemies laugh at me : for none that wait on Thee shall be confounded.

Let all them be confounded : that transgress without cause.

Show me Thy ways, O Lord : and teach me Thy paths.

Direct me in Thy truth, and teach me : for Thou art God my Saviour, and on Thee have I waited all the day long.

Call to remembrance, O Lord, Thy compassion : and Thy mercies which are of old.

Remember Thou not the sins of my youth, and mine ignorances :

According to Thy mercy remember Thou me : for Thy goodness' sake, O Lord.

The Lord is sweet and righteous : therefore He will give a law to sinners in the way.

The meek will He guide in judgment : the gentle He will teach His ways.

All the ways of the Lord are mercy and truth : unto such as seek after His covenant and His testimonies.

For Thy name's sake, O Lord, Thou wilt pardon my sin : for it is great.

Who is the man that feareth the Lord ? He hath appointed him a law in the way he hath chosen.

His soul shall dwell in good things : and his seed shall inherit the land.

The Lord is a support to them that fear Him : and His covenant that it may be manifest unto them.

Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord : for He shall pluck my feet out of the snare.

Look Thou upon me, and have mercy on me : for I am alone and poor.

The troubles of my heart are multiplied : deliver me out of my necessities.

Look upon my lowliness and my labor : and forgive me all my sins.

Consider mine enemies, for they are multiplied : and have hated me with an unjust hatred.

Keep Thou my soul, and deliver me : I shall not be ashamed, for I have hoped in Thee.

The innocent and the upright have cleaved unto me : because I have waited on Thee.

Deliver Israel, O God : out of all his troubles.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Remember not, O Lord, the sins of my youth, and mine ignorances.

Ant. I believe that I shall see the good things of the Lord in the land of the living.

PSALM 26.

THE Lord is my light and my salvation : whom shall I fear ?

The Lord is the protector of my life : of whom shall I be afraid ?

Whilst the wicked draw near against me : to eat my flesh.

Mine enemies that trouble me: have themselves been weakened, and have fallen.

If armies in camp should stand together against me : my heart shall not fear.

If battle should rise up against me : in this will I be confident.

One thing have I asked of the Lord, this will I seek after : that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

That I may see the delight of the Lord : and may visit His temple.

For He hath hidden me in His tabernacle : in the day of evils, He hath protected me in the secret place of His tabernacle.

He hath set me up upon a rock : and now He hath lifted up my head above mine enemies.

I have gone round and have offered up in His tabernacle a sacrifice of praise : I will sing and speak praise unto the Lord.

Hear, O Lord, my voice, with which I have cried unto Thee : have mercy on me, and hear me.

My heart hath said to Thee : My face hath sought Thee : Thy face, O Lord, will I seek.

Hide not Thy face from me : turn not in Thy wrath from Thy servant.

Be Thou my helper, forsake me not : neither despise me, O God my Saviour.

For my father and my mother have forsaken me : but the Lord hath taken me up.

Set me, O Lord, a law in Thy way : and guide me in the right path, because of mine enemies.

Deliver me not over to the will of them that trouble me: for unjust witnesses have risen up against me, and iniquity hath lied to itself.

I believe that I shall see the good things of the Lord in the land of the living.

Wait on the Lord, do manfully, and let thy heart take courage: and wait thou on the Lord.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. I believe that I shall see the good things of the Lord in the land of the living.

V. May the Lord set them with princes.

R. Even with the princes of His people.

Our Father (inaudibly).

THE FOURTH LESSON. Job 13.

DO Thou answer me: how many are my iniquities and sins; make me know my crimes and offences. Why hidest Thou Thy face, and thinkest me Thy enemy? Against a leaf that is carried away with the wind Thou showest Thy power; and Thou pursuest dry stubble. For Thou writest bitter things against me, and consumest me for the sins of my youth. Thou hast put my feet in the stocks, and Thou observest all my paths, and considerest the steps of my feet: who am to be consumed as rottenness, and as a garment that is moth-eaten.

R. Remember me, O God, because my life is as a breath: Nor may the sight of man behold me.

V. Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Nor may, etc.

THE FIFTH LESSON. Job 14.

MAN born of a woman, living for a short time, is filled with many miseries. He cometh forth like a flower, and is destroyed, and fleeth as a shadow, and never continueth in the same state. And dost Thou think it meet to open Thy eyes upon such a one, and to bring him into judgment with Thee? Who can make him clean that is conceived of unclean seed? Is it not Thou only? The days of man are short, and the number of his months is with Thee: Thou hast appointed his bounds, which cannot be passed. Depart a little from him, that he may rest, until his wished-for day come, as that of the hireling.

R. Woe is me, O Lord, because I have sinned greatly in my life: what shall I do, wretch that I am? whither shall I fly but unto Thee, O my God? Have mercy on me when Thou comest at the latter day.

V. My soul is sore troubled; but Thou, O Lord, succor it.

Have mercy on me, etc.

THE SIXTH LESSON. Job 14.

WHO will grant me this, that Thou mayest protect me in hell, and hide me till Thy wrath pass, and appoint me a time when Thou wilt remember me? Shall man that is dead, thinkest Thou, live again? all the days, in which I am now in warfare, I expect until my change come. Thou wilt call me, and I will answer Thee: to the work of Thy hands Thou wilt reach out Thy right hand. Thou indeed hast numbered my steps, but spare my sins.

R. Remember not my sins, O Lord : When Thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.

V. Direct, O Lord my God, my way in Thy sight.
When, etc.

V. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

When, etc.

Here Lauds (p. 502) are recited when only the second Nocturn is said.

THE THIRD NOCTURN.

Ant. Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me ; look down, O Lord, to help me.

PSALM 39.

WITH expectation I waited for the Lord : and He was attentive unto me.

And He heard my prayers : and brought me out of the pit of misery, and out of the miry clay.

He set my feet also upon a rock : and directed my steps.

And He put a new song into my mouth : even a hymn unto our God.

Many shall see it, and shall fear : and they shall hope in the Lord.

Blessed is the man whose trust is in the name of the Lord ; and who hath not had regard to vanities and lying follies.

Many are Thy wonderful works which Thou hast done, O Lord my God ; and in Thy thoughts there is none that is like unto Thee.

I have declared, and I have spoken : they are multiplied above number.

Sacrifice and offering Thou didst not desire : but ears Thou hast perfected unto me.

Burnt-offering and sin-offering Thou didst not require : then said I, Behold I come.

In the head of the book it is written of me that I should do Thy will : O my God, I have desired it, and Thy law is in the midst of my heart.

I have declared Thy justice in the great congregation : lo, I will not restrain my lips ; O Lord, Thou knowest it.

I have not hid Thy justice within my heart : I have declared Thy truth and Thy salvation.

I have not concealed Thy mercy and Thy truth : from the great assembly.

Withhold not Thou Thy tender mercies from me, O Lord : Thy mercy and Thy truth have always upheld me.

For evils without number have surrounded me : mine iniquities have overtaken me, and I was not able to see.

They are multiplied above the hairs of my head : and my heart hath failed me.

Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me : look down, O Lord, to help me.

Let them be confounded and ashamed together : that seek after my soul to take it away.

Let them be turned backward, and put to shame : that wish me evil.

Let them at once be put to confusion : that say unto me, Aha, aha.

Let all those that seek Thee rejoice and be glad in Thee : and let such as love Thy salvation say always,

The Lord be praised.

But as for me I am poor and needy ; but the Lord is careful for me.

Thou art my helper and my protector : O my God, make no delay.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me ; look down,
O Lord, to help me.

Ant. Heal my soul, O Lord, for I have sinned against Thee.

PSALM 40.

BLESSED is he that considereth the needy and poor : the Lord will deliver him in the evil day.

The Lord preserve him, and give him life, and make him blessed upon the earth : and deliver him not up to the will of his enemies.

The Lord help him on his bed of sorrow : Thou hast turned all his bed in his sickness.

I said : O Lord, be Thou merciful unto me : heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee.

Mine enemies have spoken evil against me : When shall he die, and his name perish ?

And if he came in to see me, he spoke vain things :
his heart gathered together iniquity to itself.

He went out : and spoke to the same purpose.

All mine enemies whispered together against me :
against me have they devised evils.

They sent forth an unjust word against me : shall he that sleepeth rise again no more ?

For even the man of my peace, in whom I trusted, who ate my bread : hath greatly sought to overthrow me.

But do Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon me, and raise me up again : and I will requite them.

By this I know that Thou hast wished well to me : because mine enemy shall not rejoice over me.

But Thou hast upheld me because of mine innocence : and Thou hast set me before Thy face for ever.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel : from eternity and to eternity. Amen, amen.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Heal my soul, O Lord, for I have sinned against Thee.

Ant. My soul hath thirsted after the living God ; when shall I come, and appear before the face of God ?

PSALM 41.

AS the hart panteth after the water-springs : so panteth my soul after Thee, O God.

My soul hath thirsted after the strong living God ; when shall I come, and appear before the face of God ?

My tears have been my bread day and night : whilst it is said to me daily, Where is thy God ?

These things I remembered, and I poured out my soul in me : for I shall go over into the place of the wonderful tabernacle, even unto the house of God.

With the voice of joy and praise : the noise of one feasting.

Why art thou sad, O my soul ? and why dost thou disquiet me ?

Hope thou in God, for I will yet praise Him : who is the salvation of my countenance, and my God.

My soul is troubled within myself: therefore will I remember Thee from the land of Jordan and Hermoniim, from the little hill.

Deep calleth on deep: at the noise of Thy flood-gates.

All Thy waves and Thy billows: have passed over me.

In the daytime the Lord hath commanded His mercy: and a song to Him in the night.

With me is prayer to the God of my life: I will say unto God, Thou art my support.

Why hast Thou forgotten me: and why go I mourning whilst mine enemy afflicteth me?

Whilst my bones are broken: mine enemies who trouble me have reproached me.

Whilst they say to me day by day: Where is thy God?

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why dost thou disquiet me?

Hope thou in God, for I will yet praise Him: who is the salvation of my countenance, and my God.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. My soul hath thirsted after the living God; when shall I come, and appear before the face of God?

V. Deliver not unto beasts the souls that praise Thee.

R. And forget not the souls of Thy poor for ever.
Our Father (inaudibly).

THE SEVENTH LESSON. Job 17.

MY spirit is wasted: my days are shortened; and only the grave remaineth for me. I have not sinned, and my eye abideth in bitterness. Deliver me,

O Lord, and set me beside Thee, and let any man's hand fight against me. My days have passed away ; my thoughts are broken off, tormenting my heart. They have turned night into day ; and after darkness I hope for light again. If I wait, hell is my house ; and I have made my bed in darkness. I have said to rottenness : Thou art my father ; to worms : My mother and my sister. Where is now then my expectation, and who considereth my patience ?

R. Forasmuch as I sin daily, and repent not, the fear of death troubleth me : Because in hell there is no redemption, have mercy upon me, O God, and save me.

V. O God, save me in Thy name, and in Thy power deliver me.

Because in hell, etc.

THE EIGHTH LESSON. Job 19.

THE flesh being consumed, my bone cleaveth to my skin : and nothing but lips are left about my teeth. Have pity on me, have pity on me, at least ye my friends ; because the hand of the Lord hath touched me. Why do ye persecute me as God, and glut yourselves with my flesh ? Who will grant me that my words may be written ? who will grant me that they may be marked down in a book, with an iron stile, and on a plate of lead, or else be graven with an instrument on the rock ? For I know that my Redeemer liveth ; and on the last day I shall rise out of the earth : and I shall be clothed again with my skin, and in my flesh I shall see my God. Whom I myself shall see, and my eyes shall behold, and not another : this, my hope, is laid up in my bosom.

R. Judge me not, O Lord, according to my works, for I have done nothing worthy in Thy sight ; therefore I beseech Thy majesty : That Thou, O God, mayest blot out my iniquity.

V. Wash me, O Lord, yet more from my injustice, and cleanse me from my sin.

That Thou, O God, etc.

THE NINTH LESSON. Job 10.

WHY didst Thou bring me forth out of the womb ? O that I had been consumed, that eye might not see me ! I should have been as if I had not been, carried from the womb to the grave. Shall not the fewness of my days be ended shortly ? Suffer me, therefore, that I may lament my sorrow a little : before I go and return no more, to a land that is dark and covered with the mist of death : a land of misery and darkness, where the shadow of death, and no order, but everlasting horror dwelleth.

R. Deliver me, O Lord, from the ways of hell, Thou who didst break the gates of brass in sunder, and didst visit hell, and give light therein : That they who were in the pains of darkness might behold Thee.

V. Crying, and saying : Thou art come, O our Redeemer.

That they, etc.

V. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

That they, etc.

Here Lauds follow immediately, when only the preceding Nocturn has been said.

When the three Nocturns have been said, the Responsory to the ninth Lesson is as follows :

LIBERA me, Domine, de morte æterna, in die illa tremenda,* Quando cœli movendi sunt et terra : * Dum veneris ju- dicare sæculum per ignem.	DELIVER me, O Lôrd, from eternal death in that awful day : When the heavens and the earth shall be shaken : When Thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.
--	--

V. Tremens factus sum ego, et timeo, dum discussio venerit atque ventura ira.

Quando, etc.

V. Dies illa, dies iræ, calamitatis et miseriæ, dies magna et amara valde.

Dum veneris, etc.

V. Requiem æternam
dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.

R. Libera me, etc.

V. I am seized with fear and trembling, until the trial shall be at hand, and the wrath to come.

When the heavens, etc.

V. That day, a day of wrath, of wasting, and of misery, a great day, and exceeding bitter.

When Thou shalt come,
etc.

V. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

R. Deliver me, etc.

LAUDS.

Ant. The bones that were humbled shall rejoice in the Lord.

PSALM 50. Miserere (p. 249).

Ant. The bones that were humbled shall rejoice in the Lord.

Ant. O hear my prayer, O Lord; unto Thee shall all flesh come.

PSALM 64.

A HYMN becometh Thee, O God, in Sion: and unto Thee shall the vow be paid in Jerusalem. O hear my prayer: unto Thee shall all flesh come.

The words of the wicked have prevailed against us: and Thou wilt pardon our transgressions.

Blessed is he whom Thou hast chosen, and taken to Thee: he shall dwell in Thy courts.

We shall be filled with the good things of Thy house: holy is Thy temple, wonderful in justice.

Hear us, O God our Saviour, who art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and in the sea afar off.

Thou who preparest the mountains by Thy strength, being girded with power: who troublest the depth of the sea, the noise of its waves.

The gentiles shall be troubled, and they that dwell in the uttermost borders shall be afraid at Thy signs: Thou shalt make the outgoings of the morning and of the evening to be joyful.

Thou hast visited the earth, and hast watered it plentifully: Thou hast copiously enriched it.

The river of God is filled with water, Thou hast prepared their food: for so is its preparation.

Fill up plentifully the streams thereof, multiply its fruits: it shall spring up and rejoice in its showers.

Thou shalt bless the crown of the year of Thy goodness: and Thy fields shall be filled with plenty.

The beautiful places of the wilderness shall grow fat: and the hills shall be girded about with joy.

The rams of the flock are clothed, and the vales shall abound with corn ; they shall shout, yea, they shall sing a hymn.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. O hear my prayer, O Lord ; unto Thee shall all flesh come.

Ant. Thy right hand hath upheld me, O Lord.

PSALM 62.

O GOD, my God, to Thee do I watch at break of day.
For Thee my soul hath thirsted ; for Thee my flesh longeth, O how exceedingly !

In a desert and pathless land where no water is : so have I come before Thee in Thy holy place, that I might see Thy power and Thy glory.

For Thy mercy is better than life : my lips shall praise Thee.

Thus will I bless Thee all my life long : and in Thy name I will lift up my hands.

Let my soul be filled as with marrow and fatness : and my mouth shall praise Thee with joyful lips.

If I have remembered Thee upon my bed, on Thee will I meditate in the morning ; because Thou hast been my helper.

And I will rejoice under the covert of Thy wings : my soul hath cleaved unto Thee : Thy right hand hath upheld me.

But they have sought my soul in vain : they shall go into the lower parts of the earth :

They shall be delivered into the hands of the sword : they shall be the portions of foxes.

But the king shall rejoice in God, all they that swear by Him shall be praised : because the mouth of them that speak wicked things is stopped.

PSALM 66.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us : cause the light of His countenance to shine upon us, and have mercy on us.

That we may know Thy way upon earth : Thy salvation in all nations.

Let the people praise Thee, O God : let all the people praise Thee.

O let the nations be glad and rejoice : for Thou dost judge the people with justice, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise Thee, O God : let all the people praise Thee : the earth hath yielded her fruit.

May God, even our own God, bless us, may God bless us : and may all the ends of the earth fear Him. Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Thy right hand hath upheld me, O God.

Ant. From the gate of hell deliver my soul, O Lord.

THE SONG OF HEZECHIAH. Is. 38.

I SAID, In the midst of my days : I shall go to the gates of hell.

I sought for the residue of my years : I said, I shall not see the Lord God in the land of the living.

I shall behold man no more : nor the inhabitant of rest.

My generation is at an end ; and it is rolled away from me : as a shepherd's tent.

My life is cut off as by a weaver ; whilst I was yet but beginning He cut me off : from morning even to night Thou wilt make an end of me.

I hoped till morning : as a lion so hath He broken all my bones.

From morning even to night Thou wilt make an end of me : I cry like a young swallow, I moan like a dove.

My eyes are weakened : looking upward.

Lord, I suffer violence, answer Thou for me : what shall I say, or what shall He answer for me, whereas He Himself hath done it ?

I will recount to Thee all my years : in the bitterness of my soul.

O Lord, if man's life be such, and the life of my spirit be in such things as these, Thou wilt correct me, and make me live ! Behold, for peace is my bitterness most bitter.

But Thou hast delivered my soul, that it should not perish : Thou hast cast all my sins behind Thy back.

For hell will not thank Thee, neither will death praise Thee : nor will they that go down into the pit look for Thy truth.

The living, the living, he shall give praise to Thee, as I do this day : the father shall make Thy truth known to the children.

O Lord, save me : and we will sing our psalms all the days of our life in the house of the Lord.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. From the gate of hell deliver my soul, O Lord.

Ant. Let every spirit praise the Lord.

PSALM 148.

PRAISE ye the Lord from the heavens : praise Him in the heights.

Praise Him, all ye His Angels : praise ye Him, all His hosts.

Praise Him, O ye sun and moon : praise Him, all ye stars and light.

Praise Him, O ye heaven of heavens : and let all the waters that are above the heavens praise the name of the Lord.

For He spake, and they were made : He commanded, and they were created.

He hath established them for ever, and for ages of ages : He hath made a decree, and it shall not pass away.

Praise the Lord from the earth : ye dragons, and all ye deeps.

Fire and hail ; snow and ice : and stormy winds, which fulfil His word :

Mountains and all hills : fruitful trees and all cedars :

Beasts and all cattle : creeping things and feathered fowls :

Kings of the earth, and all people : princes and all judges of the earth :

Young men and maidens, old men and children, let them praise the name of the Lord : for His name alone is exalted.

His praise is above heaven and earth : and He hath exalted the horn of His people.

A song of praise to all His saints : to the children of Israel, a people drawing nigh unto Him.

PSALM 149.

SING unto the Lord a new song : let His praise be in the Church of the Saints.

Let Israel rejoice in Him that made him : and let the children of Sion be joyful in their King.

Let them praise His name in the choir : let them sing unto Him with timbrel and psaltery :

For the Lord is well pleased with His people : and He will exalt the meek unto salvation.

The saints shall rejoice in glory : they shall be joyful in their beds.

The high praises of God shall be in their mouth : and two-edged swords in their hands :

To execute vengeance upon the nations : and chastisements among the people :

To bind their kings with fetters : and their nobles with chains of iron.

To execute upon them the judgment that is written : this glory have all His saints.

PSALM 150.

PRAISE the Lord in His holy places : praise Him in the firmament of His power.

Praise Him in His mighty acts : praise Him according to the multitude of His greatness.

Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet : praise Him with psaltery and harp.

Praise Him with timbrel and choir : praise Him with strings and organs.

Praise Him upon the high-sounding cymbals ; praise Him upon cymbals of joy : let every spirit praise the Lord.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Let every spirit praise the Lord.

V. I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me :

R. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

Ant. I am the Resurrection and the Life : he that believeth in Me, although he be dead, shall live ; and every one who liveth, and believeth in Me, shall never die.

The BENEDICTUS, or SONG OF ZACHARY. Luke 1.

BENEDICTUS Dominus Deus Israel, * quia visitavit, et fecit redemptionem plebis suæ :

BLESSED be the Lord God of Israel : for He hath visited and wrought redemption for His people :

Requiem æternam, etc. Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. I am the Resurrection and the Life : he that believeth in Me, although he be dead, shall live ; and every one who liveth, and believeth in Me, shall never die.

Then are said the following prayers, all kneeling :

Our Father (inaudibly).

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

V. From the gate of hell

R. Deliver his soul, O Lord.

V. May he rest in peace.

R. Amen.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come to Thee.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

ABSOLVE, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the soul of Thy servant N. from every bond of sin ; that, in the glory of the Resurrection, among Thy saints and elect he may rise again unto newness of life. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

During the singing of Lauds the Celebrant and his ministers prepare for the Mass. (See the Ordinary of the Mass, p. 114, for everything not here noted.)

THE MASS FOR THE DEAD.

ON THE DAY OF DECEASE OR BURIAL.

THE INTROIT

REQUIEM æternam dona eis, Domine, ETERNAL rest grant unto them, O Lord, et lux perpetua luceat eis. and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Requiem æternam, etc.

Eternal rest, etc.

THE PRAYER.

DEUS, cui proprium est misereri semper et parcere, te supplices exoramus pro anima famuli tui N., quam hodie de hoc sæculo migrare jussisti: ut non tradas eam in manus inimici, neque obliviscaris in finem, sed jubeas eam a sanctis Angelis suscipi, et ad patriam Paradisi perducī; ut, quia in te speravit et credidit, non pœnas inferni sustineat, sed gaudia æterna possideat. Per Dominum, etc.

O GOD, whose property is always to have mercy and to spare, we humbly beseech Thee for the soul of Thy servant N., which Thou hast this day commanded to depart out of this world: that Thou deliver it not into the hands of the enemy, nor forget it unto the end; but command it to be received by Thy holy Angels, and conducted into Paradise, its true country; that, as in Thee it hath hoped and believed, it may not suffer the pains of hell, but may take possession of eternal joys. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc.

THE EPISTLE. 1 Thess. 4.

FRATRES:—Nolumus vos ignorare de dormientibus, ut non contristemini, sicut et cæteri qui spem non habent. Si enim credimus quod Jesus mortuus est et resurrexit, ita et Deus eos, qui dormierunt per Jesum, adducet cum eo. Hoc enim vobis

BRETHREN:—We will not have you ignorant concerning those who sleep, that ye sorrow not, as even the others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so also those who are asleep through Jesus, God will dicimus in verbo Domini, quia nos, qui vivimus, qui residui sumus in adventum Domini, non præveniemus eos, qui dormierunt. Quoniam ipse Dominus in jussu, et in voce Archangeli, et in tuba Dei descendet de cælo: et mortui, qui in Christo sunt, resurgent primi. Deinde nos, qui vivimus, qui relinquimur, simul rapiemur cum illis in nubibus obviam Christo in aera, et sic semper cum Domino erimus. Itaque consolamini invicem in verbis istis.

bring with Him. For this we say to you on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who remain to the coming of the Lord, shall not precede those who are asleep. For the Lord Himself, with commanding, and with the voice of Archangel, and with trumpet of God, shall come down from heaven: and the dead who are in Christ shall rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, shall be caught up with them in the clouds to meet Christ in the air, and so we shall be always with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words.

THE GRADUAL.

REQUIEM æternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.

V. In memoria æterna erit justus; ab auditione mala non timebit.

ETERNAL rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

V. The just man shall be in everlasting remembrance; he shall not be afraid for evil tidings.

THE TRACT.

ABSOLVE, Domine, animas omnium
fidelium defunctorum ab
omni vinculo delictorum.

ABSOLVE, O Lord,
the souls of all Thy faithful departed from every bond of sin.

V. And by the help of Thy grace may they be enabled to escape the judgment of vengeance.

V. And enjoy the blessedness of light eternal.

THE SEQUENCE.

DIES iræ, dies illa
Solvēt sæclum in favilla,
Teste David cum Sibylla.

Quantus tremor est futu-
rus,
Quando Judex est ventu-
rus,
Cuncta stricte discussurus!

Tuba mirum spargens so-
num
Per sepulchra regionum,
Coget omnes ante thro-
num.

DAY of wrath, O Day
of mourning,
Lo, the world in ashes
burning—
Seer and Sibyl gave the warning.

O what fear man's bosom
rendeth,
When from heaven the Judge descendeth,
On whose sentence all de-pendeth!

Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth,
Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth,
All before the Throne it
bringeth.

Mors stupebit et natura,	Death is struck, and Nature quaking,
Cum resurget creatura,	All creation is awaking—
Judicanti responsura.	To its Judge an answer making.
Liber scriptus proferetur,	Lo, the Book, exactly worded,
In quo totum continetur,	Wherein all hath been recorded—
Unde mundus judicetur.	Thence shall judgment be awarded.
Judex ergo cum sedebit,	When the Judge His seat attaineth,
Quidquid latet apparebit :	And each hidden deed arraigneth,
Nil inultum remanebit.	Nothing unavenged remaineth.
Quid sum miser tunc dicturus ?	What shall I, frail man, be pleading ?
Quem patronum rogaturus,	Who for me be interceding
Cum vix justus sit securus ?	When the just are mercy needing ?
Rex tremendæ majestatis,	King, of majesty tremendous,
Qui salvandos salvas gratis,	Who dost free salvation send us,
Salva me, fons pietatis.	Fount of pity, then befriend us.

Recordare, Jesu pie,	Think, kind Jesu, my sal- vation
Quod sum causa tuæ viæ :	Caused Thy wondrous In- carnation—
Ne me perdas illa die.	Leave me not to reprobation.
Quærens me, sedisti lassus ;	Faint and weary Thou hast sought me,
Redemisti, crucem passus :	On the Cross of suffering bought me ;
Tantus labor non sit cassus.	Shall such grace be vainly brought me ?
Juste Judex ultionis,	Righteous Judge of Retri- bution,
Donum fac remissionis	Grant Thy gift of absolu- tion
Ante diem rationis.	Ere that Reck'ning Day's conclusion.
Ingemisco tanquam reus,	Guilty, now I pour my moaning,
Culpa rubet vultus meus ;	All my shame with anguish owning :
Supplici parce, Deus.	Spare, O God, Thy sup- pliant groaning.
Qui Mariam absolvisti,	Thou the sinful Mary sav- est,
Et latronem exaudisti,	Thou the dying thief for- gavest,
Mihi quoque spem dedisti.	And to me a hope vouch- safest.

Preces meæ non sunt dignæ :	Worthless are my prayers and sighing,
Sed tu bonus fac benigne,	Yet, good Lord, in grace complying,
Ne perenni cremer igne.	Rescue me from fires undying.
Inter oves locum præsta,	With Thy favored sheep O place me ;
Et ab hædis me sequestra,	Nor among the goats abase me,
Statuens in parte dextra.	But to Thy Right Hand upraise me.
Confutatis maledictis,	While the wicked are con- founded,
Flammis acribus addictis,	Doomed to flames of woe unbounded,
Voca me cum benedictis.	Call me, with Thy saints surrounded.
Oro supplex et acclinis,	Low I kneel, with heart- submission ;
Cor contritum quasi cinis :	See, like ashes, my contri- tion—
Gere curam mei finis.	Help me in my last condi- tion.
Lacrymosa dies illa,	Ah, that day of tears and mourning,
Qua resurget ex favilla	From the dust of earth re- turning,
Judicandus homo reus.	Man for Judgment must prepare him—

Huic ergo parce, Deus :	Spare, O God, in mercy spare him.
Pie Jesu Domine,	Lord, who didst our souls redeem,
Dona eis requiem.	Grant a blessed Requiem.
Amen.	Amen.

THE GOSPEL. John 11.

IN illo tempore :—Dixit Martha ad Jesum : Domine, si fuisses hic, frater meus non fuisset mortuus. Sed et nunc scio, quia quaecumque poposceris a Deo, dabit tibi Deus. Dicit illi Jesus : Resurget frater tuus. Dicit ei Martha : Scio, quia resurget in resurrectione in novissimo die. Dixit ei Jesus : Ego sum resurrectio et vita : qui credit in me, etiam si mortuus fuerit, vivet : et omnis qui vivit, et credit in me, non morietur in æternum. Credis hoc ? Ait illi : Utique, Domine, ego credidi, quia tu es Christus, Filius Dei vivi, qui in hunc mundum venisti.	AT that time :—Martha said to Jesus : Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. But now also I know that whatever Thou wilt ask of God, God will give Thee. Jesus saith to her : Thy brother will rise again. Martha saith to Him : I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said to her : I am the Resurrection and the Life : he that believeth in Me, although he be dead, shall live : and every one who liveth, and believeth in Me, shall never die. Believest thou this ? She saith to Him : Yea, Lord, I believe that Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God, who art come into this world.

THE OFFERTORY.

DOMINE Jesu Christe,
 Rêx gloriæ, libera
 animas omnium fidelium
 defunctorum de pœnas in-ferni, et de profundo lacu :
 libera eas de ore leonis, ne absorbeat eas tartarus, ne cadant in obscurum ; sed signifer sanctus Michael repræsentet eas in lucem sanctam : * Quam olim Abrahæ promisisti, et se-mini ejus.

O LORD Jesus Christ,
 King of glory, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the pains of hell, and from the depths of the pit : deliver them from the mouth of the lion, lest hell swallow them up, lest they fall into darkness ; but let the standard-bearer, St. Michael, bring them into the holy light. Which Thou didst promise of old to Abraham, and to his seed.

V. Hostias et preces tibi, Domine, laudis offerimus :
 tu suscipe pro animabus
 illis, quarum hodie memoriam facimus : fac eas, Do-mine, de morte transire at vitam.

V. We offer Thee, O
 Lord, a sacrifice of praise and prayers : do Thou accept them in behalf of those souls whom we this day commemorate. Grant, O Lord, that they may pass from death to life.

Quam olim Abrahæ pro-
 misisti, et semini ejus.

Which Thou didst promise of old to Abraham, and to his seed.

servant N., for which we offer Thee the Sacrifice of praise ; humbly beseeching Thy Majesty, that, by these offices of loving reconciliation, it may be found worthy to attain everlasting rest. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc.

THE COMMUNION.

LUX æterna luceat eis, Domine : * Cum Sanctis tuis in æternum, quia pius es.

MAY light eternal shine upon them, O Lord : With Thy Saints for ever, because Thou art merciful.

V. Requiem æternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Cum Sanctis, etc.

With Thy Saints, etc.

THE POSTCOMMUNION.

PRÆSTA, quæsumus omnipotens Deus, ut anima famuli tui N., quæ hodie de hoc sæculo migravit, his sacrificiis purgata, et a peccatis expedita, indulgentiam pariter et requiem capiat sempiternam. Per Dominum, etc.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that the soul of Thy servant N., which has this day departed out of this world, being purified by this sacrifice, and delivered from sins, may receive both pardon and eternal rest. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc.

After Mass, the Celebrant, having put off the chasuble and miple receives a cope of black color. The Subdeacon takes the Processional Cross, and places himself at the head of the Corpse with the Cross, between two Acolytes with their candlesticks and lighted candles. The Celebrant, with the Deacon and other ministers, places himself at the feet of the Corpse, opposite the Cross. An Acolyte holds the Ritual before the Celebrant, who says the following prayer:]

In less solemn Funerals, where the Office and Mass are omitted, the Priest, after reciting the Subvenite, etc., p. 531, begins at once the following Prayer :

NON intres in iudicium cum servo tuo, Domine, quia nullus apud te justificabitur homo, nisi per te omnium peccatorum ei tribuatur remissio. Non ergo eum, quæsumus, tua judicialis sententia premat, quem tibi vera supplicatio fidei Christianæ commendat : sed gratia tua illi succurrente, mereatur evadere iudicium ultionis, qui dum viveret, insignitus est signaculo Sanctæ Trinitatis : Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculorum.

R. Amen.

seal of the Holy Trinity : world without end.

ENTER not into judgment with Thy servant, O Lord, for in Thy sight shall no man be justified, unless through Thee remission of all his sins be granted unto him. Let not, therefore, we beseech Thee, the sentence of Thy judgment weigh heavily upon him whom the true supplication of Christian Faith doth commend unto Thee : but, by the succor of Thy grace, may he be found worthy to escape the judgment of vengeance, who, while he lived, was sealed with the seal of the Holy Trinity : Who livest and reignest, R. Amen.

Then is said or sung the Responsory, Libera me, etc., as on p. 562.

Whilst the above Responsory is being sung, the Priest puts incense into the censer. At the end of the Responsory is said :

Kyrie eleison.

Lord, have mercy.

Christe eleison.

Christ, have mercy.

Kyrie eleison.

Lord, have mercy.

Pater noster (secreto).

Our Father (inaudibly).

Meanwhile the Priest receives the sprinkler from the assistant, and, having made a low bow to the crucifix, goes round the Bier, and sprinkles the Corpse thrice on each side; then, returning to his place, he receives the censer from the assistant, and in like manner goes round the Bier, and incenses the Corpse in the same way as he sprinkled it; then, having returned the censer to the assistant, he says :

V. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem.

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. Sed libera nos a malo.

R. But deliver us from evil.

V. A porta inferi

V. From the gate of hell

R. Erue, Domine, animam ejus.

R. Deliver his soul, O Lord.

V. Requiescat in pace.

V. May he rest in peace.

R. Amen.

R. Amen.

V. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. And with thy spirit.

Oremus.

Let us pray.

DEUS, cui proprium est misereri semper

O GOD, whose property is always to have et parcere, te supplices exoramus pro anima famuli tui N., quam hodie de hoc sæculo migrare jussisti : ut non tradas eam in manus inimici, neque obliviscaris in finem, sed jubeas eam a sanctis Angelis suscipi, et ad patriam Paradisi perducere : ut, quia in te speravit et credidit, non poenas inferni sustineat, sed gaudia æterna possideat. Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

R. Amen.

mercy and to spare, we humbly beseech Thee for the soul of Thy servant N., which Thou hast this day commanded to depart out of this world : that Thou deliver it not into the hands of the enemy, nor forget it unto the end ; but command it to be received by Thy holy Angels, and conducted into Paradise, its true country ; that, as in Thee it hath hoped and believed, it may not suffer the pains of hell, but may take possession of eternal joys. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

(If the deceased was a Priest, the word Priest is added to the name expressed in the prayer.)

After this the Body is borne to the Grave, if it is to be buried then ; meanwhile is said or sung :

IN Paradisum deducant te Angeli, in tuo adventu suscipiant te Martyres, et perducant te in civitatem sanctam Jerusalem. Chorus Angelorum te suscipiat, et cum Lazaro

MAY the Angels lead thee into Paradise ; at thy coming may the Martyrs receive thee, and bring thee into the holy City, Jerusalem. May the Choir of Angels

quondam paupere æternam	receive thee, and with habeas requiem.	Lazarus, once a beggar, mayest thou have eternal rest.

On reaching the Grave, if it be not blessed, the Priest blesses it, as follows :

Oremus.

Let us pray.

tionē animæ fide-	der mercy the souls
lium requiescunt, hunc	of the faithful departed are

R. Amen.

R. Amen.

The prayer being said, the Priest sprinkles with holy water, and afterwards incenses, the Body of the deceased and the Grave. But if the Body is not buried then, the Responsory In Paradisum is omitted (and also the Blessing of the Grave, if it be already blessed). The office then continues as follows :

Ego sum.

I am.

The BENEDICTUS, p. 569, is then sung.

After which :

Requiem æternam, etc.

Eternal rest, etc.

EGO sum resurrectio et vita: qui credit in me, etiam si mortuus fuerit, vivet: et omnis qui vivit, et credit in me, non morietur
in æternum.

I AM the Resurrection and the Life: he that believeth in Me, although he be dead, shall live:
and every one who liveth,
and believeth in Me, shall never die.

Then is said:

Kyrie eleison.
Christe eleison.
Kyrie eleison.
Pater noster (secreto).

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.
Our Father (inaudibly).

In the meantime the Priest sprinkles the Corpse.

V. Et ne nos inducas in

R. Et lux perpetua luceat ei.

V. Requiescat in pace.

R. Amen.

V. Anima ejus, et animæ omnium fidelium defunctorum, per misericordiam Dei, requiescant in pace.

R. Amen.

GRANT, O Lord, we beseech Thee, this mercy unto Thy servant deceased, that, having in desire kept Thy will, he may not suffer in requital of his deeds : and as a true Faith joined him unto the company of Thy faithful here below, so may Thy tender mercy give him place above, among the Angel choirs. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

V. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.

R. And let perpetual light shine upon him.

V. May he rest in peace.

R. Amen.

V. May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

R. Amen.

THE BURIAL OF CHILDREN.

WHEN a Baptized Child shall have departed this life before coming to the use of reason, the Body shall be dressed as befits his age, and flowers shall be laid upon it, in token of purity and virginity. The Priest, vested in surplice and white stole, first sprinkles the Body with holy water, and says the first words of the Antiphon :

Sit nomen Domini. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

PSALM 112, p. 185,

followed by Glory be to the Father, etc. Then the Antiphon is said entire :

SIT nomen Domini BLESSED be the benedictum : ex hoc name of the Lord :
nunc, et usque in sæcu- from this time forth for
lum. evermore.

If the Body is borne to the Church, is said, according to the space of time :

PSALMS 118, p. 39, 148, 149, 150, p. 566.

On arriving at the Church the Priest says :

Ant. Hic accipiet. Ant. He shall receive.

PSALM 23, p. 454.

Ant. Hic accipiet bene- Ant. He shall receive a dictionem a Domino, et blessing from the Lord, misericordiam a Deo salu- and mercy from God his tari suo, quia hæc est ge- Saviour, for this is the gen-

the Lord.

Then is said :

Kyrie eleison.	Lord, have mercy.
Christe eleison.	Christ, have mercy.
Kyrie eleison.	Lord, have mercy.
Pater noster (secreto).	Our Father (inaudibly).

Meanwhile he sprinkles the Body.

R. Amen.

R. Amen.

While the Body is borne to the Grave, and even if it be not then buried, is said the first word of the Antiphon:

Juvenes.

Young men.

PSALM 148, p. 566.

Ant. Juvenes et vir- Ant. Young men and gines, senes cum juniori- maidens, old men and

Christe eleison.

Christ, have mercy.

Kyrie eleison.

Lord, have mercy.

Pater noster (secreto).

Our Father (inaudibly).

V. Et ne nos inducas

V. Sinite parvulos venire ad me.

R. Talium est enim regnum cœlorum.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. Suffer the little children to come to Me.

R. For of such is the kingdom of heaven.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Oremus.

Let us pray.

OMNIPOTENS sempiternæ Deus, sanctæ puritatis amator, qui animam hujus parvuli ad cœlorum regnum hodie misericorditer vocare dignatus es: digneris etiam, Domine, ita nobiscum misericorditer agere, ut meritis tuæ sanctissimæ Passionis, et intercessione beatæ Mariæ semper Virginis et omnium Sanctorum tuorum, in eodem regno nos cum omnibus Sanctis et Electis tuis semper facias congaudere. Qui vivis et regnas, cum Deo Patre, in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus, per omnia sæcula sæculorum.

R. Amen.

ALMIGHTY, Everlasting God, lover of holy Purity, who of Thy mercy hast this day vouchsafed to call the soul of this little one unto the kingdom of heaven: vouchsafe also, O Lord, to deal with us with the like mercy, that, by the merits of Thy most Holy Passion, and by the intercession of Blessed Mary ever Virgin, and of all Thy Saints, Thou mayest make us to rejoice in the same kingdom with all Thy Saints and Elect. Who livest and reignest with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

R. Amen.

Then the Priest sprinkles the Body (as also the Grave) with holy water, and incenses it; after which it is buried.

Lastly, when he returns from the burial to the Church, he says the Song of the Three Children, Benedicite (p. 327), with the Gloria Patri at the end. This Antiphon is said before and after.

BENEDICITE Domini-num, omnes electi ejus, agite dies lætitiæ et confitemini illi.

BLESS the Lord, all ye His elect, keep days of gladness and give praise unto Him.

Having arrived in the Church, the Priest says before the Altar.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. And with thy spirit.

Oremus.

Let us pray.

DEUS, qui miro ordine

Dominum nostrum.

O GOD, who dost dispose the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order, mercifully grant that as Thy holy Angels always minister before Thee in heaven, so by them we may be protected in our life on earth.
Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

R. Amen.

VARIOUS PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD.

For a deceased Pope.

O GOD, by whose inscrutable appointment Thy servant N. (here express his name) was numbered among the Chief Bishops : grant, we beseech Thee, that he, who was Vicar of Thine Only-begotten Son on earth, may receive a place among Thy holy Pontiffs who have entered into everlasting blessedness.

For a deceased Bishop or Priest.

O GOD, who didst raise Thy servant N. (here express his name) to the dignity of Bishop (or Priest) in the Apostolic Priesthood : grant, we beseech Thee, that he may be for ever united to the company of the same.

Another Prayer for a deceased Bishop.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that the soul of Thy servant Bishop N. (here express his name), which Thou hast taken from the toilsome conflict of this world, may have fellowship among Thy Saints.

For a deceased Priest.

O LORD, we pray Thee that the soul of Thy Priest, Thy servant N. (here express his name), which, while he abode in this world, Thou didst adorn with sacred gifts, may ever rejoice in a glorious seat in heaven.

For a Man deceased.

O LORD, incline Thine ear unto the prayers whereby we humbly call upon Thee to show mercy unto the soul of Thy servant N. (here express the name), which Thou hast commanded to depart out of this life ; that it may please Thee to set him in a place of peace and light, and give him a part with Thy Saints.

For a Woman deceased.

LORD, we beseech Thee, in the tenderness of Thy great mercy, to have pity upon the soul of Thy handmaid N. (here express her name) ; cleanse her from all defilements which have stained this mortal body, and give her inheritance in everlasting salvation.

For deceased Parents.

O GOD, who hast commanded us to honor our father and mother, look in the tenderness of Thy mercy upon the souls of my father and mother, and forgive them their sins, and grant unto me the joy of seeing them again in the glorious light of everlasting life.

For deceased Brethren, Relations, and Benefactors.

O GOD, the bestower of forgiveness, etc., p. 779.

For a dead Friend.

HELP us, O God of our salvation, and at the prayers of Mary, the most Blessed Mother of God, ever Virgin, let the soul of Thy servant have a place in the light of everlasting blessedness.

For Benefactors.

HAVE mercy, O Lord, we beseech Thee, upon the souls of all our departed benefactors, and in return for the benefits which they bestowed upon us on earth let them obtain an eternal reward in heaven.

For Those we are Bound to Pray for.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, O Lord our God, that the souls of Thy servants and handmaidens, the commemoration of whom we keep with special reverence, and for whom we are bidden and are bound to pray, and the souls of all our benefactors, relations, and connections, and all the faithful, may rest in the bosom of Thy Saints ; and hereafter, in the Resurrection from the dead, may please Thee in the land of the living.

For One Overtaken by Sudden Death.

ALMIGHTY and merciful God, in whose hand is the lot of man, absolve the soul of Thy servant, we beseech Thee, from all sins ; that although surprised by sudden death he may not lose the benefit of the repentance which he desired.

For Those who Repose in a Cemetery.

O GOD, in whose tender mercy the souls of the faithful are at rest, of Thy favor give unto the souls of all Thy servants and handmaidens, who here and everywhere sleep in Christ, pardon of sin ; that they, being absolved from all guilt, may evermore rejoice with Thee. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

Amen.

ADVENT HYMN.

VENI, veni, Emmanuel !
Captivum solve Israel,

Qui gemit in exilio,
Privatus Dei Filio.
Gaude ! gaude ! Emmanuel
Nascetur pro te, Israel.

Veni, O Jesse virgula !
Ex hostis tuos ungula,
De specu tuos tartari
Educ, et antro barathri.
Gaude ! gaude ! Emmanuel
Nascetur pro te, Israel.

Veni, veni, O Oriens !
Solare nos adveniens :
Noctis depelle nebulas,
Dirasque noctis tenebras.

DRAW nigh, draw nigh,
Emmanuel,
And ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile
here
Until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice ! rejoice ! Emmanuel
Shall be born for thee, O Israel !
Draw nigh, O Jesse's Rod, draw
nigh,
To free us from the enemy ;
From Hell's infernal pit to save,
And give us victory o'er the grave.
Rejoice ! rejoice ! Emmanuel
Shall be born for thee, O Israel !
Draw nigh, Thou Orient, who shalt cheer
And comfort by Thine Advent
here,
And banish far the brooding gloom
Of sinful night and endless doom.

Gaude ! gaude ! Emmanuel
Nascetur pro te, Israel.

Rejoice ! rejoice ! Emmanuel
Shall be born for thee, O Israel !

Veni, clavis Davidica !

Draw nigh, draw nigh, O David's Key,

Regna reclude cœlica,

The Heavenly Gate will ope to Thee ;

Fac iter tutum superum,

Make safe the way that leads on high,

Et claude vias inferum.

And close the path to misery.

Gaude ! gaude ! Emmanuel

Rejoice ! rejoice ! Emmanuel

Nascetur pro te, Israel.

ADVENT.

Isa. xlv. 8 : " Drop dew, ye heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the Just One : let the earth be opened, and bud forth a Saviour."

RORATE, cœli, desuper, et nubes pluant Jus-
tum.

DROP dew, ye heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the Just One.

Ne irascaris, Domine, et ne ultra memineris iniquita-tis : ecce, civitas Sancti facta est deserta : Sion deserta facta est :
Jerusalem desolata est : domus sanctificationis tuæ et gloriæ tuæ, ubi laudaverunt te patres nostri.

Be not very angry, O Lord, and remember no longer our iniquity : behold, Thy holy city is become deserted : Sion is become a desert : Jerusalem is desolate : the house of Thy sanctification and of Thy glory,
where our fathers praised Thee.

Rorate, etc.

Drop dew, etc.

Peccavimus, et facti sumus

We have sinned, and are betanquam immundi nos : et cecidimus quasi folium universi, et iniquitates nostræ quasi ventus abstulerunt nos : abscondisti faciem tuam a nobis, et allisisti nos in manu iniquitatis nostræ.

Rorate, etc.

Vide, Domine, afflictionem populi tui, et mitte quem misurus es : emitte Agnum dominatorem terræ, de Petra deserti, ad montem filię Sion : ut auferat ipse jugum captivitatis nostræ.

Rorate, etc.

Consolamini, consolamini, popule meus : cito veniet salus tua : quare mœrore consumeris ? quia innovavit te dolor : salvabo te : noli timere : ego enim sum Dominus Deus tuus, Sanctus Israel, Redemptor tuus.

Rorate, etc.

come as unclean : and we have all fallen as a leaf, and our iniquities like the wind have carried us away : Thou hast hidden Thy face from us, and hast crushed us in the hand of our iniquity.

Drop dew, etc.

Behold, O Lord, the affliction of Thy people, and send forth Him who is to come : send forth the Lamb, the ruler of the earth, from Petra of the desert, to the mount of the daughter of Sion : that He may take away the yoke of our captivity.

Drop dew, etc.

Be comforted, be comforted, My people : thy salvation cometh quickly : why with grief art thou consumed ? for sorrow hath stricken thee : I will save thee, fear not : for I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Redeemer.

Drop dew, etc.

10. THE GREAT ANTIPHONS.

The following great Antiphons are said entire before and after the Magnificat, from the 17th to the 23d of December, inclusive. If the Vespers are of a double, the great Antiphon is said after the prayer of the feast, for the commemoration of Advent.

Antiphon for the 17th of December.

O SAPIENTIA, quæ ex ore Altissimi prodiisti, attingens a fine usque ad finem, fortiter suaviterque disponens omnia : veni ad docendum nos viam prudentiæ.

O WISDOM that comest out of the mouth of the Most High, that reachest from one end to another, and dost mightily and sweetly order all things : come to teach us the way of prudence !

Antiphon for the 18th of December.

○ ADONAI, et dux domus Israel, qui Moysi in igne flammæ rubi apparuisti, et ei in Sina legem dedisti : veni ad redimendum nos in brachio extento.

Antiphon for the 19th of December.

○ RADIX Jesse, qui stas in signum populorum ; super quem continebunt reges os suum, quem gentes deprecabuntur : veni ad liberandum nos : jam noli tardare.

○ ROOT of Jesse, which standest for an ensign of the people, at whom the kings shall shut their mouths, whom the Gentiles shall seek : come to deliver us, make no tarrying.

Antiphon for the 20th of December.

○ CLAVIS David, et sceptrum domus Israel : qui aperis et nemo claudit : claudis et nemo aperit ; veni, et educ vinctum de domo carceris, sedentem in tenebris, et umbra mortis.

○ KEY of David, and Sceptre of the house of Israel ; that openeth and no man shutteth ; and shutteth and no man openeth : come to bring out the prisoner from the prison, and them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death.

Antiphon for the 21st of December.

○ ORIENS splendor lucis æternæ, et sol justitiæ : veni, et illumina sedentes in tenebris et umbra mortis.

○ DAYSPRING, Brightness of the everlasting light, Son of Justice, come to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death !

Antiphon for the 22d of December.

○ REX gentium et desideratus earum, lapisque angularis qui facis

○ KING of the Gentiles, yea, and desire thereof ; O Corner-stone, that utraque unum: veni, et salva hominem, quem de limo formasti.

makest of two one: come to save man, whom Thou hast made of the dust of the earth!

Antiphon for the 23d of December.

O EMMANUEL, rex et legifer noster, expectatio
Gentium, et Salvator
earum: veni ad salvandum nos,
Domine Deus noster.

O EMMANUEL, our King
and our Law-giver, Longing of the Gentiles;
yea, and salvation thereof:
come to save us, O Lord our God!

11. CHRISTMAS, AT VESPERS.

IESU, Redemptor omnium,
Quem lucis ante originem

Parem paternæ gloriæ
Pater supremus edidit:

Tu lumen et splendor Patris,
Tu spes perennis omnium,

Intende quas fundunt preces

Tui per orbem servuli.

Memento, rerum Conditor,
Nostri quod olim corporis,

Sacrata ab alvo Virginis

Nascendo, formam sumpseris.

Testatur hoc præsens dies,
Currrens per anni circulum,

Quod solus e sinu Patris

Mundi salus adveneris.

IESU! Redeemer of the world!

Who, ere the earliest dawn
of light,
Wast from eternal ages born,
Immense in glory as in might:

Immortal Hope of all mankind!
In whom the Father's face we see,

Hear Thou the prayers Thy people pour

This day throughout the world to Thee.

Remember, O Creator Lord!

That in the Virgin's sacred womb

Thou wast conceived, and of her flesh

Didst our mortality assume.

This ever-blest recurring day

Its witness bears that all alone,

From Thy own Father's bosom forth,

To save the world Thou cam-est down.

Hunc astra, tellus, æquora,	O day to which the seas and sky,
Hunc omne, quod cœlo subest,	And earth and heaven, glad welcome sing;
Salutis Auctorem novæ	O day which healed our misery,
Novo salutatur cantico.	And brought on earth Salvation's King !
Et nos, beata quos sacri	We too, O Lord, who have been cleansed
Rigavit unda sanguinis,	In Thy own fount of bloom divine,
Natalis ob diem tui	Offer the tribute of sweet song
Hymni tributum solvimus.	On this blest natal day of Thine.
Jesu, tibi sit gloria,	O Jesu ! born of Virgin bright,
Qui natus es de Virgine,	Immortal glory be to Thee ;
Cum Patre et almo Spiritu,	Praise to the Father infinite,
In sempiterna sæcula.	And Holy Ghost eternally.
Amen.	Amen.

12.

CHRISTMASTIDE.

A DESTE, fideles,
 Læti triumphantes ;
 Venite, venite in Bethlehem ;
 Natum videte
 Regem Angelorum ;
 Venite adoremus,
 Venite adoremus,
 Venite adoremus Dominum.

Deum de Deo,
 Lumen de Lumine,
 Gestant puellæ viscera :

Deum verum,
 Genitum non factum :
 Venite adoremus, etc.

VE faithful, approach ye
 Joyfully triumphing ;
 O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem ;
 Come and behold ye
 Born the King of Angels :
 O come, let us adore Him,
 O come, let us adore Him,
 O come, let us adore Him, Christ
 the Lord.

God of God eternal ;
 Light from light proceeding ;
 Lo, He deigns in the Virgin's womb to lie,
 Very God, yea,
 Not made but begotten :
 O come, let us adore, etc.

Cantet nunc Io
Chorus Angelorum ;
Cantet nunc aula cœlestium,

Gloria in excelsis Deo :
Venite adoremus, etc.

Ergo qui natus
Die hodierna,
Jesu, tibi sit gloria :

Patris æterni
Verbum caro factum ;
Venite adoremus, etc.

Amen.

All ye choirs of angels,
Come, alleluia ! sing,
Sing all ye citizens of heaven
above,
Glory to God in the highest heavens :
O come, let us adore, etc.

Yea, Lord, we greet Thee,
Born this happy morning :
O Jesus, now to Thee be glory
given,
Word of the Father,
In our flesh appearing :
O come, let us adore, etc.

Amen.

13. THE HOLY INNOCENTS, AT VESPERS.

SALVETE, flores marty-rum,
Quos lucis ipso in limine

Christi insecutor sustulit,
Ceum turbo nascentes rosas.

Vos prima Christi victima,
Grex immolatorum tener,

Aram sub ipsam simplices

Palma et coronis luditis.

Jesu, tibi sit gloria,
Qui natus es de Virgine,
Cum Patre et almo Spiritu,
In sempiterna sæcula.

Amen.

LOVELY flowers of Martyrs, hail !
Smitten by the tyrant
foe

On life's threshold—as the gale Strews the roses ere they blow.

First to bleed for Christ, sweet lambs !

What a simple death ye died !
Sporting with your wreath and palms
At the very altar-side !

Honor, glory, virtue, merit,
Be to Thee, O Virgin's Son,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
While eternal ages run.

Amen.

14. THE EPIPHANY, AT VESPERS.

CRUDELIS Herodes, Deum
 Regem venire quid
 times?
 Non eripit mortalia,
 Qui regna dat cœlestia.

Ibant Magi, quam viderant,
 Stellam sequentes præviam :
 Lumen requirunt lumine,
 Deum fatentur munere.

Lavacra puri gurgitis
 Cœlestis Agnus attigit :
 Peccata, quæ non detulit,
 Nos abluendo sustulit.

Novum genus potentiæ :
 Aquæ rubescunt hydriæ,
 Vinumque jussa fundere,
 Mutavit unda originem.

Jesu, tibi sit gloria,
 Qui apparuisti gentibus,
 Cum Patre et almo Spiritu,
 In sempiterna sæcula. Amen.

O CRUEL, Herod ! why thus fear
 Thy King and God, who comes below ?
 No earthly crown comes He to take,
 Who heavenly kingdoms doth bestow.

The wiser Magi see the star,
 And follow as it leads before ;
 By its pure ray they seek the Light,
 And with their gifts that Light adore.

Behold at length the heavenly
 Lamb
 Baptized in Jordan's sacred flood ;
 There consecrating by His touch
 Water to cleanse us in His blood.

But Cana saw her glorious Lord
 Begin His miracles divine ;
 When water, reddening at His word,
 Flowed forth obedient in wine.

To Thee, O Jesu, who Thyself
 Hast to the Gentile world displayed,
 Praise, with the Father ever-
 more,
 And with the Holy Ghost, be paid. Amen.

15. THE CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL, AT VES- PERS. (January 25.)

EGREGIE doctor Paule,
mores instrue,

LEAD us, great teacher,
Paul, in wisdom's
ways,

Et nostra tecum pectora in cœlum trahe ;

And lift our hearts with thine
to heaven's high throne :

Velata dum meridiem cernat
Fides,

Till Faith beholds the clear meridian blaze,

Et solis instar sola regnet Cha-ritas.

And sunlike in the soul reigns Charity alone.

Sit Trinitati sempiterna gloria,

Praise, blessing, majesty,
through endless days,

Honor, 'potestas, atque jubila-
tio,

Be to the Trinity immortal
given ;

In unitate, quæ gubernat omnia,

Who in pure unity profoundly
sways

Per universa æternitatis sæcula.
Amen.

Eternally all things alike in
earth and heaven. Amen.

16. LENT, AT VESPERS.

AUDI, benigne Condi-
tor,

OMAKER of the world,
give ear !

Nostras preces cum fletibus,

Accept the prayer, and
own the tear,

In hoc sacro jejunio

Towards Thy seat of mercy sent,

Fusas quadragenario.

In this most holy fast of Lent.

Scrutator alme cordium,

Each heart is manifest to Thee :

Infirma tu scis virium :

Thou knowest our infirmity :

Ad te reversis exhibe

Forgive Thou then each soul that fain

Remissionis gratiam.

Would seek to Thee, and turn
again.

Multum quidem peccavimus,
Sed parce confitentibus ;

Our sins are manifold and sore ;
But pardon them that sin deplore ;

Ad nominis laudem tui	And, for Thy name's sake, make each soul,
Confer medelam languidis.	That feels and owns its languor, whole.
Concede nostrum conteri Corpus per abstinentioniam : Culpæ ut relinquunt pabulum	So mortify we every sense By grace of outward abstinence, That from each stain and spot of sin
Jejuna corda criminum.	The soul may keep her fast within.
Præsta, beata Trinitas, Concede simplex Unitas : Ut fructuosa sint tuis Jeiuniorum munera. Amen.	Grant, O Thou blessèd Trinity, Grant, O Essential Unity, That this our fast of forty days May work our profit and Thy praise. Amen.

17.

LENT.

E X more docti mystico Servemus hoc jejunium,	N OW, with the slow revolving year, Again the Fast we greet
Deno dierum circulo, Ducto quater notissimo.	Which in its mystic circle moves Of forty days complete.
Lex et Prophetæ primitus	That Fast, by Law and Prophet taught,
Hoc prætulerunt, postmodum Christus sacrauit, omnium Rex atque Factor temporum.	By Jesus Christ restored ; Jesus, of seasons and of times The Maker and the Lord.
Utamur ergo parcius	Henceforth more sparing let us be
Verbis, cibis, et potibus, Somno, jocis, et arctius	Of food, of words, of sleep ; Henceforth beneath a stricter guard
Perstemus in custodia.	The roving senses keep ;
Vitemus autem noxia,	And let us shun whatever things
Quæ subruunt mentes vagas,	Distract the careless heart ;

Nullumque demus callidi Hostis locum tyrannidi.	And let us shut our souls against The tyrant tempter's art ;
Flectamus iram vindicem,	And weep before the Judge, and strive
Ploremus ante Judicem, Clamemus ore supplicii,	His vengeance to appease ; Saying to Him with contrite voice
Dicamus omnes cernui.	Upon our bended knees :
Nostris malis offendimus	Much have we sinned, O Lord ! and still
Tuam, Deus, clementiam : Effunde nobis desuper Remissor indulgentiam.	We sin each day we live ; Yet look in pity from on high, And of Thy grace forgive.
Memento quod sumus tui,	Remember that we still are Thine,
Licet caduci plasmatis : Ne des honorem nominis	Though of a fallen frame ; And take not from us in Thy wrath
Tui, precamur, alteri.	The glory of Thy name.
Laxa malum, quod fecimus, Auge bonum, quod poscimus : Placere quo tandem tibi Possimus hic, et perpetim.	Undo past evil ; grant us, Lord, More grace to do aright ; So may we now and ever find Acceptance in Thy sight.
Præsta, beata Trinitas, Concede, simplex Unitas, Ut fructuosa sint tuis	Blest Trinity in Unity ! Vouchsafe us, in Thy love, To gather from these fasts be- low
Jejuniorum munera. Amen.	Immortal fruit above. Amen.

18.

PASSION SUNDAY.

VEXILLA Regis prodeunt :
Fulget Crucis mysteri-
um,

THE Royal Banners forward go ;
The Cross shines forth
in mystic glow ;

Qua vita mortem pertulit,	Where He in flesh, our flesh who made,
Et morte vitam protulit.	Our sentence bore, our ransom paid :
Quæ vulnerata lanceæ	Where deep for us the spear was dyed,
Mucrone diro, criminum	Life's torrent rushing from His side,
Ut nos lavaret sordibus,	To wash us in that precious flood
Manavit unda et sanguine.	Where mingled Water flowed, and Blood.
Impleta sunt, quæ concinit David fideli carmine, Dicendo nationibus :	Fulfilled is all that David told In true prophetic song of old ; Amidst the nations, God, saith he,
Regnavit a ligno Deus.	Hath reigned and triumphed from the Tree.
Arbor decora, et fulgida,	O Tree of beauty, Tree of light !
Ornata Regis purpura,	O Tree with royal purple dight !
Electa digno stipite	Elect on whose triumphal breast
Tam sancta membra tangere.	Those holy limbs should find their rest :
Beata, cujus brachiis	On whose dear arms, so widely flung,
Pretium pependit sæculi,	The weight of this world's ran- som hung :
Statera facta corporis,	The price of humankind to pay,
Tulitque prædam tartari.	And spoil the spoiler of his prey :
O Crux ave, spes unica, Hoc passionis tempore Piis adauge gratiam,	O Cross, our one reliance, hail ! This holy Passiontide avail To give fresh merit to the saint,
Reisque dele crimina.	And pardon to the penitent.

Te, fons salutis Trinitas,
Collaudet omnes spiritus :

Quibus Crucis victoriam

Largiris, adde præmium.

Amen.

To Thee, Eternal Three in One, Let homage meet by all be done :

Whom by the Cross Thou dost restore,

Preserve and govern evermore !
Amen.

19.

PASSIONTIDE.

PANGE, lingua, gloriosi

Lauream certaminis,

Et super crucis trophæo
Dic triumphum nobilem,
Qualiter Redemptor orbis

Immolatus vicerit.

De parentis protoplasti

Fraude Factor condolens,

Quando pomi noxialis

In necem morsu ruit,

Ipse lignum tunc notavit,
Damna ligni ut solveret.

Hoc opus nostræ salutis
Ordo depoposcerat,

Multiformis proditoris
Ars ut artem falleret,
Et medelam ferret inde

Hostis unde læserat.

SING, my tongue, the glorious battle

With completed victory
rife :

And above the Cross's trophy
Tell the triumph of the strife :
How the world's Redeemer conquered

By surrendering of His life.

God his Maker, sorely grieving

That the first-made Adam fell

When he ate the fruit of sorrow,

Whose reward was death and hell,

Noted then this wood, the ruin
Of the ancient wood to quell.

For the work of our Salvation Needs would have His order
so ;

And the multiform deceiver's
Art by art would overthrow,
And from thence would bring the med'cine

Whence the insult of the Foe.

Quando venit ergo sacri	Wherefore, when the sacred
Plenitudo temporis,	fulness
Missus est ab arce Patris	Of th' appointed time was
Natus orbis Conditor,	come,
Atque ventre virginali	This world's Maker left His
Carne amictus prodiit.	Father,
	Sent the Heav'nly Mansion
	from,
	And proceeded, God Incarnate,
	Of the Virgin's holy womb.
Vagit infans inter arcta	Weeps the Infant in the man-
Conditus præsepia	ger
	That in Bethlehem's stable stands ;
Membra pannis involuta	And His limbs the Virgin Mo-
Virgo mater alligat :	ther
	Doth compose in swaddling bands,
Et Dei manus, pedesque	Meekly thus in linen folding
Stricta cingit fascia.	Of her God the feet and hands.
Lustra sex qui jam peregit	Thirty years among us dwelling,
Tempus implens corporis,	His appointed time fulfilled,
Sponte libera Redemptor	Born for this, He meets His Passion,
Passioni deditus,	For that this He freely willed :
Agnus in crucis levatur	On the Cross the Lamb is lifted,
Immolandus stipite.	Where His Life-blood shall be spilled.
Felle potus ecce languet	He endured the nails, the spit-
Spina, clavi, lancea ;	ting,
	Vinegar, and spear, and
	reed ;
Mite corpus perforatur,	From that Holy Body broken
Unda manat, et cruor ;	Blood and Water forth proceed :

Terra, pontus, astra, mundus,	Earth, 'and stars, and sky, and ocean
Quo lavantur flumine.	By that flood from stain are freed.
Crux fidelis ! inter omnes	Faithful Cross ! above all other
Arbor una nobilis !	One and only noble tree !
Silva talem nulla profert	None in foliage, none in blos- som,
Fronde, flore, germine :	None in fruit thy peers may be :
Dulce ferrum, dulce lignum,	Sweetest wood and sweetest iron !
Dulce pondus sustinent.	Sweetest weight is hung on thee !
Flecte ramos, arbor alta,	Bend thy boughs, O Tree of Glory !
Tensa laxa viscera,	Thy relaxing sinews bend ;
Et rigor lentescat ille	For a while the ancient rigor,
Quem dedit nativitas,	That thy birth bestowed, sus- pend :
Et superni membra Regis	And the King of Heav'nly Beauty
Tende miti stipite.	On thy bosom gently tend !
Sola digna tu fuisti	Thou alone wast counted wor- thy
Ferre mundi victimam	This world's ransom to up- hold ;
Atque portum præparare	For a shipwrecked race prepar- ing
Arca mundo naufrago,	Harbor, like the Ark of old,
Quem sacer cruor perunxit	With the sacred Blood anointed
Fusus Agni corpore.	From the smitten Lamb that rolled.
Sempiterna sit beatæ	To the Trinity be glory
Trinitati gloria ;	Everlasting, as is meet ;
Æqua Patri, Filioque,	Equal to the Father, equal
Par decus Paraclito :	To the Son and Paraclete :
Unius Trinique nomen	Trinal Unity, whose praises
Laudet universitas.	All created things repeat.

Amen.

Amen.

20.

PASSIONTIDE.

STABAT Mater dolorosa
Juxta crucem lacrymosa,

Dum pendebat Filius.
Cujus animam gementem,
Contristatam, et dolentem,
Pertransivit gladius.

O quam tristis et afflicta
Fuit illa benedicta

Mater Unigeniti.
Quæ mœrebat, et dolebat,

Pia Mater, dum videbat
Nati pœnas inclyti.

Quis est homo qui non fleret,
Matrem Christi si videret

In tanto supplicio?
Quis non posset contristari,
Christi Matrem contemplari

Dolentem cum Filio?

Pro peccatis suæ gentis
Vidit Jesum in tormentis,
Et flagellis subditum.

Vidit suum dulcem Natum

Moriendo desolatum
Dum emisit spiritum.

AT the Cross her station keeping,
Stood the mournful
Mother weeping,
Close to Jesus to the last ;
Through her heart, His sorrow
sharing,
All his bitter anguish bearing,
Lo! the piercing sword had passed !

O how sad, and sore distressèd,
Now was she, that Mother
Blessèd

Of the Sole-begotten One ;
Woe-begone, with heart's prostration,
Mother meek, the bitter Passion
Saw she of her glorious Son.

Who could mark, from tears refraining,
Christ's dear Mother uncom-
plaining,

In so great a sorrow bowed?
Who, unmoved, behold her lan-
guish
Underneath His Cross of anguish,
'Mid the fierce, unpitying crowd?

For His people's sins rejected,
She her Jesus, unprotected,
Saw with thorns, with scourges rent ;
Saw her Son from judgment taken,

Her beloved in death forsaken,
Till His Spirit forth He sent.

Eia Mater, fons amoris,
Me sentire vim doloris
Fac, ut tecum lugeam.

Fac ut ardeat cor meum
In amando Christum Deum,
Ut sibi complaceam.

Sancta Mater, istud agas,
Crucifixi fige plagas
Cordi meo valide.

Tui Nati vulnerati,
Tam dignati pro me pati,
Pœnas mecum divide.

Fac me tecum pie flere,
Crucifixo condolere,
Donec ego vixero.

Juxta Crucem tecum stare,
Et me tibi sociare
In planctu desidero.

Virgo virginum præclara,
Mihi jam non sis amara ;

Fac me tecum plangere.
Fac ut portem Christi mortem,

Passionis fac consortem
Et plagas recolere.

Fount of love and holy sorrow,
Mother ! may my spirit borrow Somewhat of thy woe profound ;

Unto Christ, with pure emotion,
Raise my contrite heart's devotion,
Love to read in every Wound.

Those five Wounds on Jesus
smitten,
Mother ! in my heart be written,
Deep as in thine own they
be :

Thou, my Saviour's cross who bearest,
Thou, thy Son's rebuke who
sharest,
Let me share them both with
thee !

In the Passion of my Maker
Be my sinful soul partaker, Weep till death, and weep
with thee ;

Mine with thee be that sad station,
There to watch the great Salvation
Wrought upon the atoning
Tree.

Virgin thou of virgins fairest,
May the bitter woe thou shar-
est

Make on me impression deep :
Thus Christ's dying may I carry,

With Him in His Passion tarry,
And His Wounds in memory
keep.

Fac me plagis vulnerari,	May His Wounds transfix me wholly,
Fac me Cruce inebriari,	May His Cross and Life Blood holy
Et cruore Filii.	Ebriate my heart and mind ;
Flammis ne urar succensus,	Thus inflamed with pure affection,
Per te, Virgo, sim defensus	In the Virgin's Son protection
In die judicii.	May I at the judgment find.
Christe, cum sit hinc exire	When in death my limbs are failing,
Da per Matrem me venire	Let Thy Mother's prayer prevailing
Ad palmam victoriæ.	Lift me, Jesus! to Thy throne ;
Quando corpus morietur,	To my parting soul be given
Fac ut animæ donetur	Entrance through the gate of Heaven,
Paradisi gloria.	There confess me for Thine own.
Amen.(i)	Amen.(i)

21. PALM SUNDAY, AT THE PROCESSION.

GLORIA, laus, et honor tibi sit, Rex, Christe, Redemptor :

Cui puerile decus prompsit Hosanna pium.

Israel es tu Rex Davidis et inclyta proles :

Nomine qui in Domini, Rex benedicte venis.

R. Gloria, laus, etc.

Cœtus in excelsis te laudat cœlicus omnis,

Et mortalis homo, et cuncta creata simul.

R. Gloria, laus, etc.

TO Thee, O Christ, be glory, praises loud,

To Thee, Hosanna, cried the Jewish crowd,

We Israel's monarch, David's Son proclaim :

Thou com'st, blest King, in God's most holy name.

R. To Thee, etc.

Angels and men in one harmonious choir

To sing Thy everlasting praise conspire.

R. To Thee, etc.

Plebs Hebræa tibi cum palmis obvia venit ;	Thee Israel's children met with conquering palms ;
Cum prece, voto, hymnis ad- sumus ecce tibi.	To Thee our vows we pay in loudest psalms.
R. Gloria, laus, etc.	R. To Thee, etc.
Hi tibi passuro solvebant munia laudis :	For Thee on earth with boughs they strewed the ways :
Nos tibi regnanti pangimus ecce melos.	To Thee in heaven we sing me- lodious praise.
R. Gloria, laus, etc.	R. To Thee, etc.
Hi placuere tibi, placeat devo- tio nostra :	Accept this tribute, which to Thee we bring,
Rex bone, Rex clemens, cui bona cuncta placent.	As Thou didst theirs, O good and gracious King.
R. Gloria, laus, etc. Amen.	R. To Thee, etc. Amen.

22. EASTER. SEQUENCE AT MASS.

V ICTIMÆ paschali laudes Immolent Christiani.	A NTO the Paschal Victim bring, Christians, your thank- ful offering.
Agnus redemit oves :	The Lamb redeemed the flock,
Christus innocens Patri	So Christ the spotless, without guile,
Reconciliavit peccatores.	To God did sinners reconcile.
Mors et vita duello	In wondrous deadly shock
Confluxere mirando :	Lo ! death and life contend and strive ;
Dux vitæ mortuus,	The Lord of life, who died, doth reign and live.
Regnat vivus.	What thou sawest, Mary, say,
Dic nobis, Maria,	As thou wentest on the way.
Quid vidisti in via ?	I saw the grave which could not Christ retain ;
Sepulchrum Christi viventis,	I saw His glory as He rose again ;
Et gloriam vidi resurgentis :	I saw th' Angelic witnesses around ;

Angelicos testes,
Sudarium et vestes.
Surrexit Christus spes mea :

Præcedet vos in Galilæam.

Scimus Christum surrexisse

A mortuis vere :

Tu nobis, victor Rex, miserere.
Amen. Alleluia.

The napkin and the linen clothes I found.

Yea, Christ my hope is risen,
and He

Will go before you into Galilee.

We know that Christ indeed has risen from the grave :

Hail, thou King of Victory !

Have mercy, Lord, and save.

Amen. Alleluia.

23. EASTER, AT VESPERS.

No Hymn is sung, but instead the following Antiphon :

HÆC dies quam fecit Dominus : exultemus et lætetur in ea.

THIS is the day which the Lord hath made : let us be glad and rejoice
therein.

24. LOW SUNDAY, AT VESPERS.

AD regias agni dapes
Stolis amicti candidis,

Post transitum maris Rubri

Christo canamus Principi.

Divina cujus Charitas

Sacrum propinat sanguinem,
Almique membra corporis
Amor sacerdos immolat.

Sparsum cruorem postibus

Vastator horret angelus :

NOW at the Lamb's high royal feast

In robes of saintly
white we sing,

Through the Red Sea in safety brought

By Jesus our immortal King.

O depth of love ! for us He drinks

The chalice of His agony ;

For us a Victim on the Cross

He meekly lays Him down to die.

And as the avenging angel
passed

Of old the blood-besprinkled door ;

Fugitque divisum mare :
Merguntur hostes fluctibus.

As the cleft sea a passage gave,
Then closed to whelm th'
Egyptians o'er :

Jam Pascha nostrum Christus
est,
Paschalis idem victima,
Et pura puris mentibus
Sinceritatis azyma.

So Christ, our Paschal Sacrifice,
Has brought us safe all perils through ;
While for unleavened bread we need
But heart sincere and purpose true.

O vera cœli victima,
Subjecta cui sunt tartara,
Soluta mortis vincula,
Recepta vitæ præmia.

Hail, purest Victim Heaven could find
The powers of Hell to overthrow !
Who didst the chains of Death destroy ;
Who dost the prize of Life bestow.

Victor subactis inferis
Trophæa Christus explicat,
Cœloque aperto, subditum
Regem tenebrarum trahit.

Hail, victor Christ ! hail, risen
King !
To Thee alone belongs the crown,
Who hast the heavenly gates
unbarred,
And dragged the Prince of darkness down.

Ut sis perenne mentibus
Paschale Jesu gaudium,
A morte dira criminum
Vitæ renatos libera.

O Jesu ! from the death of sin
Keep us, we pray ; so shalt Thou be
The everlasting paschal joy
Of all the souls new-born in Thee.

Deo Patri sit gloria,
Et Filio qui a mortuis
Surrexit, ac Paraclito
In sempiterna sæcula.

Now to the Father, and the Son
Who rose from death, be glory given,
With Thee, O holy Comforter,
Henceforth by all in earth and heaven.

Amen.

Amen.

25. ASCENSION-TIDE, AT VESPERS.

SALUTIS humanæ Sator,
Jesu voluptas cordium,

Orbis redempti Conditor,
Et casta lux amantium.

Qua victus es clementia,

Ut nostra ferres crimina?

Mortem subires innocens,

A morte nos ut tolleres?

Perrumpis infernum chaos

Vinctis catenas detrahis;

Victor triumpho nobili

Ad dexteram Patris sedes.

Te cogat indulgentia,
Ut damna nostra sarcias,

Tuique vultus compotes

Dites beato lumine.

Tu dux ad astra, et semita,

Sis meta nostris cordibus,

Sis lacrymarum gaudium,

Sis dulce vitæ præmium.

Amen.

O THOU pure Light of souls that love!
True joy of every human breast!

Sower of life's immortal seed!
Our Maker, and Redeemer
blest!

What wondrous pity Thee o'er-came

To make our guilty load
Thine own,

And, sinless, suffer death and shame,

For our transgressions to atone!

Thou, bursting Hades open wide,

Didst all the captive souls un-
chain;

And thence to Thy dread Father's side

With glorious pomp ascend
again.

O still may pity Thee compel
To heal the wounds of which we die;

And take us in Thy light to dwell,

Who for Thy blissful Presence sigh.

Be Thou our Guide; be Thou
our Goal;

Be Thou our Pathway to the skies;

Our Joy when sorrow fills the soul;

In death our everlasting prize.

Amen.

26. WHITSUNTIDE. VESPER.

VENI, Creator Spiritus,
Mentes tuorum visita,

Imple superna gratia,

Quæ tu creasti, pectora.

Qui diceris Paraclitus,

Altissimi donum Dei,
Fons vivus, ignis, charitas,

Et spiritalis unctio.

Tu septiformis munere,

Digitus paternæ dexteræ,
Tu rite promissum Patris,

Sermone ditans guttura.

Accende lumen sensibus :

Infunde amorem cordibus :

Infirma nostri corporis

Virtute firmans perpeti.

Hostem repellas longius,

Pacemque dones protinus :
Ductore sic te prævio

Vitemus omne noxium.

COME, Holy Ghost, Creator, come,
From thy bright heavenly throne !
Come, take possession of our souls,
And make them all Thine
Own !

Thou who art called the Para-
clete,
Best Gift of God above,
The Living Spring, the Living
Fire,
Sweet Unction, and True
Love !

Thou who art sevenfold in Thy grace,
Finger of God's right hand,
His Promise, teaching little ones
To speak and understand !

O guide our minds with Thy blest light,
With love our hearts inflame,
And with Thy strength, which ne'er decays,
Confirm our mortal frame.

Far from us drive our hellish
foe,
True peace unto us bring,
And through all perils guide us safe
Beneath Thy sacred wing.

Per te sciamus da Patrem	Through Thee may we the Fa- ther know,
Noscamus atque Filium :	Through Thee the Eternal Son,
Teque utriusque Spiritum	And Thee the Spirit of them both—
Credamus omni tempore.	Thrice-blessèd Three in One.
Deo Patri sit gloria,	Now to the Father, and the Son
Et Filio qui a mortuis	Who rose from death, be glory given,
Surrexit, ac Paraclito,	With Thee, O holy Comforter,
In sæculorum sæcula.	Henceforth by all in earth and heaven.
Amen. (i)	Amen. (i)

27. WHITSUNTIDE. SEQUENCE AT MASS.

VENI sancte Spiritus,
Et mitte cœlitus

Lucis tuæ radium.

Veni pater pauperum,
Veni dator munerum,
Veni lumen cordium.

Consolator optime,
Dulcis hospes animæ,
Dulce refrigerium.

In labore requies,
In æstu temperies,
In fletu solatium.

O lux beatissima,

Reple cordis intima
Tuorum fidelium.

COME, Thou holy Para-
clete,
And from Thy celestial seat
Send Thy light and brilliancy :

Father of the poor, draw near,
Giver of all gifts, be here :
Come, the soul's true radiancy :

Come, of Comforters the best,
Of the soul the sweetest guest,
Come in toil refreshingly :

Thou in labor rest most sweet,
Thou art shadow from the heat,
Comfort in adversity.

O Thou Light most pure and
blest,
Shine within the inmost breast
Of Thy faithful company.

Sine tuo numine,	Where Thou art not, man hath naught ;
Nihil est in homine,	Every holy deed and thought
Nihil est innoxium.	Comes from Thy divinity.
Lava quod est sordidum,	What is soiled, make Thou pure ;
Riga quod est aridum,	What is wounded, work its cure ;
Sana quod est saucium.	What is parchèd, fructify ;
Flecte quod est rigidum,	What is rigid, gently bend ;
Fove quod est frigidum,	What is frozen, warmly tend ;
Rege quod est devium.	Strengthen what goes erring- ly.
Da tuis fidelibus,	Fill Thy faithful, who confide
In te confidentibus,	In Thy power to guard and guide,
Sacrum septenarium.	With Thy sevenfold mystery.
Da virtutis meritum,	Herè Thy grace and virtue send ;
Da salutis exitum,	Grant salvation in the end,
Da perenne gaudium.	And in heaven felicity.
Amen. Alleluia.(i)	Amen. Alleluia.(i)

28. TRINITY SUNDAY, AT VESPERS.

I AM sol recedit igneus,	N OW doth the fiery sun decline—
Tu lux perennis Unitas,	Thou, Unity Eternal ! shine ;
Nostris, beata Trinitas,	Thou, Trinity, Thy blessings pour,
Infunde amorem cordibus.	And make our hearts with love run o'er.
Te mane laudum carmine,	Thee in the hymns of morn we praise ;
Te deprecamur vespere ;	To Thee our voice at eve we raise ;

Digneris, ut te supplices	O grant us, with Thy saints on high,
Laudemus inter cœlites.	Thee through all time to glo- rify.
Patri, simulque Filio,	Praise to the Father, with the Son
Tibique Sancte Spiritus,	And Holy Spirit, Three in One ;
Sicut fuit, sit jugiter	As ever was in ages past,
Sæclum per omne gloria.	And shall be so while ages last.
Amen.	Amen.

29. CORPUS CHRISTI, AT VESPERS.

P ANGE, lingua, gloriosi	N OW, my tongue, the mys- tery telling
Corporis mysterium,	Of the glorious Body sing,
Sanguinisque pretiosi,	And the Blood, all price excel- ling,
Quem in mundi pretium	Which the Gentiles' Lord and King,
Fructus ventris generosi	In a Virgin's womb once dwell- ing,
Rex effudit gentium.	Shed for this world's ransom- ing.
Nobis datus, nobis natus	Given for us, and condescend- ing
Ex intacta Virgine,	To be born for us below,
Et in mundo conversatus,	He with men in converse blend- ing
Sparso verbi semine,	Dwelt the seed of truth to sow,
Sui moras incolatus	Till He closed with wondrous ending
Miro clausit ordine.	His most patient life of woe.
In supremæ nocte cœnæ	That last night at supper ly- ing,
Recumbens cum fratribus,	'Mid the twelve His chosen band,

Observata lege plene Cibis in legalibus,	Jesus, with the law complying Keeps the Feast its rites de- mand ;
Cibum turbæ duodenæ Se dat suis manibus.	The, nmore precious Food sup- plying, Gives Himself with His Own hand.
Verbum caro, panem verum Verbo carnem efficit,	Word-made-Flesh, true bread He maketh By His Word His Flesh to be ;
Fitque sanguis Christi merum, Etsi sensus deficit :	Wine, His Blood ; which who- so taketh Must from carnal thoughts be free ;
Ad firmandum cor sincerum Sola fides sufficit.	Faith alone, though sight for- saketh, Shows true hearts the Mys- tery.
Tantum ergo Sacramentum Veneremur cernui : Et antiquum documentum Novo cedat ritui : Præstet fides supplementum Sensuum defectui.	Therefore we, before Him bending, This great Sacrament revere ; Types and shadows have their ending, For the newer Rite is here ; Faith, our outward sense be- friending, Makes our inward vision clear.
Genitori, Genitoque Laus et jubilatio, Salus, honor, virtus quoque Sit et benedictio : Procedenti ab utroque Compar sit laudatio.	Glory let us give, and bless- ing, To the Father and the Son, Honor, laud, and praise ad- dressing, And eternal benison. Holy Ghost, from both pro- gressing, Equal laud to Thee be done.

Amen.(i)

Amen.(i)

30. CORPUS CHRISTI. MATINS.

SACRIS solemnīs juncta
sint gaudia,
Et ex præcordiis sonent
præconia ;
Recedant vetera, nova sint om-
nia,
Corda, voces et opera.

Noctis recolitur cœna novissi-
ma,
Qua Christus creditur agnum et azyma
Dedisse fratribus, juxta legiti-
ma
Priscis indulta patribus.

Post agnum typicum, expletis epulis,
Corpus Dominicum datum dis-
cipulis,
Sic totum omnibus, quod totum
singulis,
Ejus fatemur manibus.

Dedit fragilibus corporis ferculum,
Dedit et tristibus sanguinis po-
culum,

LET this our solemn feast
With holy joys be crowned,
And from each loving breast
The voice of gladness sound ;
Let ancient things depart,
And all be new around,
In every act and voice and heart.

Remember we that eve,
That Supper last and dread,
When Christ, as we believe,
The Lamb and leavenless
Bread
Unto His brethren brought,
And thus the law obeyed
Of old time to the fathers taught.

But when the law's repast
Was o'er, the type complete,
To His disciples last
The Lord His Flesh to eat,
The whole to all, no less
The whole to each, doth mete,
With His own hand, as we confess.

He gave the weak and frail
His Body for their food,
The sad for their regale
The Chalice of His Blood,

Dicens, Accipite quod trado
 vasculum,
 Omnes ex eo bibite.

And said—Take ye of this,
 My Cup with life imbued;
 O drink ye all this draught of bliss!

Sic sacrificium istud instituit,
 Cujus officium committi voluit
 Solis presbyteris, quibus sic
 congruit,
 Ut sumant, et dent cæteris.

He ordered in this wise
 Our Holy Offering
 To be the Sacrifice
 Which Priests alone should bring:
 For whom is meet and fit
 That they should eat of
 it,
 And in their turn to others
 give.

Panis Angelicus fit panis homi-
 num:
 Dat panis cœlicus figuris ter-
 minum:
 O res mirabilis! manducat Do-
 minum
 Pauper, servus et humilis.

Lo! Angels' Bread is made
 The Bread of mortal man;
 Shows forth this heavenly
 Bread
 The ends which types began;
 O wondrous boon indeed!
 Upon his Lord now can
 A poor and humble servant
 feed!

Te trina Deitas unaque posci-
 mus,
 Sic nos tu visita, sicut te coli-
 mus:
 Per tuas semitas duc nos quo
 tendimus,
 Ad lucem, quam inhabitas.
 Amen.

Thee, Deity Triune
 Yet One, we meekly pray
 O visit us right soon,
 As we our homage pay;
 And in Thy footsteps bright
 Conduct us on our way
 To where Thou dwell'st in cloudless light. Amen.

31. CORPUS CHRISTI. LAUDS.

VERBUM supernum pro-
 diens,
 Nec Patris linquens dex-teram,

THE Word of God proceeding forth,
 Yet leaving not the Father's side,

Ad opus suum exiens,	And going to His work on earth,
Venit ad vitæ vesperam.	Had reached at length life's eventide.
In mortem a discipulo Suis tradendus æmulis,	By a disciple to be given To rivals for His Blood athirst,
Prius in vitæ ferculo	Himself, the very Bread of heaven,
Se tradidit discipulis.	He gave to His disciples first.
Quibus sub bina specie Carnem dedit et sanguinem,	He gave Himself in either kind, His precious Flesh, His precious Blood ;
Ut duplicis substantiæ	Of flesh and blood is man combined,
Totum cibaret hominem.	And He of man would be the Food.
Se nascens dedit socium,	In birth, man's fellow-man was He :
Convalescens in edulium,	His Meat, while sitting at the board ;
Se moriens in pretium, Se regnans dat in præmium.	He died, his Ransomer to be ; He reigns, to be his great Reward.
O salutaris hostia, Quæ cœli pandis ostium :	O saving Victim, slain to bless, Who op'ed the heavenly gate to all :
Bella premunt hostilia,	The attacks of many a foe oppress :
Da robur, fer auxilium.	Give strength in strife, and help in fall.
Uni, trinoque Domino	To God, the Three in One, ascend
Sit sempiterna gloria,	All thanks and praise for evermore ;
Qui vitam sine termino	He grants the life that shall not end,
Nobis donet in patria. Amen.	Upon the heavenly country's shore. Amen.

32. CORPUS CHRISTI. PROCESSIONAL.

LAUDA Sion Salvatorem,

Lauda Ducem et Pas-
torem,

In hymnis et canticis.
Quantum potes, tantum aude ;

Quia major omni laude,
Nec laudare sufficis.

Laudis thema specialis,

Panis vivus et vitalis

Hodie proponitur.
Quem in sacræ mensa coenæ

Turbæ fratrum duodenæ

Datum non ambigitur :

Sit laus plena, sit sonora,

Sit jucunda, sit decora

Mentis jubilatio.
Dies enim solemnus agitur,

In qua mensæ prima recolitur

Hujus institutio.

In hac mensa novi Regis,

Novum pascha novæ legis

Phase vetus terminat.
Vetustatem novitas,
Umbram fugat veritas,

Noctem lux eliminat.

PRAISE high thy Saviour,
Sion, praise,

With hymns of joy and holy lays,

Thy Guide and Shepherd true.
Dare all thou canst, yea, take thy fill

Of praise and adoration, still
Thou fail'st to reach His due.

A special theme for thankful hearts,

The bread that lives, and life
imparts,

To-day is duly set ;
Which, at the solemn festal
board,

Was dealt around when, with their Lord,
His chosen Twelve were met.

Full be the praise, and sweetly sounding,

With joy and reverence abound-
ing,

The soul's glad festival.
This is the day of glorious state,

When of that feast we celebrate
The high original.

'Tis here our King makes all things new,

And living rules and offerings
true

Absorb each legal rite ;
Before the new retreats the old,
And life succeeds to shadows
cold,

And day displaces night.

Quod in cœna Christus gessit,	His faithful followers Christ hath bid
Faciendum hoc expressit In sui memoriam.	To do what at the feast He did, For sweet remembrance' sake ;
Docti sacris institutis,	And, gifted through His high commands,
Panem, vinum in salutis Consecramus hostiam.	Of bread and wine their priest- ly hands A saving victim make.
Dogma datur Christianis,	O Truth to Christian love displayed,
Quod in carnem transit panis, Et vinum in sanguinem.	The bread His very Body made, His very Blood the wine ;
Quod non capis, quod non vi- des, Animosa firmat fides	Nor eye beholds, nor thought conceives, But dauntless Faith the change believes
Præter rerum ordinem.	Wrought by a power divine.
Sub diversis speciebus, Signis tantum et non rebus,	Beneath two differing species (Signs only, not their sub- stances)
Latent res eximiæ. Caro cibus, sanguis potus :	Lie mysteries deep and rare. His Flesh the meat, the drink His Blood,
Manet tamen Christus totus Sub utraque specie.	Yet Christ entire, our heaven- ly Food, Beneath each kind is there.
A sumente non concisus, Non confractus, non divisus,	And they who of the Lord partake Nor sever Him, nor rend, nor break :
Integer accipitur. Sumit unus, sumunt mille,	All gain, and naught is lost ; The boon now one, now thou- sands claim,
Quantum isti, tantum ille, Nec sumptus consumitur.	Yet one and all receive the same— Receive, but ne'er exhaust.

Sumunt boni, sumunt mali :	The gift is shared by all, yet tends,
Sorte tamen inæquali	In bad and good, to differing ends
Vitæ vel interitus.	Of blessing or of woe ;
Mors est malis, vita bonis,	What death to some, salvation brings
Vide paris sumptionis	To others: lo! from common springs
Quam sit dispar exitus.	What various issues flow !
Fracto demum Sacramento,	Nor be thy faith confounded, though
Ne vacilles, sed memento,	The Sacrament be broke, for know,
Tantum esse sub fragmento	The life which in the whole doth glow
Quantum toto tegitur.	In every part remains ;
Nulla rei fit scissura ;	No force the Substance can divide
Signi tantum fit fractura ;	Which those meek forms terrestrial hide :
Qua nec status nec statura	The Sign is broke ; the signified
Signati minuitur.	Nor change nor loss sustains.
Ecce panis Angelorum,	The Bread of angels, lo! is sent
Factus cibus viatorum :	For weary pilgrims' nourishment ;
Vere panis filiorum :	The children's Bread, not to be spent
Non mittendus canibus.	On worthless dogs profane ;
In figuris præsignatur,	In types significant portrayed,
Cum Isaac immolatur :	Young Isaac on the altar laid,
Agnus Paschæ deputatur,	And paschal offerings duly made,
Datur manna patribus.	And manna's fruitful rain.
Bone Pastor, panis vere,	O Thou good Shepherd, Very Bread,
Jesu, nostri miserere :	Jesu, on us Thy mercy shed ;

Tu nos pasce, nos tuere,	Sweetly feed us,
	Gently lead us,
Tu nos bona fac videre	Till of Thy Fulness us Thou
	give
In terra viventium.	Safe in the land of those that live.
Tu qui cuncta scis et vales,	Thou who can'st all, and all
	dost know,
Qui nos pascis hic mortales :	Thou who dost feed us here
	below,
Tuos ibi commensales,	Grant us to share
	Thy banquet there,
Cohæredes et sodales	Co-heirs and partners of Thy
	love
Fac sanctorum civium.	With the blest citizens above.
Amen. Alleluia.	Amen. Alleluia.

33. THE MOST HOLY NAME OF JESUS.

Second Sunday after Epiphany.

JESU dulcis memoria,
Dans vera cordis gaudia :

Sed super mel et omnia

Ejus dulcis præsentia.

Nil canitur suavius,

Nil auditur jucundius,

Nil cogitatur dulcius,

Quam Jesus Dei Filius.

Jesu spes pœnitentibus,

Quam pius es petentibus !

Quam bonus te quærentibus !

Sed quid invenientibus !

JESUS ! the very thought of
Thee

With sweetness fills my breast ;

But sweeter far Thy face to
see,

And in Thy presence rest.

Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,

Nor can the memory find

A sweeter sound than that blest
name,

O Saviour of mankind !

O hope of every contrite heart,

O joy of all the meek,

To those who fall how kind
Thou art !

How good to those who seek !

Nec lingua valet dicere,	But what to those who find ? Ah ! this
Nec littera exprimere, Expertus potest credere, Quid sit Jesum diligere.	Nor tongue nor pen can show; The love of Jesus, what it is, None but His loved ones know.
Sis, Jesu, nostrum gaudium, Qui es futurus præmium : Sit nostra in te gloria, Per cuncta semper sæcula.	Jesus, our only joy be Thou, As Thou our prize wilt be ; Jesus, be Thou our glory now, Our hope, our victory.
Amen.	Amen.

34. THE PATRONAGE OF ST. JOSEPH.

Third Sunday after Easter.

T E, Joseph, celebrant agmina cœlitum, Te cuncti resonent Christiadum chori, Qui clarus meritis, junctus es inclytæ Casto fœdere Virgini.	J OSEPH, pure spouse of that immortal Bride Who shines in ever-virgin glory bright, Thy praise let all the earth re- echoing send Back to the realms of light.
Almo cum tumidam germine conjugem Admirans, dubio tangeris anx- ius, Afflatu superi Flaminis angelus Conceptum puerum docet.	Thee, when sore doubts of thine affianced wife Had filled thy righteous spirit with dismay, An Angel visited, and, with blest words, Scattered thy fears away.
Tu natum Dominum stringis, ad exteras Ægypti profugum tu sequeris plagas ; Amissum Solymis quæris et in- venis, Miscens gaudia fletibus.	Thine arms embraced thy Ma- ker newly born, With Him to Egypt's desert didst thou flee ; Him in Jerusalem didst seek and find ; O day of joy to thee !
Post mortem reliquos mors pia consecrat, Palmamque emeritos gloria suscipit :	Not until after death their bliss- ful crown Others obtain ; but unto thee was given

Tu vivens, superis par, frueris Deo, Mira sorte beator.	In thine own lifetime to enjoy thy God, As do the blest in heaven.
Nobis, summa Trias, parce pre- cantibus, Da Joseph meritis sidera scan- dere:	Grant us, great Trinity, for Joseph's sake, The heights of immortality to gain:
Ut tandem liceat nos tibi per- petim Gratum promere canticum.	There with glad tongues Thy praise to celebrate In one eternal strain.
Amen.	Amen.

35. THE NATIVITY OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST.

α T * queant laxis resonare fibris Mira gestorum famuli tuorum, Solve polluti labii reatum Sancte Joannes.	O THAT once more, to sin- ful men descending, Thou from polluted lips their chains wert rending, So, holy John, might worthy hymns ascending Tell of thy wonders.
Nuntius celso veniens Olympo, Te patri magnum fore nasci- turum, Nomen, et vitæ seriem ge- rendæ Ordine promit.	Lo! from the hill of heaven's eternal glory Comes a bright herald to thy father hoary, Gives thee thy name, thy birth and wondrous story Truly foretelling.
Ille promissi dubius superni, Perdidit promptæ modulos lo- quelæ, Sed reformasti genitus pe- remptæ Organa vocis.	But, while the heav'nly word he disbelieveth, Lo! all his power of ready utt'rance leaveth, Till by thy birth his tongue again receiveth Power of speaking.

* The first verse of this hymn is of interest to musicians, as the initial syllables of each line (marked in italics) are those chosen by Guido of Arezzo for the musical scale.

Ventris obstruso recubans cu- bili, Senserat Regem thalamo ma- nentem :	Thou, while thy mother's womb was thee containing, Knewest thy King, in secret still remaining ;
Hinc parens, nati meritis, uterque Abdita pandit.	Thus was each parent through her child obtaining Knowledge of mysteries.
Sit decus Patri, genitæque Proli, Et tibi, compar utriusque Vir- tus	Father and Son, to Thee be adoration ; Spirit of Both, to Thee like veneration ;
Spiritus semper, Deus unus, omni Temporis ævo. Amen.	Praise to the One true God of our salvation, Ever and ever. Amen.

36. SS. PETER AND PAUL. (June 29.)

D ECORA lux æternitatis, auream Diem beatis irrigavit ignibus Apostolorum quæ coronat prin- cipes, Reisque in astra liberam pandit viam.	B ATHED in eternity's all- beauteous beam, And opening into hea- ven a path sublime, Welcome the golden day which heralds in The Apostolic Chiefs, whose glory fills all time !
Mundi Magister, atque cœli Janitor, Romæ parentes, arbitrique gen- tium, Per ensis ille, hic per crucis vic- tor necem Vitæ senatum laureati possi- dent.	Peter and Paul, the fathers of great Rome ! Now sitting in the Senate of the skies ! One by the Cross, the other by the Sword, Sent to their thrones on high, and life's eternal prize.
O Roma felix ! quæ duorum Principum Es consecrata glorioso san- guine : Horum cruore purpurata cæte- ras Excellis orbis una pulchritu- dines.	O happy Rome ! whom that most glorious blood For ever consecrates while ages flow : Thou, thus empurpled, art more beautiful Than all that doth appear most beautiful below.

Sit Trinitati sempiterna gloria,	Praise, blessing, majesty,
Honor, potestas, atque jubilatio,	through endless days,
In unitate, quæ gubernat omnia,	Be to the Trinity immortal
Per universa sæculorum sæcula.	given ;
Amen.	Who, in pure Unity, profoundly
	sways
	Eternally all things alike in
	earth and heaven. Amen.

37. THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD.

(First Sunday of July.)

FESTIVIS resonent com-
pita vocibus,
Cives lætitiæ frontibus
explicent,
Tædis flammiferis ordine pro-
deant,
Instructi pueri et senes.

Quem dura moriens Christus in arborescente
Fudit multiplici vulnere San-guinem,
Nos facti memores dum colimus,
deceat
Saltem fundere lacrymas.

Humano generi perniciæ gravis
Adami veteris crimine contigit :
Adami integritas et pietas novi
Vitæ reddidit omnibus.

Clamorem validum summus ab
æthere
Languentis Geniti si Pater au-
diit,
Placari potius sanguine debuit,
Et nobis veniam dare.

FORTH let the long procession stream,
And through the streets
in order wend ;
Let the bright waving line of torches gleam,
The solemn chant ascend ;

While we, with tears and sighs profound,
That memorable Blood record
Which, stretched on His hard cross, from many a wound
The dying Jesus poured.

By the first Adam's fatal sin Came death upon the human race ;
In this new Adam doth new life
begin,
And everlasting grace.

For scarce the Father heard from heaven
The cry of His expiring Son,
When in that cry our sins were all forgiven,
And boundless pardon won.

Hoc quicumque stolam sanguine proluit, Abstergit maculas, et roseum decus Quo fiat similis protinus Angelis, Et regi placeat, capit.	Henceforth, whoso in that dear Blood Washeth shall lose his every stain : And in immortal roseate beauty robed, An angel's likeness gain.
A recto instabilis tramite postmodum Se nullus retrahat, meta sed ultima Tangatur : tribuet nobile præmium, Qui cursum Deus adjuvat.	Only run thou with courage on Straight to the goal set in the skies ; He who assists thy course will give thee soon The everlasting prize.
Nobis propitius sis, Genitor potens, Ut quos unigenæ Sanguine Filii Emisti, et placido Flamine recreas, Cœli ad culmina transferas. Amen.	Father supreme ! vouchsafe that we, For whom Thine only Son was slain, And whom thy Holy Spirit sanctifies, May heavenly joys attain. Amen.

38. THE TRANSFIGURATION. (August 6.)

Q UICUMQUE Christum quæritis, Oculos in altum tollite :	A LL ye who seek, in hope and love, For your dear Lord, look up above :
Illic licebit visere Signum perennis gloriæ.	Where, traced upon the azure sky, Faith may a glorious form descry.
Illustre quiddam cernimus, Quod nesciat finem pati, Sublime, celsum, interminum, Antiquius cœlo et chao.	Lo ! on the trembling verge of light A something all divinely bright : Immortal, infinite, sublime ! Older than chaos, space, or time :

Hic ille Rex est Gentium	Hail, Thou the Gentiles' mighty Lord !
Populique Rex judaici, Promissus Abrahæ patri	All hail, O Israel's King adored ! To Abraham sworn in ages past,
Ejusque in ævum semini.	And to his seed while earth shall last.
Hunc et prophetis testibus,	To Thee the prophets witness bear ;
Iisdemque signatoribus, Testator et pater jubet	Of Thee the Father doth declare That all who would His glory see
Audire nos, et credere.	Must hear and must believe in Thee.
Jesu, tibi sit gloria,	To Jesus, from the proud concealed,
Qui te revelas parvulis, Cum Patre, et almo Spiritu, In sempiterna sæcula.	But evermore to babes revealed, All glory with the Father be, And Holy Ghost, eternally.
Amen.	Amen.

39. THE SEVEN SORROWS OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN. (Third Sunday in September.)

O QUOT undis lacrymarum, Quo dolore volvitur,	W HAT a sea of tears and sorrows Did the soul of Mary
Luctuosa de cruento Dum revulsum stipite,	toss To and fro upon its billows, While she wept her bitter loss ;
Cernit ulnis incubantem Virgo mater filium.	In her arms her Jesus holding, Torn but newly from the Cross !
Os suave, mite pectus, Et latus dulcissimum,	O that mournful Virgin Mother ! See her tears how fast they flow

Dexteramque vulneratam,
Et sinistram sauciam,

Et rubras cruore plantas

Ægra tingit lacrymis.

Centiesque, milliesque
Stringit arctis nexibus
Pectus illud et lacertos,
Illa figit vulnera,

Sicque tota colliquescit

In doloris osculis.

Eia, Mater, obsecramus
Per tuas has lacrymas,
Filiique triste funus,

Vulnerumque purpuram,

Hunc tui cordis dolorem

Conde nostris cordibus.

Esto Patri, Filioque,
Et Coævo Flamini,

Esto summæ Trinitati Sempiterna gloria ;

Et perennis laus honorque,
Hoc et omni sæculo.

Amen.

Down upon His mangled body,
Wounded side, and thorny
brow ;

While His hands and feet she kisses,

Picture of immortal woe !

Oft and oft His arms and bosom
Fondly straining to her own ;
Oft her pallid lips imprinting
On each wound of her dear
Son,

Till at last, in swoons of anguish,

Sense and consciousness are gone.

Gentle Mother, we beseech thee,
By thy tears and trouble sore,
By the death of thy dear Offspring,

By the bloody wounds He bore,

Touch our hearts with that true sorrow

Which afflicted thee of yore.

To the Father everlasting,
And the Son who reigns on
high,

With the coeternal Spirit,
Trinity in Unity,

Be salvation, honor, blessing,
Now and through eternity.

Amen.

40. ST. MICHAEL, ARCHANGEL. (September 29.)

TE splendor et virtus Pa-tris,

Te vita, Jesu, cordium,

O JESU ! life-spring of the soul !

The Father's power,
and glory bright !

Ab ore qui pendent tuo,	Thee with the angels we extol :
Laudamus inter Angelos.	From Thee they draw their life and light.
Tibi mille densa millium	Thy thousand thousand hosts are spread
Ducum corona militat :	Embattled o'er the azure sky :
Sed explicat victor crucem	But Michael bears Thy standard dread,
Michael salutis signifer.	And lifts the mighty Cross on high.
Draconis hic dirum caput	He in that sign the rebel powers
In ima pellit tartara,	Did with their dragon prince expel ;
Ducemque cum rebellibus	And hurled them, from the heaven's high towers,
Cœlesti ab arce fulminat.	Down like a thunderbolt to hell.
Contra ducem superbiam	Grant us with Michael still, O Lord,
Sequamur hunc nos Principem,	Against the Prince of Pride to fight ;
Ut detur ex Agni throno	So may a crown be our reward
Nobis corona gloriæ.	Before the Lamb's pure throne of light.
Patri, simulque Filio,	Now to the Father, and the Son
Tibique Sancte Spiritus,	And Holy Ghost, all glory be,
Sicut fuit, sit jugiter,	As ever was in ages gone,
Sæclum per omne gloria.	And shall be so eternally.
Amen.	Amen.

41. THE HOLY GUARDIAN ANGELS. (October 2.)

CUSTODES hominum psal-limus angelos,
Naturæ fragili quos Pa-
ter addidit
Cœlestis comites, insidiantibus
Ne succumberet hostibus.

PRAISE those ministers celestial Whom the dread Father chose
To be the Guardians of our nature frail
Against our scheming foes.

Nam quod corruerit proditor angelus, Concessis merito pulsus hono- ribus, Ardens invidia pellere nititur, Quos cœlo Deus advocat.	For, since that from his glory in the skies The apostate angel fell, Burning with envy, evermore he tries To drown our souls in hell.
Huc custos igitur pervigil ad- vola, Avertens patria de tibi credita Tam morbos animi, quam re- quiescere Quidquid non sinit incolas.	Then hither, watchful Spirit, bend thy wing, Our country's Guardian blest! Avert her threatening ills, ex- pel each thing That hindereth her rest.
Sanctæ sit Triadi laus pia jugiter, Cujus perpetuo numine ma- china Triplex hæc regitur, cujus in omnia Regnat gloria sæcula. Amen.	Praise to the glorious Trinity, whose strength This mighty fabric sways; Whose glory spreads beyond the utmost length Of everlasting days. Amen.

42. ST. RAPHAEL, ARCHANGEL. (October 24.)

T IBI, Christe, splendor Pa- tris, Vita, virtus cordium : In conspectu angelorum Votis, voce psallimus : Alternantes concrepando Melos damus vocibus.	J ESU, brightness of the Fa- ther! Life and strength of all who live! In the presence of the Angels, Glory to Thy name we give, And Thy wondrous praise re- hearse, Singing in alternate verse.
Collaudamus venerantes, Omnes cœli principes, Sed præcipue fidelem Medicum et comitem Raphaellem, in virtute Alligantem dæmonem.	Hail, too, ye angelic powers! Hail, ye thrones celestial! Hail, Physician of salvation, Guide of life, blest Raphael! Who the foe of all mankind Didst in links of iron bind.

Quo custode procul pelle,
 Rex Christe piissime,
 Omne nefas inimici,
 Mundo corde et corpore :
 Paradiso redde tuo
 Nos sola clementia.

O may Christ, by thy protection,
 Shelter us from harm this
 day ;
 Keep us pure in flesh and spirit,
 Save us from the enemy ;
 And vouchsafe us, of His grace,
 In His Paradise a place.

Gloriam Patri melodis
 Personemus vocibus :
 Gloriam Christo canamus,
 Gloriam Paraclito ;
 Qui trinus et unus Deus
 Extat ante sæcula.

Glory to th' Almighty Father
 Sing we now in anthems
 sweet ;
 Glory to the great Redeemer,
 Glory to the Paraclete ;
 Three in one, and one in three,
 Amen. Throughout all eternity. Amen.

43. THE MATERNITY OF THE BLESSED VIR- GIN. (Third Sunday in October.)

CELO Redemptor prætulit
 Felicis alvum Virginis,
 Ubi caduca membra
 Mortale corpus induit.

THE Saviour left high Heaven to dwell
 Within the Virgin's
 womb,
 And there arrayed Himself in Flesh,
 Our Victim to become.

Hæc Virgo nobis edidit
 Nostræ salutis auspicem,
 Qui nos redemit sanguine,
 Pœnas crucemque pertulit.

She unto us divinely bore
 Salvation's King and God,
 Who died for us upon the Cross,
 Who saves us in His Blood.

Spes læta nostro e pectore
 Pellat timores anxios :
 Hæc quippe nostras lacrymas,
 Precesque defert Filio.

She too our joyful hope shall
 be,
 And drive away all fears,
 Offering for us to her dear Son
 Our contrite sighs and tears.

Voces parentis excipit,
 Votisque natus annuit :

That Son, He hears His Mother's prayer,

Hanc quisque semper diligit,
Rebusque in arctis invocet.

And grants, ere it be said ;
Be ours to love her and invoke
In every strait her aid.

Sit Trinitati gloria,
Quæ Matris intactum sinum
Ditavit almo germine,
Laus sit per omne sæculum.

Praise to the Glorious Trinity
While endless times proceed,
Who in that bosom, pure of stain,
Sowed such immortal seed.

Amen.

Amen.

44. ALL SAINTS. (November 1.)

PLACARE, Christe, servulis,
Quibus Patris clemen-
tiam

Tuæ ad Tribunal gratiæ

Patrona Virgo postulat.

Et vos beata, per novem,
Distincta gyros agmina :

Antiqua cum præsentibus,
Futura damna pellite.

Apostoli cum Vatibus,
Apud severum Judicem
Veris reorum fletibus

Exposcite indulgentiam.

Vos purpurati Martyres,
Vos candidati præmio

Confessionis, exules
Vocate nos in patriam.

O CHRIST, Thy guilty people spare !

Lo, bending at Thy gracious throne,
Thy Virgin Mother pours her
prayer,
Imploring pardon for her
own.

Ye Angels, happy evermore !
Who in your circles nine ascend,

As ye have guarded us before,
So still from harm our steps defend.

Ye Prophets and Apostles high !
Behold our penitential tears ;
And plead for us when death is
nigh,
And our all-searching Judge appears.

Ye Martyrs all ! a purple band,
And Confessors, a white-
robed train :

O call us to our native land,
From this our exile, back
again.

Chorea casta Virginum,	And ye, O choirs of Virgins chaste,
Et quos eremus incolas	Receive us to your seats on high,
Transmisit astris Cœlitum,	With hermits whom the desert waste
Locate nos in sedibus.	Sent up of old into the sky.
Auferte gentem perfidam	Drive from the flock, O Spirits blest !
Credientium de finibus ;	The false and faithless race away ;
Ut unus omnes unicum	That all within one fold may rest,
Ovile nos Pastor regat.	Secure beneath one Shep- herd's sway.
Deo Patri sit gloria,	To God the Father glory be,
Natoque Patris unico,	And to His sole-begotten Son ;
Sancto simul Paraclito,	The same, O Holy Ghost, to Thee,
In sempiterna sæcula.	While everlasting ages run.
	Amen. Amen.

45. THE COMMON OF APOSTLES AND EVANGELISTS.

E XULTET orbis gaudiis:	N OW let the earth with joy resound,
Cœlum resultat laudibus :	And highest heaven re- echo round ;
Apostolorum gloriam	Nor heaven nor earth too high can raise
Tellus et astra concinunt.	The great Apostles' glorious praise.
Vos sæculorum Judices,	O ye who, throned in glory dread,
Et vera mundi lumina,	Shall judge the living and the dead !
Votis precamur cordium :	Lights of the world for ever- more !

Audite voces supplicum.	To you the suppliant prayer we pour.
Qui templa cœli clauditis,	Ye close the sacred gates on high;
Serasque verbo solvitis,	At your command apart they fly:
Nos a reatu noxios	O loose us from the guilty chain
Solvi jubete, quæsumus.	We strive to break, and strive in vain.
Præcepta quorum protinus	Sickness and health your voice obey;
Languor, salusque sentiunt:	At your command they go or stay:
Sanate mentes languidas:	O then from sin our souls re- store;
Augete nos virtutibus.	Increase our virtues more and more.
Ut, cum redibit Arbiter In fine Christus sæculi,	So when the world is at its end, And Christ to judgment shall descend,
Nos sempiterni gaudii	May we be called those joys to see,
Concedat esse compotes.	Prepared from all eternity.
Patri, simulque Filio,	Praise to the Father, with the Son,
Tibique sancte Spiritus,	And Holy Spirit, Three in One;
Sicut fuit, sit jugiter Sæclum per omne gloria.	As ever was in ages past, And shall be so while ages last.
Amen.	Amen.

46. THE COMMON OF APOSTLES AND EVANGELISTS, AT EASTERTIDE.

TRISTES erant Apostoli
De Christi acerbo funere,

WHEN Christ, by His own servants slain,
Had died upon the bitter Cross.

Quem morte crudelissima	The Apostles, of their joy bereft,
Servi necarant impii.	Were weeping their dear Master's loss :
Sermone verax Angelus	Meanwhile an Angel at the tomb
Mulieribus prædixerat :	To holy women hath foretold,
Mox ore Christus gaudium	"The faithful flock with joy shall soon
Gregi feret fidelium.	Their Lord in Galilee behold."
Ad anxios Apostolos	Who, as they run the news to bring,
Currunt statim dum nuntiæ,	Lo, straightway Christ Himself they meet,
Illæ micantis obvia	All radiant bright with heavenly light,
Christi tenent vestigia.	And, falling, clasp His sacred feet.
Galilææ ad alta montium	To Galilee's lone mountain height
Se conferunt Apostoli,	The Apostolic band retire,
Jesque, voti compotes,	There, blest with their dear Saviour's sight,
Almo beantur lumine.	Enjoy in full their souls' desire.
Ut sis perenne mentibus	O Jesu, from the death of sin
Paschale Jesu gaudium,	Keep us, we pray; so shalt Thou be
A morte dira criminum	The everlasting Paschal joy
Vitæ renatos libera.	Of all the souls new-born in Thee.
Deo Patri sit gloria,	To God the Father, with the Son
Et Filio qui a mortuis	Who from the grave immortal rose,

Surrexit, ac Paraclito,

In sempiterna sæcula.

Amen.

And Thee, O Paraclete, be praise,

While age on endless ages
flows.

Amen.

47. THE COMMON OF ONE MARTYR.

DEUS, tuorum militum
Sors, et corona, præmi-

um,
Laudes canentes Martyris

Absolve nexu criminis.

Hic nempe mundi gaudia,

Et blanda fraudum pabula

Imbuta felle deputans,

Pervenit ad cœlestia.

Pœnas cucurrit fortiter,

Et sustulit viriliter,

Fundensque pro te sanguinem,

Æterna dona possidet.

Ob hoc precatu supplici

Te poscimus, piissime :

In hoc triumpho Martyris

Dimitte noxam servulis.

O GOD, Thy soldiers'
Crown and Guard,
And their exceeding
great reward,

From all transgressions set us
free,

Who sing Thy Martyr's victory.

The pleasures of the world he spurned,

From sin's pernicious lures
he turned ;

He knew their joys imbued with gall :

And thus he reached Thy heavenly hall.

For Thee through many a woe
he ran,

In many a fight he played the man ;

For Thee his blood he dared to pour,

And thence hath joy for ever-
more.

We therefore pray Thee, full of
love,

Regard us from Thy throne
above :

On this Thy Martyr's triumph-
day

Wash every stain of sin away.

Laus et perennis gloria
Patri sit, atque Filio,

Sancto simul Paraclito,

In sempiterna sæcula.

Amen.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine
only Son :

Who, with the Holy Ghost and
Thee,

Shall live and reign eternally.

Amen,

48. THE COMMON OF MANY MARTYRS.

SANCTORUM meritis inclyta gaudia
Pangamus socii, gestaque fortia :

Gliscens fert animus promere
cantibus

Victorum genus optimum.

THE merits of the Saints,
Blessèd for evermore,
Their love that never
faints,

The toils they bravely bore—
For these the Church to-day
Pours forth her joyous lay :
These victors win the noblest bay.

Hi sunt, quos fatue mundus ab-
horruit,

Hunc fructu vacuum, floribus
aridum,

Contempserè tui nominis asseclæ,

Jesu Rex bone Cœlitum.

They, whom this world of ill,
While it yet held, abhorred :
Its withering flowers that still They spurned with one accord :

They knew them short-lived all,
And followed at Thy call,
King Jesu, to Thy heavenly hall.

Hi pro te furias atque minas
truces

Calcarunt hominum, sæva-que verbera :

His cessit lacerans fortiter un-
gula,

Nec carpsit penetralia.

For Thee all pangs they bare,
Fury and mortal hate,
The cruel scourge to tear,
The hook to lacerate ;
But vain their foes' intent :
For, every torment spent,
Their valiant spirits stood un-bent.

Cæduntur gladiis more bidenti-
um :

Non murmur resonat, non quærimonia :

Like sheep their blood they poured :

And without groan or tear
They bent before the sword

Sed corde impavido mens bene conscia Conservat patientiam.	For that their King most dear : Their souls, serenely blest, In patience they possessed, And looked in hope towards their rest.
Quæ vox, quæ poterit lingua retexere Quæ tu Martyribus munera præparas? Rubri nam fluido sanguine ful- gidis Cingunt tempora laureis.	What tongue may here declare, Fancy or thought descry, The joys Thou dost prepare For these Thy Saints on high? Empurpled in the flood Of their victorious blood, They won the laurel from their God.
Te, summa O Deitas, unaque, poscimus, Ut culpas abigas, noxia sub- trahas, Des pacem famulis, ut tibi glo- riam Annorum in seriem canant. Amen.	To Thee, O Lord Most High, One in Three Persons still, To pardon us we cry, And to preserve from ill : Here give Thy servants peace, Hereafter glad release, And pleasures that shall never cease. Amen.

49. THE COMMON OF MARTYRS, EASTER- TIDE.

R EX gloriose Martyrum, Corona confitentium, Qui respuentes terrea Perducis ad cœlestia : Aurem benignam protinus Intende nostris vocibus : Trophæa sacra pangimus : Ignosce quod deliquimus.	A LL-GLORIOUS King of Martyrs Thou, Crown of Confessors here below ; Whom, casting earthly joys away, Thou guidest to celestial day : O quickly bend a gracious ear To this our suppliant voice of prayer ; As we their sacred triumphs chant, Forgiveness to our errors grant.
---	--

Tu vincis inter Martyres, Parcisque Confessoribus :

Tu vince nostra crimina,

Largitor indulgentiæ.

Deo Patri sit gloria,

Et Filio qui a mortuis

Surrexit, ac Paraclito
In sempiterna sæcula.

Amen.

In Martyrs, victory is Thine ;
In Thy Confessors, mercies shine :

Then conquer, Lord, our wickedness,
And us with loving pardon bless.

Now to the Father, and the Son

Who rose from death, all glory
be,

With Thee, O Holy Comforter,
Henceforth through all eternity. Amen.

50. THE COMMON OF CONFESSORS.

ISTE Confessor Domini, colentes
Quem pie laudant populi
per orbem,
Hac die lætus meruit beatas
Scandere sedes.

THIS is the day when Jesu's true Confessor,
Whose happy festal here
His people keep,
Hasting with joy to dwell with Him the Blessor,
Climbed Heaven's steep.

(If it be not the day of his death, the first verse is as follows :)

Iste Confessor Domini, colentes
Quem pie laudant populi per orbem,
Hac die lætus meruit supremos
Laudis honores.

Safe now for ever, Jesu's true
Confessor, Whose happy festal here His people keep,
Doth of his labors for his mighty Blessor
Rich harvest reap.

Qui pius, prudens, humilis, pudicus,
Sobriam duxit sine labe vitam,
Donec humanos animavit auræ
Spiritus artus.

Gentle was he, wise, pure, and lowly-hearted,
Sober and modest, ever foe to strife,
While in his frame there flowed
as yet unparted
Currents of life.

Cujus ob præstans meritum, frequentè	Ofttimes hath He whose face he sees in heaven,
Ægra quæ passim jacuere membra,	Being entreated for His ser- vant's sake,
Viribus morbi domitis, saluti Restituuntur.	To us on earth the same for healer given Sick whole to make.

Noster hinc illi chorus obse- quentem	Wherefore our choir, in thank- fulness adoring,
Concinit laudem, celebresque palmas;	Lifteth its voice with melody of laud,
Ut piis ejus precibus juvemur Omne per ævum.	While he on high for us his prayer is pouring Unto his God.

Sit salus illi, decus atque vir- tus,	Glory and honor, virtue and salvation
Qui super cœli solio corus- cans,	Be unto Him, who, in His might divine,
Totius mundi seriem guber- nat	Ruleth supremely over all crea- tion,
Trinus et unus. Amen.	One and yet, Trine. Amen.

51. THE COMMON OF VIRGINS.

I ESU, corona Virginum, Quem Mater illa concipit,	I ESUS, the Virgins' Crown, do Thou Accept us, as in prayer we bow;
Quæ sola Virgo parturit,	Born of that Virgin whom alone
Hæc vota clemens accipe.	The mother and the maid we own.
Qui pergis inter lilia,	Amongst the lilies Thou dost feed,
Septus choreis Virginum,	With virgin choirs accompa- nied;
Sponsus decorus gloria,	With glory decked, the spotless brides
Sponsisque reddens præmia.	Whose bridal gifts Thy love provides.

Quocumque tendis, Virgines	They, whereso'er Thy footsteps bend,
Sequuntur, atque laudibus	With hymns and praises still attend;
Post te canentes cursitant,	In blessed troops they follow Thee,
Hymnosque dulces personant.	With dance, and song, and mel- ody.
Te deprecamur supplices,	We pray Thee therefore to be- stow
Nostris ut addas sensibus	Upon our senses here below
Nescire prorsus omnia	Thy grace, that so we may en- dure,
Corruptionis vulnera.	From taint of all corruption pure.
Virtus, honor, laus, gloria	All laud to God the Father be:
Deo Patri cum Filio,	All laud, Eternal Son, to Thee:
Sancto simul Paraclito,	All laud, as is for ever meet,
In sæculorum sæcula.	To God the Holy Paraclete.
Amen.	Amen.

52. THE COMMON OF HOLY WOMEN.

H ORTEM virili pectore	H IGH let us all our voices raise
Laudemus omnes foemi- nam,	In that heroic woman's praise
Quæ sanctitatis gloria	Whose name, with saintly glory bright,
Ubique fulget inclyta.	Shines in the starry realms of light.
Hæc sancto amore saucia,	Filled with a pure celestial glow,
Dum mundi amorem noxium	She spurned all love of things below;
Horrescit, ad cœlestia	And heedless here on earth to stay,
Iter peregit arduum.	Climbed to the skies her toil- some way.

Carnem domans jejuniis,	With fasts her body she subdued,
Dulcique mentem pabulo	But filled her soul with prayer's sweet food ;
Orationis nutriens,	In other worlds she tastes the bliss
Cœli potitur gaudiis.	For which she left the joys of this.
Rex Christe, virtus fortium,	O Christ, the strength of all the strong,
Qui magna solus efficis,	To whom all our best deeds belong !
Hujus precatu quæsumus	Through her prevailing prayers on high,
Audi benignus supplices.	In mercy hear Thy people's cry.
Deo Patri sit gloria,	To God the Father, with the Son,
Ejusque soli Filio,	And Holy Spirit, Three in One,
Cum Spiritu Paraclito,	Be glory while the ages flow,
Nunc et per omne sæculum.	From all above and all below.
Amen.	Amen.

53. THE COMMON OF THE DEDICATION OF A CHURCH.

CELESTIS Urbs Jerusalem,
 Beata pacis visio,
 Quæ celsa de viventibus
 Saxis ad astra tolleris,
 Sponsæque ritu cingeris
 Mille Angelorum millibus.

O sorte nupta prospera,
 Dotata Patris gloria,
 Respersa Sponsi gratia,

BLESSED city, heavenly
 Salem,
 Vision dear of peace
 and love,
 Who, of living stones upbuild-
 ed,
 Art the joy of heaven above,
 And, with angel cohorts circled,
 As a bride to earth dost move !

From celestial realms descending,
 Ready for the nuptial bed,

Regina formosissima,
Christo jugata Principi,
Cœli corusca civitas.

Hic margaritis emicant,
Patentque cunctis ostia :
Virtute namque prævia
Mortalis illuc ducitur,
Amore Christi percitus
Tormenta quisquis sustinet.

Scalpri salubris ictibus,
Et tusione plurima,
Fabri polita malleo
Hanc saxa molem construunt,
Aptisque juncta nexibus
Locantur in fastigio.

Decus Parenti debitum
Sit usquequaque Altissimo,
Natoque Patris unico,
Et inclyto Paraclito,
Cui laus, potestas, gloria
Æterna sit per sæcula.

Amen.

To His presence, decked with jewels,
By her Lord shall she be led ;
All her streets, and all her bulwarks,
Of pure gold are fashionèd.

Bright with pearls her portal glitters !
It is open evermore ;
And, by virtue of His merits,
Thither faithful souls may soar
Who, for Christ's dear Name, in this world
Pain and tribulation bore.

Many a blow and biting sculpture
Polished well those stones elect,
In their places now compacted
By the heavenly Architect,
Who therewith hath willed for ever
That His palace should be decked.

Laud and honor to the Father ;
Laud and honor to the Son ;
Laud and honor to the Spirit,
Ever Three, and ever One :
Consubstantial, Co-eternal,
While unending ages run.

Amen.

54. THE COMMON OF ALL FEASTS OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY.

AVE maris stella,
Dei Mater alma,

HAIL, bright Star of ocean,
God's own Mother
blest,

Atque semper virgo,
Felix cœli porta.

Ever-sinless Virgin,
Gate of heavenly rest !

Sumens illud Ave
Gabrielis ore,
Funda nos in pace,
Mutans Hevæ nomen.

Taking that sweet AVE
Which from Gabriel came,
Peace confirm within us,
Changing EVA's name.

Solve vincla reis,
Profer lumen cæcis,
Mala nostra pelle,
Bona cuncta posce.

Break the captive's fetters ;
Light on blindness pour ;
All our ills expelling,
Every bliss implore.

Monstra te esse matrem ;
Sumat per te preces,
Qui pro nobis natus
Tulit esse tuus.

Show thyself a mother ;
May the Word Divine,
Born for us thine Infant,
Hear our prayers through thine.

Virgo singularis,
Inter omnes mitis,
Nos culpis solutos,
Mites fac et castos.

Virgin all excelling,
Mildest of the mild,
Freed from guilt, preserve us
Meek and undefiled ;

Vitam præsta puram,
Iter para tutum,
Ut videntes Jesum,
Semper collætémur.

Keep our life all spotless,
Make our way secure,
Till we find in Jesus
Joy for evermore.

Sit laus Deo Patri,
Summo Christo decus,
Spiritui Sancto,
Tribus honor unus. Amen.

Through the highest heaven
To the Almighty Three,
Father, Son, and Spirit,
One same glory be. Amen.

55. FOR THE BENEDICTION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

AVE verum Corpus, na-
tum
Ex Maria Virgine,

HAIL to Thee, True Body, sprung
From the Virgin Mary's
womb !

Vere passum, immolatum	The same that on the Cross was hung,
In cruce pro homine.	And bore for man the bitter doom !
Cujus latus perforatum	Thou whose Side was pierced, and flowed
Unda fluxit et sanguine, Esto nobis prægustatum, Mortis in examine.	Both with water and with blood, Suffer us to taste of Thee In our life's last agony.
O Clemens, O Pie, O Dulcis Jesu, Fili Mariæ.	O kind, O loving One ! O sweet Jesus ! Mary's Son !
Amen.	Amen.

ADORO te devote, latens
Deitas,
Quæ sub his figuris
vere latitas ;

Tibi se cor meum totum sub-jicit,
Quia te contemplans totum deficit.

Visus, gustus, tactus, in te fallitur,
Sed auditu solo tuto creditur.

Credo quidquid dixit Dei Filius :

Nil hoc verbo veritatis verius.

In cruce latebat sola Deitas,
At hic latet simul et Humanitas :
Ambo tamen credens atque
confitens,
Peto quod petivit latro pœni-tens.

HUMBLY I adore Thee,
hidden Deity,
Which beneath these symbols art concealed from
me :

Wholly in submission Thee my spirit hails,
For in contemplating Thee it wholly fails.

Seeing, touching, tasting, all are here deceived,
But by hearing only safely 'tis believed :

I believe whatever God's own
Son averred :

Nothing can be truer than Truth's very Word.

On the Cross Thy Godhead only was concealed,
Here not e'en Thy Manhood is to sight revealed :
But in both believing and confessing, Lord,
Ask I what the dying thief of Thee implored.

Plagas, sicut Thomas, non intueor, Deum tamen meum te confiteor.	I do not, like Thomas, see Thy Wounds appear, But with him confess my Lord and God is here.
Fac me tibi semper magis credere, In te spem habere, te diligere.	Grant this faith in me may evermore increase, And my hope in Thee, and love, may never cease.
O memoriale mortis Domini ! Panis vivus, vitam præstans homini ! Præsta meæ menti de te vivere, Et te illi semper dulce sapere.	O thrice-blest Memorial of my dying Lord. This true Bread of Life doth life to man afford ; Grant, O Lord, my soul may ever feed on Thee, And Thy taste of all things to it sweetest be.
Pie Pelicane, Jesu Domine, Me immundum munda tuo sanguine, Cujus una stilla salvum facere Totum mundum quit ab omni scelere.	Victim for Thy people, Jesu, Lord and God, Cleanse me, wretched sinner, in Thy precious Blood— Blood whereof one drop for humankind outpoured Might from all transgression have the world restored.
Jesu, quem velatum nunc aspicio, Oro, fiat illud, quod tam sitio, Ut, te revelata cernens facie, Visu sim beatus tuæ gloriæ. Amen.	Jesu, whom in this life veiled I behold, Grant what my soul thirsts for with desire untold ; O may I, beholding Thine unveiled grace, Rest in blissful vision of Thine open Face. Amen.

The following is usually sung after each verse :

Ave Jesu, Pastor fidelium ;	Jesus, Eternal Shepherd, hear our cry :
Adauge fidem omnium in te credentium.	Increase the faith of all whose souls on Thee rely.

O QUAM suavis est, Domine, Spiritus tuus! qui ut dulcedinem tuam in filios demonstrares, pane suavissimo, de cœlo præstito, esurientes reple bonis, fastidiosos divites dimittens inanes.

Alleluia.

O HOW gracious, O Lord, is Thy Spirit! Who, to show Thy sweetness to Thy children, by the sweetest food from Heaven, dost fill the hungry with good things, and sendest the proud rich empty away.

Alleluia.

O SACRUM Convivium, in quo Christus sumitur; recolitur memoria passionis ejus; mens impletur gratia, et futuræ gloriæ nobis pignus datur.

Alleluia.

O SACRED Banquet, wherein Christ is received; the memory of His Passion is renewed, the mind is filled with grace, and the pledge of future glory is given unto us.

Alleluia.

AND Postcommunions.

The Introits, Collects, Epistles, Gospels, and Postcommunions

FOR THE SUNDAYS AND PRINCIPAL FEASTS OF THE YEAR.

NOTE.—When a Feast of greater rank falls upon a Sunday, the Mass is of the Feast; the Collect of the Sunday is said after the Collect of the day, and the Gospel of the Sunday is read at the end of Mass, in place of the usual Gospel of St. John.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT.

INTROIT. To Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul: in Thee, O my God, I put my trust; let me not be ashamed: neither let mine enemies laugh at me: for none that wait on Thee shall be confounded.

Show me Thy ways, O Lord, and teach me Thy paths.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

To Thee, O Lord, etc. (Thus the Introit is always repeated.)

COLLECT I. O Lord, we pray Thee, raise up Thy power, and come; that by Thy protection we may deserve to be rescued from the threatening dangers of our sins, and to be saved by Thy deliverance. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

II. O God, who wast pleased that Thy Word, at the message of an Angel, should take flesh in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary: grant unto us, Thy suppliants, that we who believe her to be truly the Mother of God may be assisted by her intercessions with Thee.

III. Mercifully hear, O Lord (p. 166), or, O God, the Pastor (p. 122).

EPISTLE. Rom. xiii. 11-14. Brethren:—Knowing the time: that it is now the hour for us to awake from sleep. For now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. The night is far spent, and the day is at hand. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light. As in the day let us walk becomingly; not in banquetings and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in contention and jealousy. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provisions for the flesh in its lusts.

GOSPEL. Luke xxi. 25-33. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : There will be signs in the sun, and moon, and stars ; and on the earth distress of nations, by reason of the confusion of the sound of the sea and of the waves, men withering away for fear and expectation of the things which are coming upon the world : For the powers of the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming on a cloud with great power and majesty. But when these things begin to come to pass, look up, and lift up your heads : because your redemption is at hand. And He spake to them a similitude : See the fig-tree, and all the trees : when they now shoot forth their fruit, ye know that summer is nigh. So also, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that the kingdom of God is at hand. Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away till all things be fulfilled. Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

POSTCOMMUNION I. May we receive Thy mercy in the midst of Thy temple, O Lord ; that we may anticipate with due honor the coming solemnities of our renewal. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. Pour forth, we beseech Thee (p. 68).

III. We beseech Thee, O Lord our God, that Thou wouldst not permit to be exposed to human dangers those whom Thou givest to rejoice in this divine participation.

Or : May the partaking of this divine Sacrament protect us, we beseech Thee, O Lord ; and ever save and defend Thy servant N., whom Thou hast been pleased to appoint as the Pastor over Thy Church, together with the flock committed to his care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT.

INTROIT. People of Sion, behold the Lord shall come to save the nations ; and the Lord shall make the glory of His voice to be heard in the joy of your heart.

Give ear, O Thou that rulest Israel : Thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Stir up our hearts, O Lord, to make ready the ways of Thine Only-begotten Son, that by His coming we may be worthy to serve Thee with purified minds. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 665.

EPISTLE. Rom. xv. 4-13. Brethren:—Whatever things were written, were written for our instruction; that through patience and the consolation of the Scriptures, we may have hope. Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of one mind one towards another, according to Jesus Christ: that unanimously with one mouth ye may honor God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; wherefore receive one another, as Christ also received you to the glory of God. For I say that Christ Jesus was minister of circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises of the fathers. But that the Gentiles glorify God for mercy, as it is written: Therefore will I praise Thee among the Gentiles, O Lord, and will sing to Thy name. And again He saith: Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with His people. And again: Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and glorify Him, all ye people. And again Isaiah said: There shall be a root of Jesse, and He who shall rise up to rule the Gentiles, in Him the Gentiles shall hope. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing: that ye may abound in hope and in the power of the Holy Spirit.

GOSPEL. Matt. xi. 2-10. At that time:—When John in the prison had heard of the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said to Him: Art Thou He who should come, or must we look for another? And Jesus answered and said to them: Go and relate to John what ye hear and see. The blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead rise again, the poor have the Gospel preached to them. And happy is he who shall not be scandalized in Me. And as they departed, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: What went you out into the desert to see? a reed shaken by the wind? But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft garments? Behold, they who are clothed in soft garments are in the palaces of kings. But what went ye out to see? a prophet? Yea, I tell you, and more than a prophet; for this is he of whom it is written : Behold, I send My messenger before Thy face, who shall prepare Thy way before Thee.

POSTCOMMUNION. Having been filled with the food of spiritual nourishment, we humbly beseech Thee, O Lord, that by the participation of this Mystery Thou wouldst teach us to despise earthly things, and love those that are heavenly. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 666.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT.

INTROIT. Rejoice in the Lord always ; again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known to all men ; the Lord is nigh. Be anxious about nothing ; but in everything by prayer let your petitions be made known to God.

Thou hast blessed Thy land, O Lord : Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Lord, we beseech Thee, mercifully incline Thine ears unto our prayers, and enlighten the darkness of our minds by the grace of Thy heavenly visitation. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 665.

EPISTLE. Philip. iv. 4-7. Brethren :—Rejoice in the Lord always : again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known to all men : the Lord is nigh. Be anxious about nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your petitions be made known to God. And may the peace of God, which surpasseth all understanding, guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL. John i. 19-28. At that time :—The Jews sent from Jerusalem priests and Levites to him, to ask him : Who art thou ? And he confessed, and denied not ; but confessed : I am not the Christ. And they asked him : What then ? Art thou Elias ? And he said : I am not. Art thou the prophet ? And he answered : No. They said therefore to him : Who art thou, that we may give an answer to those who sent us ? What sayest thou of thyself ? He said : I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness : Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Isaiah. And they who were sent were of the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said to him : Why then dost thou baptize, if thou art not Christ, nor Elias, nor the prophet ? John answered them, saying : I baptize in water, but in the midst of you standeth One whom ye know not. It is He who, though coming after me, is preferred before me ; the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to loose. These things were done in Bethany, beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

POSTCOMMUNION. We implore, O God, Thy clemency, that these divine helps having expiated our sins, may prepare us for the approaching festival. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 666.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

INTROIT. Drop dew, ye heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the Just One ; let the earth be opened, and bud forth a Saviour.

The heavens show forth the glory of God, and the firmament declareth the works of His hands.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Lord, we pray Thee, raise up Thy power, and come, and with great might succor us ; that, by the aid of Thy grace, that which is hindered by our sins may be quickened by Thy merciful forgiveness. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 665.

EPISTLE. 1 Cor. iv. 1-5. Brethren :—Let a man so regard us as ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Here now it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. But to me it is of the least account to be judged by you, or by the day of man : but neither do I judge myself. For I am not conscious to myself of anything ; yet am I not hereby justified : but He that judgeth me is the Lord. Therefore judge not before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of hearts : and then shall every man have praise from God.

GOSPEL. Luke iii. 1-6. In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, Pontius Pilate being procurator of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and Philip his brother being tetrarch of Iturea and the country of Trachonitis, and Lysanias being tetrarch of Abilina, under the high-priests Annas and Caiphas, the word of the Lord came to John, the son of Zachariah, in the desert. And he came into all the country about the Jordan, preaching the baptism of penance, for the remission of sins ; As it is written in the book of the sayings of Isaiah the prophet : A voice of one crying in the desert : Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight His paths. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be made low : and what is crooked shall be made straight, and the rough way smooth. And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

POSTCOMMUNION. Having received Thy gifts, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that with the frequent use of this Mystery the effect of our Salvation may increase. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 666.

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD, OR CHRISTMAS.

FIRST MASS.

INTROIT. The Lord hath said unto me : Thou art My Son, this day have I begotten Thee.

Why have the Gentiles raged, and the people devised vain things?

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who hast made this most sacred night to shine forth with the brightness of the true Light : grant, we beseech Thee, that we may enjoy His happiness in heaven, the mystery of whose light we have known upon earth. Who liveth and reigneth, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. Titus ii. 11-15. Dearly Beloved :—The grace of God our Saviour hath appeared to all men, instructing us that denying impiety and worldly lusts we should live soberly, and justly, and piously in this world, waiting for the blessed hope and coming of the glory of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for all, that He might redeem us from all iniquity, and cleanse for Himself an acceptable people, zealous of good works. These things speak and exhort : in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL. Luke ii. 1-14. At that time :—A decree went forth from Augustus Cæsar that the whole world should be enrolled. This first enrolment was made by Cyrenus, the governor of Syria. And all went to be enrolled, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, into Judea to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, to be enrolled with Mary his espoused wife, who was with Child. And it came to pass that while they were there the days for her delivery were completed. And she brought forth her first-born Son, and swathed Him and laid Him in a manger: because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were in the same country shepherds watching, and keeping the night-watches over their flock. And behold, an Angel of the Lord stood by them, and the brightness of God shone round them, and they feared greatly. And the Angel said to them: Fear not; for behold, I bring you good news of great joy, which will be to all the people; for this day is born to you in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign to you. Ye shall find a Babe swathed and lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying: Glory to God on high: and on earth peace to men of good will.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord our God, that we, who rejoice in celebrating by these Mysteries the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, may deserve by a worthy conduct to attain unto fellowship with Him. Who liveth and reigneth, etc. Amen.

SECOND MASS.

INTROIT. A light shall shine upon us this day: for our Lord is born to us; and He shall be called Wonderful, God, the Prince of peace, the Father of the world to come; of whose kingdom there shall be no end.

The Lord hath reigned, He is clothed with beauty: the Lord is clothed with strength, and hath girded Himself.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, who are filled with the new light of Thy Incarnate Word, may show forth in our works that which by faith shineth in our minds. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. Titus iii. 4-7. Dearly Beloved:—The goodness and kindness of our Saviour God appeared: not by works of justice done by us, but according to His mercy He saved us by the laver of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, whom He hath poured forth on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour, that being justified by His grace we may be heirs according to hope of eternal life: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL. Luke ii. 15-20. At that time:—The shepherds said to one another: Let us go over to Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath showed us. And they came in haste; and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in the manger. And when they had seen it, they understood the thing which had been spoken to them concerning this Child. And all who heard wondered; and at the things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these words, pondering in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen as it was told to them.

POSTCOMMUNION. May we, O Lord, always receive new life from this Sacrament, which reneweth to us the memory of that wonderful Birth which destroyed the old man. Through the same our Lord, etc. Amen.

THIRD MASS.

INTROIT. A Child is born for us, and a Son is given to us; whose government is upon His shoulder; and His name shall be called the Angel of great counsel.

Sing unto the Lord a new song; for He hath done wonderful things.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that the new birth of Thine Only-begotten Son in the flesh may deliver us who are held by the old bondage under the yoke of sin. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. Heb. i. 1-12. God who formerly spoke to the fathers by the prophets, at different times and in various ways: lastly in these days hath spoken to us by His Son, whom He hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also He made the world: who being the brightness of His glory, and the impression of His substance, and upholding all things by the word of His power, which He made a purification of sins, sitteth on the right hand of the majesty on high: being made so much greater than the Angels, as He hath inherited a more excellent name than they. For to which of the Angels did He ever say: Thou art My Son, this day have I begotten Thee? And again: I will be to Him a Father, and He shall be to Me a Son? And when He bringeth again the First-Begotten into the world, He saith, And let all the Angels of God adore Him. And of the Angels indeed He saith: Who maketh His Angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire. But to the Son: Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; the sceptre of Thy kingdom is a sceptre of right. Thou hast loved justice and hated iniquity; therefore God, Thy God, hath anointed Thee with the oil of gladness above Thy partners. And: Thou, O Lord, in the beginning didst found the earth: and the heavens are works of Thine hands. They shall perish, but Thou shalt remain, and they all shall grow old as a garment: and as a vesture Thou shalt change them and they shall be changed: but Thou art the self-same, and Thy years shall not fail.

GOSPEL. John i. 1-14. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. This was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him: and without Him was made nothing that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men: and the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. This one came for a witness, to testify concerning the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but he was to testify concerning the light. The true light, which enlighteneth every man, cometh into this world. He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world knew Him not. He came to His own possessions, and His own people received him not. But to as many as received Him, He gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in His name: who are born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor the will of man, but of God. AND THE WORD WAS MADE FLESH (here all kneel), and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, the glory as of the Only-Begotten of the Father: full of grace and truth.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we beseech-thee, Almighty God, that as the Saviour of the world, born this day, is the author of a divine birth for us, so He may also be Himself the giver of immortality. Who liveth and reigneth, etc. Amen.

Last Gospel as on the Epiphany (p. 676).

SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF CHRISTMAS.

INTROIT. While all things were in quiet silence, and the night was in the midst of her course, Thy Almighty Word, O Lord, came down from heaven, from Thy royal throne.

The Lord hath reigned, He is clothed with beauty: the Lord is clothed with strength, and hath girded Himself.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Almighty and everlasting God, do Thou order all our actions in conformity with Thy good pleasure, that, through the name of Thy beloved Son, we may worthily abound in good works. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. Gal. iv. 1-7. Brethren:—As long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a servant, although he is lord of all: but he is under tutors and governors, until the time appointed by the father: so we also, when we were children, were serving under the elements of the world. But when the fulness of time came, God sent His Son made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying: Abba, Father. Therefore he is no more a servant, but a son: and if a son, heir also through God.

GOSPEL. Luke ii. 33-40. At that time:—Joseph and Mary the mother of Jesus were wondering at the things spoken concerning Him. And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother: Behold, He is set for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which will be opposed: And a sword shall pierce thine own soul, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser; she was far advanced in years, and had lived with her husband seven years from her virginity. And she was a widow until eighty-four years; and departed not from the temple, but, by fastings and prayers, worshipped night and day. Now she, at the same hour, coming in, gave praise to the Lord; and spake of Him to all who were looking for the redemption of Israel. And after they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. And the Child grew, and became strong, full of wisdom: and the grace of God was in Him.

POSTCOMMUNION. By the operation of this Mystery, O Lord, may our sins be purged away, and our just desires fulfilled. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

NEW YEAR'S DAY.

THE CIRCUMCISION OF OUR LORD.

INTROIT. A Child is born, as in Third Mass of Christmas (p. 672).

COLLECT. O God, who by the fruitful (p. 194).

EPISTLE. Titus ii. 11-15, as in First Mass of Christmas (p. 670).

GOSPEL. Luke ii. 21. At that time:—After eight days were past that the Child should be circumcised, His name was called JESUS, so called by the Angel before He was conceived in the womb.

POSTCOMMUNION. May this Communion, O Lord, purge us from guilt; and through the intercession of Blessed Mary, the Virgin-Mother of God, make us partakers of Thy heavenly remedy. Through the same our Lord, etc. Amen.

THE VIGIL OF THE EPIPHANY.

INTROIT, COLLECT, EPISTLE, AND POSTCOMMUNION as on Sunday within the Octave of Christmas (p. 674).

GOSPEL. Matt. ii. 19-23. At that time:—When Herod was dead, behold an Angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph, in Egypt, saying: Arise, and take the Child and His mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they who sought the life of the Child are dead. And he arose and took the Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel. But hearing that Archelaus reigned in Judea, in the room of Herod his father, he was afraid to go thither : and being warned in a dream, retired into the country of Galilee. And coming he dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that what was said by the prophets might be fulfilled : He shall be called a Nazarene.

THE EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD.

INTROIT. Behold the Lord the Ruler is come ; and a kingdom is in His hand, and power and dominion.

Give to the king Thy judgment, O God ; and Thy justice unto the king's son.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who by the leading of a star didst on this day manifest Thine Only-begotten Son to the Gentiles : mercifully grant that we, who know Thee now by faith, may be brought to the contemplation of Thy glorious majesty. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Isaiah lx. 1-6. Arise, be enlightened, O Jerusalem : for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and a mist th- peoples : but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and His glory shall be seen on thee. And the Gentiles shall walk in thy light, and kings in the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thy eyes round about, and see : all these are gathered together, they are come to thee : thy sons shall come from afar, and thy daughters shall rise up at thy side. Then shalt thou see, and abound, and thy heart shall wonder and be enlarged, when the multitude of the sea shall be converted to thee, the strength of the Gentiles shall come to thee. The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Madian and Ephraim : all they from Saba shall come, bringing gold and frankincense, and showing forth praise to the Lord.

GOSPEL. Matt. ii. 1-12. When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Juda, in the days of King Herod, behold Magians came from eastern parts to Jerusalem, saying : Where is He that is born king of the Jews ? for we have seen His star in the East, and we are come to worship Him. And King Herod, hearing this, was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And assembling together all the chief priests, and the scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born. And they said to him : In Bethlehem of Juda : for so it is written by the prophet : And thou Bethlehem, land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda : for out of thee shall come forth a Leader, who shall rule My people Israel. Then Herod, privately calling the Magians, ascertained from them the time when the star appeared to them. And sent them to Bethlehem, and said ; Go, and diligently inquire after the Child, and when ye have found Him, bring back word to me, that I also may go and worship Him. When they had heard the king, they departed : and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over the place where the Child was. And seeing the star, they rejoiced with very great joy. And having entered into the house, they found the Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshipped Him (here all kneel). And opening their treasures they offered Him gifts, gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream, that they should not return to Herod, they went back another way into their own country.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that what we celebrate with solemn office we may attain by the understanding of a purified mind. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

INTROIT. Upon a high throne I saw a Man sitting, whom a multitude of Angels adore singing together : Behold Him the name of whose empire is for ever and ever.

Sing joyfully unto God, all the earth : serve ye the Lord with gladness.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Lord, we beseech Thee, receive, of Thy heavenly mercy, the prayers of Thy people who call upon Thee : and grant that they may both perceive what things they ought to do, and also may have power to fulfil the same. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Collect of the Epiphany (p. 676).

EPISTLE. Rom. xii. 1-5. Brethren :—I beseech you, by the mercy of God, that ye present your bodies a living victim, holy, well pleasing to God, your rational worship. And be not conformed to this world, but be ye reformed in the newness of your mind ; that ye may prove what is the good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God. For I say, by the grace which is given me, to all who are among you : not to think more highly than it behooveth to think ; but to think soberly, and according as God hath dealt to every one the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, but all the members have not the same office ; so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another : in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL. Luke ii. 42-52. When Jesus was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, according to the custom of the feast, and when they had completed the days, as they returned, the Child Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, and His parents knew it not. And thinking that He was in the company, they came a day's journey, and sought Him among their kindred and acquaintance. And not finding Him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking Him. And it came to pass that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, hearing them and asking them questions. And all who heard Him were astonished at His wisdom, and His answers. And when they saw Him they were amazed. And His mother said to Him ; Child, why hast Thou done so to us ? Behold, Thy father and I were seeking Thee sorrowing. And He said to them : Why did ye seek Me ? Did ye not know that, I must be about My Father's business ? And they understood not the word which He spake to them. And He went down with them, and came to Nazareth : and He was subject to them. And His mother kept all these things in her heart.

And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age, and favor with God and men.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we humbly beseech Thee, Almighty God, that those whom Thou refreshest with Thy Sacraments may serve Thee worthily by a life well pleasing to Thee. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Postcommunion of the Epiphany (p. 677).

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

FEAST OF THE HOLY NAME OF JESUS.

INTROIT. At the Name of Jesus every knee should bend of those that are in heaven, on earth, and under the earth; and every tongue should confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father.

O Lord our Lord, how admirable is Thy name in the whole earth!

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who hast appointed Thine Only-begotten Son to be the Saviour of mankind, and hast commanded that His name should be called JESUS: mercifully grant that we may enjoy in heaven the blessed Vision of Him whose holy Name we worship on earth. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE SUNDAY. Almighty and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth: mercifully hear the prayers of Thy people, and grant us Thy peace in our days. Through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

LESSON. Acts iv. 8-12. In those days:—Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them: Ye rulers of the people and ancients, hear: If we this day are examined concerning the good deed done to the infirm man, by what means he hath been made whole, be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God hath raised from the dead, by Him this man standeth here before you whole. This is the stone which was rejected by you the builders, which is become the head of the corner: neither is there salvation in any other. For there is no other name under heaven given among men, by which we must be saved.

GOSPEL. Luke ii. 21.—As on Circumcision (p. 675).

POSTCOMMUNION. Almighty and Eternal God, who hast created and redeemed us: mercifully hear our prayers; and vouchsafe to accept with a favorable and gracious countenance the Sacrifice of the saving Victim, which we have offered to Thy majesty, in honor of the Name of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ ; that Thy grace being infused into us, through the glorious Name of Jesus, as a pledge of our eternal predestination, we may rejoice that our names are written in heaven. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

POSTCOMMUNION OF THE SUNDAY. May the efficacy of Thy power, O Lord, be increased in us ; that, being fed with Thy divine Sacraments, we may, through Thy bounty, be prepared to receive what they promise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LAST GOSPEL. John ii. 1-II. At that time :—There was a wedding in Cana of Galilee: and the mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus also was invited, and His disciples, to the wedding. And the wine failing, the mother of Jesus saith to Him : They have no wine. And Jesus saith to her : Woman, what have I to do with thee ? My hour is not yet come. His mother saith to the waiters : Whatever He shall say to you, do ye. Now six stone pitchers were set there, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three measures apiece. Jesus saith to them : Fill the pitchers with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And Jesus saith to them : Draw out now, and carry to the master of the feast. And they carried it. And when the master of the feast had tasted the water made wine, and knew not whence it was, but the waiters who drew the water knew, the master of the feast calleth the bridegroom, and saith to him : Every man at first setteth forth good wine, and when men have well drunk, then that which is inferior : but thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

INTROIT. Adore God, all ye His Angels : Sion heard, and was glad ; and the daughters of Juda rejoiced.

The Lord hath reigned ; let the earth rejoice ; let the multitude of the isles be glad.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT I. Almighty and Everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and stretch forth the right hand of Thy Majesty to help and defend us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. O God, who by the fruitful (p. 194).

III. Mercifully hear (p. 166), or, O God, the Pastor (p. 122).

EPISTLE. Rom. xii. 16-21. Brethren :—Be not wise in your own conceit. Render to no man evil for evil : provide good things not only before God, but also before all men. If it be possible, as much as is in you, have peace with all men. Do not revenge yourselves, dearly beloved, but give place unto wrath : for it is written : Vengeance is Mine ; I will repay, saith the Lord. But if thine enemy hunger, feed him : if he thirst, give him drink : for doing this, thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

GOSPEL. Matt. viii. 1-13. At that time :—When Jesus was come down from the mountain, great crowds followed Him. And behold a leper came, and worshipped Him, saying : Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean. And Jesus stretching forth His hand, touched him, saying : I will : Be thou made clean. And forthwith his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith to him : See thou tell no man : but go, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift which Moses commanded for a testimony to them.* And on His entering into Capharnaum, a centurion came to Him, beseeching Him, and saying : Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, and is grievously tormented. And Jesus saith to him : I will come and heal him. And the centurion making answer, said : Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof : but only say the word, and my servant shall be healed. For I also am a man subject to authority, having soldiers under me ; and I say to one : Go, and he goeth ; and to another : Come, and he cometh ; and to my servant : Do this, and he doeth it. And Jesus, hearing this, marvelled, and said to those who followed Him : Truly, I say to you, I have not found so great faith in Israel. And I say to you, that many shall come from the East, and the West, and shall recline at table with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into the outer darkness: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said to the centurion: Go, and as thou hast believed, be it done to thee. And the servant was healed at the same hour.

POSTCOMMUNION I. We beseech Thee, O Lord, that we, to whom Thou vouchsafest the enjoyment of so great Mysteries, may be fitted truly to receive the benefits thereof. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. May this Communion (p. 675).

III. We beseech Thee, or, May the partaking (p. 666).

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

INTROIT as on last Sunday, and the same until Septuagesima.

COLLECT. O God, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so great dangers that, by reason of the frailty of our nature, we cannot stand: grant to us health of mind and body, that those things which we suffer for our sins we may by Thine aid overcome. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on last Sunday.

EPISTLE. Rom. xiii. 8-10. Brethren:—Owe no man anything, but to love one another: for he who loveth the neighbor hath fulfilled the law. For: thou shalt not commit adultery: thou shalt not kill: thou shalt not steal: thou shalt not covet: and if there be any other commandment, it is comprised in this word: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. The love of the neighbor worketh no evil: love, therefore, is the fulfilling of the law.

GOSPEL. Matt. viii. 23-27. At that time:—When Jesus entered into the boat, His disciples followed Him: and behold a great storm arose at sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves, but He was asleep. And His disciples came to Him, and awaked Him, saying: Lord, save us, we perish. And Jesus saith to them: Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then rising up, He commanded the winds and the sea, and a great calm ensued. But the men wondered, saying: What an one is this, for the winds and the sea obey Him?

POSTCOMMUNION. May Thy gifts, O God, detach us from all earthly pleasures, and ever refresh and strengthen us with heavenly food. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on last Sunday.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

INTROIT as on Third Sunday (p. 680).

COLLECT. Keep, O Lord, we beseech Thee, Thy family by Thy continual mercy; that they who lean only upon the hope of Thy heavenly grace may evermore be defended by Thy protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. Defend us, O Lord (p. 121).

III. (At the choice of the Priest.)

EPISTLE. Col. iii. 12-17. Brethren:—Put ye on, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of compassion, kindness, humility, modesty, patience: bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if any man hath a complaint against any one: as even the Lord hath forgiven you, so ye also. But above all these things, put on charity, which is the bond of perfection: and let the peace of Christ reign in your hearts, in which also ye are called in one body: and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly, in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, in grace, singing in your hearts to God. All whatever ye do in word, or in work, all things in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God and the Father through Jesus Christ our Lord.

GOSPEL. Matt. xiii. 24-30. At that time:—Jesus spoke this parable to the multitudes: The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field. But while the men were asleep, his enemy came and sowed cockle among the wheat, and went away. And when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then appeared also the cockle. And the servants of the householder came and said to him: Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? Whence then hath it cockle? And he said to them: An enemy hath done this. And the servants said to him: Wilt thou that we go and gather it up? And he said: No, lest in gathering up the cockle ye root up the wheat also with it. Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers : Gather up first the cockle, and bind it in bundles to burn, but the wheat gather into my barn.

POSTCOMMUNION I. We beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we may receive the effect of that Salvation, of which in these Mysteries we have received a pledge. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. May the oblation of this divine Sacrament, we beseech Thee, O Lord, both cleanse us and defend us ; and by the intercession of Blessed Mary, Virgin-Mother of God, of Blessed Joseph, of Thy holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of Blessed N., and of all Thy Saints, free us from all sin, and deliver us from all adversity.

III. (At choice.)

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

INTROIT as on Third Sunday (p. 680).

COLLECT. Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Almighty God, ever to think such things as are reasonable, and, in every word and work of ours, to do that which is pleasing in Thy sight. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on last Sunday.

EPISTLE. 1 Thess. i. 2-10. Brethren :—We give thanks to God always for you all, making remembrance of you in our prayers, without ceasing, being mindful of the work of your faith, and labor, and charity, and the endurance of the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father : knowing, brethren, beloved of God, your election : because our gospel to you was not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much fulness, as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. And ye became followers of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much tribulation, with joy of the Holy Spirit : so that ye became a model to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord was spread abroad, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith, which is toward God, hath gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves relate of us what manner of entrance we had among you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God, and to wait for His Son from heaven (whom He raised from the dead), Jesus, who hath delivered us from the wrath to come.

GOSPEL. Matt. xiii. 31-35. At that time: Jesus spake this parable to the multitudes: The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard, which a man took and sowed in his field, which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown up, it is greater than all herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. Another parable He spake to them: The kingdom of heaven is like to leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened. All these things Jesus spake to the crowds in parables: and without parables He did not speak to them: that what was spoken by the prophet might be fulfilled, when He saith: I will open My mouth in parables. I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world.

POSTCOMMUNION. Being fed, O Lord, with heavenly delights, we beseech Thee that we may ever hunger after those things by which we truly live. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on last Sunday.

SEPTUAGESIMA.

INTROIT. The groanings of death surrounded me, the sorrows of hell encompassed me: and in my affliction I called upon the Lord, and He heard my voice from His holy temple.

I will love Thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my rock, my refuge, and my deliverer.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Lord, we beseech Thee, graciously hear the prayers of Thy people: that we, who are justly afflicted for our sins, may be mercifully delivered by Thy goodness, for the glory of Thy name. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 683.

EPISTLE. 1 Cor. ix. 24 to x. 5. Brethren:—Know ye not that they who run in the race-ground, all run indeed, but one receiveth the prize? So run that ye may obtain. And every one who striveth for the mastery refraineth himself from all things, and they, indeed, that they may receive a perishable crown: but we an imperishable. I therefore so run, not as an uncertainty : I so fight, not as one beating the air. But I chastise my body, and bring it under subjection, lest perhaps, when I have preached to others, I myself become a reprobate. For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized unto Moses in the cloud; and in the sea : and all did eat the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink (and they drank of the spiritual rock which followed them : and the rock was Christ). But with the most of them God was not well pleased.

GOSPEL. Matt. xx. 1-16. At that time :—Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable : The kingdom of heaven is like to a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard. And having agreed with the laborers for a shilling a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And going out about the third hour, he saw others standing idle in the market-place. And he said to them : Go ye also into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just. And they went. And again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did in like manner. But about the eleventh he went out, and found others standing, and saith to them : Why stand ye here all the day idle ? They say to him : Because no one hath hired us. He saith to them : Go ye also into my vineyard. And when evening was come, the lord of the vineyard saith to his steward : Call the laborers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last even to the first. When therefore they who had come about the eleventh hour came forward, they received each one a shilling. But when the first also came, they thought that they should receive more : and they also received each one a shilling. And when they received it, they murmured against the householder, saying : These last have worked one hour, and thou hast made them equal to us, who have borne the burden of the day, and the burning heat. But he answered and said to one of them : Friend, I do thee no wrong : didst thou not agree with me for a shilling? Take what is thine and go. It is my will also to give to this last even as to thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? So shall the last be first, and the first last : For many are called, but few are chosen.

POSTCOMMUNION. May Thy faithful, O God, be strengthened by Thy gifts; that partaking of them, they may still desire them, and, desiring them, may constantly receive them. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 684.

SEXAGESIMA.

INTROIT. Arise, why sleepest Thou, O Lord? arise, and cast us not off for ever : why turnest Thou away Thy face and forgettest our trouble? our belly hath cleaved unto the earth : arise, O Lord, help us and deliver us.

We have heard with our ears, O God ; our fathers have declared unto us.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who seest that we put not our trust in anything that we do : mercifully grant that, through the protection of the Doctor of the Gentiles, we may be defended against all adversity. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 683.

EPISTLE. 2 Cor. xi. 19 to xii. 9. Brethren :—Ye willingly suffer the foolish, whereas ye yourselves are wise. For ye suffer if any one bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take, if a man exalt himself, if a man strike you on the face. I speak according to dishonor, as though we had been weak in this respect. Wherein any one is bold (I speak foolishly), I am bold also. They are Hebrews, I also : They are Israelites, I also : They are the seed of Abraham, I also. They are ministers of Christ (I speak as foolish), I more so : in many more labors, in prisons more frequently, in stripes above measure, in deaths often. From the Jews I received five times forty stripes save one. Thrice I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day have I been in the deep, in journeyings often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my nation, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brethren : in labor and distress, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness : Besides the things that are without, my daily charge, the care of all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak ? Who is scandalized, and I do not burn ? If I must glory, I will glory in the things which concern my weakness. God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed for ever, knoweth that I do not lie. At Damascus the governor of King Aretas guarded the city of the Damascenes, to apprehend me : and through a window, in a basket, was I let down by the wall, and so I escaped his hands. If I must glory (it is not indeed expedient), but I will come to the visions and revelations of the Lord. I know a man in Christ, above fourteen years ago (whether in the body I know not, or whether out of the body I know not, God knoweth), such an one caught up to the third heaven. And I know such a man (whether in the body or out of the body, I know not, God knoweth), that he was caught up into paradise : and heard secret words, which it is not allowed for man to utter. For such an one I will glory : but for myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities. For, although I would glory, I shall not be foolish : for I will say the truth ; but I forbear, lest any man should esteem me beyond what he seeth in me, or heareth something from me. And lest the greatness of the revelation should lift me up, a thorn in my flesh, an angel of Satan, was given me to buffet me. For which cause I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me : And He said to me : My grace is sufficient for thee : for power is perfected in weakness. Gladly, therefore, will I glory in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

GOSPEL. Luke viii. 4-15. At that time :—When a great crowd was gathered together, and they hastened to Him out of the cities, He spake by a similitude : The sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and it was trodden down, and the birds of the air ate it up. And some fell on the rock, and as soon as it had sprung up it withered away, because it had no moisture. And some fell among thorns, and the thorns, growing up with it, choked it. And some fell on good ground, and sprang up, and yielded fruit a hundred-fold. Saying these things, He cried out : He who hath ears to hear, let him hear. And His disciples asked Him what this parable might be ? And He said to them : To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God ; but to the rest in parables, that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. Now the parable is this : The seed is the word of God. And those by the wayside are they who hear ; then the devil cometh and taketh the word out of their heart, lest believing they should be saved. Now those upon the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy : and these have no root : for they believe for a while, and in time of temptation they fall away. And that which fell among the thorns are they who, when they have heard, go forth and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. But that on the good ground are they who in a good and excellent heart, hearing the word, retain it, and bring forth fruit in patience.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we humbly beseech Thee, as on First Sunday after Epiphany, p. 679. Others as on p. 684.

QUINQUAGESIMA.

INTROIT. Be Thou unto me a God, a protector, and a place of refuge, to save me ; for Thou art my strength and my refuge : and for Thy name's sake Thou wilt be my leader, and wilt nourish me.

In Thee, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be confounded : deliver me in Thy justice, and set me free.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Lord, we beseech Thee, graciously hear our prayers ; that we, being loosed from all chains of our sins, may by Thee be defended against all adversity. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 683.

EPISTLE. 1 Cor. xiii. 1-13. Brethren :—If I speak with the tongues of men and of Angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And if I have prophecy, and know all the mysteries, and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And if I should distribute all my goods to feed the poor, and if I should deliver my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. Charity is patient, is kind : charity envieth not, dealeth not perversely, is not puffed up, is not ambitious, seeketh not her own, is not provoked to anger, thinketh no evil, rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth with the truth : beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never falleth away : whether prophecies shall be made void, or tongues shall cease, or knowledge be made void. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child. But when I became a man, I put away childish things. We now see through a glass darkly : but then, face to face. Now I know in part : but then I shall know even as I am known. And now remain faith, hope, charity, these three : but the greatest of these three is charity.

GOSPEL. Luke xviii. 31-43. At that time :—Jesus took to Him the twelve, and said to them : Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things will be accomplished which were written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man. For He will be delivered up to the Gentiles, and mocked, and scourged, and spit upon. And after they have scourged Him, they will put Him to death, and the third day He will rise again. And they understood none of these things, and this word was hidden from them, and they understood not the things which were said. Now it came to pass, as He drew near to Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the wayside, begging. And when he heard the multitude passing by, he asked what it meant. And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. And he cried out, saying : Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me. And they who went before, rebuked him, charging him to be silent. But he cried out much more : Son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stopped and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he was come near, He asked him, saying : What wilt thou that I do for thee ? And he said : Lord, that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said to him : Receive thy sight : thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who have received celestial food may be defended by it against all adversities. Others as on p. 684.

ASH-WEDNESDAY.

For the BLESSING OF THE ASHES see p. 234.

INTROIT. Thou hast mercy upon all, O Lord, and hatest none of the things which Thou hast made, overlooking the sins of men that they may repent, and sparing them ; for Thou art the Lord our God.

Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me ; for my soul trusteth in Thee.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Grant, O Lord, unto Thy faithful people that they may begin the solemn service of fasting with due piety, and with tranquil devotion perform the same. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. Defend us, O Lord (p. 121).

III. Almighty, everlasting God (p. 269).

LESSON. Joel ii. 12-19. Thus saith the Lord : Be converted to Me with all your heart, with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning. And rend your hearts, and not your garments, and turn to the Lord your God : for He is gracious and merciful, patient and rich in mercy, and ready to repent of the evil. Who knoweth but He will turn, and forgive and leave a blessing behind Him, and sacrifice and libation to the Lord your God ? Blow the trumpet in Sion ; sanctify a fast : call a solemn assembly, gather together the people ; sanctify the congregation ; assemble the ancients ; gather together the little ones, and them that suck at the breasts : let the bridegroom go forth from his bed, and the bride out of her bride-chamber. Between the porch and the altar the priests, the Lord's ministers, shall weep, and shall say : Spare, O Lord, spare Thy people : and give not Thy inheritance to reproach, that the heathens should rule over them. Why should they say among the nations : Where is their God ? The Lord hath been zealous for His land, and hath spared His people. And the Lord answered, and said to His people : Behold I will send you corn, and wine, and oil : and ye shall be filled with them : and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations : saith the Lord Almighty.

GOSPEL. Matt. vi. 16-21. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : When ye fast, be not of a sad countenance, as the hypocrites. For they disfigure their faces, that to men they may appear to fast. Truly I say to you, they have got their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face : that thou appear not to men to fast, but to thy Father, who is in secret : and thy Father, who seeth in secret, will repay thee. Lay not up for yourselves treasures on earth, where rust and moth consume, and where thieves break through and steal. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven ; where neither rust nor moth doth consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. For where thy treasure is, there is thy heart also.

POSTCOMMUNION. May the Sacraments which we have received, O Lord, afford us support ; that our fasts may be pleasing to Thee, and be a healing remedy to us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. May the oblation, as on the Fifth Sunday after Epiphany, p. 684.

III. May the Mysteries which we have received purify us, we beseech Thee, O Almighty and merciful God ; and by the intercession of all Thy Saints, grant that this Thy Sacrament may not be to us a means of condemnation, but of pardon and salvation ; may it be the washing away of sins, the strength of the weak, protection against all the dangers of the world, and the remission of all the sins of the faithful, living and dead. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

The Prayer over the People.

Incline, O Lord, the ear of Thy mercy unto Thy people prostrate before Thy majesty; that, as we have been refreshed by Thy divine gift, we may ever be sustained by heavenly aids. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT.

INTROIT. He shall call upon Me, and I will hear him; I will deliver him, and glorify him; I will fill him with length of days.

He that dwelleth in the help of the Most High shall abide under the protection of the God of heaven.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who dost every year purify Thy Church by the Fast of Forty Days: grant unto this Thy family that what things they strive to obtain at Thy hand by abstinence, they may turn to profit by good works. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 691.

EPISTLE. 2 Cor. vi. 1-10. Brethren:—We do exhort, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. For He saith: In an acceptable time I have heard thee, and in the day of salvation I have helped thee. Behold now is the acceptable time, behold now is the day of salvation. Giving no offence to any one, that our ministry may not be blamed: but in all let us present ourselves as ministers of God in much patience, in tribulations, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings, in chastity, in knowledge, in long suffering, in sweetness, in the Holy Spirit, in charity unfeigned, in the word of truth, in the power of God, by the armor of justice on the right hand, and on the left, by glory and dishonor, by evil report, and good report: as deceivers and true; as unknown and known: as dying, and behold we live: as chastened, and not killed: as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing: as needy, yet enriching many: as having nothing, and possessing all things.

GOSPEL. Matt. iv. 1-11. At that time:—Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert, to be tempted by the devil. And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterwards He was hungry. And the tempter came and said to Him : If Thou art the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. But He answered and said : It is written : Not by bread alone doth man live, but by every word that proceedeth from the mouth of God. Then the devil took Him up into the holy city, and set Him upon the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him : If Thou art the Son of God, cast Thyself down ; for it is written : He hath given His Angels charge over Thee, and in their hands they shall bear Thee up, lest Thou dash Thy foot against a stone. Jesus said to him : It is written again : Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. Again the devil took Him up into a very high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory : and said to Him : All these will I give Thee, if Thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then Jesus saith to him : Begone, Satan : for it is written : The Lord thy God shalt thou worship, and Him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil left Him ; and behold, Angels came and ministered to Him.

POSTCOMMUNION. May the holy oblation of Thy Sacrament refresh us, O Lord, and purifying us from our old life, make us pass on to the fellowship of Thy saving Mystery. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 692.

SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT.

INTROIT. Call to remembrance, O Lord, Thy compassion and Thy mercies, which are of old : lest at any time our enemies rule over us : deliver us, O God of Israel, from all our tribulations.

To Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul : in Thee, O my God, I put my trust : let me not be ashamed.
Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Almighty God, who seest that we have no power of ourselves : keep us both inwardly and outwardly ; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may hurt the soul. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 691.

EPISTLE. 1 Thess. iv. 1-7. Brethren :—We ask and beseech you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received from us how ye ought to walk, and please God, so also ye would walk, that ye may abound the more.

For ye know what commands I gave you by the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, your sanctification, that ye abstain from fornication, that every one of you know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor, not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles, who know not God: and that no man over-reach, or circumvent his brother in the matter, because the Lord is the avenger of all those things, as we have told you before, and testified. For God hath not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL. Matt. xvii. 1-9. At that time:—Jesus taketh with Him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up on a high mountain apart: and was transfigured before them. And His face shone as the sun: and His garments became white as snow. And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elias talking with Him. And Peter answered and said to Jesus: Lord, is it good for us to be here; if Thou wilt, let us make here three tents, one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. And while he was yet speaking, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them. And lo! a Voice from the cloud saying, This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear ye Him. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were very much afraid. And Jesus came and touched them, and said to them: Arise, and fear not. And when they lifted up their eyes they saw no one, but Jesus alone. And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying: Tell the vision to no man, till the Son of Man be risen from the dead.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we humbly beseech Thee, as on First Sunday after Epiphany (p. 679). Others as on p. 692.

THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT.

INTROIT. Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord: for He shall pluck my feet out of the snare: look Thou upon me, and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor.

To Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul: in Thee, O my God, I put my trust: let me not be ashamed.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. We beseech Thee, Almighty God, look upon the desires of Thy humble servants, and stretch forth the right hand of Thy Majesty, to be our defence. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 691.

EPISTLE. Ephes. v. 1-9. Brethren: Be ye followers of God, as beloved children: and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and delivered Himself up for us an offering and sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savor. But let not fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, be even named among you, as it becometh saints: or filthiness, or foolish talking, or buffoonery, which is not to the purpose: but rather thanksgiving. For know ye this, understanding that no fornicator, or unclean or covetous man, which is idolatry, hath inheritance in the kingdom of the Christ, and God. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things the anger of God cometh on the children of unbelief. Be not therefore partakers with them. For ye were once darkness; but now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light: for the fruit of the light is in all goodness, and justice, and truth.

GOSPEL. Luke xi. 14-28. At that time:—Jesus was casting out a devil, and it was dumb; and when He had cast out the devil, the dumb man spake: and the crowds wondered. But some of them said: He casteth out devils through Beelzebub, the prince of devils. But others, tempting, sought of Him a sign from heaven. But seeing their thoughts, He said to them: Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and house against house falleth. And if Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? since ye say, that by Beelzebub I cast out the devils. Now if I cast out the devils by Beelzebub, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. But if, by the finger of God, I cast out the devils, doubtless the kingdom of God is come upon you. When the strong one armed guardeth his court, his goods are secure, but if one stronger than he come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh away all his armor wherein he trusted, and distributeth his spoils. He who is not with Me, is against Me: and he who gathereth not with Me, scattereth. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through places without water, seeking rest: and not finding it, he saith: I will return to my house, whence I came out. And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and adorned. Then he goeth and taketh with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in, and dwell there; and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first. And it came to pass, as He spake these things, that a certain woman from the crowd, lifting up her voice, said to Him: Happy is the womb which bore Thee, and the breasts which Thou hast sucked. But He said: Yea, rather happy are they who hear the word of God, and keep it.

POSTCOMMUNION. Mercifully absolve us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, from all guilt and danger, since Thou dost admit us to be partakers of this great Mystery. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 692.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT.

INTROIT. Rejoice, O Jerusalem, and come together all ye that love her: rejoice with joy, ye that have been in sorrow: that ye may exult, and be filled from the breasts of your consolation.

I was glad at the things that were said unto me: We will go into the house of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who for our deeds are justly punished, by the comfort of Thy grace may mercifully be relieved. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on p. 691.

EPISTLE. Gal. iv. 22-31. Brethren:—It is written: Abraham had two sons, one by a bond-maid, and one by a free woman. But he by the bond-maid was born after the flesh; and he by the free woman, by promise: Which things are an allegory. For these are two covenants: One indeed on Mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar; For Sinai is a mount in Arabia, which correspondeth with the present Jerusalem, and is in bondage with her children. But that Jerusalem which is above, is free; which is our mother. For it is written: Rejoice, thou barren, who bearest not: break forth, and cry, thou who travailest not, for many are the children of the desolate one, rather than of her who hath a husband. But we, brethren, according to Isaac are children of promise. But as then he who was born according to the flesh, persecuted him who was according to the Spirit; so now also. But what saith the Scripture? Cast forth the bond-maid, and her son: for the son of the bond-maid shall not be heir with the son of the free woman. Therefore, brethren, we are not children of the bond-maid but of the free woman: with the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free.

GOSPEL. John vi. 1-15. At that time:—Jesus went over the lake of Galilee, which is that of Tiberias: and a great crowd followed Him, because they saw the miracles which He performed on those who were infirm. Jesus therefore went up the mountain, and there sat with His disciples. Now the passover, the festival day of the Jews, was at hand. When Jesus therefore lifted up His eyes, and saw that a great crowd was coming to Him, He said to Philip: Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? And this He said to try him: for He Himself knew what He would do. Philip answered Him: Loaves to the amount of two hundred shillings are not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. One of His disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, saith to Him: There is a boy here who hath five barley loaves, and two fishes: but what are these among so many? Then Jesus said: Make the men sit down. Now, there was much grass in the place. The men therefore sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves: and when He had given thanks, He distributed to those who were seated: in like manner also of the fishes, as much as they would. And when they were filled, He said to His disciples: Gather up the broken meat, which remaineth, lest it be lost. They gathered up, therefore, and filled twelve baskets with the broken meat, of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above to those who had eaten. Now those men, when they had seen what a sign Jesus had performed, said : This is, of a truth, the Prophet who is to come into the world. Jesus, therefore, knowing that they would come to take Him by force, and make Him king, fled again into the mountain by Himself.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we beseech Thee, O merciful God, that we may sincerely respect and receive with faith Thy holy Mysteries, with which Thou daily feedest us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc Amen. Others as on p. 692.

PASSION SUNDAY.

INTROIT. Judge me, O God, and distinguish my cause from the nation that is not holy : deliver me from the unjust and deceitful man, for Thou art my God and my strength.

Send forth Thy light and Thy truth : they have led me, and brought me unto Thy holy hill, and into Thy tabernacles.

COLLECT. We beseech Thee, Almighty God, to look down mercifully upon this Thy family ; that by Thy great goodness they may be governed in body, and by Thy holy keeping be guarded in mind. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. Mercifully hear, O Lord (p. 166), or, O God, the Pastor (p. 122).

EPISTLE. Heb. ix. 11-15. Brethren :—Christ being come a High-priest of the good things to come, by the greater and better tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this building, neither by the blood of goats, or calves ; but by His own Blood, entered once into the sanctuary, having obtained an eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer, being sprinkled, sanctify unto the cleansing of the flesh those who are defiled ; how much more shall the Blood of Christ, who through the Holy Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse our conscience from dead works, to worship the living God ? And for this, He is Mediator of a new covenant, that death intervening for the redemption of the transgressions, which were under the former covenant, they who are called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance : in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL. John viii. 46-59. At that time :—Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews : Which of you shall convict Me of sin? If I say the truth of you, why do ye not believe Me? He that is of God, heareth the words of God. Therefore ye hear them not, because ye are not of God. The Jews therefore answered, and said to Him : Do not we say well that Thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? Jesus answered : I have not a devil : but I honor My Father, and ye have dishonored Me. But I seek not Mine own glory : there is One who seeketh and judgeth. Truly, truly, I say to you : if any man keep My word, he shall not see death ever. The Jews therefore said : Now we know that Thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets ; and Thou sayest : If any man keep My word, he shall not taste death ever. Art Thou greater than our Father Abraham, who is dead? And the prophets are dead. Whom dost Thou make Thyself? Jesus answered : If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father that glorifieth Me, of whom ye say that He is your God. And ye know Him not ; but I know Him. And if I should say that I know Him not, I shall be like to you, a liar. But I know Him, and keep His word. Abraham your father rejoiced that he might see My day ; he saw it, and was glad. The Jews therefore said to Him : Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast Thou seen Abraham? Jesus said to them : Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was made, I am. They took up stones, therefore, to cast at Him. But Jesus hid Himself, and went out of the temple.

POSTCOMMUNION. Be present with us, O Lord our God ; and defend with continual support those whom Thou hast refreshed with Thy Mysteries. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.
II. We beseech Thee, or, May the partaking (p. 666).

PALM SUNDAY.

INTROIT. O Lord, remove not Thy help far from me ; look towards my defence : save me from the lion's mouth, and my lowliness from the horns of the unicorns.

O God, my God, look upon me : why hast Thou forsaken me ? far from my salvation are the words of my sins.

COLLECT. Almighty and everlasting God, who hast caused our Saviour to take upon Him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the Cross, that all mankind should follow the example of His humility : mercifully grant that we may deserve both to keep in mind the lessons of His patience, and also to be made partakers of His resurrection. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. Philip. ii. 5-11. Brethren :—Have this mind in yourselves, which also was in Christ Jesus ; who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God ; but emptied Himself and took the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men, and in fashion found as a man. He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. Wherefore also God hath highly exalted Him, and given Him the Name, which is above every name : that at the Name of JESUS every knee should bend of those that are in heaven, on earth, and under the earth ; and every tongue should confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father.

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

ACCORDING TO MATTHEW.—Matt. xxvi., xxvii.

At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : Ye know that after two days will be the Passover, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified. Then were gathered together the chief priests and ancients of the people into the court of the high-priest, who was called Caiphas : and they consulted together, that they might take Jesus by craft, and put Him to death. But they said : Not on the festival, lest there be a tumult among the people. And when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, a woman came to Him having an alabaster box of precious ointment, and poured it on His head, as He reclined at table. And when the disciples saw it, they were displeased, saying : To what purpose is this waste ? For this might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. And Jesus knowing it, said to them: Why trouble ye this woman? for she hath wrought a good work on Me. For the poor ye have always with you: but Me ye have not always. For in pouring this ointment on My body she hath done it for My burial. Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, this also which she hath done shall be told in memory of her. Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests, and said to them: What will ye give me, and I will deliver Him to you? And they assigned him thirty pieces of silver. And thenceforth he sought opportunity to betray Him. And on the first day of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying: Where wilt Thou that we prepare for Thee to eat the Passover? But Jesus said: Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him: The Master saith: My time is at hand; with thee I keep the Passover with My disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus ordered them, and prepared the Passover. And when it was evening, He sat down with His twelve disciples. And whilst they were eating, He said: Truly I say to you, that one of you will betray Me. And they being very much troubled, began every one to say: Is it I, Lord? But He answered and said: He that dippeth his hand with Me in the dish, he will betray Me. The Son of Man indeed goeth, as it is written of Him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed. It were better for that man if he had not been born. And Judas who betrayed Him, answered and said: Rabbi, is it I? He saith to him: Thou hast said it. And whilst they were at supper, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke, and gave to His disciples, and said: Take and eat: this is My Body. And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave to them, saying: Drink ye all of this. For this is My Blood of the new testament which shall be shed for many, unto remission of sins. And I say to you I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of My Father. And when they had sung a hymn, they went out unto Mount Olivet. Then Jesus saith to them : All of you will be scandalized in regard to Me this night. For it is written : I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered. But after I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee. And Peter answered and said to Him : Although all shall be scandalized in regard to Thee, I will never be scandalized. Jesus said to him : Truly I say to thee, that this night, before a cock crow, thou wilt deny Me thrice : Peter saith to Him : Yea, though I should die with Thee, I will not deny Thee. And in like manner spoke all the disciples. Then Jesus came with them into a country place called Gethsemani : and said to His disciples : Sit ye here while I go yonder, and pray. And taking with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, He began to grow sorrowful and to be very sad. Then He saith to them : My soul is sorrowful even unto death : stay ye here, and watch with Me. And He went a little further, and fell upon His face, and prayed, saying : My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass away from Me. Nevertheless, not as I will, but as Thou. And He cometh to His disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith to Peter : So, could ye not watch with Me one hour ? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Again a second time He went away and prayed, saying : My Father, if this cup cannot pass away, except I drink it, Thy will be done. And He cometh again, and findeth them sleeping : for their eyes were heavy. And leaving them, He went away again : and prayed the third time, saying the same words ! Then He cometh to His disciples, and saith to them : Sleep on now, and take your rest : behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man shall be betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us go : behold, he that will betray Me is at hand. While He was yet speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the ancients of the people. And His betrayer gave them a sign, saying: Whom I shall kiss, that is He; hold Him fast. And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said: Hail, Rabbi: and he kissed Him. And Jesus said to him: Friend, for what art thou come? Then they came up, and laid hands on Jesus, and held Him. And behold one of those with Jesus stretched forth his hand, and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high-priest, and cut off his ear. Then Jesus saith to him: Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall perish by the sword. Thinkest thou that I cannot ask My Father, and He will give Me presently more than twelve legions of Angels? How, then, shall the Scripture be fulfilled, that thus it must be done? In that hour Jesus said to the crowds: Ye are come out, as if to a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me. I sat among you daily teaching in the temple, and ye did not lay hands on Me. Now all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then the disciples all left Him, and fled. But they that held Jesus, led Him to Caiphas, the high-priest, where the scribes and the ancients were assembled. And Peter followed Him afar off, even to the court of the high-priest. And going in, he sat with the servants, that he might see the end. And the chief priests, and the whole council sought false testimony against Jesus, that they might put Him to death: And they found none, although many false witnesses had come forward. And last of all came two false witnesses: and said: This man said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days. And the high-priest arose, and said to Him: Answerest Thou nothing to the things which these testify against Thee? But Jesus was silent. And the high-priest said to Him: I adjure Thee by the living God that Thou tell us whether Thou art the Christ, the Son of God. Jesus saith to him: Thou hast said it. But I say to you, hereafter ye shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the power of God, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Then the high-priest rent his garments, saying: He hath blasphemed: what further need have we of witnesses? Behold, now ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? They answered and said: He is worthy of death. Then they spat in His face, and buffeted Him; and some struck His face with the palms of their hands, saying: Prophecy to us, O Christ, who is he that struck Thee? But Peter sat without in the court; and there came to him a servant-maid, saying: Thou also wast with Jesus, the Galilean. But he denied it before all, saying: I know not what thou sayest. And as he went out of the gate, another maid saw him, and she saith to those who were there: This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth. And again he denied it with an oath: I do not know the Man. And after a while, they who stood by came and said to Peter: Surely thou also art one of them, for even thy speech doth discover thee. Then he began to invoke curses on himself, and to swear that he knew not the Man. And immediately a cock crowed. And Peter remembered the words of Jesus which He had said: Before a cock crow thou wilt deny Me thrice. And he went out and wept bitterly. And when morning was come, all the chief priests and ancients of the people took counsel against Jesus, that they might put Him to death. And having bound Him, they led Him away: and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate, the governor. Then Judas, who betrayed Him, seeing that He was condemned, repented, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the ancients, saying: I have sinned by betraying just blood. But they said: What is that to us? Look thou to it. And casting down in the temple the pieces of silver, he departed; and went and hanged himself. But the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said: It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. And after they had consulted together, they bought with them the potter's field, to be a burying-place for strangers. For this cause that field was called Hakeldama, the field of blood, even to this day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, who saith: And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him who was priced, whom they of the children of Israel did price. And they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me. And Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked Him, saying: Art Thou the King of the Jews? Jesus saith to him: Thou sayest it. And when He was accused by the chief priests and ancients, He made no answer. Then Pilate saith to Him: Dost Thou not hear how many things they testify against Thee? And He answered not a word, so that the governor wondered exceedingly. Now on the solemn day, the governor was accustomed to release to the people one prisoner, whom they would. And he had then a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas. When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said: Whom will ye that I release to you, Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ? For he knew that they had delivered Him up through envy. And as he was sitting on the tribunal, his wife sent to him, saying: Have nothing to do with that Just Man: for I have suffered much this day in a dream on account of Him. But the chief priests and the ancients persuaded the crowds that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. And the governor answered and said to them: Which of the two will ye that I release to you? But they said: Barabbas. Pilate saith to them: What then shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ? They all say: Let Him be crucified. The governor said to them: Why, what evil hath He done? But they cried out the more, saying: Let Him be crucified. And Pilate seeing that he did no good, but that rather a tumult was made, took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying: I am innocent of the blood of this Just Man: look ye to it. And all the people answered and said: His blood be on us, and on our children. Then he released to them Barabbas, and having scourged Jesus, delivered Him to them to be crucified. Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the hall, and gathered together unto Him the whole band. And stripped Him, and put a scarlet cloak about Him. And having platted a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a reed in His right hand. And they bowed the knee before Him, and mocked Him, saying: Hail, King of the Jews. And they spat upon Him, and took the reed and struck His head. And after they had mocked Him, they took off the cloak from Him, and put on Him His own garments, and led Him away to crucify Him. And as they went out, they found a man of Cyrene, named Simon: him they forced to take up His cross. And they came to a place called Golgotha, that is, place of a skull. And they gave Him to drink wine mingled with gall. And when He had tasted, he would not drink. And after they had crucified Him, they divided His garments, casting lots, that what was spoken by the prophet might be fulfilled, who saith: They divided My garments among them: and on My vesture they cast lots. And they sat and watched Him. And they put over His head His charge, written: THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Then were crucified with Him two robbers: one on the right hand, and one on the left. And they that passed by, blasphemed Him, wagging their heads, and saying: Vah, Thou who destroyest the temple of God, and in three days dost rebuild it, save Thyself: if Thou art the Son of God, come down from the Cross. In like manner also the chief priests with the scribes and ancients, mocking, said: He saved others; Himself He cannot save: If He is King of Israel, let Him now come down from the Cross, and we will believe Him. He trusted in God: let Him now deliver Him, if He love Him: for He said: I am the Son of God. And the robbers also, who were crucified with Him, reproached Him in like manner. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over the whole earth, until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying: Eli, Eli, lamma sabachthani? that is, My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me? And some who stood there and heard, said: This Man calleth Elias. And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, and soaked it in vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave Him to drink. And the others said: Hold, let us see whether Elias will come to deliver Him. And Jesus again crying with a loud voice, yielded up His Spirit.

[Here all kneel, and pause awhile.]

And behold the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top even to the bottom, and the earth quaked, and the rocks were rent. And the monuments were opened, and many bodies of the saints, who had slept, arose. And they came out of the monuments, after His resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared to many. Now when the centurion, and they who were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and the things which took place, they were greatly terrified, saying: Indeed this was the Son of God. And many women were there, afar off, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. And when it was evening, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself also was a disciple of Jesus. He went to Pilate, and asked the Body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded that the Body should be delivered up. And Joseph taking the Body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new monument, which he had hewn out in the rock. And rolled a great stone to the door of the monument, and went away. And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the tomb.

[Here the Priest says the Munda cor meum, p. 123.]

And the next day, which followed the day of preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees came together to Pilate, saying : Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while He was yet alive : After three days I will rise. Command, therefore, the tomb to be made secure until the third day : lest His disciples come, and steal Him away, and say to the people : He is risen from the dead ; and the last error will be worse than the first. Pilate said to them : Ye have a guard : Go, make it secure, as ye know how. And they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone with the guard.

POSTCOMMUNION. By the operation of this Mystery, O Lord, may our vices be purged away, and our just desires fulfilled. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. *Amen.

EASTER SUNDAY.

INTROIT. I have arisen, and am still with thee, alleluia : Thou hast laid Thine hand upon me, alleluia : Thy knowledge is become wonderful, alleluia, alleluia.

Lord, thou hast proved me and known me : Thou hast known my sitting down and my rising up.
Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who through Thine Only-begotten Son hast on this day overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life : as by Thy preventing grace Thou dost prosper our good desires, so do Thou accompany them with Thy continual help. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. 1 Cor. v. 7-8. Brethren :—Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new paste, as ye are unleavened. For our passover, Christ, is sacrificed. Therefore let us feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

SEQUENCE : Victimæ Paschali, p. 620.

GOSPEL. Mark xvi. 1-7. At that time :—Mary

* For the offices of HOLY WEEK see note on p. 239.

Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint Jesus. And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they come to the monument, the sun being now risen. And they said, one to another : Who shall roll us back the stone from the door of the monument? And looking, they saw the stone rolled back : for it was very great. And entering into the monument, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed with a white robe, and they were affrighted. But he saith to them : Be not affrighted : ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen : He is not here : behold the place where they laid Him. But go, tell His disciples and Peter that He goeth before you into Galilee : there ye will see Him, as He told you.

POSTCOMMUNION. Pour forth upon us, O Lord, the spirit of Thy love ; that by Thy mercy Thou mayest make those of one mind whom Thou hast fed with Thy Paschal Mysteries. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LOW SUNDAY.

INTROIT. As new-born babes, alleluia : desire rational, guileless milk, allelulia, allelulia, alleluia.

Rejoice unto God our helper ; sing aloud unto the God of Jacob.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Grant, we beseech Thee, O Almighty God, that we for whom the Feast of the Passover hath now come to an end, may, through Thy merciful bounty, always retain in our life and manners the influence of the same. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. 1 John v. 4-10. Dearly Beloved :—All that is born of God, overcometh the world : and this is the victory, which overcometh the world, our faith. Who is it that overcometh the world : unless he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is He who came by water and blood, Jesus the Christ, not in blood alone, but in water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifieth that Christ is truth. For there are Three who give testimony in heaven : the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit : and these Three are

One. And there are three who give testimony on earth : the spirit, and water, and blood : and these three are one. If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater : for this is the testimony of God, which is greater, because He hath testified of His Son. He who believeth in the Son of God, hath the testimony of God in himself. He who doth not believe the Son, maketh Him a liar : because he believeth not in the testimony, which God hath given of His Son.

GOSPEL. John xx. 19-31. At that time :—When it was late that same day, the first of the week, and the doors were shut, where the disciples were gathered together, through fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them : Peace be to you. And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and side. The disciples, therefore, were glad when they saw the Lord. He said, therefore, to them again : Peace be to you. As the Father hath sent Me, I also send you. When He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them : Receive ye the Holy Spirit. Whose sins ye shall forgive, they are forgiven them : and whose sins ye shall retain, they are retained. Now Thomas, one of the twelve, who is called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples, therefore, said to him : We have seen the Lord. But he said to them : Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe. And after eight days, His disciples were again within ; and Thomas was with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said : Peace be to you. Then He saith to Thomas : Put thy finger in hither, and see My hands, and bring hither thy hand, and put it into My side ; and be not incredulous, but believing. Thomas answered, and said to Him : My Lord, and my God. Jesus saith to him : Because thou hast seen Me, Thomas, thou believest : blessed are they who have not seen and yet believe. Many other signs also Jesus performed in the sight of His disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God : and that believing, ye may have life in His name.

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech Thee, O Lord our God, that Thou wouldst make these most holy Mysteries, which Thou hast bestowed for the perfection of our renewal, to be to us both a present and future remedy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

INTROIT. The earth is full of the mercy of the Lord, alleluia : by the word of the Lord were the heavens established, alleluia, alleluia.

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just : praise becometh the upright. Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who in the humility of Thy Son hast raised up a fallen world : grant to Thy faithful people perpetual gladness ; and as Thou hast delivered them from the perils of eternal death, make them to rejoice with everlasting joy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. Grant, O Lord God (p. 194).

III. Mercifully hear, O Lord (p. 166), or, O God, the Pastor (p. 122).

EPISTLE. 1 Peter ii. 21-25. Dearly Beloved :—Christ suffered for us, leaving to you an example, that ye should follow in the steps of Him, who committed no sin, nor was guile found in His mouth : who when He was reviled, reviled not : when He suffered, threatened not, but delivered Himself up to him who judged Him unjustly : who Himself bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sin, should live to justice : by whose stripes ye are healed. For ye were as sheep going astray, but are now converted to the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

GOSPEL. John x. 11-16. At that time :—Jesus said to the Pharisees : I am the good Shepherd. The good shepherd giveth his life for his sheep. But the hireling, and he that is not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth : and the wolf seizeth, and scattereth the sheep : And the hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling, and hath no care for the sheep. I am the good Shepherd ; and I know Mine, and Mine know Me. As the Father knoweth Me, and I know the Father : and I lay down My life for My sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold : them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice, and there shall be one Fold and one Shepherd.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Almighty God, that, obtaining the grace of Thy Resurrection, we may ever glory in Thy gift. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. Having received, O Lord, these helps to our salvation, grant, we beseech Thee, that we may be ever protected by the patronage of blessed Mary ever Virgin, in whose honor we have made these offerings to Thy majesty.

III. We beseech Thee, or, May the partaking (p. 666).

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

PATRONAGE OF ST. JOSEPH.

INTROIT. The Lord is our helper and protector : in Him shall our heart rejoice, and in His holy name we have trusted, alleluia, alleluia.

Give ear, O Thou that rulest Israel : Thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who in Thine unspeakable providence didst vouchsafe to choose blessed Joseph to be the husband of Thy most holy Mother : mercifully grant that, as we venerate him for our protector on earth, we may deserve to be aided by his intercession in heaven. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE SUNDAY. Almighty God, who showest to those that are in error the light of Thy truth, that they may return into the way of justice : grant unto all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may avoid those things that are contrary to that name, and follow such things as are agreeable thereto. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Gen. xlix. 22-26. Joseph is a growing bough, a growing bough and fair to behold : the branches run to and fro upon the wall. But the archers provoked him, and quarrelled with him, and envied him. His bow rested upon the strong, and the bands of his arms and his hands were loosed, by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob : thence he came forth the shepherd, the stone of Israel. The God of thy father will be thy helper, and the Almighty will bless thee with the blessings of heaven above, with the blessings of the deep which lieth beneath, with the blessings of the breasts and of the womb. The blessings of thy father are strengthened with the blessings of his fathers, until the desire of the everlasting hills come : may they be upon the head of Joseph, and upon the crown of the Nazarite among his brethren.

GOSPEL. Luke iii. 21-23. At that time :—It came to pass, when all the people were baptized, that Jesus also being baptized and praying, the heaven was opened : and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form, like a dove, upon Him : and a Voice came from heaven : Thou art My beloved Son : in Thee I am well pleased. And Jesus Himself beginning, was about thirty years old, being (as it was supposed) the son of Joseph.

POSTCOMMUNION. Refreshed at the fountain of divine blessing, we beseech Thee, O Lord our God, that as Thou makest us rejoice in the protection of blessed Joseph, so by his merits and intercession Thou wouldst make us partakers of celestial glory. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

POSTCOMMUNION OF THE SUNDAY. May the Sacrament which we have received, O Lord, both revive us with spiritual nourishment and defend us by bodily succor. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LAST GOSPEL. John xvi. 16-22. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : A little while, and ye will not see Me : and again a little while, and ye will see Me : because I go to the Father. Then some of His disciples said, one to another : What is this that He saith to us : A little while, and ye will not see Me ; and again a little while, and ye will see Me, and, because I go to the Father ? They said, therefore : What is this that He saith : a little while ? We know not what He speaketh. And Jesus knew that they had a mind to ask Him ; and He said to them : Of this do ye inquire among yourselves, because I said : A little while, and ye will not see Me : and again a little while, and ye will see Me. Truly, truly, I say to you, that ye shall lament and weep, but the world shall rejoice :

and ye shall be made sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman, when she is in labor, hath sorrow, because her hour is come : but when she hath brought forth the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. So also ye now indeed have sorrow, but I will see you again ; and your heart will rejoice ; and your joy no man shall take from you.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

INTROIT. Sing unto the Lord a new song, alleluia ; for the Lord hath done wonderful things, alleluia. He hath revealed His justice in the sight of the Gentiles, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

His right hand and His holy arm : hath wrought salvation for Him.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who makest the minds of the faithful to be of one will : grant unto Thy people to love what Thou commandest, and to desire what Thou dost promise ; that amidst the various changes of the world our hearts may there be fixed where true joys abide. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on Second Sunday, p. 712.

EPISTLE. James i. 17-21. Dearly Beloved :—Every excellent gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom is no change, nor shadow of alteration. For of His own will He hath begotten us by the word of truth, that we may be some first fruits of His creatures. Ye know, my dearly beloved brethren. And let every man be quick to hear, but slow to speak, and slow to anger. For the anger of man worketh not the justice of God. Wherefore casting away all uncleanness, and abundance of malice, receive with meekness the engrafted word, which can save your souls.

GOSPEL. John xvi. 5-14. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : I go to Him who sent Me, and none of you asketh Me : Whither art Thou going ? But because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow hath filled your heart. But I tell you the truth : it is expedient for you that I go : for if I go not, the Paraclete will not come to you : but if I go, I will send Him to you. And when He is come, He will convict the world of sin, and of justice, and of judgment : of sin, because they believed not in Me ; and of justice, because I go to the Father ; and ye will see Me no longer : and of judgment, because the prince of this world is already judged. I have yet many things to say to you : but ye cannot bear them now. But when He, the Spirit of truth shall come, He will teach you all the truth, for He will not speak of Himself ; but whatever things He hath heard, He will speak, and the things which are to come, He will show you. He will glorify Me, because He will receive of Mine, and show to you.

POSTCOMMUNION. Assist us, O Lord our God, that by these Mysteries which we faithfully receive, we may be purified from vice and delivered from all dangers. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on Second Sunday, p. 713.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

INTROIT. Declare the voice of joy, and let it be heard, alleluia. Declare it even to the ends of the earth ; the Lord hath delivered His people, alleluia, alleluia.

O sing joyfully unto God, all the earth : sing ye a psalm unto His name : give glory unto His praise.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Lord, from whom all good things do proceed : grant to us Thy humble servants that by Thy holy inspiration we may think those things that are good, and by Thy guidance may perform the same. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on second Sunday, p. 712.

EPISTLE. James i. 22-27. Dearly Beloved :— Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if any man is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like to a man beholding his natural countenance in a glass : for he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and presently forgetteth what kind of a man he was. But he who looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth in it, not becoming a forgetful hearer, but a doer of work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. If any man think himself religious, not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his heart, this man's religion is vain. Religion pure and undefiled, with God and the Father is this : to visit orphans and widows in their tribulation, and to keep one's self unspotted from the world.

GOSPEL. John xvi. 23-30. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : Truly, truly, I say to you : If ye ask the Father anything in My name, He will give it you. Hitherto ye have not asked anything in My name : ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. These things I have spoken to you in proverbs. The hour cometh when I will no more speak to you in proverbs, but I will show you plainly of the Father. On that day, ye will ask in My name : and I say not to you, that I will ask the Father for you : for the Father Himself loveth you, because ye have loved Me and have believed that I came forth from God. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world : again I leave the world, and go to the Father. His disciples say to Him : Behold, now Thou speakest plainly, and speakest no proverb. Now we know that Thou knowest all things, and Thou needest not that any man should ask Thee : by this we believe that Thou comest forth from God.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant us, O Lord, whom Thou hast filled with the virtue of Thy heavenly table, both to desire those things which are right, and to obtain what we desire. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on Second Sunday, p. 713.

ASCENSION DAY.

INTROIT. Ye men of Galilee, why wonder ye, looking into heaven? alleluia : in like manner as ye have seen Him ascending into heaven, so shall He come, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

O clap your hands, all ye nations : shout unto God with the voice of joy.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that as we believe Thine Only-begotten Son our Redeemer to have this day ascended into the heavens, so we may also in heart and mind dwell amid heavenly things. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Acts i. 1-II. The former treatise I indeed made, O Theophilus, of all things which Jesus began to do and to teach, until the day on which He was taken up, after He had given commandments through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen. To whom, also, He showed Himself alive, after His Passion, by many proofs, for forty days appearing to them, and speaking of the kingdom of God. And eating with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which ye have heard (He said) from My mouth. For John indeed baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days hence. They, therefore, who were come together, asked Him, saying: Lord, wilt Thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel? But He said to them: It is not for you to know the times or moments which the Father hath set by His own power. But ye shall receive power when the Holy Spirit shall come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth. And when He had said these things, whilst they looked on, He was raised up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. And as they looked steadfastly on Him, as He went up to heaven, behold two men stood by them in white apparel, who also said: Men of Galilee, why stand ye looking up into heaven? This Jesus, who hath been taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into heaven.

GOSPEL. Mark xvi. 14-20. At that time:—Jesus appeared to the eleven as they were at table: and upbraided them with their unbelief, and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He was risen again. And He said to them: Go ye into the whole world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be condemned. And these signs shall follow those who believe. In My name they shall cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues. They shall take up serpents: and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them: they shall lay their hands upon the sick, and they shall recover.* And the Lord Jesus, after He had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God. But they going forth, preached everywhere : the Lord working withal, and confirming the word with the signs which followed.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we beseech thee, O Almighty and merciful God, that what we have received in visible Mysteries we may obtain in its invisible effect. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE ASCENSION.

INTROIT. Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I have cried unto Thee, alleluia : my heart hath said to Thee, I have sought Thy face, Thy face, O Lord, will I seek : hide not Thy face from me, alleluia, alleluia.

The Lord is my light and my salvation : whom shall I fear ?
Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Almighty, Everlasting God, grant that we may always have a will devoted to Thee, and a sincere heart to serve Thy majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.
Collect of the Ascension, p. 717.

EPISTLE. 1 Peter iv. 7-11. Dearly Beloved :—Be ye prudent and watch in prayers. And above all things have constant, mutual love among yourselves : for love covereth a multitude of sins. Be hospitable one to another without murmuring : Every one, as he hath received grace, ministering the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God : if any man minister, let him do it as by the strength which God supplieth : that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ our Lord.

GOSPEL. John xv. 26 to xvi. 4. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : When the Paraclete cometh, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceedeth from the Father, He will give testimony of Me. And ye shall give testimony, because ye are with Me from the beginning. These things have I spoken to you, that ye may not be scandalized. They will cast you out of the synagogues : yea, the hour cometh, that whoever killeth you will think that he offereth homage to God. And these things will they do to you, because they know not the Father nor Me. But these things I have told you, that when their time shall come, ye may remember that I told you.

POSTCOMMUNION. Being refreshed, O Lord, with sacred gifts, grant us, we beseech Thee, ever to continue in thanksgiving: Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Postcommunion of the Ascension, p. 719.

PENTECOST, OR WHITSUNDAY.

INTROIT. The Spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world, alleluia : and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered ; and let them that hate Him flee from before His face.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who on this day didst teach the hearts of Thy faithful people, by the light of Thy Holy Spirit : grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Acts ii. 1-11. When the days of Pentecost were completed, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them parted tongues as of fire, and it sat upon every one of them : And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Holy Spirit gave them to speak. Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem, Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. And when this voice was spread, the multitude came together, and were confounded in mind, because every man heard them speak in his own tongue. And they were all amazed, and wondered, saying : Behold, are not all these who speak, Galileans ? And how hear we every man our own tongue wherein we were born ! Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphilia, Egypt, and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews also, and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians; we hear them speak in our tongues the great works of God.

SEQUENCE: Veni, Sancte Spiritus, p. 625.

GOSPEL. John xiv. 23-31. At that time:—Jesus said to His disciples: If any one love Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come to him, and make our abode with him: he who loveth Me not, keepeth not My words. And the word which ye have heard, is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me. These things have I spoken to you, abiding with you. But the Paraclete, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring all things to your mind, whatever I have said to you. Peace I leave you, My peace I give you: not as the world giveth do I give you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. Ye have heard that I said to you: I go away, and I come to you. If ye loved Me, ye would indeed be glad, because I go to the Father: for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that when it shall come to pass, ye may believe. I will not now speak many things with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and in Me he hath nothing. But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father hath given Me commandment, so do I.

POSTCOMMUNION. May the infusion of the Holy Spirit cleanse our hearts, O Lord, and render them fruitful by the inward watering of His heavenly dew. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc.
Amen.

TRINITY SUNDAY.

INTROIT. Blessed be the Holy Trinity and undivided Unity: we will give glory to Him, because He hath shown His mercy to us.

O Lord our Lord, how admirable is Thy name in the whole earth.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Almighty, Everlasting God, who hast granted to Thy servants, in the confession of the true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the Eternal Trinity, and, in the power of Thy majesty, to adore the Unity : we beseech Thee that, by steadfastness in the same faith, we may always be defended from all adversities. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE SUNDAY. O God, the strength of those who put their trust in Thee, graciously accept our prayers ; and because human infirmity without Thee can do nothing, grant us the help of Thy grace ; that, in fulfilling Thy commandments, we may please Thee both in will and deed. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. Rom. xi. 33-36. O depth of riches of wisdom and knowledge of God ! How incomprehensible are His judgments, and unsearchable His ways ! For who hath known the mind of the Lord ? Or who hath been His counsellor ? Or who hath first given to Him, and recompense shall be made him ? For of Him, and by Him, and in Him, are all things : to Him be glory for ever. Amen.

GOSPEL. Matt. xxviii. 18-20. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : All power is given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations : baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you : and behold I am with you all days, unto the end of the world.

POSTCOMMUNION. May the reception of this Sacrament, O Lord our God, and the confession of the Holy and Eternal Trinity, and Its undivided Unity, profit us to the salvation of body and soul. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

POSTCOMMUNION OF THE SUNDAY. Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that, filled with so great gifts, we may receive Thy salutary benefits, and never cease from Thy praise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LAST GOSPEL. Luke vi. 36-42. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : Be therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful. Judge not, and ye shall not be judged. Condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned. Forgive, and ye shall be forgiven. Give, and it shall be given to you : good measure and pressed down, and shaken together and running over, shall they give into your bosom. For with the same measure with which ye measure, it shall be measured to you again. And He spake also a similitude to them: Can a blind man lead a blind man? do not both fall into the pit? The scholar is not above his teacher; but every one will be perfect, if he be as his teacher. And why seest thou the mote in thy brother's eye, and considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? or, how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me draw the mote out of thine eye, when thou thyself perceivest not the beam in thine own eye? Hypocrite, cast first the beam out of thine own eye: and then wilt thou see clearly to draw the mote out of thy brother's eye.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

INTROIT. He fed them with the fat of wheat, alleluia, and with honey out of the rock He satisfied them, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Rejoice unto God our helper; sing aloud unto the God of Jacob.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who under a wonderful Sacrament hast left us a memorial of Thy Passion: grant us, we beseech Thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Blood that we may ever feel within us the fruit of Thy Redemption. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. 1 Cor. xi. 23-29. Brethren:—I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and giving thanks, brake it, and said: Take and eat: this is My Body, which shall be delivered for you: this do for the commemoration of Me. In like manner also He took the cup, after the supper, saying: This cup is the new covenant in My Blood. This do ye, as often as ye shall drink, for the commemoration of Me. For as often as ye shall eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye shall show the death of the Lord, until He come. Therefore whoever shall eat this bread, or drink the cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and of the Blood of the Lord. But let a man prove himself: and so let him eat of that bread and drink of the cup. For he who eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh judgment to himself, not discerning the Body of the Lord.

SEQUENCE : Lauda Sion, p. 632.

GOSPEL. John vi. 56-59. At that time :—Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews : My Flesh is true food, and My Blood is true drink. He who eateth My Flesh, and drinketh My Blood, abideth in Me, and I in him. As the Father who liveth sent Me, and I live by the Father, so he that eateth Me, the same also shall live by Me. This is the Bread which came down from heaven. Not as your fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eateth this Bread, shall live for ever.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to be filled with the everlasting fruition of Thy Divinity, which is prefigured by the temporal reception of Thy precious Body and Blood. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI.

INTROIT. The Lord became my protector, and He brought me forth into a large place : He saved me, because He was well pleased with me.

I will love Thee, O Lord, my strength : the Lord is my rock, my refuge, and my deliverer.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Make us, O Lord, to have a perpetual fear and love of Thy Holy Name ; for Thou never failest to govern those whom Thou dost solidly establish in Thy love. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Collect of Corpus Christi, p. 723.

EPISTLE. 1 John iii. 13-18. Dearly Beloved :—Wonder not if the world hate you. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who loveth not, abideth in death. Every one who hateth his brother, is a murderer. And ye know, that no murderer hath life everlasting abiding in himself. In this we know the love of God, that He laid down His life for us : and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. He who hath the substance of this world, and seeth his brother in need, and shutteth up his bowels against him, how doth the love of God abide in him? My little children, let us love, not in word, nor tongue, but in deed and truth.

GOSPEL. Luke xiv. 16-24. At that time :—Jesus spoke to the Pharisees this parable : A certain man made a great supper, and invited many. And he sent his servant at supper time, to say to those who had been invited, that they should come, for now all things are ready. And they all began together to make excuse. The first said to him : I have bought a farm, and I must go out and see it : I pray thee, excuse me. And another said : I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them : I pray thee, excuse me. And another said : I have married a wife, and, therefore, I cannot come. And the servant returning, told these things to his lord. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant : Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and the maimed, and the blind and the lame. And the servant said : Sir, it is done as thou hast commanded : and yet there is room. And the lord said to the servant : Go into the highways and hedges ; and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. But I say to you, that none of these men who have been invited, shall taste of my supper.

POSTCOMMUNION. Having received Thy sacred gifts, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that by the frequent reception of this Mystery the fruit of our salvation may increase. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Postcommunion of Corpus Christi, p. 724.

FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

FRIDAY AFTER THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI.

INTROIT. He will have mercy according to the multitude of His mercies : for He hath not willingly afflicted nor cast off the children of men : the Lord is good to them that hope in Him, to the soul that seeketh Him, alleluia, alleluia.

The mercies of the Lord I will sing for evermore ; from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who glory in the most Sacred Heart of Thy beloved Son, and celebrate the singular benefits of His love towards us, may rejoice equally in their operation and their fruit. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Isaiah xii. 1-6. I will give thanks to Thee, O Lord, for Thou wast angry with me: Thy wrath is turned away, and Thou hast comforted me. Behold, God is my Saviour, I will deal confidently, and will not fear: because the Lord is my strength, and my praise, and He is become my salvation. Ye shall draw waters with joy out of the fountains of salvation. And ye shall say in that day: Praise ye the Lord: and call on His name: make His works known among the peoples: remember that His name is high. Sing ye to the Lord, for He hath done a great thing: show this forth in all the earth. Rejoice, and praise, O thou habitation of Sion: for great in the midst of thee is the Holy One of Israel.

GOSPEL. John xix. 31-35. At that time:—The Jews, because it was the eve of the Sabbath, that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that was a great Sabbath-day), besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him. But after they came to Jesus, when they saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he who saw it giveth testimony, and his testimony is true.

POSTCOMMUNION. Being fed with peaceful delights and life-giving Sacraments, we humbly beseech Thee, O Lord our God, that Thou, who art meek and humble of heart, wouldst make us clean from the stain of every vice, and more steadfastly to abhor the proud vanities of the world. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. Look Thou upon me, and have mercy on me, O Lord: for I am alone and poor: look upon my lowliness and my labor: and forgive me all my sins, O my God.

To Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul : in Thee, O my God, I put my trust ; let me not be ashamed.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, the Protector of all that trust in Thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy : increase and multiply upon us Thy mercy ; that, Thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through temporal blessings that we finally lose not those which are eternal. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. Defend us, O Lord (p. 121).

III. At choice.

EPISTLE. 1 Peter v. 6-11. Dearly Beloved :—Humble yourselves under the powerful hand of God, that He may exalt you in the time of visitation, casting all your care on Him, since He is careful of you. Be sober and vigilant, for your adversary, the devil, as a roaring lion, goeth about, seeking whom he may devour, whom resist strong in faith, knowing that the same sufferings befall your brethren in the world. But the God of all grace, who hath called you to His eternal glory in Christ Jesus, will perfect, confirm, and establish you, after ye have suffered awhile. To Him be glory and empire for ever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL. Luke xv. 1-10. At that time :—The publicans and the sinners drew near to Him, to hear Him. And the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying : This Man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And He spake to them this parable, saying : What man of you who hath a hundred sheep and loseth one of them, doth not leave the ninety-nine in the desert, and go after that which was lost, until he find it ? And when he hath found it, he layeth it upon his shoulders, rejoicing ; and coming home, he calleth together his friends and neighbors, saying to them : Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep which was lost ? I say to you, that even so there will be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety-nine just men who need not penance. Or what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house and seek diligently, until she findeth it ? And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbors, saying: Rejoice with me, because I have found the piece which I had lost. So I say to you, there is joy before the Angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

POSTCOMMUNION. May we be renewed, O Lord, by Thy sacred Mysteries which we have received; and may they expiate our sins, and prepare us for Thine eternal mercies. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. May the oblation (p. 684).

III. At choice.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the protector of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Mine enemies that trouble me have themselves been weakened and have fallen.

If armies in camp should stand together against me, my heart shall not fear.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Grant, O Lord, we beseech Thee, both that the course of this world may be peaceably ordered by Thy governance, and that Thy Church may joyfully serve Thee in tranquil devotion. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.
Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Rom. viii. 18-23. Brethren:—I think that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy of the glory, which shall be revealed in us. For the expectation of the creature waiteth for the revelation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity not willingly, but by reason of him who made it subject in hope; because the creature also itself shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain until now. And not only it, but ourselves also having the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption of sons of God, the redemption of our body: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL. Luke v. 1-11. At that time:—When the crowd pressed on Jesus to hear the word of God, He stood by the lake of Genesareth, and saw two barks standing by the lake : but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And going up into one of the barks, that was Simon's, He desired him to put off a little from the land. And sitting down, He taught the crowds out of the bark. Now when He had ceased to speak, He said to Simon : Put off into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answering, said to Him : Master, we have toiled all the night, and taken nothing ; but at Thy word I will let down the net. And when they had done this, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their net was breaking. And they beckoned to their partners who were in the other bark, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the barks, so that they were almost sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying : Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord ! For amazement had seized him, and all who were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken ; and so likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. And Jesus said to Simon : Fear not ; from henceforth thou wilt catch men. And when they had brought their barks to shore, they left all things and followed Him.

POSTCOMMUNION. May the Mysteries which we have received purify us, O Lord, we beseech Thee ; and defend us by the gifts which they convey. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I have cried unto Thee : be Thou my helper, forsake me not, neither despise me, O God, my Saviour.

The Lord is my light and my salvation ; whom shall I fear ?
Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who hast prepared for those who love Thee good things beyond the vision of man : pour into our hearts such love toward Thee that we, loving Thee in all things and above all things, may obtain Thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. 1 Peter iii. 8-15. Dearly Beloved :—Be ye all of one mind in prayer, sympathizing, loving the brotherhood, merciful, modest, humble : not rendering evil for evil, nor insult for insult ; but, on the contrary, blessing, for to this ye are called, that ye may inherit a blessing. For let him who will love life and see good days, refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile : Let him turn away from evil, and do good : let him seek peace and pursue it, for the eyes of the Lord are on the just, and His ears are open to their prayers : but the countenance of the Lord is on those who do evil. And who is there, who can hurt you, if ye be zealous for good? But if also ye suffer something for justice, blessed are ye. And fear not their terror, and be not troubled. But sanctify Christ the Lord in your hearts.

GOSPEL. Matt. v. 20-24. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : Unless your justice abound more than that of the Scribes and Pharisees, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Ye have heard that it was said to those of old : Thou shalt not kill; and whoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment. But I say to you, that whoever is angry with his brother, shall be in danger of the judgment. And whoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council. And whoever shall say, thou fool, shall be in danger of hell-fire. If therefore thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath anything against thee, leave there thy gift before the altar, and go first and be reconciled to thy brother : and then come and offer thy gift.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we whom Thou hast fed with a heavenly gift may be cleansed from our hidden sins, and delivered from the snares of our enemies. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. The Lord is the strength of His people, and the protector of the salvation of His anointed : save, O Lord, Thy people, and bless Thine inheritance, and rule them for ever, Unto Thee will I cry, O Lord : O my God, be not Thou silent to me ; lest if Thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God of all power and might, to whom belongeth everything that is best : implant in our hearts the love of Thy name, and increase within us true religion ; that Thou mayest nourish in us those things that are good, and by the zeal of our devotion mayest preserve what Thou hast nourished. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Rom. vi. 3-11. Brethren :—All ye who are baptized in Christ Jesus, are baptized in His death. For we are buried together with Him by baptism into death : that as Christ is risen from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also may walk in newness of life. For, if we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, we shall be also of His resurrection. Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with Him, that the body of sin may be destroyed, and that we may serve sin no longer. For he who is dead is justified from sin. But if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall live also together with Christ : knowing that Christ rising again from the dead dieth now no more, death shall no more have dominion over Him. For that He died for sin, he died once ; but that He liveth, He liveth to God. So ye also reckon yourselves dead indeed to sin, but alive to God, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL. Mark viii. 1-9. At that time :—When there was a great crowd with Jesus, and they had nothing to eat, He called his disciples together, and said to them : I have compassion on the crowd, for behold they have now been with Me three days, and have nothing to eat. And if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way ; for some of them have come from afar. And His disciples answered Him : Whence can any one satisfy them with bread here in the wilderness ? And He asked them : How many loaves have ye ? They said, seven. And He commanded the crowd to lie on the ground. And

He took the seven loaves, and gave thanks and brake them, and gave to His disciples to set before them, and they set them before the crowd. And they had a few small fishes : and He blessed them, and commanded them to be set before them. And they ate and were satisfied, and they took up the broken meat which remained, seven baskets full. And they who ate were about four thousand : and He sent them away.

POSTCOMMUNION. Having been filled, O Lord, with Thy gifts, grant, we beseech Thee, that we may be cleansed by their virtue and defended by their help. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. O clap your hands, all ye nations ; shout unto God with the voice of joy.

For the Lord is high, and terrible : a great King over all the earth.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, the ordering of whose providence never erreth : we humbly beseech Thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us all those things which are profitable for us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Rom. vi. 19-23. Brethren :—I speak a human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh : for as ye have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity unto iniquity, so now yield your members to serve justice unto sanctification. For when ye were servants of sin, ye were free from justice. What fruit, therefore, had ye then in those things of which ye are now ashamed ? For the end of them is death. But now being made free from sin, and having become servants of God, ye have your fruit unto sanctification, but the end everlasting life. For the wages of sin is death. But the grace of God is life everlasting, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL. Matt. vii. 15-21. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly are ravenous wolves. By their fruits ye shall know them.

Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, shall be cut down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one who saith to Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he who doeth the will of My Father who is in heaven, he shall enter the kingdom of heaven.

POSTCOMMUNION. May Thy healing operation, O Lord, mercifully free us from our perverse inclinations, and lead us to those things which are right. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. We have received Thy mercy, O God, in the midst of Thy temple; according to Thy name, O God, so also is Thy praise unto the ends of the earth: Thy right hand is full of justice.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised: in the city of our God, even upon His holy mountain.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Mercifully grant to us, O Lord, we beseech Thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right; that we, who cannot exist without Thee, may by Thee be enabled to live according to Thy will. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Rom. viii. 12-17. Therefore, brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if by the spirit ye mortify the deeds of the flesh, ye shall live. For whoever are led by the Spirit of God, they are sons of God. For ye have not received a spirit of bondage again in fear, but ye have received a spirit of adoption of sons, in which we cry, Abba (Father). For the Spirit Himself beareth testimony to our spirit, that we are children of God. And if children, heirs also: heirs indeed of God, and joint heirs with Christ.

GOSPEL. Luke xvi. 1-9. At that time:—Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and he was accused to him of wasting his goods. And he called him, and said to him : What is this that I hear of thee ? Give an account of thy stewardship : for thou canst be steward no longer. And the steward said within himself : What shall I do, since my lord taketh away the stewardship from me ? To dig I am not able : to beg I am ashamed. I know what I will do, that when I am removed from the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. Therefore, calling together every one of the debtors of his lord, he said to the first : How much owest thou to my lord ? He said : A hundred measures of oil. And he said to him : Take thy note, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then he said to another : And how much owest thou ? He said : A hundred measures of wheat. He said to him : Take thy bill, and write eighty. And the lord praised the unjust steward, because he had done prudently : for the children of this world are wiser for their generation than the children of light. And I say to you : Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of iniquity, that when ye shall fail, they may receive you into the everlasting mansions.

POSTCOMMUNION. May this heavenly Mystery be to us, O Lord, a reparation of mind and body ; that we may experience the effect of that which we celebrate. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. Behold, God is my helper, and the Lord is the protector of my soul : turn back evil upon mine enemies, and destroy Thou them in Thy Truth, O Lord my protector.

Save me, O God, by Thy name, and deliver me in Thy strength.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Let Thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of Thy suppliant people ; and that Thou mayest grant them their desires, make them to ask such things as please Thee. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. 1 Cor. x. 6-13. Brethren :—We may not be covetous of evil things, as even they coveted.

Neither become ye idolaters, as some of them, as it is written : The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play. Neither let us fornicate, as some of them fornicated, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them tempted, and were destroyed by the serpents. Neither murmur, as some of them murmured, and perished by the destroyer. Now all these things happened to them in figure : and they are written for a warning to us, on whom the ends of the world have come. Therefore let him who thinketh that he standeth, take heed lest he fall. Let no temptation take hold on you, but such as is human : and God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above what ye are able : but will even make with temptation an issue, that ye may be able to bear it.

GOSPEL. Luke xix. 41-47. At that time :—When Jesus drew near to Jerusalem, seeing the city, He wept over it, saying : If thou also hadst known, and that in this thy day, the things which are for thy peace : but now they are hidden from thine eyes. For the days will come upon thee, and thine enemies will cast a trench round about thee, and compass thee round, and straiten thee on every side : and beat thee to the ground, and thy children who are in thee : and they will not leave in thee one stone upon another : because thou hast not known the time of thy visitation. And entering into the temple, He began to cast out those who sold therein, and those who bought, saying to them : It is written : My house is a house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of robbers. And He was teaching daily in the temple.

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech Thee, O Lord, that the communion of Thy Sacrament may bestow upon us both purification and unity. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. When I cried to the Lord, He heard my voice, from them that draw near against me ; and He humbled them, who is before all ages, and remains for ever: cast thy care upon the Lord, and He shall nourish thee.

Hear my prayer, O God, and despise not my supplication; be attentive unto me, and hear me.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who dost manifest Thine Almighty power chiefly in showing pardon and pity: increase and multiply upon us Thy mercy; that we, running the way towards the attainment of Thy promises, may be made partakers of Thy heavenly treasures. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. 1 Cor. xii. 2-11. Brethren:—Ye know, that when ye were heathens, ye went to dumb idols, according as ye were led. Wherefore I make known to you, that no man speaking in the Spirit of God, saith anathema to Jesus. And no man can say, Lord Jesus, but in the Holy Spirit. Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are diversities of ministrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but the same God, who worketh all in all. And the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man unto profit. To one indeed by the Spirit is given the word of wisdom: and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit: to another faith in the same Spirit: to another the grace of cures in the one Spirit: to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discerning of spirits, to another kinds of tongues, to another interpretation of speeches. But all these things the one and the same Spirit worketh, dividing to every one as He willeth.

GOSPEL. Luke xviii. 9-14. At that time:—To some who trusted in themselves as just, and despised others, Jesus spoke this parable: Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee standing prayed thus with himself: O God, I thank Thee that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, as even this publican. I fast twice in the week; I give tithes of all I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not so much as lift his eyes to heaven, but struck his breast, saying : O God, be merciful to me a sinner. I say to you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other : for every one who exalteth himself will be humbled, and he who humbleth himself will be exalted.

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech, Thee, O Lord our God, that in Thy mercy Thou wouldest not leave destitute of Thine aids those whom Thou ceasest not to refresh with Thy divine Sacraments. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. God in His holy place ; God who maketh men of one manner to dwell in a house : He will give power and strength unto His people.

Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered ; and let them that hate Him flee from before His face.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Almighty, Everlasting God, who, in the abundance of Thy loving-kindness, dost exceed both the merits and the desires of those who pray unto Thee : pour down upon us Thy mercy ; forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and granting us those good things which our prayer does not presume to ask. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. 1 Cor. xv. 1-10. Brethren :—I make known to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also ye have received, wherein also ye stand, by which also ye are saved : after what manner I preached to you, if ye hold it fast, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered to you first of all, that which I also received, that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures : and that He was buried, and that He arose again on the third day, according to the Scriptures : and that He was seen by Kephas, and after that by the eleven ; then was He seen by more than five hundred brethren at once, of whom many remain until this present, but some are fallen asleep : afterwards He was seen by James, then by all the apostles ; and last of all, as by one born out of time, He was seen by me also. For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace unto me hath not been void.

GOSPEL. Mark vii. 31-37. At that time :—Jesus, going out of the borders of Tyre, came by Sidon to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis. And they brought to Him one deaf and dumb ; and besought Him to put His hand upon him. And taking him from the multitude apart, He put His fingers into his ears, and He spat and touched his tongue ; and looking up to heaven He groaned, and said to him : Ephpheta ; which is, Be opened. And immediately his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake rightly. And He charged them that they should tell no one. But the more He charged them, so much the more a great deal did they publish it. And so much the more did they wonder, saying : He hath done all things well : He maketh both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech Thee, O Lord, that by the reception of Thy Sacrament we may feel support of mind and body ; that, saved in both, we may glory in the fulness of the heavenly remedy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. Come unto my help, O God : O Lord, make haste to help me : let my enemies be ashamed and put to confusion who seek after my soul.

Let them be turned backward and blush for shame that wish me evil.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Almighty and merciful God, of whose gift it cometh that Thy faithful people do Thee worthy and laudable service : grant, we beseech Thee, that we run without stumbling to the attainment of Thy promises. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. 2 Cor. iii. 4-9. Brethren :—Such confidence we have through Christ to God : not that we are sufficient to think anything of ourselves, as of ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God : who also hath made us fit ministers of the new covenant : not in the letter, but in the Spirit : for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death formed with letters on stones was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance which is made void : how shall not the ministration of the spirit be more glorious ? For if the ministry of condemnation is glory, much more the ministry of justice aboundeth in glory.

GOSPEL. Luke x. 23-37. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : Happy are the eyes that see the things which ye see. For I say to you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not ; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not. And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, trying Him, and saying : Teacher, what must I do to possess eternal life ? But He said to him : What is written in the law ? How readest thou ? He answering, said : Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself. And He said to him : Thou hast answered rightly ; this do, and thou shalt live. But he, willing to justify himself, said to Jesus : And who is my neighbor ? And Jesus resumed and said : A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell in with robbers, who even stripped him and wounded him, and went away, leaving him half dead. And by chance a certain priest went down by the same road ; and seeing him, passed by. In like manner also a Levite, when he was near the place, and saw him, passed by. But a certain Samaritan, traveling, came near him ; and seeing him, was moved with compassion. And going up to him, he bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two shillings and gave to the innkeeper, and said : Take care of him, and whatever thou shalt lay out over and above, I will repay thee at my return. Which of these three appeareth to thee to have been a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers? And he said : He who showed mercy to him. And Jesus said to him: Go, and do thou in like manner.

POSTCOMMUNION. May the holy participation of this Mystery give life to us, O Lord, we beseech Thee; and procure for us both expiation and protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. Have regard, O Lord, unto Thy covenant, and forsake not for ever the souls of Thy poor: arise, O Lord, and judge Thy cause, and forget not the voices of them that seek Thee.

O God, why hast Thou cast us off for ever? why is Thy wrath kindled against the sheep of Thy pasture?

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Almighty and Everlasting God, give unto us an increase of Faith, Hope, and Charity; and, that we may worthily obtain that which Thou dost promise, make us to love that which Thou dost command. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Gal. iii. 16-22. Brethren:—The promises were made to Abraham and his Seed. He doth not say: and seeds, as if of many; but as of one: and thy Seed, which is Christ. And this I say, the covenant confirmed by God, the law which was made after four hundred and thirty years, doth not annul, so as to make void the promise. For if the inheritance be by the law, it is no more by promise. But God gave to Abraham by promise. What then was the law? It was put because of transgressions, until the Seed should come, to whom He had promised, it being ordained by Angels, in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not of one: but God is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid. For if a law had been given which could give life, truly justice would have been by the law. But the Scripture hath shut up all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

GOSPEL. Luke xvii. 11-19. At that time:—As Jesus was going to Jerusalem, He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as He entered into a certain town, there met Him ten lepers, who stood afar off : and lifted up their voice, saying : Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when He saw them, He said : Go, show yourselves to the priests. And it came to pass that, as they went, they were cleansed. But one of them, when he saw that he was cleansed, went back, and with a loud voice glorified God. And he fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks : And this was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said : Were not the ten cleansed ? And where are the nine ? There is no one found to return, and give glory to God, but this stranger. And He said to him : Arise, and depart, for thy faith hath healed thee.

POSTCOMMUNION. Having received Thy heavenly Sacraments, O Lord, we beseech Thee that we may profit to the increase of eternal redemption. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. Behold, O God our protector, and look upon the face of Thy Christ ; for one day in Thy courts is better than a thousand.

How lovely are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts : my soul longeth and fainteth for the courts of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Keep, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy Church with Thy perpetual favor ; and, because the frailty of man without Thee cannot but fall, keep it ever by Thy help from all things hurtful, and lead it to all things profitable to salvation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Gal. v. 16-24. Brethren :—Walk in spirit, and ye will not fulfil the lusts of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh : for these are contrary one to another, so that ye do not whatever things ye will. But if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law. And the works of the flesh are manifest, which are fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, luxury, idolatry, witchcraft, enmities, contentions, rivalries, wrath, quarrels, disputes, sects, envying, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and the like : of which I foretell you, as I have before said : that they who do such things shall not obtain the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is charity, joy, peace, patience, mildness, goodness, long-suffering, meekness, faith, modesty, continence, chastity. Against such there is no law. But they who are of Christ, have crucified their flesh with its vices and lusts.

GOSPEL. Matt. vi. 24-33. At that time :—Jesus said to His disciples : No man can serve two masters : for either he will hate one, and love the other, or he will cling to one, and slight the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say to you, be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, nor for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food? and the body more than the raiment? Behold the birds of the air, for they neither sow, nor reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? And which of you, by anxious thought, can add to his stature one cubit? And for raiment why are ye anxious? Consider the lilies of the field how they grow: they labor not, neither do they spin. Yet I say to you, that not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed as one of these. Wherefore if God so clothe the grass of the field, which is to-day, and to-morrow is cast into the oven: how much more you, O ye of little faith? Be not anxious, therefore, saying: What shall we eat, or what shall we drink, or wherewith shall we be clothed? For after all these things the heathen seek. For your Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. Seek ye, therefore, first the kingdom of God, and His justice, and all these things shall be added unto you.

POSTCOMMUNION. May Thy Sacraments, O God, ever purify and defend us; and lead us to the end of eternal salvation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. Incline Thine ear, O Lord, unto me, and hear me: save Thy servant, O my God, that trusteth in Thee: have mercy upon me, O Lord, for unto Thee have I cried all the day.

Give joy to the soul of Thy servant ; for unto Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Lord, let Thy continual pity cleanse and defend Thy Church ; and, because it cannot continue in safety without Thee, govern it evermore by Thy help. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Gal. v. 25 to vi. 10. Brethren :—If we live by the Spirit, let us walk also by the Spirit. Let us not be vain-glorious, provoking one another, envying one another. Brethren, if even a man be overtaken in any fault, ye who are spiritual correct him in a spirit of gentleness, considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so ye will fulfil the law of Christ. For if any man think himself to be something, whereas he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let every man prove his own work, and so he will have glory in himself only, and not in another. For every one shall bear his own burden. And let him who is instructed in the word communicate to him who instructeth him, in all good things. Be not deceived : God is not mocked. For what a man soweth, that shall he reap also. For he who soweth for his flesh, of the flesh shall also reap corruption ; but he who soweth for the Spirit, of the Spirit shall reap everlasting life. And let us not be weary in well doing, for in due time we shall reap if we faint not. Therefore whilst we have time, let us do good to all, but especially to those of the household of the faith.

GOSPEL. Luke vii. 11-16. At that time :—Jesus was going into a city called Naim : and there went with Him His disciples, and a great crowd. And when He came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was carried out, an only son of his mother ; and she was a widow : and a great crowd of the city was with her. And the Lord seeing her, was moved with pity towards her, and said to her : Weep not. And He came near, and touched the bier. (And they that carried it stood still.) And He said : Young man, I say to thee, arise. And he that was dead, sat up, and began to speak. And He gave him to his mother. And fear seized all : and they glorified God, saying : A great Prophet is risen up among us : and God hath visited His people.

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech Thee, O Lord, that the operation of Thy heavenly gift may possess both our minds and bodies ; that its effect, and not our own senses, may ever have dominion within us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for unto Thee have I cried all the day : for Thou, O Lord, art sweet and mild, and plenteous in mercy unto all that call upon Thee.

Incline Thine ear unto me, O Lord, and hear me, for I am needy and poor.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Lord, we pray Thee that Thy grace may always precede and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Ephes. iii. 13-21. Brethren :—I desire that ye faint not in my tribulations for you : which is your glory. For this cause I bend my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from whom every paternity in heaven and on earth is named, that He would grant you according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power by His Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell by faith in your hearts : ye being rooted and founded in charity, that ye may be able to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth, and length, and height, and depth : to know also the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled to the whole fulness of God. Now to Him who is able to do all things more abundantly than we ask, or understand, according to the power which worketh in us, to Him be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus for all generations, world without end. Amen.

GOSPEL. Luke xiv. 1-11. At that time :—When Jesus went into the house of one of the chief of the Pharisees on the Sabbath to eat bread, they were watching Him. And behold, a certain man who had the dropsy was before Him. And Jesus answering, spake to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying : Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day ? But they were silent. And taking hold of him, He healed him, and sent him away. And He answered them and said : If the ass or ox of any of you fall into a pit, will he not immediately draw him out on the Sabbath day ? And they could not answer Him, in regard to these things. And He spake a parable also to those who were invited, marking how they chose the first places at table, saying to them : When thou art invited to a wedding, sit not down in the first place, lest one more honorable than thou be invited by him : and he who invited thee and him, come and say to thee : Give place to this man : and then thou begin with shame to take the lowest place. But when thou art invited, go, sit down in the lowest place, that when he who invited thee cometh, he may say to thee : Friend, go up higher. Then shalt thou have glory before those who sit at table with thee. For every one who exalteth himself will be humbled ; and he who humbleth himself will be exalted.

POSTCOMMUNION. Mercifully purify our minds, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and renew them with heavenly Sacraments, that by them we may receive for our bodies both present and future aid. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. Thou art just, O Lord, and Thy judgment is right ; deal with Thy servant according to Thy mercy.

Blessed are the undefiled in the way ; who walk in the law of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Grant to Thy people, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to avoid the defilements of the devil ; and with a pure mind to follow Thee, the only God. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Ephes. iv. 1-6. Brethren :—I, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all humility, and meekness, with patience, bearing with one another in charity, careful to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. One body and one Spirit, as ye are called in one hope of your calling. One Lord, one faith, one baptism. One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in us all : who is blessed for ever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL. Matt. xxii. 35-46. At that time :—The Pharisees came to Jesus. And one of them, a lawyer, asked Him, tempting Him : Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said to him : Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with thy whole mind. This is the greatest and first commandment. And the second is like to it : Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hangeth the whole law and the prophets. And the Pharisees being gathered together, Jesus asked them, saying : What think ye concerning the Christ : whose Son is he? They say to Him : Of David. He saith to them : How then doth David by the Spirit call Him Lord ; saying : The Lord said to my Lord : Sit on My right hand, until I make Thine enemies Thy footstool? If then David calleth Him Lord, how is He his son? And no man was able to answer Him a word : neither durst any one from that day forth question Him any more.

POSTCOMMUNION. By Thy sacred Mysteries, O Almighty God, may our vices be cured, and may we receive everlasting remedies. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. Give peace, O Lord, unto them that patiently wait for Thee, that Thy prophets may be found faithful : hear the prayers of Thy servant, and of Thy people Israel.

I was glad at the things that were said unto me : we will go into the house of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Direct our hearts, we beseech Thee, O Lord, by the working of Thy mercy ; because without Thee we are not able to please Thee. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. 1 Cor. i. 4-8. Brethren :—I give thanks to my God always for you, for the grace of God which is given you, in Christ Jesus : that in everything ye are made rich in Him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge : as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you : so that ye come behind in no gift, waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, who also will confirm you to the end blameless, in the day of the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL. Matt. ix. 1-8. At that time :—Jesus entered into a boat, and passed over the water, and came into His own city. And behold they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. And Jesus seeing their faith, said to the paralytic : Be of good heart, child : thy sins are forgiven thee. And behold some of the Scribes said within themselves : This one blasphemeth. And Jesus seeing their thoughts, said : Why think ye evil in your hearts ? Which is easier, to say : Thy sins are forgiven thee : or to say : Rise and walk ? But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power on earth to forgive sins, then saith He to the paralytic, Arise, take up thy bed, and go into thy house. And he rose, and went into his house. And when the crowd saw it, they feared, and glorified God, who gave such power to men.

POSTCOMMUNION. Nourished by Thy sacred gifts, we render thanks unto Thee, O Lord ; humbly imploring Thy mercy, that Thou wouldst render us worthy of thus partaking thereof. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. I am the salvation of the people, saith the Lord ; in whatever tribulation they shall cry unto Me, I will hear them : and I will be their Lord for ever.

Give ear, O My people, unto My law ; incline your ears unto the words of My mouth.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep us from all things that may hurt us ; that we, being freed both in mind and body, may with ready hearts accomplish those things which Thou commandest. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Ephes. iv. 23-28. Brethren :—Be ye renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put ye on the new man, who is created according to God in justice and holiness of truth. Wherefore laying aside lying, speak ye truth every one with his neighbor, since we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not : let not the sun go down on your anger. Give not place to the devil : Let him who stole, steal no more : but rather let him labor, working with his hands what is good, that he may have whence to give to him who suffereth want.

GOSPEL. Matt. xxii. 1-14. At that time :—Jesus spake to the chief priests and the Pharisees in parables, saying : The kingdom of heaven is like to a king, who made a marriage feast for his son. And sent his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding : and they would not come. Again he sent other servants, saying : Tell those who were invited : Behold I have prepared my dinner : my beeves and fätlings are killed, and all things are ready : come ye to the wedding. But they gave no heed, and went away, one to his farm and another to his merchandise : And the rest laid hands on his servants, and treated them shamefully, or slew them. But when the king heard of it, he was angry, and sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt their city. Then he saith to his servants : The wedding indeed is ready : but they who were invited were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways : and as many as ye shall find, call to the marriage. And his servants went forth into the ways, and gathered together all whom they found, both bad and good : and the wedding was filled with guests. And the king went in to see the guests : and he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment. And he saith to him : Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having on a wedding garment? But he was silent. Then the king said to the waiters : Bind him hand and foot, and cast him into the outer darkness : there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few chosen.

POSTCOMMUNION. May Thy healing power, O Lord, mercifully deliver us from all our perversities, and make us ever to be devoted to Thy commandments. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST:

INTROIT. All that Thou hast done unto us, O Lord, Thou hast done in true judgment : because we have sinned against Thee, and we have not obeyed Thy commandments : but give glory to Thy name, and deal with us according to the multitude of Thy mercy.

Blessed are the undefiled in the way : who walk in the law of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Grant, in Thy mercy, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to Thy faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their offences, and serve Thee with a quiet mind. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Ephes. v. 15-21. Brethren :—See how ye walk cautiously : not as foolish, but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Therefore be not unwise, but understanding what is the will of God. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is luxury ; but be filled with the Holy Spirit, speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord, giving thanks always for all things, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to God and the Father. Subject to one another in the fear of Christ.

GOSPEL. John iv. 46-53. At that time :—There was a certain ruler, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come from Judea into Galilee, he went to Him, and prayed Him to come down and heal his son : for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said to him : Unless ye see signs and wonders, ye believe not. The ruler saith to Him : Lord, come down before my son die. Jesus saith to him : Go, thy son liveth. The man believed the word which Jesus said to him, and went away. And as he was going down, his servants met him : and brought word, saying that his son lived. He asked of them therefore the hour wherein he grew better. And they said to him : Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. The father therefore knew that it was at the same hour that Jesus said to him : Thy son liveth : and he believed, himself and his whole house.

POSTCOMMUNION. That we may be made worthy, O Lord, of Thy sacred gifts, grant us, we beseech Thee, ever to obey Thy commandments. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. All things are in Thy will, O Lord : and there is none that can resist Thy will : for Thou hast made all things, heaven and earth, and all things which are under the vault of heaven : Thou art Lord of all.

Blessed are the undefiled in the way : who walk in the law of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Keep, O Lord, we beseech Thee, Thy family by Thy continued goodness ; that, through Thy protection, it may be free from all adversities, and devoted in good works to the glory of Thy name. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Ephes. vi. 10-17. Brethren :—Be strengthened in the Lord, and in the power of His might. Put ye on the armor of God, that ye may stand against the wiles of the devil : For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the princes and the powers, against the world rulers of this darkness, against the spirits of wickedness, in the high places. Wherefore take ye the armor of God, that ye may be able to resist in the evil day, and to stand perfect in all things. Stand, therefore, having your loins girt in truth, and having on the breastplate of justice, and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. In all things taking the shield of faith, where-with ye may be able to extinguish all the fiery darts of the wicked one, and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

GOSPEL. Matt. xviii. 23-35. At that time :—Jesus spake to His disciples this parable : The kingdom of heaven is likened to a king, who wished to settle accounts with his servants. And when he had begun to take the account, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And as he had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded that he should be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and that payment should be made. But that servant, falling down, besought him, saying : Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And the lord of that servant being moved with pity, let him go, and forgave him the debt. But when that servant was gone out, he found one of his fellow-servants who owed him a hundred shillings : and he laid hold of him, and seized him by the throat, saying : Pay what thou owest. And his fellow-servant falling down, besought him, saying : Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not : but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. Now when his fellow-servants saw what had happened, they were very much grieved, and came and told their lord all that had happened. Then his lord called him, and said to him : Thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all the debt, because thou besoughtest me : Shouldst not thou then have had compassion also on thy fellow-servant, even as I had compassion on thee ? And his lord being angry, delivered him to the torturers until he paid all the debt. So also will My heavenly Father do to you, if ye do not forgive from your hearts every one his brother.

POSTCOMMUNION. Having received the food of immortality, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that what we have received with our mouth we may follow with a pure mind. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT. If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities, Lord, who shall abide it ? for with Thee there is merciful forgiveness, O God of Israel.

Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, our refuge and strength, who art the Author of all goodness : hear, we beseech Thee, the devout prayers of Thy Church ; and grant that what we faithfully ask we may effectually obtain. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.
Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Philip. i. 6-11. Brethren :—We are confident in the Lord Jesus, that He who hath begun in you a good work, will complete it until the day of Christ Jesus : as it is meet for me to think this for all of you : because I have you in my heart, both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all being partakers of my joy : For God is my witness, how I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. And this I pray, that your charity may more and more abound in knowledge, and in all understanding ; that ye may approve the better things, that ye may be sincere, and without offence, until the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of justice through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

GOSPEL. Matt. xxii. 15-21. At that time :—The Pharisees went and consulted among themselves how to ensnare Him in speech. And they sent to Him their disciples with the Herodians, saying : Teacher, we know that Thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth ; neither carest Thou for any one : for Thou dost not regard the person of men : Tell us, therefore, what thinkest Thou ? Is it lawful to pay tribute to Cæsar, or not ? But Jesus knowing their wickedness, said : Why tempt ye Me, hypocrites ? Show Me the tribute money. And they offered Him a coin. And Jesus saith to them : Whose is this image, and the inscription ? They say to Him : Cæsar's. Then saith He to them : Render therefore to Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's, and to God the things which are God's.

POSTCOMMUNION. We have received, O Lord, the gifts of Thy sacred Mysteries ; humbly beseeching Thee that what Thou hast commanded us to do in remembrance of Thee may profit us as a help to our infirmity. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

If this should be the last Sunday after Pentecost, the Mass is said of the 24th Sunday, and this Mass is said on the preceding Saturday, if not hindered by a double or semi-double Feast; if it is, on some other day previously.

INTROIT. The Lord saith, I think thoughts of peace, and not of affliction: you shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places.

Thou hast blessed Thy land, O Lord: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Lord, we beseech Thee, absolve Thy people from their offences; that through Thy bountiful goodness we may be delivered from the bonds of those sins which by our frailty we have taken upon ourselves. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Philip. iii. 17, to iv. 3. Brethren:—Be ye followers of me, and observe those who walk so, as ye have our model. For many walk, of whom I often told you (but now I speak even weeping), the enemies of the Cross of Christ: whose end is destruction: whose God is the belly: and glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven: whence also we look for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will reform our vile body conformably to His glorious body, according to the working whereby He is able to subject all things to Himself. Therefore, my brethren, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown: stand thus in the Lord, beloved. I beseech Evodia, and I beseech Syntyche, to be of one mind in the Lord. I also ask thee likewise, sincere companion, help these women, who have labored with me in the Gospel together with Clement, and mine other fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life.

GOSPEL. Matt. ix. 18-26. At that time:—As Jesus was speaking to the multitudes, behold a certain ruler came up, and worshipped Him, saying: Lord, my daughter hath just now died; but come, lay Thy hand on her, and she will live. And Jesus arose and followed him, as did His disciples. And behold, a woman having an issue of blood twelve years came behind Him, and touched the fringe of His garment. For she said within herself: If I may but touch His garment, I shall be healed. But Jesus turned about, and seeing her, said: Be of good heart, daughter, thy faith hath healed thee. And the woman was healed from that hour. And when Jesus was come into the house of the ruler, and saw the minstrels, and the crowd in an uproar, He said: Retire, for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed Him to scorn. And when the crowd was put forth, He went in and took her by the hand: and the maid arose. And the fame hereof went abroad into all that country.

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech Thee, Almighty God, that Thou wouldst not permit us to be subject to human dangers, to whom Thou givest to rejoice in this divine participation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

If there should be more than 24 Sundays after Pentecost, the Masses after the 23d are of those Sundays after Epiphany which were passed over. But the following Mass of the 24th Sunday is always said last.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

INTROIT as on last Sunday.

COLLECT. Quicken, O Lord, we beseech Thee, the wills of Thy faithful people; that they, more earnestly seeking after the fruit of divine grace, may more abundantly receive the healing gifts of Thy mercy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 727.

EPISTLE. Col. i. 9-14. Brethren:—We cease not to pray for you, and ask that ye may be filled with the knowledge of His will, in all wisdom and spiritual understanding: that ye may walk worthy of God, pleasing in all things, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God: strengthened with all might according to His glorious power, in all patience and long-suffering with joy, giving thanks to God the Father, who hath made us worthy to share in the lot of the saints in light : who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and translated us to the kingdom of His beloved Son ; in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.

GOSPEL. Matt. xxiv. 15-35. At that time :— Jesus said to His disciples : When ye shall see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place : let him who readeth understand. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. And let not him who is on the housetop come down to take anything out of his house. And let not him who is in the field go back to take his coat. And woe to those who are with child, and to those who give suck in those days. But pray that your flight be not in the winter, or on the Sabbath. For there shall be then great tribulation, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, neither shall be. And unless those days had been shortened, no flesh would be saved : but for the sake of the elect those days shall be shortened. Then if any man shall say to you : Lo ! Here is the Christ ; or there : believe it not. For false christs, and false prophets, will arise, and will show great signs and wonders, so as to deceive (if possible) even the elect. Behold I have told you before. If therefore they shall say to you : Behold, He is in the desert ; go ye not out : Behold, in the closets ; believe it not. For as the lightning cometh forth from the East, and appeareth even unto the West, so will also the coming of the Son of Man be. Wherever the carcass is, there will the eagles also be gathered together. And immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven ; and the powers of heaven will be shaken. And then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven : and then will all the tribes of the earth mourn : and they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven with great power and majesty. And He will send his Angels with a trumpet, and a great voice : and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from the farthest part of the heavens to the utmost bounds of them. Now learn the parable from the fig-tree ; when the branch thereof is already become tender, and the leaves come forth, ye know that summer is nigh : So ye also when ye shall see all these things, know ye that it is nigh, at the doors. Truly I say to you, that this generation shall not pass till all these things be done. Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that, by this Sacrament which we have received, whatsoever is corrupt in our souls may be restored by its healing power. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Others as on third Sunday, p. 728.

PRINCIPAL FEASTS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION. (Dec. 8.)

INTROIT. I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, and my soul shall be joyful in my God : for He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, and with the robe of justice hath He covered me, as a bride adorned with her jewels.

I will extol Thee, O Lord ; for 'Thou hast lifted me up : and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who, by the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin, didst prepare a worthy habitation for Thy Son : we beseech Thee that, as by the foreseen death of the same Thy Son Thou didst preserve her from all stain of sin, so Thou wouldst enable us, being made pure by her intercession, to come unto Thee. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Prov. viii. 22-35. The Lord possessed me in the beginning of His ways, before He made anything from the beginning. I was set up from eternity, and of old before the earth was made. The depths were not as yet, and I was already conceived ; * neither had the fountains of waters as yet sprung out : the mountains with their huge bulk had not as yet been established : before the hills I was brought forth : He had not yet made the earth, nor the rivers, nor the poles of the world. When He prepared the heavens, I was present: when with a certain law and compass He enclosed the depths: when He established the sky above, and poised the fountains of waters: when He compassed the sea with its bounds, and set a law to the waters, that they should not pass their limits: when He balanced the foundations of the earth: I was with Him forming all things: and I was delighted every day, playing before Him at all times; playing in the world: and my delight was to be with the children of men.* Now therefore, ye children, hear me: Blessed are they that keep my ways. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. Blessed is the man that heareth me, and that watcheth daily at my gates, and waiteth at the posts of my doors. He that shall find me, shall find life, and shall have salvation from the Lord.

GOSPEL. Luke i. 26. At that time:—The Angel Gabriel was sent from God into a city of Galilee, called Nazareth, to a Virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David: and the name of the Virgin was Mary. And the Angel coming in to her, said: Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

POSTCOMMUNION. May the Sacraments which we have received, O Lord our God, repair in us the wounds of that sin from which Thou didst singularly preserve the Immaculate Conception of Blessed Mary. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

EXPECTATION OF THE B. V. M. (Dec. 18.)

INTROIT. Drop dew, ye heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the Just One: let the earth be opened, and bud forth a Saviour.

The heavens show forth the glory of God: and the firmament declareth the works of His hands.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who wast pleased that thy Word, at the message of an Angel, should take flesh in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary: grant unto us Thy humble servants that we who believe her to be truly the Mother of God may be assisted by her intercessions with Thee. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Isaiah vii. 10-15. In those days :—The Lord spoke to Achaz, saying : Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God, either unto the depth of hell, or unto the height above. And Achaz said : I will not ask : and I will not tempt the Lord. And he said : Hear ye, therefore, O house of David : Is it a small thing for you to weary men, that ye weary my God also? Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign. Behold, the Virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son ; and His name shall be called Emmanuel. He shall eat butter and honey, that He may know to refuse the evil, and to choose the good.

GOSPEL. Luke i. 26-38. At that time :—The Angel Gabriel was sent from God into a city of Galilee, called Nazareth, to a Virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David ; and the name of the Virgin was Mary. And the Angel coming in to her, said : Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee : blessed art thou among women. But when she heard it, she was troubled at his saying, and thought with herself what manner of salutation this should be. And the Angel said to her : Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found grace with God. Behold, thou wilt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a Son ; and thou shalt call His name Jesus. He will be great, and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give Him the throne of David His father : and He will reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of His kingdom there will be no end. And Mary said to the Angel : How shall this be, since I know not man? And the Angel answering, said to her : The Holy Spirit will come on thee, and the power of the Most High will overshadow thee. And therefore also that holy thing which will be born of thee will be called the Son of God. And behold thy kinswoman Elizabeth, she also hath conceived a son in her old age ; and this is the sixth month with her who is called barren ; for with God nothing is impossible. And Mary said : Behold the handmaid of the Lord : be it to me according to thy word.

POSTCOMMUNION. Pour forth, we beseech Thee (p. 56).

ESPOUSALS OF THE B. V. M. (Jan. 23.)

INTROIT. Hail, holy parent, who didst bring forth the King who rules heaven and earth for ever.

My heart hath uttered a good word ; I speak of my works for the King.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Vouchsafe, O Lord, we beseech Thee, unto us Thy servants the gift of Thy heavenly grace ; that as in the childbirth of the Blessed Virgin our salvation began, so from the votive solemnity of her Espousals we may obtain an increase of peace. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Proverbs viii. 22-35, as on the Immaculate Conception (p. 756).

GOSPEL. Matt. i. 18-21. Now the generation of the Christ was thus : His mother Mary being espoused to Joseph before they came together, she proved to be with Child of the Holy Spirit. And Joseph, her husband, being just, and not willing to expose her, had a mind to put her away privately. But while he thought on these things, behold an Angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying : Joseph, son of David, fear not to take to thee Mary, thy wife, for That which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. And she will bring forth a Son : and thou shalt call His name JESUS ; for He will save His people from their sins.

POSTCOMMUNION. Having received, O Lord, the votive Mysteries of this annual solemnity : grant, we beseech Thee, that they may confer upon us remedies both for time and eternity. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

PURIFICATION OF THE B. V. M. (Feb. 2.)

CANDLEMAS.

(For the BLESSING OF THE CANDLES see p. 225.)

INTROIT. We have received Thy mercy, O God, in the midst of Thy temple : according to Thy name, O God, so also is Thy praise, unto the ends of the earth : Thy right hand is full of justice.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised : in the city of our God, even upon His holy mountain.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Almighty, Everlasting God, we humbly beseech Thy Majesty that as Thine Only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple in the substance of our flesh, so we also may, with purified hearts, be presented unto Thee. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Mal. iii. 1-4. Thus saith the Lord God :—Behold I send My messenger, and he shall prepare the way before My face. And presently the Lord whom ye seek, and the messenger of the covenant, whom ye desire, shall come to His temple. Behold, He cometh, saith the Lord of hosts : and who shall be able to think of the day of His coming? and who shall stand to see Him? for He is like a refining fire, and like the fuller's herb : And He shall sit refining and cleansing the silver : and He shall purify the sons of Levi, and shall refine them as gold, and as silver : and they will offer sacrifices to the Lord in justice. And the sacrifice of Juda and of Jerusalem shall please the Lord, as in the days of old, and in the ancient years : saith the Lord Almighty.

GOSPEL. Luke ii. 22-32. At that time :—After the days of Mary's purification, according to the law of Moses, were passed, they carried Him to Jerusalem, to present Him to the Lord, as it is written in the law of the Lord : Every male first-born shall be called holy to the Lord : and to offer sacrifice according to that which is written in the law of the Lord, a pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons. And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon, and this man was just and devout ; waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was in him. And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. And he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when His parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law, then he took Him in his arms, and blessed God, and said : Now, O Lord, lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy word : for mine eyes have seen Thy salvation, which Thou hast prepared in sight of all nations : light to enlighten the Gentiles, and glory of Thy people, Israel.

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech Thee, O Lord our God, that Thou wouldst make the most holy Mysteries which Thou hast bestowed for the preservation of our new life, by the intercession of Blessed Mary ever Virgin, to be to us both a present and a future remedy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

ST. JOSEPH. (March 19.)

INTROIT. The just shall flourish like the palm-tree : he shall grow up like a cedar of Libanus : planted in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God.

It is good to give praise unto the Lord ; and to sing to Thy name, O Thou Most High.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Vouchsafe, O Lord, we beseech Thee, that we may be helped by the merits of the Spouse of Thy most holy Mother ; that what of ourselves we cannot obtain may be given to us through his intercession. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Eccl. xlv. 1-6. The beloved of God and men : whose memory is in benediction. He made him like the saints in glory, and magnified him so that His enemies feared him, and by his words He made prodigies cease. He glorified him in the sight of kings, and gave him commandments in the sight of His people, and showed him His glory. He sanctified him in his faith and meekness, and chose him out of all flesh. For He heard him, and his voice, and He brought him into a cloud. And He gave him commandments before His face, and a law of life and instruction.

GOSPEL. Matt. i. 18-21, as on Feast of the Espousals (p. 759).

POSTCOMMUNION. Draw nigh unto us, we beseech Thee, O merciful God ; and by the intercession of blessed Joseph, Confessor, mercifully guard thy gifts about us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

ANNUNCIATION OF THE B. V. M. (March 25.)

LADY DAY.

INTROIT. All the rich among the people shall entreat Thy face : after her shall virgins be brought unto the King ; her neighbors shall be brought unto Thee with joy and gladness.

My heart hath uttered a good word : I speak of my works for the King.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT, LESSON, GOSPEL, and POSTCOMMUNION as on Feast of the Expectation (p. 757).

SS. PETER AND PAUL. (June 29.)

INTROIT. Now I know truly that the Lord hath sent His Angel, and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

Lord, Thou hast proved me, and known me: Thou hast known my sitting down, and my rising up.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who didst hallow this day by the martyrdom of Thy Holy Apostles Peter and Paul: grant unto Thy Church that as from them it received the Faith, so in all things it may remain faithful to their teaching. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Acts xii. 1-11. In those days:—Herod the king stretched forth his hands to maltreat some of the Church: and he killed James the brother of John with the sword; and seeing that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. Now it was in the days of the unleavened bread: and when he had seized him, he cast him into prison, delivering him to four files of soldiers to guard, intending to bring him forth to the people after the passover. And Peter indeed was kept in prison; but prayer was made without ceasing by the Church to God for him. And when Herod would have brought him forth the same night, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and the sentinels before the door guarded the prison. And behold an angel of the Lord stood by, and a light shone in the room; and he struck Peter on the side, and awaked him, saying, Rise up quickly. And the chains fell off from his hands. And the angel said to him: Gird thyself, and tie on thy sandals. And he did so. And he said to him: Wrap thy garment about thee, and follow me. And he went out and followed him, and knew not that what was done by the angel was real; but thought he saw a vision. And when they had passed the first and the second ward, they came to the iron gate that leadeth to the city, which of itself opened to them. And they went out, and passed on through one street ; and immediately the angel departed from him. And Peter coming to himself, said : Now I know truly that the Lord hath sent His angel, and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

GOSPEL. Matt. xvi. 13-19. At that time :—Jesus came into the district of Cesarea Philippi : and asked His disciples, saying : Who do men say that the Son of man is ? And they said : Some John the Baptist, and others Elias, and others Jeremiah ; or one of the prophets. Jesus saith to them : But who say ye that I am ? Simon Peter answered and said : Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said to him : Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jona : because flesh and blood hath not revealed it to thee, but My Father who is in heaven. And I say to thee : That thou art Peter, and on this rock I will build My Church ; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give to thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven : And whatever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound also in heaven : and whatever thou shalt loose upon earth, shall be loosed also in heaven.

POSTCOMMUNION. Preserve, O Lord, from all adversity, by the intercession of Thine Apostles, those whom Thou hast fed with heavenly nourishment. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD.

FIRST SUNDAY OF JULY.

INTROIT. Thou hast redeemed us, O Lord, by Thy Blood, out of every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation : and Thou hast made us a kingdom to our God.

The mercies of the Lord I will sing for evermore : I will show forth Thy truth with my mouth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O Almighty and Everlasting God, who hast appointed Thine Only-begotten Son to be the Redeemer of the world, and hast been pleased to be reconciled unto us by His Blood : grant us, we beseech Thee, so to venerate with solemn worship the price of our Redemption, and to be on earth so defended by its power from the evils of this present life, that we may rejoice in its perpetual fruit in heaven. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Collect of the Sunday.

EPISTLE. Heb. ix. 11-15, as on Passion Sunday (p. 699).

GOSPEL. John xix. 30-35. At that time:—Jesus, when He had taken the vinegar, said: It is consummated. And bowing His head, He expired. Then the Jews (because it was the eve of the Sabbath), that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that was a great Sabbath day), besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers, therefore, came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with Him. But after they came to Jesus, when they saw that he was already dead, they did not break His legs. But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he who saw it giveth testimony, and his testimony is true.

POSTCOMMUNION. Admitted, O Lord, to Thy holy table, we have drawn waters with joy out of the fountains of the Saviour: may His Blood be to us, we beseech Thee, a well of water springing up unto life everlasting. Who liveth and reigneth, etc. Amen. Postcommunion and last Gospel of the Sunday.

VISITATION OF THE B. V. M. (July 2.)

INTROIT as on the Feast of the Espousals (p. 759).

COLLECT. Vouchsafe, O Lord, we beseech Thee, unto us Thy servants the gift of Thy heavenly grace; that as in the childbirth of the Blessed Virgin our salvation began, so from the votive Solemnity of her Visitation we may obtain an increase of peace. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Cant. ii. 8-14. Behold, He cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping over the hills. My Beloved is like a roe, or a young hart. Behold, He standeth behind our wall, looking through the windows, looking through the lattices. Behold, my Beloved speaketh to me: Arise, make haste, My love, My dove, My beautiful one, and come. For winter is now past: the rain is over and gone. The flowers have appeared in our land; the time of pruning is come: the voice of the turtle dove is heard in our land: the fig-tree hath put forth its green figs: the vines in flower yield their sweet smell. Arise, My love, My beautiful one, and come: My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hollow places of the wall, show Me thy face; let thy voice sound in My ears: for thy voice is sweet, and thy face comely.

GOSPEL. Luke i. 39-47. At that time:—Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Juda. And she entered into the house of Zachariah, and saluted Elizabeth. And it came to pass, that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb: and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit: and she cried out with a loud voice, and said: Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy. And happy art thou who hast believed, that those things which were spoken to thee by the Lord will be accomplished. And Mary said: My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit rejoiceth in God my Saviour.

POSTCOMMUNION. We have received, O Lord, the votive Mysteries of this annual celebration; grant, we beseech Thee, that they may bestow upon us remedies both for time and eternity. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL. (July 16.)

INTROIT. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, and celebrate a festal day in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary: on whose solemn Feast the Angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God.

My heart hath uttered a good word: I speak of my works for the King.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who hast honored the Carmelite Order with the peculiar title of the most blessed Mary, ever Virgin, Thy Mother: mercifully grant that as we this day celebrate her Commemoration with solemn worship, so we may be defended by her protecting power, and be found worthy to attain unto everlasting joys. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Eccl. xxiv. 23-31. As the vine I have brought forth a pleasant odor: and my flowers are the fruit of honor and riches. I am the mother of fair love, and of fear, and of knowledge, and of holy hope.

In me is all grace of the way and of the truth ; in me is all hope of life and of virtue. Come over to me, all ye that desire me, and be filled with my fruits. For my spirit is sweet above honey, and my inheritance above honey and the honeycomb. My memory is unto everlasting generations. They that eat me shall yet hunger : and they that drink me shall yet thirst. He that hearkeneth to me shall not be confounded : and they that work by me shall not sin. They that explain me shall have life everlasting.

GOSPEL. Luke xi. 27-28. At that time :—As Jesus was speaking to the multitudes ; A certain woman from the crowd, lifting up her voice, said to Him : Happy is the womb which bare Thee, and the breasts which Thou hast sucked. But He said : Yea, rather happy are they who hear the word of God, and keep it.

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech Thee, O Lord, that the venerable intercession of Thy glorious Mother, the ever-Virgin Mary, may assist us ; and that it may free us from all dangers, and lovingly unite us in harmony, whom it has loaded with perpetual benefits. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST. (August 6.)

INTROIT. Thy lightnings enlightened the world : the earth shook and trembled.

How lovely are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts : my soul longeth and fainteth for the courts of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who, in the glorious Transfiguration of Thine Only-Begotten Son, didst attest the mysteries of the Faith by the witness of the Fathers, and didst wonderfully signify, by a Voice out of a bright cloud, the adoption of sons : mercifully grant unto us to be made co-heirs with the very King of glory, and bring us to the enjoyment of the same. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. 2 Peter i. 16-19. Dearly Beloved :—We have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and presence of our Lord Jesus Christ : but we were eye-witnesses of His majesty. For He received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to Him from the excellent glory : This is My beloved Son, in whom

I am well pleased: hear ye Him. And this Voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with Him on the holy mount. We have also the surer word of prophecy, to which ye do well to attend, as to a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn and the day-star arise in your hearts.

GOSPEL. Matt. xvii. 1-9, as on the Second Sunday in Lent (p. 695).

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we may apprehend, by the intelligence of a purified mind, the most holy mystery of the Transfiguration of Thy Son, which we now celebrate with solemn office. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

ASSUMPTION OF THE B. V. M. (August 15.)

INTROIT as on the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (p. 765), substituting the word ASSUMPTION in place of the words "Solemn Feast."

COLLECT. Pardon, O Lord, we beseech Thee, the transgressions of Thy servants; that we, who by our own deeds are unable to please Thee, may be saved by the intercession of the Mother of Thy Son our Lord. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Eccl. xxiv. 11-20. In all these I sought rest, and I shall abide in the inheritance of the Lord. Then the Creator of all things commanded, and said to me: and He that made me, rested in my tabernacle. And He said to me: Let thy dwelling be in Jacob, and thy inheritance in Israel, and take root in My elect.* From the beginning, and before the world, was I created; and unto the world to come I shall not cease to be: and in the holy dwelling place I have ministered before Him. And so was I established in Sion, and in the holy city likewise I rested: and my power was in Jerusalem. And I took root in an honored people, and in the portion of my God which is His inheritance: and my abode is in the full assembly of saints.* I was exalted like a cedar in Libanus, and as a cypress-tree on Mt. Sion. I was exalted like a palm-tree in Cades, and as a rose-plant in Jericho: as a fair olive-tree in the plains, and as a plane-tree by the water in the meadows, was I exalted. I gave a sweet smell like cinnamon, and aromatic balm: I yielded a sweet odor like the best myrrh.

GOSPEL. Luke x. 38-42. At that time:—Jesus entered into a certain town, and a certain woman named Martha received Him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who, sitting also at the Lord's feet, heard his word. But Martha was busy about much serving: and she stood and said: Lord, dost Thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? Bid her then help me. And the Lord answering, said to her: Martha, Martha, thou art anxious, and troubled about many things. But one thing is necessary. Mary hath chosen the best part, which shall not be taken away from her.

POSTCOMMUNION. Having been made partakers of the heavenly table, we implore Thy mercy, O Lord our God, that we who venerate the Assumption of the Mother of God may by her intercession be delivered from all the evils which threaten us. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

NATIVITY OF THE B. V. M. (September 8.)

INTROIT as on the Feast of the Espousals (p. 759).

COLLECT. Vouchsafe, O Lord, we beseech Thee, unto us Thy servants the gift of Thy heavenly grace; that as in the childbirth of the Blessed Virgin our salvation began, so from the votive Solemnity of her Nativity we may obtain an increase of peace. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Prov. viii. 22-35, as on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception (p. 756).

GOSPEL. Matt. i. 1-16. Book of the generation of Jesus Christ, Son of David, Son of Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac: and Isaac begat Jacob: and Jacob begat Judas, and his brethren. And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar: and Phares begat Esron: and Esron begat Aram. And Aram begat Aminadab: and Aminadab begat Naasson: and Naasson begat Salmon. And Salmon begat Booz of Rahab: and Booz begat Obed of Ruth: and Obed begat Jesse: and Jesse begat David the king. And David the king begat Solomon of her who was wife of Uriah. And Solomon begat Roboam: and Roboam begat Abiah:

and Abiah begat Asa. And Asa begat Josaphat : and Josaphat begat Joram : and Joram begat Oziah. And Oziah begat Joatham : and Joatham begat Achaz : and Achaz begat Ezekiah. And Ezekiah begat Menassas : and Menassas begat Amon : and Amon begat Josiah. And Josiah begat Jechoniah and his brethren, about the time of the removal to Babylon. And after the removal to Babylon, Jechoniah begat Salathiel : and Salathiel begat Zorobabel. And Zorobabel begat Abiud : and Abiud begat Eliakim : and Eliakim begat Azor. And Azor begat Sadoc : and Sadoc begat Achim : and Achim begat Eliud. And Eliud begat Eleazar : and Eleazar begat Mathan : and Mathan begat Jacob. And Jacob begat Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

POSTCOMMUNION as on the Feast of the Visitation (p. 765).

THE HOLY NAME OF MARY.

SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE ABOVE.

INTROIT as on the Feast of the Annunciation (p. 761).

COLLECT. Grant, we beseech Thee, O Almighty God, that Thy faithful people who rejoice in the Name of the most holy Virgin Mary, and enjoy her protection, may, by her loving intercession, be delivered from all evils here on earth, and be found worthy to attain to everlasting joys in heaven. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Collect of the Sunday.

LESSON. Eccl. xxiv. 23-31, as on the Feast of Mt. Carmel (p. 765).

GOSPEL. Luke i. 26-38, as on the Feast of the Expectation (p. 758.)

POSTCOMMUNION. Having received, O Lord, these helps to our Salvation, grant, we beseech Thee, that we may be in all places protected by the patronage of Blessed Mary, ever Virgin ; in whose honor we have made these offerings unto Thy Majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

POSTCOMMUNION and LAST GOSPEL of the Sunday.

EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS. (Sept. 14.)

INTROIT. It behooves us to glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ : in whom is our Salvation, Life, and Resurrection : by whom we are saved and delivered.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us : cause the light of His countenance to shine upon us, and have mercy on us.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who dost this day gladden us by the yearly Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross : grant, we beseech Thee, that as we have understood the mystery thereof upon earth, so we may worthily enjoy in heaven the fruits of its redemption. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. Philip. ii. 5-11, as on Palm Sunday (p. 701).

GOSPEL. John xii. 31-36. At that time:—Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews : Now is the judgment of the world ; now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all things to Myself. Now this He said, signifying what death He should die. The crowd answered Him: We have heard from the law that Christ remaineth for ever ; and how sayest Thou: The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man? Jesus therefore said to them: Yet a little while, the light is in you. Walk whilst ye have the light, that the darkness may not overtake you: For he who walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. Whilst ye have the light, believe in the light, that ye may be sons of light.

POSTCOMMUNION. Draw nigh unto us, O Lord our God, and defend, by the perpetual defence of the holy Cross, those whom Thou makest to rejoice in its honor. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

THE SEVEN SORROWS OF THE B. V. M.

THIRD SUNDAY OF SEPTEMBER.

INTROIT. There stood by the Cross of Jesus, His mother, and the sister of His mother, Mary of Cleophas, and Salome, and Mary Magdalen.

Woman, behold thy son, said Jesus ; and to the disciple, Behold thy mother.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, in whose Passion, according to the prophecy of Simeon, a sword of sorrow did pierce through the sweetest soul of Thy glorious Virgin-Mother Mary : mercifully grant that we, who celebrate the memory of her sorrows, may obtain the happy effect of Thy Passion. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen. Collect of the Sunday.

LESSON. Judith xiii. 22-25. The Lord has blessed thee by His power, because by thee He hath brought our enemies to naught. Blessed art thou, O daughter, by the Lord the most high God, above all women upon the earth. Blessed be the Lord who made heaven and earth : because He hath so magnified thy name this day, that thy praise shall not depart out of the mouth of men, who shall be mindful of the power of the Lord for ever : for that thou hast not spared thy life, by reason of the distress and tribulation of thy people : but hast prevented our ruin, in the presence of our God.

SEQUENCE : Stabat Mater, p. 617.

GOSPEL. John xix. 25-27. At that time :—There stood by the Cross of Jesus, His mother, and the sister of His mother, Mary of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalen. When Jesus, therefore, had seen His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing, He saith to His mother : Woman, behold thy Son ! After that, He saith to the disciple : Behold thy mother ! And from that hour the disciple took her to his home.

POSTCOMMUNION. O Lord Jesus Christ, may the Sacrifice of which we have partaken, in the devout celebration of the transfixion of Thy Virgin Mother, obtain for us of Thy tender mercy the effect of every salutary blessing. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

POSTCOMMUNION and LAST GOSPEL of the Sunday.

ST. MICHAEL, ARCHANGEL. (September 29.)

MICHAELMAS.

INTROIT. Bless the Lord, all ye His Angels : ye that are mighty in strength, and fulfil His commandment, hearkening to the voice of His words.

Bless the Lord, O my soul : and let all that is within me bless His holy name.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who dost dispose the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order : mercifully grant that as Thy holy angels always minister before Thee in heaven, so by them we may be protected in our life on earth. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Apoc. i. 1-5. In those days :—The things which must shortly come to pass God sent and signified, by His angel to His servant John, who testified the word of God, and the testimony of Jesus Christ, whatever things he saw. Blessed is he who readeth and heareth the words of this prophecy ; and keepeth the things which are written in it ; for the time is at hand. John to the seven churches which are in Asia : Grace to you, and peace from Him who is, and who was, and who is to come ; and from the seven spirits who are before His throne ; and from Jesus Christ, who is a faithful Witness, the First-born from the dead, and the Prince of the kings of the earth ; who hath loved us, and washed us from our sins in His blood.

GOSPEL. Matt. xviii. 1-10. At that time :—The disciples came to Jesus, saying : Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven ? And Jesus called to Him a little child, and set him in the midst of them. And said : Truly I say to you, unless ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whoever, therefore, shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And he who shall receive one such little child in My name, receiveth Me. But he who shall scandalize one of these little ones that believe in Me, it were better for him that a millstone were hung about his neck, and he were plunged into the depth of the sea. Woe to the world because of scandals. For it must needs be that scandals come, but nevertheless woe to that man by whom the scandal cometh. And if thy hand or thy foot scandalize thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee. It is better for thee to go into life maimed or lame, than, having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye scandalize thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee : it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire. See that ye despise not one of these little ones ; for I say to you, that their angels in heaven always behold the face of My Father who is in heaven.

POSTCOMMUNION. Supported by the intercession of Thy blessed Archangel Michael, we humbly beseech Thee, O Lord, that what we honor in word we may also experience in our souls. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

SOLEMNITY OF THE HOLY ROSARY.

FIRST SUNDAY OF OCTOBER.

INTROIT as on the Feast of Mt. Carmel (p. 765).

COLLECT. O God, whose Only-Begotten Son, by His life, death, and resurrection, hath purchased for us the rewards of eternal salvation : grant, we beseech Thee, that, meditating upon these mysteries in the most holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may both imitate what they contain, and obtain what they promise. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen. Collect of the Sunday.

LESSON. *Prov. viii., as on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, p. 756, omitting from * to .

GOSPEL. Luke i. 26-38, as on the Feast of the Expectation (p. 758).

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech thee, O Lord, that we may be assisted by the prayers of Thy most holy Mother, whose Rosary we celebrate : that we may perceive the virtue of the mysteries which we commemorate, and obtain the effect of the Sacrament which we have received. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

POSTCOMMUNION and LAST GOSPEL of the Sunday.

MATERNITY OF THE B. V. M.

THIRD SUNDAY OF OCTOBER.

INTROIT as on Feast of the Espousals (p. 759).

COLLECT as on the Feast of the Expectation (p. 757). Collect of the Sunday.

LESSON. Eccl. xxiv. 23-31, as on the Feast of Mt. Carmel (p. 765).

GOSPEL. Luke ii. 43-51, as on the First Sunday after Epiphany (p. 678).

POSTCOMMUNION as on Circumcision, p. 675.

POSTCOMMUNION and LAST GOSPEL of the Sunday.

FEAST OF ALL SAINTS. (November 1.)

INTROIT. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a festal day in honor of all the Saints ; at whose solemnity the Angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God.

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just : praise becometh the upright. Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. Almighty, Everlasting God, who givest us to venerate in one Solemnity the merits of all Thy saints : we beseech Thee that through the multitude of our intercessors Thou wouldst bestow upon us the fulness of Thy mercy, which we most humbly desire. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Apoc. vii. 2-12. In those days :—Behold I, John, saw another Angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God : and he cried with a loud voice to the four Angels, to whom it was given to hurt the land and sea, saying : Hurt not the land, and the sea, nor the trees, until we seal the servants of our God on their foreheads. And I heard the number of those who were sealed : a hundred and forty-four thousand were sealed, of every tribe of the children of Israel. Of the tribe of Juda twelve thousand were sealed : of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand were sealed : of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand were sealed : of the tribe of Aser twelve thousand were sealed : of the tribe of Nephthali twelve thousand were sealed : of the tribe of Manasses twelve thousand were sealed : of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand were sealed : of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand were sealed : of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Zabulon twelve thousand were sealed : of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand were sealed : of the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were sealed. After these things I saw a great crowd, which no man could number, of all nations and tribes, and peoples, and tongues, standing before the Throne, and in sight of the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands : and they cried with a loud voice, saying : Salvation to our God, who sitteth upon the Throne, and to the Lamb. And all the Angels stood around the Throne, and the ancients, and the four animals : and they fell down on their faces before the Throne and they adored God, saying : Amen. Praise, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, honor, and power, and strength, to our God for ever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL. Matt. v. 1-12. At that time :—Jesus, seeing the crowds, went up on to the mountain, and when He had seated Himself His disciples came to Him. And He opened His mouth, and taught them, saying : Blessed are the poor in spirit : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are the meek : for they shall possess the land. Blessed are they who mourn : for they shall be comforted. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst after justice : for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful : for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart : for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers : for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who suffer persecution for justice' sake : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and speak all that is evil against you, untruly, for My sake ; be glad and rejoice, for your reward is great in heaven.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to Thy faithful people ever to rejoice in the veneration of all the Saints, and to be defended by their continual supplication. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

ALL SOULS' DAY. (November 2.)

INTROIT as in the Mass for the Dead (p. 571).

COLLECT. O God, the Creator and Redeemer of all Thy Faithful : grant unto the souls of Thy servants and handmaids remission of all their sins ; that through our loving supplications they may obtain that pardon which they have always longed for. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

EPISTLE. 1 Cor. xv. 51-57. Brethren :—Behold I tell you a mystery : We shall all indeed rise again, but we shall not all be changed. In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet : for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall rise incorruptible : and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption : and this mortal put on immortality. But when this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying, which is written : Death is swallowed up in victory. Death, where is thy victory ? Death, where is thy sting ? Now the sting of death is sin : and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who hath given us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

SEQUENCE : Dies Irae, p. 574.

GOSPEL. John v. 25-29. At that time:—Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews: Truly, truly, I say to you, that the hour cometh, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and they who hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in Himself, so He hath given to the Son also to have life in Himself. And He hath given Him power to execute judgment, because He is the Son of man. Wonder not at this, for the hour cometh in which all that are in the graves shall hear the voice of the Son of God. And they who have done good shall come forth unto the resurrection of life; but they who have done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment.

POSTCOMMUNION. We beseech Thee, O Lord, that the prayer of Thy suppliant people may benefit the souls of thy servants departed: that Thou mayest deliver them from all their sins, and make them partakers of Thy Redemption. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

PATRONAGE OF THE B. V. M.

SECOND SUNDAY OF NOVEMBER.

INTROIT as on the Feast of the Espousals (p. 759).

COLLECT. Grant, O Lord God (p. 194). Collect of the Sunday.

LESSON. *Eccl. xxiv. 14-16, as on the Feast of the Assumption, p. 767, from * to .

GOSPEL. Luke xi. 27-28, as on the Feast of Mt. Carmel (p. 766).

POSTCOMMUNION as on the Feast of the Holy Name of Mary (p. 769).

POSTCOMMUNION and LAST GOSPEL of the Sunday.

PRESENTATION OF THE B. V. M. (Nov. 21.)

Everything as in preceding Mass, except COLLECT. O God, who wast pleased that Blessed Mary ever Virgin, being herself the dwelling-place of the Holy Ghost, should on this day be presented in the Temple: grant, we beseech Thee, that through her intercession we may be found worthy to be presented in the Temple of Thy glory. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEDICATION OF A CHURCH.

INTROIT. Terrible is this place: This is the house of God, and the gate of heaven; and shall be called the court of God.

How lovely are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts: my soul longeth and fainteth for the courts of the Lord.
Glory be to the Father, etc.

COLLECT. O God, who dost every year bring round unto us again the day whereon this Thy holy temple was consecrated, and bringest us again in safety to be present at Thy holy Mysteries, graciously hear the prayers of Thy people, and grant that whosoever comes into this house to ask good things at Thy hand may rejoice in the obtaining of all his request. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. Apoc. xxi. 2-5. In those days:—I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven, from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great Voice from the Throne, saying: Behold the tabernacle of God with men, and He will dwell with them. And they shall be His people, and God Himself with them will be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and death shall be no more, nor mourning, nor weeping, nor sorrow shall be any more, for the former things are passed away. And He who sat on the Throne said: Behold, I make all things new.

GOSPEL. Luke xix. 1-10. At that time:—Jesus entered and walked through Jericho. And behold, there was a man named Zachæus; who was chief of the publicans, and he was rich: and he sought to see who Jesus was, and he could not on account of the crowd, because he was low of stature. And running before, he climbed up into a sycamore tree, to see Him; for He was about to pass that way. And when Jesus was come to the place, looking up, He saw him, and said to him: Zachæus, make haste and come down: for this day I must remain in thy house. And he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully. And when all saw it, they murmured, saying that He was gone to be a guest with a man who was a sinner. But Zachæus standing, said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, I give to the poor the half of my goods; and if I have wronged any one of anything, I restore fourfold.

Jesus said to him : This day is salvation come to this house ; because he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

POSTCOMMUNION. O God, who out of living and elect stones dost prepare for Thy Majesty an eternal abode : help Thy people as they pray unto Thee ; that as Thy Church advances by bodily extension, so may it ever grow by spiritual increase. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

FOR THE DEAD.

ON THE DAY OF DECEASE OR BURIAL. (See p. 571).

ON THE ANNIVERSARY.

INTROIT as in Mass for the Dead (p. 571).

COLLECT. O God, the Lord of mercies, grant to the souls of Thy servants, whose anniversary we commemorate, a place of refreshment, the happiness of rest, and the clearness of Thy light. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

LESSON. 2 Mach. xii. 43-46. In those days :—The most valiant man Judas, making a gathering, sent twelve thousand drachms of silver to Jerusalem for sacrifice to be offered for the sins of the dead, thinking well and religiously concerning the resurrection. (For if he had not hoped that they who were slain should rise again, it would have seemed superfluous and vain to pray for the dead.) And because he considered that they who had fallen asleep with godliness, had great grace laid up for them. It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins.

GOSPEL. John vi. 37-40. At that time :—Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews : All that the Father giveth Me shall come to Me ; and him that cometh to Me I will not cast out. Because I have come down from heaven, not to do Mine own will, but the will of Him who sent Me. Now this is the will of the Father who sent Me, that of all that He hath given Me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again on the last day. And this is the will of My Father who sent Me : that every one who seeth the Son, and believeth in Him, may have life everlasting ; and I will raise him up on the last day.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that the soul of Thy servant, the anniversary of whose death we now commemorate, being purified by this Sacrifice, may obtain both pardon and eternal rest. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

THE COMMON MASS FOR THE DEAD.

INTROIT as in Mass for the Dead (p. 571).

COLLECT I. O God, who didst raise Thy servants to the dignity of Bishops or Priests in the Apostolic Priesthood : grant, we beseech Thee, that they may be for ever united to the company of the same. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. O God, the bestower of forgiveness and the lover of human salvation : we beseech Thee of thy tender love to grant that the brethren of our congregation, with their relations and benefactors who have passed out of this life, by the intercession of Blessed Mary ever Virgin, and all Thy Saints, may come to the fellowship of eternal bliss.

III. O God, the Creator, etc. (as on All Souls' Day, p. 775).

LESSON. Apoc. xiv. 13. In those days :—I heard a Voice from heaven, saying to me : Write : blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord. Henceforth now, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors ; for their works follow them.

The SEQUENCE Dies Iræ (p. 574) is voluntary in this Mass.

GOSPEL. John vi. 51-55. At that time :—Jesus said to the multitude of the Jews :—I am the living bread, which came down from heaven. If any man eat of this bread he shall live for ever : and the bread which I will give is My flesh for the life of the world. The Jews therefore disputed among themselves, saying : How can this man give us His flesh to eat ? Then Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say unto you : Unless ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, ye shall not have life in you. He who eateth My flesh, and drinketh My blood, hath everlasting life ; and I will raise him up on the last day.*

POSTCOMMUNION I. Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, through Thy loving compassion, which we have implored on behalf of the souls of Thy servants, Bishops or Priests, that by Thy mercy they may eternally enjoy His presence, in whom they have hoped and believed. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. Amen.

II. Grant, we beseech Thee, O Almighty and merciful God, that the souls of our brethren, friends, and benefactors, for whom we have offered this Sacrifice to Thy Majesty, being, by virtue of these Mysteries, purified from all sin, may, through Thy mercy, receive the blessing of perpetual light.

III. Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that our humble prayers in behalf of the souls of Thy servants and handmaids may be profitable for them: so that Thou mayst deliver them from all their sins, and make them partakers of Thy Redemption. Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen.

* NOTE : The Epistles and Gospels of any one Mass for the Dead may be said also at any other of the Masses for the Dead.
